WAUDBY.

This is the name of the new post office established at lot 6, on the 10th Concession, Glenelg, and is named after the maiden name of the wife of the present postmaster Mr Baker. It is certainly a great convenience to a large number who had to travel far before.

About a mile to the west is the church of the Baptist congregation, ministered to by Rev. M. P. Campbell, Mulock, and though not a large body numerically they have abundance of enthusiasm and the result of a portion of it was seen last Thursday in the very successful Garden Party held on the grounds of Mr Baker.

A crowd of several hundreds assembled with a fine sprinkling of older heads among the galaxy of youth and beauty. Rev. Mr Campbell occupied the chair and an excellent program followed his appropriate opening remarks. Addresses were made by Revs. Smith Durham and Graham, Dornoch, Candidate Richardson; J. M. Davis, Euphrasia; L. W. McArdle, Markdale and C. Ranage, of the Review Durham. Some excellent solos were sung by Mr. Cook, with his sister Mrs Love at the organ. Mr. Duncan McLean, Bentinck, a gaye recitation in his usual style, and Charlie Watson, a grandson of the same name in N. Egremont, showed himself at home on a platform. Mrs Campbell sang a self accompanied solo with fine effect, her sweet voice and excellent taste making a fine finale. A general feeling of regret was expressed at Dr. Landerkin's inability to be present owing to a previous engagement, as well as the lamented death of a very dear friend, H. P. O'Connor. Mr J. M. Davis regret took a facetious turn, for he said "he had been informed the genial doctor had donned the old clothes of the Conservative party and he would like to have seen him, for he thought he must be in indispensible condition if he had."

Mr Richardson without doubt made the speech of the evening, pleasantly reviewing the great work done by Baptist missionaries abroad and giving abundant testimony to the eloquence and devotion shown by Baptist divines at home. He related several instances where on his travels in the old land he had enquired for a good preacher to spend a Sunday with and had each time been directed to a Baptist. (Mr. R. is not a Baptist himself.)

The receipts at the game amounted on a small admission fee to $27.50, and the booth had a generous patronage. The admission fee went and visitors to a sumptuous supper showing the Waudby ladies to be skilful cooks and considerate and deft waiters.

Sifton Has Got Them Badly Scared.

Intended for last week.

A few weeks ago it leaked out that the Tory managers were trying to induce Sir Hibbert Tupper to oppose Hon. Clifford Sifton in Brandon, but Sir Hibbert was not prepared to commit political suicide, and gave up a fairly safe seat for the fun of being snowed under by the popular Minister of the Interior; it was therefore announced that there was no necessity to put up a strong man like Tupper "any local man was good enough to beat Sifton."

Of course this fooled no body, the fact was too patent that the job was bigger than Tupper cared to tackle, and now absolute prof of the funk the Torio are in is to hand in the official announcement made by the leader, Sir Charles himself and heralded in scare headlines in the Tory press that no less a person than Hugh John Macdonald the six months premier of Manitoba is to tackle the job. Hugh John is admittedly the stronger man to day in the Tory aggregation, he is to be next leader of the party, for Sir Charles will drop out after the electorate have repeated the verdict of 1896 (and no posted politician on either side honestly expects any thing else) Hugh John has all the prestige of his recent success in the local elections to aid him, and he has not been in power long enough to do any mischief or lose strength. Of course its a desperate chance, but Sifton must be licked if there's any means in heaven or earth to do it. But Hugh John will find that he is up against the real thing this time, and on election night he will realize what it is like to be a cherub all head and wings and no seat.

A PURITY CANDIDATE.

The Conservatives in South Ontario have unanimously chosen Mr. William Smith as their candidate for the commons in the approaching elections and it is generally understood that in the improbable event of his election, of his party's return to power, he will be the next Minister of Agriculture. This is the same Mr. William Smith who, upon his own admission under oath in the recent local election trial, paid out hundreds of dollars for the avowed purpose of buying votes, although he had previously upon oath denied the charge. So particularly outrageous and contemptible was his conduct in the matter, that the presiding judge (Mr. Justice Ferguson) indignantly declared:—"I look upon the evidence of Smith as being a brazen, distinct, strong denial, a denial that I do not believe, I think Mr. Smith's evidence cannot be too strongly condemned. As it bears on the question it is discredited by his admission that he was guilty of this gigantic corruption." Subsequently the same judge added:—"I have some regrets that this large offender, Mr. Smith is not before us. I have nothing to say to him but that his evidence is the most glaring piece of corruption I ever heard of." It is with candidates such as these that the Tory press are going into the election, asking the country to believe that they desire purity of elections and the stamping out of the political corruption.

The receipts at the game amounted on a small admission fee to $27.50, and the booth had a generous patronage. The admission fee went and visitors to a sumptuous supper showing the Waudby ladies to be skilful cooks and considerate and deft waiters.

ADVERTISING PAYS

provided that the advertiser is able to do what he advertises to do and a man is a fool to pay good money for advertising what he is not able to carry out for the public soon find out that such a man is a deception and a fraud. I am not professing to do business for fun or entirely for the other fellow's benefit but I have found during the twenty years that I have been doing business in Hanover and Durham that I can make the most money for my self by doing the very best I can in every instance to save money for my customers. Every customer who once does business with me to his own profit continues to patronize me and gives me, not only his business, but his influence and this accounts for the very large business that I am doing to-day. Farmers are now busy and will not be paying much attention to business affairs while busily engaged on their farms. Some of them, however, will require to borrow money and I wish to say that I am at present lending at five per cent and in some cases at less. I am also paying closer attention than ever before to the collection of old debts and claims placed in my hands will be collected if it is possible by any means in the world to get the money—no charge for my trouble if nothing collected. I also buy old notes. I have had great success in settling up and arranging business entanglements and difficulties and in making settlements with creditors and any such business placed in my hands will be faithfully attended to the profit, I think, of them who deal with me. I have always a number of farms in hand which I am able to sell at very low figures and on very easy terms. After so long a residence in this locality I have formed a connection with all the leading Loan Companies and when they have farms in hand for sale they are placed in my hands and I am thus always in a position to offer bargains. I have always on hand farms and other properties belonging to myself which I am always ready either to sell or exchange for other property. Just now I happen to have a splendid 100 acre farm and a very fine 64 acre farm, both well situated in Bentinck and each having good buildings. I will sell them or trade them. I also offer at a sacrifice Lot 28, Con. 2, W. G. R., Bentinck, 100 acres, belonging to a man who has gone out west and is bound to sell at some price. I place insurances in good companies at lower rates and in fact attend to all kinds of financial business. My rule continues to be "Always prompt—never negligent."
