WELL AND TRULY LAID.
DORNOCH PRESBYTERIANS REJOICE.

Corner Stone of Their New Church Laid By Rev. Dr. Somerville.

Tuesday of last week was a red letter day in the history of the Dornoch Presbyterian Congregation for it came to pass in the history of their church that on that day the people assembled with one accord to lay the foundation stone of a new edifice for the worship of God.

And the weather was superb as was necessary for the success of an out door function; and pastor, people, preachers, politicians, publishers and other persons from a distance were particularly proud and pleased to be present; and the singers sang with sweetness the songs of Zion; and the offerings showed loyalty and liberality, and the provision for the inner man was excellent and ample as was expected of Dornoch maids and matrons, and a sweet soft moon shone brightly at the close over swains and maidens whose eyes spake love to eyes that spake again.

Rev. Mr. Graham conducted the proceedings and made a brief opening statement introducing Rev. Dr. Somerville on whom the honors of the day and the dedicatory service were placed. When he had spoken Mr. Graham offered the invocation after which hymn 385 was sung. Sweet is the Solemn voice that calls, etc. Rev. Mr. Campbell, Mulock, read from Ezra 3rd chap. Rev. Mr. Little, Chatsworth, a portion of Psalm 102 followed by hymn 467, "Jesus with thy church abide." Prayer was then offered by Rev. Mr. McNaab, Kilsyth, reading Psalm 132. Hymn 464, "The Church's One Foundation" preceded the address of Dr. Somerville, which was a very able and appropriate effort and delighted all who heard it.

Dr. Smith then read the document (which appears below) containing the history of the church and which was to be deposited in the hollow of the stone and the crowd moved to positions near the corner where Dr. Somerville was presented by Mr. Jas. Ledingham with a handsome silver trowel on which was engraved "Presented to Dr. Somerville on the occasion of laying the Corner Stone of Latona Presbyterian church, Dornoch, July 30, 1901." A tin box had been provided and in this were placed the coins of Canada, from 50 cent piece downward, the history read by Dr. Smith, the last Annual Report of the church, and copies of the last issues of the "Record," the "Westminster," the "Globe" the "Durham Review" and the "Chatsworth Banner." This box was then placed in the hollow of the stone which was formally laid, and imagination pictures the natives of some future Dornoch examining with eagerness the records placed there by their ancestors, for assuredly when next human eyes behold it there will be a Ledingham, a Smith or a Skene hard by.

An appropriate dedicatory prayer was offered by Dr. Somerville, and another stone had to be laid. With a touching and delightful appreciation of long and honored service the committee had arranged that a companion stone should be laid by Mr. Geo. Ledingham, one of the fathers of the church. Accordingly, on behalf of the church, another stone was laid by him. Mr. Ledingham has been for about 25 years Superintendent of the school, and a teacher in it since 50 years ago. Ministers have come and gone, a generation has passed away, but the devoted worker has remained at his post, and it will be the wish of many that he will hold that post for many years yet before he receives promotion. Mr. Ledingham took up a corner in the old church and we have an idea he could handle an axe as well if not better than a trowel.

A voluntary offering was then taken up. Hymn 469 "Christ is our Corner Stone" was sung, the benediction pronounced and the service was over.

After refreshments and an hour or more of social chat more platform work followed. The local choir was one of the best features of the occasion. They were lately strengthened by the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Lawrence who are not only public spirited citizens but freely lend their talents to every good cause. The pieces selected were very suitable and rendered with spirit. Mrs. (Rev.) Campbell contributed a fine vocal selection, and Miss Wadsworth, Toronto, who was visiting in the neighborhood gave a well-rendered recitation. Rev. Mr. Graham was in the chair, and though he had many apologies to read from absentees, he had material enough to draw from to make his position a pleasant one.

Mr. Geo. Binnie was called upon and very happily referred to the grief of the old men in Temple times at the inferiority of the new temple to the old. The experience here he was sure would be reversed. Still, he had no doubt round the old church many happy memories cling, and the successes of the past would be repeated in the future if the same devotion to duty and principle were followed.

Rev. Jas. Skene spoke pleasantly and eloquently. In a reminiscent mood he referred to the past. He had strained a point to get there and rejoined to be with them at such a time. There was much to do yet, difficulties to be met with perseverance and courage. The past was interesting but it was our duty to forget it except so far as it was a stimulus for the future. "Pressing forward to the things that were before." The necessity was laid upon us to have a plan of life that would reach beyond this world, to become impressed with the character of Christ, or we could never be like him.

Rev. Dr. Somerville would like to see a composite picture of Dornoch congregation as a band of workers and hoped the pastor secure such a picture that would stimulate every component part of it to have such a meeting there some months hence as to leave not a ghost of debt on the new church.

Rev. Mr. McNaab at some length improved the lessons of the hour and the fading twilight is our reporter's excuse for the absence of a report of his excellent speech and of those that followed. Rev. Mr. Campbell, Mulock, reminded them of the benefits to be derived from harmony and the faithful supporting of the hands of their pastor. Mr. C. Ramage of the Review, Durham, also spoke briefly, but without doubt the speech that was waited for was that of Rev. Mr. Little, their old pastor. In his own earnest manner he uttered many warm words of counsel and encouragement which might we suppose have been reproduced, but it would not be easy to reproduce the magnetic sympathy that waited on his words.

A brief address was given by Mr. Geo. Lamb an elder of the congregation.

Appropriate closing exercises followed and everyone pronounced the opening a success.

Notes.

Rev. Mr. McDiarmid a former minister, sent from Windsor a message of good will.

The first pastor of the congregation was Rev. Jas. Cameron, followed by Rev. J. McDiarmid, Little, and Graham.

This congregation has sent out more than an average of spiritual workers. Amongst them are Wm. Boyle, Colorado; Alex. Ledingham, India; Jas. Skene, Hillsdale; J. J. Smith, formerly missionary to China and in Lia now stationed at...; Alex. Skene and R. Ledingham at Mission work in the North West.

From offerings and other sources, the collections of the day amounted to nearly $170.

Mrs. Jno. Mills, Valetta, timed a visit to the old home to take in the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Renton, Egremont, were present and remained over night at Mrs. R's father's, Mr. Skene. Pleased to meet with the genial postmasters from Glascoat and Williamsford.

Miss Lizzie Fee, Normanby, sojourned with old friends.

Quite a number from the sister congregation at the Rocky were present.

The following is the HISTORY OF LATONA CONGREGATION.

The first Presbyterian minister who visited Latona was Rev'd G. McIntosh, who held service in the house of Mr. James Smith. This was in the year 1844, and services more or less irregular were held from this date until the summer of 1857, A. D., when the mission stations of Johnstown and the townline of Bentinck and Sullivan were raised to the status of congregations and in this year the first part of the old church was built.

On the 12th of August, 1857, a call from the congregations was presented to James Cameron by the Presbytery of Hamilton, meeting in Elora, and sustained by said Presbytery in 1859. The call being accepted, Mr. Cameron was ordained and inducted at Johnstown on Feb. 16th 1859, and on the same day a session was formed and the following elders for this station ordained: Duncan Smith and Duncan McDonald. The first session meeting in connection with this congregation was held in the house of Rev. James Cameron on the 27th day of July 1859, just about 42 years ago.

On the 5th of October of this year a session meeting decided to ask congregation to appoint two more elders and accordingly David Hastie and John Duncan after being duly elected were ordained on the 21st of Nov. 1859.

The second part of the old church was built in 1857, and on the 11th day of September 1870 an addition was made to the session by the ordination of George Ledingham, Jos. Byres, and Geo. Skene.

In 1872 the Rev. James Cameron resigned to take charge of Chatsworth alone, this was a matter of deep regret to this charge as shown by the following minute copied from the congregational record of a meeting in February 1872—moved by George Ledingham sec. by Joseph Byres, that while we regret parting with Mr. Cameron as minister, we hereby tender him our love and best respects and our sincere thanks for his Christian forbearance to us as a congregation and we hope that he will increase in usefulness and enjoy a long life in the ministry." At this same congregation meeting the name Latona was given to this charge on resolution by David Dunn, sec. by Francis Boyle.

The pulpit was supplied by Probationers until the Rev. Arch. McDiarmid having accepted a call, was inducted on Feb. 5th 1874—An arrangement having been made by which the pastor supplied the pulpit and controlled the station of Williamsford continued in force until the year 1880 when the congregation deemed it advisable to make arrangements for and form a union with the Rocky Saugeen.

During Mr. McDiarmid's pastorate, which closed by his resignation on Oct. 1st 1891, Francis Boyle was ordained to the eldership on Sept. 8th 1878, and Wm. Cranston on June 29th 1881.

After some time of supply by Probationers and students Rev. John Little accepted a call and was ordained and inducted at Latona into the united congregations on June 6th 1893.

During the Rev. John Little's pastorate which closed much to our regret by his translation to the Owen Sound Presbytery on Oct. 30th 1898, to take charge of the neighboring congregation of Chatsworth, Robert Mills, Wm. Duncan and Charles Boyle were added to the session by election and ordained on the 17th day of February 1894.

On June 6th 1899, a call from the united charges having been accepted by Rev. Wm. Graham, our present pastor. He was inducted at Latona.

Owing to death and removals the session having been reduced, it was decided to appoint four new members, and accordingly, after being duly elected, Dr. J. L. Smith, Donald A. Smith, Duncan Morrison and James Ledingham were ordained to the eldership on April 29th 1900.

And now, being Tuesday July 30th 1901 at 2.30 p. m. the Rev. Dr. Somerville appointed by this congregation and the Presbytery of Owen Sound lays the Corner Stone of a new church and we trust the foundation stone of renewed zeal and faithfulness to the cause of our master.

Signed (George Ledingham, sr. J. L. Smith, M. D.

Live Stock Market Toronto.

The steady tone in the trading at the Western Cattle Market was continued today and a fair amount of activity was shown. The run was light and there was an active demand, particularly for good and choice cattle. There was a scarcity of fine stock and the offerings in that class were soon sold out. Exporters were firm and active, the best loads taken in short order. Good butchers' were ready sellers but poor ones were decidedly dull. Feeders and stockers were inactive and there were no milkers offered. Small stuff was dull and weak and hogs were active and unchanged. The total run was 61 loads, including 662 cattle, 1,120 sheep and lambs, 44 calves and 1,729 hogs.

Export Cattle—The market was steadier and there was a better demand. The offerings were light and many of the cattle were of indifferent quality. The choice stock was soon sold and prices were about the same as those which ruled yesterday. Two or three loads brought $5.15 and a good many cattle sold at better than $5. Sales of heavy cattle were made as low as $4.60, and medium grades including light weights, were steady at $4.25 to $4.60. Export cows were quiet and nominally unchanged. Dealers report space conditions as slightly improved and they say that more cattle will be wanted at this market next week.

Butchers' Cattle—Those buyers who confine their attention to fine grades complain that they were unable to secure as many cattle as they wanted. The offerings of butchers' stock were fairly large, but there was a scarcity of good cattle. The market for picked lots was firm at $4.40 to $4.75 and choice were in good demand at $4 to $4.40. Other cattle were dull and there were few sales. The market has been well supplied with medium grade cattle of late and dealers are either unwilling or unable to handle any more. Cows are particularly slow and they are quoted lower at $2.75 to $3.35.

Feeders and Stockers—Receipts small and business very quiet. Quotations are nominally unchanged.

Milk Cows—The market is in the same conditions regards good cows; they are very scarce and sell readily at $50 or more. Poor milkers are plentiful and although they are generally sold for some price, they are very slow and weak.

Sheep, Lambs & Calves—Market continues dull, heavy receipts and poor demand. Export ewes are 5c lower at $3.35 to $3.50 per cwt. Other prices are unchanged, but there is a weak tone.

Hogs—Deliveries were large and the market was steady. Quotations are unchanged at $7.25 per cwt for select, $7 for corn-fed and $6.75 for lights and fat.
