

OBITUARY.

Mrs Donald McIntosh.

"Yea though I walk in Death's dark vale, Yet will I fear none ill." Firmly trusting like the Psalmist of old in him who can "Speak to those curious hearts of ours," and illuminate them with "the light that never was on land or sea," one of the oldest and most respected pioneers of Grey Co., in the person of Mrs Donald R. McIntosh, of Dornoch, (nee Miss Mary Cameron) passed gently away at her home in Sullivan Township, surrounded by her family and numerous kind friends. Deceased was stricken five years ago with nervous prostration and day after day her life ebbed away, a loving family did all they possibly could to alleviate her sufferings, but all was of no avail. The grim destroyer, death, whose roll call we must all answer, made his call at 11 p. m., Aug. 19th and called her home. Mrs McIntosh was the third eldest daughter of the late Archibald Cameron of Latona. She was born in the township of Vaughan, York Co., Feb. 22nd 1834, thus leaving her at her death the ripe age of 67 yrs. 5 mos. 28 days. She spent her girlhood days on the old Bentinck homestead and was always admired for her jovial and honorable disposition. Early in the sixties she was united in marriage to Mr. Donald R. McIntosh, of Dornoch, now one of Grey's oldest pioneers and the only surviving member of the first trio group of white men who crossed the Saugeen from Walkerton to Port Elgin. Mrs McIntosh was of a very loving disposition and was a model wife and mother. She was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church and possessed a true exemplary Christian character. She was one of a family of eight, five of whom survive her, namely: Messrs Malcolm and John Cameron, of Bottineau, N. D., J. B. Cameron, of Idaho, U. S., Mrs John Greenwood, of Glenelg, and Mrs Alex Robertson, of Molesworth, Huron Co. She leaves a family of five, two sons, Angus a teacher at home and Cameron at present principal of Athens model school, Leeds Co., and three daughters, Margaret, Susan and Christina, all of whom miss the moulding influence of her "whose life was pure" and "who taught them to lip their earliest prayer."

Com.

PAUL NELSON.

After a dragging illness, borne with fortitude, the above gentleman passed away on Monday, Sept. 2. For over 30 years he had been settled in Glenelg and was widely known and respected as a warm hearted neighbor and a man of upright character. At the time of his death he was in his 61st year and leaves as chief mourners his wife four sons and two daughters. The sons are: James living near by, Thos., Robert, and Paul. The daughters are: Mrs T. Jackson, (Maggie) and Mrs (Janet) of Guelph. His three brothers are well known, William in Bentinck, Robert and John in Egremont. He was buried on Wednesday, 4th inst., in the Saugeen cemetery, Rev. Mr. Farquharson conducting the services. Many neighbors and friends showing the last tribute of respect. By a misunderstanding the idea prevailed in some quarters that the funeral was in the afternoon and thus a number were prevented from attending.

MR. GEO. NOBLE.

On Thursday last Mr. Geo. Noble, Hutton Hill, Bentinck, was called away by the grim reaper. He was born in Ireland 65 years ago and came to this country in his youth, and with his parents and brothers and sisters became pioneers of this part something over 40 years ago. Mr. Noble was widely known and respected as was shown by the very large gathering that assembled at his funeral. Always an enthusiastic Orangeman, his brethren turned out in great force to do the last sad honors. Rev. Wray H. Smith was the officiating clergyman. Mr. Thos Noble, of town, is a son of the deceased, and a large circle of sons and daughters mourn with their mother the loss of husband and father, while the community loses a kind neighbor and a good citizen.

ROBERT B. WALKER.

The demise of this gentleman came as a great surprise to the town. He died on Friday, Sept. 13. He was ill, though not seriously so, for about two weeks, but an attack of cholera morbus proved too much for a constitution never very strong. The deceased was in his 65th year and leaves as chief mourners his wife, a sister of Mrs. J. L. Browne, (nee Whiteford) and one daughter. Mr. Walker for a number of years was a teacher in this riding and will be remembered still for the interest he took in Teachers' Association meetings. He was a man of great native intelligence and was widely read. His funeral took place on Sunday to the cemetery on the Durham Road near his old home, many of his old neighbors paying their last tribute of respect. Rev. Mr. Ryan conducted the service at home and grave.
