SWEAT BOX AND STAKE.

They are Kindred Institutions and Against Justice.

In spite of all the boasting about civil rights, habeas corpus, and trial by jury, the country seems to be drifting back toward the day when the rack, the thumbscrew and the ordeal by fire or personal combat were part of the system of justice. Out in Colorado, a negro boy is susthe neighborhood where the crime was committed are thoroughly aroused, the miserable boy, with bloodbrain, is sent away by train to meet a gang of infuriated lynchers.

Perhaps the boy merits death, if awarded 'For Valor.' death, the punishment of barbarian days, is a fit explation of any crime, but it would seem that the majesty of the law has been outraged as much by the men who were engaged in enforcing it, as by the young murderer. It is time to abandon the sweat box method of extorting confessions from suspected criminals, as the thumbscrew and other tortures were abandoned long ago. A government our mothers. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills increase the supply and the richness of the blood, and in this way cure physical and functional weaknesses. A PLEA FOR LONG SKIRTS. An Argument for Beauty No Matter

About Health. While radical dress reform leads womankind nearer and nearer to the possession of the clothes of our fathers, let one faint voice in the land be heard in favor of the skirts of science, the dress of women should be a grim demonstration of hygiene. A congress of doctors of all nations assembled in Rome has figured to a dot the number of deadly bacilli possible to be gathered to the square inch of a woman's train. In Boston, the Board of Health has formally prescribed short skirts for women school teachers. The warnings of science not lightly to be taken.

But what of woman's mission to be lovely? Does this no longer enter into reckonings of the utilities of the sex? A short-skirted woman on the street, except in a deluge of rain, is a blow to one's ideals. The older the woman the greater the blow. "Verin Useless Experiments to Restore | ize and demoralize us."
