HUNTER—In Durham, on Monday April 8th, Elizabeth Marjory, youngest child of J. P. Hunter, aged 3 yrs, 5 mos.

FILLING UP.—Durham has scarcely a vacant house this spring and the demand is still for more. The census schedules will show few or none vacant houses. We expect building operations on a large scale will begin as soon as the location of the cement plant is decided upon.

TANGLEFOOT.—Inspector Harris last Saturday evening discovered some violations of the liquor License Act in town and we understand several parties are likely to have some unpleasant memories in connection with it.

A rare find of coal oil was obtained at Reddickville, Dufferin County, on March 20th on a property recently purchased by Dr. McGibbon of Honeywood, Thos. Moore, who is the tenant on the place, found that the water was milky and of unusually strong smell. On further examination it was found that each pair of water when allowed to settle was covered with a layer of coal oil in an almost perfectly refined state.

Millinery Openings.—From Page 1, advantage of a fine showroom she has a certain charm in the roof lighting. Some pretty decorations make a pleasing impression though in arrangement and surroundings of the showroom it is not up to the others.

A hat made of black straw braid with fold of Brussels net between the rim and the crown is an elegant make up. It is trimmed with sequin, a large bow of mauve and green ribbon in front is tasteful as is a wreath of foliage on left side front.

Another of "Elite shape," is a pretty black chiffon hat, turned off face with applique lace facing, trimmed with black ostrich plumes extending to the sides a large bow of black ribbon velvet in front caught with rhine-stone buckle makes an attractive finish.

But we might go on through a page describing sailor hats, turbans, children's hats etc. etc. enough has been said to remind our readers of the passing of the spring millinery season. Visitors will find the ladies in charge most considerate and obliging and we believe will find their goods as represented and their prices reasonable.

Scotch Town.

Poor wheeling, poor sleighing. Snow to give a way in many places yet. Seeding is likely to be a little behind the times if the weather don't get warmer soon with beautiful showers.

Miss Annie Morrison spent a few days visiting Owen Sound friends at Easter. Jessie Peters of the 6th is holidaying at present with her cousins in our burg.

Michael D McGrath has gone to your town to learn the blacksmithing. Mac is a very obliging boy and we wish him the best of success.

Mike Henrick, from Toronto, is spending a few days with his brother-in-law Arch McMillen. The friends are always pleased to have Mr Henrick as he is a real jolly good fellow.

The infant child of Mr and Mrs D McMillen was buried last Saturday. We sympathize with Mr and Mrs McMillen as it is only about a year ago they buried their only son an infant.

The Black Bros, Pomona, were wood cutting for Mr A McMillen last week.

Mr R J Black intends settling down soon for he says there is nothing like a steady job.

Miss Katie McRae, from Irish Lake is visiting the McQuarrie family.

John McDougall, from Toronto, spent a few days at the old homestead in Maple Grove last week.

Jas White esq. is improving with his violin lessons rapidly. Arrowsmith and Gray are his teachers. The time at Bussan on Saturday evening was away up high and James still smiles when he thinks of what the future will bring.

Woodbees and an occasional taffy pull is the go this and last week.

Mr D McInnis, a letter known as McGinty, from Hamilton was visiting friends in the burg recently and while here purchased a noble steed from Warden Murchison.

Messrs Alex McMillen and Arch McLean are away to Thornbury timber loading for Mr Thomas Howard.
