Got Through the Boers Lines.

Pretoria, May 24.-The troops of the Cattle Rangers' Corps, which was organized by Col. Morgan, have returned to Pretoria from Wolvenhoek. They had a number of exciting adventures and several skirmishes with the Boers, but by excellent scouting they succeeded in getting through the Boer lines with 40,000 sheep and 4.000 cattle. The Boers lost seven killed in the encounters with this corps.

The Seaforth's Gratitude. The Cape papers report how the Seaforth Highlanders have shown their appreciation of the heroic deed of a lady in rescuing and succoring one of their comrades. During fighting in the streets of Jagersfontein on the 16th of October last, Private Brown, it appears, fell wounded outside a house in which Miss Newton resided. Hearing groans, she went outside to ascertain the cause, and when Brown saw her he cried "For God's sake, lady, pull me out of this. Miss Newton at once took hold of him under the arms as well as she could, and dragged him into the verandah, out of the line of fire. Bullets were flying along the street thickly at the time, but Miss Newton remained with the wounded soldier, doing what she could for him until the ambulance arrived. The men of the Seaforth Highlanders gratefully remembered this act of mercy, and when they succeeded in ascertaining that Miss Newton had migrated to Grahamstown they sent her by post a beautiful gold bracelet watch, bearing this inscription: "Presented to Miss A. J. Newton from the Seaforth Highlanders, in admiration of her heroic conduct in assisting their wounded comrade under fire. 16th October, 1900." The gift was ac-

Shall the Confession of Faith be Revised?

The Struggle Begun Yesterday and Below is Given a Summary of the Arguments Presented for and Against Action on the Committee's Report.

At the U. S. Presbyterian General Assembly yesterday the question of the revision of the Confession of Faith was taken up.

Rev. Dr. Charles A. Dickey opened the battle royal, presenting the majority report and making a rousing speech. If two-thirds of the Presbyterians, and that is a fact, want changes in the creed, he said, they 120 People on Board-Mangled have a right to be heard, and the Assembly cannot afford to brush their wishes aside.
