ABSOLUTELY UNSHRINKABLE. HADIFAX. Having sold your Standfield's Unshrinkable for two years past I have no hesitancy in saying I believe it the best heavy underwear in the world. It not only retains its elasticity and softness—it is pleasant to the wearer—but after the severest tests has proved Absolutely Unshrinkable. It is a pleasure for me to recommend Standfield's to anyone wishing a healthy and durable garment. Signed W. J. KENNEDY, Clothier.

ECHOES OF SOUTH GREY SHOW.

The prize for 2 yr-old bull in Thorncroft Durham Cattle should go to "Joseph" not "John" Sharp as last week's papers had it. Thos. Smith's robes, especially his fine soft horse robe, came in for much praise. The new process of tanning is a great success, and if a horse will die his hide should be sent to T. Smith's.

We omitted to mention the presence of the band, which added greatly to the day's pleasure.

DISASTROUS FIRE. Tuesday afternoon last about 4 o'clock the fine large stock barn of Mr. Thomas Caldwell, Orchardville, was completely destroyed by fire from an unknown cause. The crop of the tenant Mr. Wm. Brown is a total loss as we understand there is no insurance. Mr. Caldwell is in doubt about his insurance as that was attended to by his brother, who is now in the North West and down with typhoid fever. The barn of Mr. Calvert about 80 rods away, took fire from the other and was also consumed. Nearly everyone was absent at Holstein Show and firefighters were scarce. Great sympathy is felt for the proprietors in their heavy loss.

SERIOUSLY ILL.—On Sunday last Mrs. R. Watson, Sr., Normanby, was seized with a stroke of paralysis and her life was despaired of. Dr. Gun was called in and at latest accounts she is recovering. We hope to hear of her complete recovery. Election rumors are in the air down south. Reeve Dickson we hear is to enter the contest for the commission No. 4 District, and the vacant reeve ship is being urged by many on Councillor D. McQueen, we don't know who his opponent may be, but he will need to be a strong one to beat him. Mr. W. L. Dixon, has resigned his School in Egremont, and the trustees at once engaged Mr. McDonald for the vacancy. The trustees want a "man behind the desk" and they keep good men too. Flesherston and Hanover shows are being held to-day, Wednesday. Let no one forget Priceville show on Thursday and Friday of next week.

PERSONAL MENTION. Miss Hazel McGregor visited friends in Palmerston recently. Miss Flo Richardson, Flesherston is a guest at Mr. Chas. Brown's. Miss Minnie Murdoch, Allan Park, visited at J. L. Brown's last week. Mr. Herbert Jenkins, of Owen Sound, visited at Mr. Wm. Johnston's fair day. Mr. Arch. Brown, of Owen Sound, is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Brown. Mr. Arthur Laidlaw left Monday to continue his studies at the School of Practical Science. Mr. Pegler, Toronto, visited his aunt Mrs. T. Whelan, and other friends in Glenelg last week. Mrs. Laidlaw sr., Upper Town went to Detroit last Thursday to visit her son and daughter there. Miss Maria Mockler returned Friday from a month's visit in Barrie at Mr and Mrs. C. Sheppard's. A. who has been visiting with his sister Mrs. James Ireland returned to Toronto Monday. Rev. Mr. Farquharson left Wednesday morning for Toronto, staying awhile in Guelph at the big C. E. Convention. He is now employed on a railway run out of Hamilton. Mr. John Stewart, of Welbeck, accompanied by his niece Miss Flow McCormack, left Wednesday to visit friends in Port Elgin and Paisley. Mrs. Davidson sr. and Miss Maggie Grant left last week on the excursion for Detroit. Miss Farquharson and little Jamie also left on Saturday for a few weeks round her old home. Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Firth and granddaughter, Waneta, left this morning for Brantford. Wm. F's health being improved sufficient to warrant his removal to his son's. Sorry to lose them, but hope the change may prove a good one. Mr. C. G. Watson, son of Mr. Jno. Watson, Proton Station has been employed for some years with the large grocery firm of Elliott & Marr, London. We were pleased to hear incidentally that he is to be promoted to the position of head-booker to the firm.

A WISE GRANT.—At the regular meeting of the Town Council on Monday last, a grant of $50 was made to the Fire-Brigade as an acknowledgment of faithful services. The second storey of the McIntyre block is now shaping itself into imposing forms of beauty and utility. The day of the removal of the street store will be like unveiling a statue. C. McArthur has moved south to the old McKechnie store, S. F. Morlock is remodeling his new property and moving west to-day. C. L. Grant is preparing to move east to make room for Mr. Parker who moves south, and all are too busy to change ads. But look out shortly!

The meanest thing to be said about a girl is that she did most of the courting before she got married.

STEER ASTRAY

Came to the premises of the undersigned Lot 4, con. 15, Egremont, about the end of July, a small 2 yr-old steer, owner is requested to prove property, pay expenses and take it away. John Adams, Murdoch, Sep. 25th, 1900.

THE MILLINERY DISPLAY.

Among the forcible reminders of the passing seasons not the least is the semi-annual recurrence of Millinery openings. Just how it has come about that a special starting day or time for ladies' headgear has been established we do not know, for we are not aware that any other part of feminine or masculine attire gets a similar send off at any particular season. This general agreement to begin at one time is the more surprising when we consider the diversity shown in the head coverings themselves, for, though there are certain great families of hats related to each other by some common feature, seldom, if ever, are two hats seen exactly alike in shape, color, or trimming.

Perhaps this is the secret of the special opening day, when care is required to select among the complex and will draw the face, the complexion, &c., and still have something distinctive. The realms of nature have been ransacked for forms of beauty and flashes of color. The bird world and flower world especially have contributed to the Milliner's art and women's taste and skill have done the rest.

Our local Milliners are well to the front as usual with this display. On stepping in to the fine rooms of IRELAND & CO. we found Miss Dick again in charge, with a room, prettily arranged and draped with the hand and eye of an artist. She had had a rush of business and a clearance of hats entirely satisfactory. But still there are lots to choose from and we append a description of a few.

A notable change this year is from high effects to what is low and broad, and even in feathers drooping. Trimming is very often under the brim rather than above it, and a responsive thrill to the military activity of the past year is seen in Baden Powell and Stetson shapes. Volunteer hats, &c., though we are rather surprised that Kharki is not more in evidence as a color.

One elaborate model is made of black mirror velvet, draped crown, clasped with one large steel buckle, brim of black tuck velvet and turned chiffon facing and a stylish bow of black ribbon velvet at back.

Another picture hat that will be exceedingly popular this winter will be the double brim bent up at left side and filled out with two drooping Amazon plumes.

Another very attractive article is a large grey mirror velvet toque, brim draped with handsome chenille, white Ospreys and steel buckles, draped crown of grey mirror velvet.

Is on hand as usual, or rather more than usual, with a larger stock than ever before and meeting with her usual success, which is saving a great deal. S. Scott's store, above which is to be found Miss C's rooms, radiant with all the latest forms of beauty and full supplies of all the accessories necessary to make more. From a hurried visit we culled a few notes of striking hats, though the difficulty is in knowing which to choose.

Our eye was first taken with a turban, mink rim, large crush crown of yellow silk covered with Battenburg lace with delicate white ospreys rising from side. It is finished with mink tails and was being much admired.

A Johannesburg hat of black silk velvet has a puffing of chiffon on edge of a wavy rim. Underneath the brim folds of white chiffon are finished with folds of velvet. A high side band is finished with loops of velvet ribbon and rhinestone pin. It has a large chenille crown, two large black tips falling gracefully on left side. A large pomp of black chiffon at left corner of front and at right side bows of velvet ribbon complete a delightful "creation."

One is sure to notice a Misses flop hat, caught up at left corner of back and trimmed underneath with large rosette of red stitched silk trimmed in white and grey wings spring from bows in front and fall to the back. Velvet ribbon knotted round bow in front and brought over the brim to the back. The band is caught with a buckle.

A brown velvet hat divided in front and flared off the face and faced with grebe was our favorite. Springing from the division is a large ostrich feather of shaded yellow, trimmed on top with velvet faced with yellow silk and stitching and caught with a realistic gold claw.

An all black hat has for a prominent feature 3 large ostrich plumes two falling over left side, the other falling gracefully over the hair at the back. It is trimmed in front with large knots of taffeta silk with red stitching. On the side band are beautiful knots of rose colored pan velvet.

S. F. MORLOCK. Owing to delay in getting into his new store Mr. M. has deferred his opening until Friday and Saturday of this week. Although the crush will be great the energy of Miss Bowes and staff will be quarters make an attractive display of which we will have more to say next week.

Having sold my farm, all Horses-Stock, Yoke Steers broke, and Implements must be sold at once. Come and see them. A. H. Jackson, Rocky Saugeon.
