Marshall—Marshall

Last Wednesday a large number of guests assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Marshall, 3rd Con. Normanby, the occasion being the marriage of their daughter Jessie to an industrious and respected young man and neighbor on the adjoining farm, Mr. David Marshall. In addition to friends and neighbors near by there were present guests from Durham, Dromore, Craighurst, Arthur, Bentinck, &c. numbering in all over one hundred.

Promptly at four o'clock the bride entered the parlor accompanied by her father, the wedding march being played by her cousin Miss Mary Marshall, of Durham. The bride looking charming in a very pretty dress of Khaki-colored cloth, with white silk and pearl trimming. The bridesmaid, a cousin, Miss Ella Gadd, was becomingly attired in a dark brown serge, white silk and pearl trimming also, and each had pretty sprays of flowers in their hair. The ceremony over and the vows pronounced that made them man and wife, congratulations followed, and subsequently the company sat down to a sumptuous supper and ample justice was done to the viands including an elegant 4-storey wedding cake, which was prettily decorated with flowers.

The evening was very pleasantly spent with song, music, games and a little of the "light fantastic," and the company separated in the "wee sma hours," wishing host and hostess, bride and groom all the good wishes possible. The REVIEW extends hearty good wishes to our two one-time pupils on this happy consummation of their early loves.

The following is the list of presents: Preserve dishes with seryers; 1 dozen silver tea spoons; silver butter dish; parlor lamp; 2 pair of china cups and saucers, table cloth, pair of towels; Bible and Book of Praise; bed spread, water jug, (China); 1 dozen china bread and butter plates, photo album; set toilet mats; 1 dozen tea knives; pair towels; 1 dozen table napkins; sideboard drape; quilt; pair cretonne window curtains, with fringe; 8 day clock; 3 sets rons; sideboard drape; 2 butter dishes; two fancy cups and saucers; 2 china porridge sets; teapot; 1 dozen tumblers; 1 dozen egg cups; large platter; spice box; set silver knives; big spoon and masher; 5 gal. cold oil can; tablecloth; comb brush, salt and pepper stand; 1 dozen silver tea spoons; crystal water jug; 2 lamps; 4 fancy plates; 2 silver pickle dishes; 2 silver teapots; butter dish (glass); glass fruit holder; glass cake stand; 2 sets glass; sideboard drape; 2 framed pictures; dresser drape; 2 pair towels; table cloth linen; table cloth chenille; paper rack; sofa; two rocking chairs.

EDGE HILL.

Intended for last week.

Quite a number of the people around here are complaining of the La Grippe. Hardly a family escapes from having it. Hope soon to hear of them all recovering.

Mr. Joseph Firth intends having his sale of farm stock and implements on Friday of this week.

Sorry to hear of Miss Amy Staples being under the doctor's care for the last month. Hope she will soon be able to be around again.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Williams visited friends on the South line Sunday.

Mrs. Curran and son, Joe, of Nenagh, visited friends in this neighborhood last week.

Miss Mary and Katie McFayden visited friends near Markdale last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dixon, of Egremont, visited at Mr. J. H. McFayden's one day last week.

Mr. Jas. McCracken, of Dornoch, visited at the old homestead Sunday.

Mr. Little, of Proton, visited at Mr. Robert Ector's last week.

VARNEY

Most of the folks in our burz hays the gripe.

Mrs Wm McCalmon is very poorly at present. We hope to hear of her speedy recovery.

Charles Gadd and family are nearly all laid up with the cold. We hope they will be all right soon.

We are glad to hear that Mr Clark is able to be out again after an attack of the gripe.

Death has been in our midst again. The little infant daughter of Mr and Mrs Wm Grant passed away on Sunday morning last and was buried on Monday afternoon. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Mr John Bogle's mother is very sick at present. Hope she will soon be strong again.

Mr Chas Gadd had a wood bee lately and got a nice pile of wood home.

Miss Ethel Eden was the guest of Miss Winnie Gadd one day last week.

Mr J Yandt had a wood bee on Wednesday last and a party at night. All went along pleasantly till the wee sma hours.

ROBERT WATSON SR.

The death of this well-known gentleman at the ripe age of 86 removes a prominent landmark of the olden time in North East Normanby. For some time he and his aged partner have been living with their daughter Mrs Charles Gray, just south of town, and there on Thursday, Feb. 7, he breathed his last. His last illness was only of a few day's duration, and previous to that he was in the enjoyment of a wonderful degree of physical vigor, and was frequently heard to make the pardonable boast that he could walk his 4 miles an hour still, and he could too. All his life he was scarcely ever ill and when at last the silver cord was loosened he passed quietly and resignedly into the unseen world.

Robert Watson was born in the parish of Kilbride, near Glasgow, Scotland on Feb. 15 1815. Of humble parentage, with a meagre education, at a tender age he entered the great metropolis to seek his living among its teeming thousands. He soon found employment as assistant collector at the famous Shawfield toll, then held by a relative, Robert Steel. He remained there some time as chief collector till his marriage in the early 40's to Robena Shaw, who survives him. Realizing the insufficiency of his income for the support of his young partner in life, he became leasor on his own account of some of the principal tollgates of the city meeting with some degree of success. About this time in his humble career the petty customs of the city of Glasgow became open for tender, Watson, Colquhoun and Adair were the accepted tenderers for the office which involved considerable financial responsibility. At the end of two years he withdrew and became an employee of the Post Office department, tendering for and receiving the appointment of mail distributor and collector for the whole city. He occupied this position for many years, the leisure of which afforded him ample time to gratify his love of reading, which he indulged in to an extent as to border on book gluttony. The terms of his contract having been secured under keen competition, the outbreak of the Crimean War involved so much extra expense as to be disastrous to his limited means, so with a thin and rapidly thinning purse, in 1855 he set sail for what was then called the back woods of America, with a young family ill-equipped by previous experience for a back-woods life.

After looking around a little he ultimately found his way to Normanby and took up land on the 2nd concession, and later bought the lot on the 3rd con, now owned by his son James. His other sons Robert and John married and settled near by and for many years the old man basked in the sunshine of the society of his sons and their families.

In his prime he served his township as Treasurer for several years. He was also for many years Justice of the Peace. In politics he was a consistent Reformer, though always known as a farm-minded man.

The deceased was a Presbyterian in religion, and was always a warm and wise supporter of ordinances. He was a devoted student of the bible and an earnest worshipper in God's house. No tie to sit at ease in Zion, and two generations can testify to his work in Sabbath school, prayer meeting and bible class. For many years he has been an elder in the church and in some respects occupied a patriarchal position in the congregation.

He was a man of great native intelligence, widely read, and until the last few years had a clear grasp of all public questions.

The writer had many opportunities to form an estimate of the excellence of his character, and has often drawn inspiration therefrom. Of him it could be said more than of most men that "he wore the white flower of a blameless life."

He was buried in Maplewood cemetery on Saturday last, and though a stormy day many old friends gathered to pay the last respects. Rev. Mr Campbell, his pastor, conducted the services, and paid warm tributes to his character. Rev. Mr Farquharson also assisted. On Sunday next Mr Campbell will preach his funeral sermon. He has gone to his reward, sorrow is scarcely in place. His life work was done, and well done, and in memory of many pleasant and profitable associations, we lay this small tribute on his tomb.

MRS DANIEL KNAPP.

In addition to the brief notice we had last week of the sudden death of the mother and sister-in-law of Mr. C. Knapp in one day we have received the following particulars: Mrs. Daniel Knapp at the time of her death was in her 80th year. She came to Canada in 1841, was married in 1843, and survived her husband about 3 years. Eleven children blessed the union, eight of whom survive, and besides these there are 37 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren. A memorial service was held in the Presbyterian Church after the burial. Miss Huether, sister of Mrs. Knapp was in her 28th year and her sudden death in the prime of youth was a particularly severe bereavement.

Boothville.

We are sorry to record this week the death of Mrs Thos Knox, who died on Feb 3, after an illness of about 3 weeks, in which she suffered very much. She was the eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs John Leith near here. She went to school here and was respected and loved by all who knew her.

She was a Christian in the true sense of the word and her seat in the house of God was seldom empty. For her to live was Christ, but to die was great gain. Mr Matheson, her pastor, preached a very comforting sermon from Rev. 25, verse 4. The sympathy of the community goes out to the sorrowing parents, her sister and brothers and above all to her bereaved husband and children. Her brothers George, Peter, David and John were all home for the funeral, but that having been deferred till Friday to allow of John being present from Dakota. Peter was absent, serious illness in his own family, calling him away.

Miss Lizzie Ferguson, daughter of John Ferguson, died on Saturday last, and was buried on Monday at the Methodist cemetery in Proton.

North East Normanby

Miss Lulu Dickson, of Glendon, was the guest of Miss Lizzie Gadd the beginning of the week.

Mr Sam McGowan who has been very ill for the past two weeks, is not improving as quickly as might be wished.

Mrs J. Morice Sr. left Friday on a few weeks visit to Ferguson friends.

Mr Alexander Marshall has been seriously ill with inflammation of the lungs. To be bed-fast is something unusual for Mr M. and he feels it keenly.

Much sympathy is extended to Mr and Mrs Wm. Grant who have been called upon to suffer the loss of their baby girl, who died Saturday night, after a very brief illness.

Mr and Mrs McIlvride of Simooe Co, are visiting their numerous relatives and friends in the vicinity. They attended the wedding of Mrs Mel's brother Mr Dave Marshall.

Among those who are attached with La Grippe and its usual accompanists are Mrs E. Fee, Mr W. Johnston, Mr C. Caldwell, Mr and Mrs T. Gadd.

Miss Lydia Thompson, of Durham, spent a few days last week visiting acquaintances in this part. We are always pleased to have Lydia with us.

Miss McCannell took in the Scotch Concert in Durham, last Friday night on her way home to Pricerville.

Mr and Mrs T. Wallace accompanied by friends from Paisley, visited Arthur friends last week.

Miss Lizzie Hoeffin, of Orchardville, visited her sister, Mrs D. McIlvride last week.

Mr George Weltz, and family moved to Bentinck, last Friday, where they have taken possession of Mr R. Brunt's farm. George is a right good fellow and we are sorry to lose him from our community.

Times are looking up, as everybody is busy drawing logs and both mills are kept going.

Burglars are said to have broken into the house of Mr Lawrence, broke open the safe and to their disappointment only found a few cents.

We are pleased to hear that Mr. Duncan Hay is improving in the hospital in Toronto.

Our Pastor, Rev Mr Graham, has been holding revival meetings in Burns' church Rocky Saugeen, they will commence in this church on Sunday 17 inst.

Mrs Dr. Smith is at present suffering with a bad attack of La Grippe.

Misses Frankie and Mandé Dargavel returned home from Toronto, to enjoy a couple of weeks vacation.

We are pleased to hear that the people around the village are recovering from La Grippe.

The timber men expect to be through next week, their pleasant society will be greatly missed by the young people in the vicinity.

Mrs James Watt, returned home after spending a week with her daughter, Mrs Chas Mortley, of Arnott.

We are pleased to hear that our old neighbor Mrs Chas Mortley sr., now of Arnott, is able to be around again.

Art and Wesley Hunt, were the guests of their cousins, the Dargavel family, on Sunday last.

Look out for Valentine's, on the 14th boys.

Frank Skene, of Sydenham, formerly of this place, had a misfortune of losing his house and contents by fire while at church on Sunday morning. That is the worst of living alone.
