THAT $10,000 SENATORSHIP. The much anticipated investigation by the senatorial committee into the charge made by Mr Cook, the wealthy Toronto lumberman, that he was oftered a seat in the Upper Chamber for $10,000, by an agent representing the Government, has been held, and the country is now in possession of all the data upon which was based one of the most serious charges eyer made against Ministers of the Crown in this country Mr. Cook repeated his allegations adding that Hon. M. C. Cameron, since deceased was the 'agent' in question, that he acted on behalf of the Premier and his colleagues, that he produced a letter signed by Sir Richard Cartwright making the infamous proposal, that the same offer was repeated afterwards in the presence of Hon. S. C. Biggs, and that Mr. W. T. R. Preston also made a like proposal, claiming to do so at the instigation of Ministers here. Mr. Cook could produce no evidence document- day morning for the North West where ary or otherwise in corroboration of all he intends to stay for some time. this but on the other hand each of those mplicated by him sworethat there was absolutely no truth in his assertions. and even Mr Biggs, who was supposed to be prepared to substantiate the story, explained away the very incidents upon which Mr Cook had laid so much stress. Probably the fact that has most impressed the country on hearing the story has teen Mr Cook's admission Colder's Block that, although he felt greatly insulted by the suggestion, he continued negotations for long after wards, corresponded with the very men he declared had so grossly affronted him, said nothing about the cutrage of which he was the innocent victim, and waited for tour years, and until the eve of an election, before saying a word about it. Moreover Mr. Biggs informed the Committee that Mr. Cook had discussed the matter with him and had wondered whether $5,000 would be WECURESTRICTURE enough to secure what he was after,
