THE TEMPLE OF GOD IS A SECURE HIDING FLACE

Extermination of Righteousness an Impossibility---Helpful Lessons From a Biblical Abduction Story.

Washington Report-In this discourse on a neglected incident of the Bible, Dr. Talmage draws some comforting lessons and shows that all around us are royal natures that we may help deliver. The text is II Kings, xi., 2, 3: "Jehosheba, the daughter of Joash, the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons, which were slain, and they hid him, even him and his nurse, in the bedchamber from Athaliah, so that he was not slain. > Bradstreet's on Trade. The mild, open weather has kept trade backward at Montreal this week in lines which usually show activity at this season. The volume of trade, however, has been as large as at any time in previous years, and increased sales are looked for with the first drop in the temperature. Some good sized lots of wool have been bought here at 16c., which is a centor two less than was generally asked by holders previous to this week. Live hogs as well as dressed hogs are lower and some lines of hog product are a been an active demand for investment securities, and call loans are in better demand and rather firmer. Country remittances are fair for this season. Trade at London has been fairly active for this season. The greatest activity in any of the coast industries shown at present is in lumber. There is a report to the effect that the British Admiralty, which has been buying the United States, will in future take that amount from the British Columbia markets. At Hamilton this week some large lots of fall and winter goods have been

id. It is Joash, the God worshipping reformer. It is Joash, the friend of God. It is Joash, the demoraliser of Baalitish idolatry. Rock him tender-by. Nurse him gently. Athal-
