attend 1

end for

too too

Rev. Dr. Talmage Invites the World to Look to the Central One and Find Salvation.

was the acene of

one on th

on the left

Just out

ascending.

tion. W

Some for

malefactor

they will

Three

right plec

one on hands :

middle,

poison.

aloes,

of love.

orange :

make st

orchard

a look at

Its victil

than his

and hau

around

one in

could ge

within middle s

him wit

he wish

ground

envies

nalls

out the wretch!

and yet

that Vo

his bedi

and cri

What h

arouse

Nothing

world !

philantl

who co

their s

right he

the unt

"Back

will no

will di

for me

war bi

and th

there

the fig

dying

lessnes

that tr

have

for all

tenanc

a gha:

hour.

ness!

on the world

"Here

a WI

Three

fall.

after

prepa

maste

the b breas

Oh.

that

years

and

Oh,

disco

Tha

beam

is p

Whe

spiri

down

shall

cross

facti

all (

spiri

this

and

thes

hea'

partui

Look

tural

cause

you!"

eress.

Just 10

Three IT

fruit-the

text is Lu

topic of this discourse, wich Dr. to the left hand cross. Pass clear to topic of this discourse, with Dr. to the left hand cross. Pass clear to at the one and found it yielded poison; The true bread. Place:

Talmage sends from the quaint Bava- the other side. That victim also twists we stood at the other and found it yielded poison; II. Topic: The true bread. Place:

comes the abode of contentment. The pillow of the malefactor, soaked in blood, becomes like the crimson upholstery of a king's couch. When the body became still and the surgeons feeling the pulse said one to another, "He is dead," the hast mark of pain had gone from his face. Peace hed smoothed his forehead. Peace closed his eyes. Peace closed his in paradise." topic of this discourse, with the other side. That victim also twists rian town, but the theme which inspired the painters awakens in the great preacher thoughts of the reducing the other side. That victim also twists the other and found it yielded poison; we stood at the other and found it yielded poison; the other side. That victim also twists we stood at the other and found it yielded poison; we stood at the other and found it yielded poison; the other side. That victim also twists we stood at the other and found it yielded poison; we stood at the other and found it yielded poison; the other side. The true bread. Place: The true bread of the other side. The other side of the other and found it yielded poison; we stood at the other and found it yielded poison; the other side. The true bread. Place: The true bread of the foundation of the scale of the other side. The true bread of the foundation of the scale of the other side. The foundation of the scale of the painters awakens in the scale of the painters awakens in the scale of the scal

INTERNATIONAL LESSON NO. XIV first. Occasionally He reached out SEPTEMBER 30, 1900.

Review.-Matt. 16; 21-26; John 10; 7-11.

Summary-Lesson I. Topic: Prayer lips. Now you see why there were and faith. Place: On the sea of Gali- faith and with a spirit of persevertwo transverse pieces on the cross, lee. The five thousand had just been ance. It was for another, and thus for it has become a ladder into the fed; Jesus sent the disciples across it brought two to Christ instead skies. That dying head is easy the sea towards Capernaum; sent of one. which has under it the promise, the multitude away; went alone to I have shown you the right hand (iples walking on the sea; Peter walks stricted, principally, to the Jews. In order to leave them without ex. cuse, salvation was offered to them beyond, in order, gradually, to break up the old exclusiveness, and to show that His gospel was for the It was an humble, earnest, direct, comprehensive request, made in great

IV. The Great Confession. "Thou "This day thou shalt be with me pray; between three and six o'clock art the Christ." We are to confess in the morning he came to the dis- Christ before men as "the ground of paintings in the picture galleries of Jesus the God.

Munich seem to have suggested the Here from the right hand cross I go come to the middle cross. We stood for help; Jesus caught him; rebukes come to the middle cross.

to pray. Communion with God imprint a glory on the very tenance. Christ Transfigured, veil, that is to say, his fiesh," me partly transparent for ent, and revealed a gleam v, like a sunbeam through a m a clouded sky. So could He als have walked among men; and brief flash shows us His continvoluntary humiliation.

Christ's Kingdom. Illustrated little child in the midst. The | 53c to 53%c. ance is by conversion-a thorlife. Promotion depends upon the one load of straw at $11. ility of the subject. Christ's care rd them. The one who causes goose, 200 bushels at 69c. shed. Christ demands separation | to 48 1-2c. a cherished sins. The hand, foot, refer to the pleasing sin, the 29 1-2c. we love. It must be renounced. I. Peter's question. The rabbis ght the people never to forgive per ton. e than three times. Peter was en times. Christ's answer. The e spirit of the gospel is quickly olded when Jesus says, "Until enty times seven." There is to be Butchers cattle, picked. limit to our forgiving. Our duty strated. We have the parable of Butchers' common, per cwt unjust servant.

III. A blind man. Palestine was Feeders, short-keep ed with them. The world is full of se morally blind. They have eyes, | Milch cows, each they see not. A discussion. The | Calves, per head ... ciples seem to be in error about blindness being the result of Lambs, each ... ne particular sin.

this is not a parable, but more Hogs, heavy, fat, per cwt..... operly an allegory. 2. The destroy- Hogs, corn fed ; enemy. The false prophets and Sows crupt leaders were strangers - Stags..... elings who were robbing the peoand allowing the wolf to catch d scatter them. 3. Christ the v and left the suffering man to die | plant, basket, 20c to 25c; sweet poone, but the hated Samaritan cared tatoes, barrel, $4 to $4.50; basket, r him. 3. The law of loves Go, and | 50c. thou likewise. The gospel law is a niversal law of love, ovetousness. Let us take heed 2, A opinion that with a crop of 300,000,arable. Shows the folly of trusting to | 000 bushels, and with stocks of old he things of this world. 3. An applica- wheat amounting to 48,000,000 to ion. In our extreme anxiety to gain 80,000,000 bushels, France will not imhis world's goods we may lose heaven. port any foreign wheat worth men-XIII 1. The duty of watchfulness. tioning. This view is certainly the one esus says, "Watch and pray, that ye taken by the markets in France, the nter not into temptation.

Mangled Brakeman's First Aid Knowledge Useful.

Port Jarvis, N. Y. Report.-To his remarkable pluck, coupled with his done in rendering first aid to the in- | say: The market is showing an imjured, William L. Eaton, a brakeman provement for red fruit. Gravensteins, on the New York division of the Erie | 12s 6d to 16s 6d.

kailroad, probably owes his life.

just above the ankle. Realizing his position, Eaton lay from the track to the bank, out of as our standard varieties are a good danger from other trains. The severed sample by the time they begin to arleg was bleeding freely, and he knew rive out freely, they will meet with that unless the flow were promptly a good reception. stopped he would die before assistance could reach him. In his pocket was a large red handthem around the stump. With a jackknife he twisted the bandage until it became so tight that the bleeding was high and firm.

As the thermometer was below 50, attention of C. S. Duryea, the firemar Duryea spoke to the engine drive The people were the forms where Cassidy, the conductor, made has been fair. There is more inthe benefits they received. Those the train received by the

The Week,

Leading Wheat Markets.

Following are the	closing qu	otations
at important whe	at centres	to-day.
	Cash.	Dec.
New York	$000 $	0 85 5-8
Milwaukee	0.81	0 00
St. Louis	0.00	0795-8
Toledo	0.82	0845-8
Detroit, red	0 80 3-4	0 83 3-4
Detroit, white	0783-4
Duluth, No. 1 Northern	0 83 5-8	0 82 7-8
Duluth, No. 1	0 85 5-8
Minneapolis, No. 1 Northern	0811-8	0 80 1-8
Minneapolis, No. 1	0.83 1-8

Toronto Farmers' Market. Wheat-500 bushels of white fall wheat sold %c higher at 69c to 70c; two loads of spring %e to 1%e higher at 68%c to 69%c, and two loads of goose steady at 67c. Barley-2,500 bushels sold at 3 higher at 44%c to 47c. Oats-1,200 bushels sold unchanged at 29%c to 30c for new. *Rye-300 bushels sold steady at Hay and Straw-Fifteen loads of and radical change of heart hay sold steady at $13 to $14, and Wheat-900 bushels sold as fol-His little ones. Angels who dwell | lows: White, 500 bushels at 70 1-2c; he immediate presence of God red, 200 bushels at 70c to 70 1-2c; n to stumble shall be severely Barley-2,500 bushels sold at 46c Oats-700 bushels sold at 29c to

Rye-200 bushels sold at 53 1-2c. Hay-25 loads sold at $11 to $13

Toronto Live Stock Market. ttle nearer the gospel idea when | Export cattle, choice, per cwt. $4 85 to $5 00 asked if He should forgive until | Export cattle, light, per cwt ... 4 25 to 4 50 Export bulls, heavy, per cwt.. 4 12; to 4 2 Export bulls, light, per cwt.... 3 12; to 3 35 Loads good butchers and Butchers' cattle, good Butchers' medium, mixed Sheep, export ewes, per cwt. . . Sheep, butchers', each. X. 1. The parable. Strictly speak- | Hogs, choice, per cwt...... Hogs, light, per cwt.....

Toronto Fruit Market.

Receipts of fruit at the market, Es or. Christ is the way to God. 4. planade and Scott streets, to-day were rist the Good Shepherd. He knows, larger and demand fair. There was lls, leads, cares for, gives his life a slight drag to the market, but stocks were fairly well cleared out. K. 1. The Seventy appointed. The Prices were steady. We quote: Pears. tenty were Christ's forerunners, 10c to 20c per basket, barrel $1 to sus was making a final effort to $2; tomatoes, 10c to 15c per basach and save the common people, 2. ket; apples, 10c to 20c per basket; leir commission given. They were (1) apples, cheize, per barrel, 50s to $1; carry peace, (2) heal the sick, (3) green corn, 3c to 7c per dozen; poeach the gospel of the kingdom, and tatoes, 30c to 35c per bushel; peaches,) warn those who rejected them and 200 to 40c per basket; Crawford elr message. 3. Their joy on return- peaches, 50e to 75c per basket; plums, g. They had cause for rejoicing. They | 25c to 60c; muskmelons, 12%c to 15c ere, however, warned against rejoic- per basket, and 75c to $1 a barrel; XI. The way to gain life-By getting berries, 70c to 90c per basket; grapes, heart filled with love (Rom. v. 5) and small basket, 12%c to 200; Moore's Floving God and our neighbors, 2, A | early, 12%c to 200; Niagaras, 12%c trable. Those who should have been to 20c; red grapes, 15c to 25c; baneighbors to the one in distress passed anas. $1.25 to $2 per bunch; egg

Foreign Wheat Crops. Regarding the French wheat crop, XII. A warning. Jesus warns against | Beerbohm says: "We remain of the > price of home-grown wheat being much below an importing level." The Russian wheat crop promises to be an average one of 260,000,000 bushels, as against last year's estimated crop of 450,000,000. This last is generally discredited by most authorities, who place it at about 375,-000,000 bushels.

The world's wheat crop harvested is now placed at quite a full average one, but from 80,000,000 to 125,000;-000 bushels less than last year's crop of 2,600,000,000 bushels.

Liverpool Apple Market. Messrs, Woodall & Co., of Liverpool,

In a recent letter Woodall & Co. Easton, who lives in Matamoras, Pa., write: "Our country is full of damopposite Port Jervis, on the Delaware | sons and other stone fruit, and Covent River, was employed on an eastbound Garden people are declining to receive extra freight train Monday night. it is its enormous quantities, as it is When near Ramsey's he fell from a not real zing freight and sale expenses. box car to the track, and the car This also applies to our apples, alwheels, passing over his leg, cut it off though in a less degree, but all this American apples for a while." As stated, this, of course, is only Then by a supreme effort he crawled temporary, and I have no doubt that Bradstreet's on Trade.

The more seasonable autumn wear ther brought in numerous sorting kerchief. Tearing this into strips was the work of a moment, and he bound trade this week. The grocery trade is a little more active. Hardware is quiet. Dairy products are still

There was less activity in whole sale trade circles in Toronto this flag the next eastbound train. This week. The sorting trade has been was fast freight No. 81. By signalling showing some improvement. More with blazing sticks he attracted the activity is expected later in the ready large lots of damaged fruit are being forced on the markets.

Supplement to Durham REVIEW

Vol. XXII, No. 39.

ANOTHER INTERESTING LETTER FROM REV. JAS. FARQUHARSON.

Ground-A Strange Burial

ON A HOLIDAY JAUNT.

in company with two cousins who could walls rise up clean as the day they were of the bay is "Balmy Beach", a pleastell us the name of every farm and built, as if the hard granite bade de- ant summer resort created by the enevery hill on the way, and something fiance to the ravages of time. Beauti- terprise of John H. McLaughlan. By of the history of the people who have ful is the situation of the Castle. In its judicious advertising it has become a dwelt there, we went around the shoul- front winds the Dee, with its banks rendesvous for parties of all kinds and der of Cragendarroch, up the vailey of covered with dark fir and silvery birch. being reached by steamer Mazeppa, the Dee for nearly two miles, crossed Away out further are the steep hills owned by the said John H., is proving a Gayin's murmuring stream and started which raise their heather-covered sides "going concern." Bought over a year upwards into narrow Glenairn. A row and crest to shut in the valley on the ago for $375 the C. P. R. it is reported of small farms, growing eyer smaller as north. Right behind the Castle are the offer $30,000 for the whole outfit, and we ascended, skirted the Galvin on foothills of Byron's "Dark Lochnagar," purpose, if secured building a big toureither side, while high hills covered in the summit of which rises upwards of ist's hotel. the lower stretches with beautiful birch 4,000 feet above the level of the sea. The county town has not a few of old trees. But higher up all vegetation These hills speak of strength greater Durhamites in its bounds and all seem gave place to a little grass and much than that of kings-the strength of Him prospering. A drive through the resiheather rose from the upper end of the who, at first, made the hills and still dential part shows excellent taste (and fields and enclosed the valley. A real claims them as his own. These regions a full purse) in many of the mansions, highland glen is Glenairn. About eight do speak of man's deeds, of his strength and though a few of its streets would miles from our starting point we stop- -aye, and more of his weakness, for it not delight the heart of Good Roads ped. Thence we looked across the small, is so often the ruins of his fortresses Campbell, the most of them are excelwinding river and up the brae to the that tell the traveller his story. But lent, house in which Mrs. Farquharson's still more do man's story, as handed father was born, but it was not of him down in legend form, as written in or his forefathers I thought as I looked books, and these magnificent hills, deseen the house, once before my leet had who bears, not from human story, from I had looked upon the dead—from yonThe Lord God Omnipotent reigneth?"

Romances" and says among many good things: "Fortunate is the person solemn funeral procession in which not Everywhere on the roads one treads whose home is by the waters of the hearse nor carriage, nor waggon, car- on historic ground. On them the High- great bay, and fortunate also is that ried the dead, but men. The road, in- land slogan has often been heard, one who can spend his summer vacadeed, was scarcely fit for wheeled con- Over them Highland clans have often tion among its islands, or, by means of veyances. Silently the procession marched to war. Sometimes, let us canoe, sail-boat or house-boat, is able to passed along through the gien's stern hope, the sword was justly drawn; explore its lovely channels, bays and wintry mood, save that now and again sometimes clansmen donned the tartan out-of-the-way nooks." the man who walked ahead looked and marched to the pipers' strains with around and called out "Change!" Then bosoms heaving with patriotic fervour. four men stepped out of the procession But alas often the clan was gathered and relieved the four who carried the and the sword drawn that a neighbor's dead, these falling back to the rear of cattle might be plundered, or the cattle the procession, to again work their way of the lowlander seized. Westward of gradually towards the front, once more Balmoral stands Cairn na Quheen, the ameten, once the home of MacDonalds, the Cairn. Cairn na Quheen, Slavonica, ancestors of Mrs. Farquharson, thus became the battle cry of the clan Through the house in which they had —the Cairn of remembrance and the ing the straw up in great style. lived we were permitted, through the blessed moor. gate declare to every passer-by that membrances for all, this spot is reserved for the dust of those who already lie there? We climbed the dyke and read the epitaphs, but, with our little knowledge of those laid to rest within, the epitaphs conveyed NOTES OF A TRIP THROUGH GREY. claim on that apartment. little information to us. It is the strangest burying place I have ever seen but it joins with all the crowded his home in Glen Clunie. For sixteen gave us the movable wrench, known miles our course was westward along the valley of the Dee. Here we were by an unfortunate similarity of name. between flows the River Dee. Its clear river. year. More recently it was the High- ply between its extremities.

land home of the Prince of Wales. A Much of the marshy land is already little further west are passed the Parish Teclaimed and large elevators and in-Church of Crathie, in Which Her Ma- dustrial establishments thereon give jesty worships, a church recently built, evidence of the commercial importance to no small extent through the Queen's of this largest of Canadian towns on the liberality, and the Free Church of the Upper Lakes. Its business establish-In the Valley of the Dee-On Historic parish, erected at first on the other side ments, its hostelnes, its fine streets, &c. of the river near Abergeldie Castle. A show that it is also the centre of a large little further on, through openings in country trade, while its large schools beautiful woods which are, in places, so and churches give evidence that the thick that not a glimpse of what is be- intellectual and religious life of its citi-Auchallater, Braemar, July 30th, youd ever steals through, Balmoral zens are not neglected, 1900. One day, starting from Ballater Castle is seen. Its almost white granite A few miles out on the Sarawak side upon the house. Once before I had clare the everlasting glory of our Lord Saturday Night" in its issue of trod the narrow gien. In yonder house everlasting hills, the enduring message, gian Bay, its History. Character and was that day laid to rest by the mur- went forth into battle every clansman fa one is expected soon.

to look. But the graveyard in which the residence of the chief of the Far- times the soil will be burned for miles the dead MacDonalds lie had even more the residence of the chief of the Far- times the soil will be burned for miles attraction for me that the house which quharsons, is seen, beautiful in itself around, had been the family home. The grave-yard is surrounded by a stone dyke Then Braemar Castle and Braemar it-Mr. Frook, he got water at a depth of 60 through which no gate, no fence gap, self were reached and passed. Two offers entrance. He who would see miles further, at Anchallater, we found dry season will but in a within this enclosure must climb up a most hearty welcome. There we dry season will soon pay for itself. some other way. Does the wall without have been for a week. With kind re- Mr. C. Lamont is completing his barn

> I am, etc., JAMES FARQUHARSON.

Intended for last week. graveyards of this old land, with all the Our rambles bring us at last to the families last week. monuments of the past in declaring "County Town." situated at the head of that all men are mortal, that in the Owen's "Sound," using the word in its case of every man yery soon shall geographical sense, now completely "earth" be returned "to earth and dust obscured for we speak of Owen Sound "Bay." And Mr. Owen, good gentle- Elders of the Latter Day Saints church On Sabbath, 22nd inst., after service man, whose name lives in the compound visited the Valley and no doubt will hold at Ballater, we started with another word, is almost as completely forgotten a series of revivals before long. cousin who had come to the church, for as Mr. Moncky whose inventive genius upon wider, freer space than in Glen- The bay, for "sound" can not be corairn, yet it is narrow enough. The rectly applied to it, is 12 to 15 miles long halls on either side of the river rise to a and ends up in the finely sheltered. Mr Rachardson, Conservative Candidate height of from 1,600 to 2,050 feet above though narrow harbor, into which flows for the Commons, was around here roping the sea level. In the streach of lowland the insignificant stream, the Sydenham in some of the Conservative Patrons of waters, through which, at the deepest On the banks of this stream and on A couple of lads from this part are great stones in their course. Beautiful is fast filling up the flat land between to kill around that district, farm houses are ever in sight, and often the harbor and the cliffs on each side. dwellings more pretentious than ever It is never likely to climb the cliffs. exthe passerby. Abergeldie Castle soon growth must take place along the bay few broken ribs and a cut foot, watch appears to the south of the Dee. Here on both sides, and in the days not far yourhead next time Dan. Queen, spent the summer for many a ficent street car line may be expected to has the stone house all to himself now.

Durham, September 27, 1900

We close our rambling remarks by a short quotation from a writer in "Tor-Sep. 15. He is describing "The Geo.

Balsam Valley.

Intended for last week.

We have very fine weather this fall and to take their turn as bearers of the dead. Cairn of remembrance, the rallying everybody is crying for ram, all the wells A grand-aunt, the last of her family, point of the Farquharsons. As they are nearly try in this vicinity and a water muring Gairn, near where its waters laid a stone beside the Cairn; every The ham of threshers are on both sides join with, and swell, those of the Dee, man who returned took away a stone, of the Walley. The McLean Bro, are and the remaining stones, representing busy scouring out the South Line, Glenelg, But we turned our steps toward those who fell in battle, were built into while Vint Hill and Eccles are busy burning cordwood around Boothville and pile-

Bush fires are doing a series of damage at present and will have a good commodlous barn when done, they sa" that harrow tooth was in the road. James McDonald has built an addition to his house and Pete is going to have a Mr. Maleolm McGillvary of Toronto.

was visiting at J. McDonald's and other

The McDonald family accompanied by Mr and Mrs D, McIntyre, visited Melbourne Hall last week.

Mr D. McIntyre is getting some better but is not able to work yet. He is taking in the Great Northern Exhibition Collingwood this week and will remain a while to regain his strength.

this district.

pond, you can see the stony, gravelly the sides of the harbor is built the town particularly interested round Dromore bed, ever flow murmuringly among the of Owen Sound which by its expansion church and are often seen primed up fit the Duchess of Kent, the mother of the distant when it ranks as acity, a magni- What we know and hear? That Charlie and through every energy of my soul. with yours." Living, I will preach it; dying, I will Forthwith the left hand cross be- inventions-the arch.

face thy vell of darkness. Tell me, ye | ed cross. The crosses were only two | forth and same lepers who were cleansed, ye dead who or three yards apart. It did not Jesus. were raised, is he the Son of God? take long for Christ to hear. Christ Aye, aye, responds the universe. The might have turned away and said: And yet on that miserable maleractors if how many shall be wrecked for all eternity! That little "if" has enough venom in its sting to cause the death of the soul. No "if" about it. Ecce Deus! I feel it thorough every muscle of the body, and through every muscle of the body, and through every faculty of my mind, and the pretty family to Christ, and the pretty family to Christ, and the pretty family to Christ,

First Known to the Chinese.

One of the greatest Chinese discovporal betterment rather than out of poral betterment rather than out of poral betterment rather than out of leg was amputated. He may live.

In the benefits they received. Those that a comfortable as possible that the train reached Paterson, where his country. Jobbers are busy filling or country. Jobbers are busy filling or country. Jobbers are busy filling or country. the redeemed celebrate it; the angels rise on their thrones to announce it. And yet on that miserable malefactor's And yet on that miserable malefactor's fift' how many shall be wrecked for the many shall be wrecked

III. 1. In heathen borders. Our it ain't my doin's."-Philadelphia Press. credits are being closely scrutinized.