Talmage Tells How Youth Can Be Renewed and Boyish Spirits Prolonged.

food, and again it mounts the heavens in unchallenged and boundless kingdoms of air and light. David, the author of the text, had watched these monarchs of the sky, and knew their habits, and one day, exulting in his own physical and spiritual rejuvenescence, he says to his own soul, "You are getting younger all the time. You make me think of an eagle which I saw yesterday, just after its molting season, swinging through the valley of Jehoshaphat, and then circling around the head of Mount Olive. Oh, my soul, 'thy youth is renewed like the eagle's." The fact is that people get old too fast. They allow the years to run away with them. The almanac and the family record discourage them. Some of you are older than you have any business to be. You ought to realise that as the body gets older the soul ought to get younger. Coming on toward old age you are only in the molting season, and after that you will have better wings, take higher flight and reign in clearer atmosphere. Our religion bids us to look after the welfare of the body as well as of the soul, and the first part as well as the latter part of my subject is appropriate for Many might turn the years backward and get younger by changing their physical habits. The simpler life one leads the longer he lives. Thomas Parr, of Shropshire, England, was a plain man and worked on a farm for a livelihood. At 120 years of age he was at his daily toil. He had lived under nine kings of England. Ferrell, Guilty of Cowardly Crime, Pays Penalty.

MURDERED HIS TRUSTING FRIEND

Columbus, O., March 4.-The electrocucion of Charles Rossiya Ferreil in the annex of the Ohio Penitentiary shortly after midnight yesterday morning closed a thrilling story of love, desperation and murder. Fearless in plotting his dastardly crime, he was equally nervy in facing the terrible penalty. Ferrell laughed and joked with Murderer Ruthven, his condemned cellmate, during the evening, and read with interest some of of the preparation for his electrocution. Laying the papers aside, the murderer remarked that he was "ready to go spiritually, but obciation compared with the vigor of the fore the council, it was ampossible jected on personal grounds." He was executed at 12.07 o'clock. The first
