Priceville.

For the last week the weather has been very wet and somewhat cold and on low grounds the crops are beginning to suffer more or less from the effects of the rain, but taking all the farms in the locality on an average this kind of weather suits all right for its life of crops on hilly and gravelly soil.

The most of people are making the ground ready for turrips.

Our saw mill men have about cleaned up all the logs in the yard as the supply of water is favorable this spring.

John Cameron, who had three of his fingers taken off in Durham factory, is doing well. He is lucky under the circumstances that he has the use of the right hand as he is naturally a smart young man and a good penman. We hope he will find something in that line of business for to make a livelihood in future.

The ordination of Messrs John Nichol and Dugald McCormick will take place next Sunday as elders in the Presbyterian church, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late John Mather and others resigning on account of old age.

We are sorry to hear that our teacher Principal Blakeston intends to leave after the holidays. Mr Blakeston was an all round good fellow for he was always ready to assist in promoting any good cause in all branches of society, so it is needless for us to say that each and all wish him God speed wherever his lot may be cast.

The 24th of May was celebrated around the stoves as the whole 24 hours were uncomfortable and lots of disappointments were the results of the day.

Mrs Butter was completing the remodeling of her hotel for the last couple of weeks by making some new rooms in front.

Dan McInnes purchased the old Bunesan Presbyterian church, which stood on the corner of his own farm and is to convert it into an implement shed. This good old edifice was built 23 yrs ago and was for a time under the late Rev D McLeod's pastorate, but was abandoned some 12 or 13 years ago and no service of any account held in it since.

Mrs McQueen and family from Stayner were visiting at Mrs McQueen's brother N McCannel's of the South Line, Glenelg, and returned again this week.

John McLean, South Line, Artemesia, was under Dr Boyle's care for sometime but is better again.

The Rev Mr Matheson attended the Synod held at Toronto recently.

Miss Mary Ann Brown, of Toronto, our late postmistress in this Town is spending a while with her sisters Mrs Muir and Mrs McKinnon and others.

Dr Hutton was busy vaccinating in the neighborhood of our Town for a few days last week.

A few weeks ago we made some remarks on individuals who were in the habit of fault finding, &c., mentioning no body's name in particular, but as the "faulky dog always knows his guilt." The shoe fitted the Priceville correspondent to the Durham Chronicle to perfection and he dives into us in last week's issue of that paper in his usual impetuous manner. As he is generally known in the locality it is needless for us to be wasting paper in giving his pedigree. It took him two weeks to compose his last budget and no wonder that in his own estimation (if not in any one else's) it was one of the ablest and most eloquent articles ever produced for the Durham Chronicle. This distinguished writer acquits himself in a manner that qualifies him to the highest standard in billingsgate. As for being census enumerator as he referred to, we admit the charge and we are happy to inform the public that while acting in that capacity, we didn't meet any one possessed with just such an attitude as the Durham Chronicle correspondent. We are also happy to hear he has secured a situation, for the evil one always finds some kind of malicious work for idle hands. He informs us that he expects to come back loaded for us. We are always ready for him while he sticks to the truth and decency and for his information we may say that we were asked to reply to his budget of a month ago by a large number of the most influential men of the town. Its none of his business whether we are a resident of the town or not as long as we are acting in their behalf as correspondent, but as long as we find unworthy aspersions cast upon the place or the people we shall esteem it our privilege as well as our duty to refute them in the best manner we can, no matter from what source they come.

Irish Lake.

Intended for last week.

Seeding is nearly a thing of the past and our farmers are busily engaged in putting in their turrips and potatoes.

The 24th was rather wet so that many of the youths were deprived of their day's sport.

Prof Dr McLeod, Scottish Herbalist paid a visit to friends at the lake Monday evening last.

Miss Mary McDonald returned home on Friday after a few months absence in Toronto.

Mr Alex Wilson has purchased a fine horse from Mr John McNally, of Traversston.

Mr Ronald McEae, of Priceville, paid a flying visit to the Lake last Sunday night.

Mrs John McKay is visiting her mother Mrs Donald O'Healy, this and last week.

Mr George Jones has purchased a new mower. Geo is a hustler.

Mr William Casey is visiting his cousin Mr Thomas Sullivan this and last week.

Mr Angus McVicar passed through our burg Sunday evening last.

Miss Jennie McArthur, of Priceville, was the guest of Miss Julia Campbell on Sunday and Monday of this week.

Master Geo Noble, of Toronto, is visiting his grandparents, Mr and Mrs D. McRae.

What we would like to know:—Who was the young lady that was left at the gate? Mac must have been tired; that will never do Mac. Wait Tom?

A number of our young people enjoyed a pleasant evening at the home of Mrs Connelly, where they were entertained by dancing and music. But, we would like to know where Dunk found shelter from the rain? Sleep must have overtaken him by the Hollow. Try again Dunk, and don't be shy.

We notice White wears a broad smile since the arrival of a certain young lady from the City. Mosquitoes are troublesome near a bush—eh White? We would like to know what keeps Norman so long after the cows those evenings? I, ask Mary Ann.

Rosa.

BALSAM VALLEY

A long time has elapsed since our last budget, but we are still on the turf and all done seeding with the exception of the Murphy's.

Very wet weather in our midst at present and the low land is suffering very much.

Mr Joseph Campbell is intending to build a house this summer. Joe is a regular hustler from Proton and will make things hum.

Messrs Dugald and Jack Ferguson are busy drawing sand for the erection of a stone wall. Their yells can be heard far off, but still they are hustlers to pitch sand.

Mr Neil NeArthur is again in our midst and will likely take in Riverside before long.

Mr Donald McQueen, reeve of Egrement, was in our midst and spent Thursday night at D McIntyre's. The north will be pleased to have a call from the reeve, he also made those who are appointed pathmasters take the oath of allegiance for road making.

Mrs D McIntyre has again been laid up with Erysipelas, but is now on a fair way of improving.

Mr Archie Ferguson arrived home from the lower settlement, having taken sick very suddenly, but we hope his sickness will not be serious.

What we would like to know:—When did Archie take the Post Office? And where did Boothville Cor see the Peterborough man? What happened the gray horse from the townline? It Boothville intends making a pie-nic this year.

[NORX NY Ee.—We think it right to say in answer to the first of these queries that the type and typos of the Review office are responsible for the mistake about Archie. The mistake was discovered and corrected, but not till some mails had gone.]

Pleased to hear that Alex Aljoe is able to be around again.

Mr. John Greenwood and daughter Sandra attended the funeral of the former's brother-in-law, in Howick, the beginning of this week.

J H McKayden was under the weather last week, but is able to be around again.
