WITH THE VOLUNTEERS Sore Arms and Sun Burned Faces.

Niagara Camp Friday, June 14.—All arrived safely on Tuesday and next morning every man and mother's son had to strip his tunic and expose his arm to the rigid inspection being carried on for small pox. The little white scar or the recent scratch furnished the passport and all passed successfully.

The old order in the matter of helmets and service caps and tunic has been resorted to this year, and in consequence, some are getting badly sunburnt. There have been some nice breezes however, and a dash of rain last night has helped things.

Today I have just had muster, being the first of the regiments to have the pay sheets finished. Men dine in their own tents this year, the officers finding it too expensive to have a large marquee for the men. The officers of the 37th, have as a sitting room a tent brought from Cronje's lager at Paardeberg, secured by a captain of the regiment who was in South Africa.

Our excursion to the Falls is assured Saturday or Monday afternoon. The 31st is favored for Col. Otter says he thinks we deserve it, coming so far, and on the strength of the expectation we get recruits. He regrets the deficiency in numbers this year, nearly a Coy. short, and says something must be wrong which will have to be remedied.

Notwithstanding vaccination, it is a large camp, 11 Regiments and a fine display of Cavalry. A keen rivalry exists this time to excel, for the best are to be invited to take part in the big demonstration when the Royalties come here in October.

Table with names and numbers: Sergt. Geo. Matthews 20 30 50, Pte. S. Watt 25 17 42, Col. Sergt. Aljoe 23 16 30, Pte. Alex. Bell 28 10 38, Corp. R. Gordon 23 14 37, Pte. Joe Firth 19 11 30, Pte. Jas. Whitmore 16 10 27, Pte. Richards 11 10 21, Pte. L. Lawrence 14 5 19, Serrt. McDonald 13 5 18, Pte. Fletcher 4 12 16, Pte. D. Hooper 10 6 16

Monday, June 17.—Camp life swings along in the usual way, with an extra excitement when a visit is planned from Gen. O'Grady-Haly or some such functionary. There has been a great clearing up, every scrap of paper or meat must be picked up and he can only look at blankets when piled in line both ways with mathematical exactness at the right of each tent door, and other requirements of as great importance are particularly enjoined!

However the camp is not all grind. The powers that be gave us an excursion to the Falls on Saturday and 210 of us had a fine time covering the historic ground and viewing the Cataract. Excursion yesterday, (Sunday), to the Falls by boat and trolley only 50 cts were largely patronized.

understood his business, and caused him the least trouble of any he had yet had.

No. 4 was on picket duty Saturday night after coming from the falls and two men again on Sunday. The boys are all hearty and getting along fine though the cooking is not up to the usual standard. The vaccination experience is not causing any trouble yet in No. 4 Co. Sergt. Matthews and Capt. Snider paid a visit to friends across the river on Sunday and were warmly entertained.

One is meeting with many of the South African heroes this time. We had the pleasure of meeting young Henderson of Barrie, introduced by his father Band-master Henderson, also Noble Black, of Barrie, Jones of Owen Sound, already referred to, T. Wallace son of Hon. Clark, Fred Hamilton, of the Globe, ser-Major Borland, and others.

It is remembered here that County Council meets this week in Markdale, and it is said that McKinnon and Allan will support a more liberal grant to the boys in red this time. This news is fondly hoped to be true and they and their colleagues will cover themselves with honor if they put their county voters on the same footing as neighboring counties.

I close these rambling notes amid the ceaseless rattle of the rifle on Mississauga commons where the ranges are, and look for an imposing "March past" in a short time when the "O'Grady" comes along. Home on Saturday night it is expected.

THE LATE ARTHUR S. HARDY.

DIES FROM THE EFFECT OF AN OPERATION.

Last Thursday the whole province was stirred deeply when it became known that ex-Premier Hardy had succumbed to an operation for appendicitis. Since then men of all shades of thought have vied with each other in paying tribute to the man and the statesman. He was buried in Brantford on Sunday last amid sorrowing thousands, almost all of his late colleagues being present as well as his prominent political opponents.

During the long premiership of his predecessor he was his right hand man, and much of the wise and progressive legislation of the period was shaped by his hand. So long in office and handling millions of money, no breath of scandal ever tainted his name. Possessing talents which might have won him a fortune he devoted them to his native province and retired from office a poor man. Honor his name.

Live Stock Market Toronto.

The day's trading at the Western cattle Market Cattle Market showed that good cattle would find buyers at high prices, but that there was some difficulty in disposing of the medium to poor lots. The offerings were large and there was a fair demand, but the active business was confined to the good to choice cattle. Others were slow, and although prices were unchanged, there was a weakness in the low grades. For the best lots the market was firm and buyers were keenly anxious to take all the fine cattle offering. Stockers were weak and yearling lambs were lower. The total run was 72 loads including 1,329 cattle, 282 sheep and lambs, 98 calves and 800 hogs.

Export Cattle - Prices for choice were no lower; several loads of fine cattle sold at $5 to $5.40. The supply was fairly large and the quality of the stock was up to the average. Medium, including light weights, and export cows, were quiet and steady.

Butchers' Cattle - The gilt-edged stock sold quickly at firm prices, but good choice cattle were steady. Prices were no lower; the best were quoted at $4.60 to $5 while choice sold at $4.10 to $4.60 and fair to good at $3.75 to $4.10. Cows were active and steady at $3.25 to $3.90, and bulls were quiet at $3 to $3.50.

Feeders - Short-keep are practically out of the market. One dealer was anxious to buy two loads, but was unable to secure more than half a dozen head. The market is strong at $4.25 to $4.75, but trade is quiet on account of the very small receipts.

Stockers - The outside markets are still in bad shape and the tone of the business here shows no improvement. Choice animals of 400 to 600 lbs sell at $3 to $3.25 but plenty of off-colors are changing hands at $2.50 to $3.

Milk Cows - Market quiet, with the range of quotations unchanged at $25 to $45. There is an excellent demand for first-class cows.

Sheep and Lambs - Sheep are unchanged, but yearling lambs are 50c lower at $4 to $4.50 per cwt. The condition of trade is less satisfactory, and although the offerings were not large a good deal of stuff was unsold.

Calves - Steady and unchanged, with a good demand for fine yearlings. Prices range from $1 to $8 each.

Hogs - Market steady and prices unchanged at $7 per cwt for selects, $6.75 for corn-fed and $6.50 for lights and fats.
