Silver Wedding in Caylon.

A large and representative gathering of relatives and friends met at the house of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Legate on the occasion of the 25th anniversary of their marriage, September 27th, and spent a most enjoyable and pleasant evening together. This bride and bridegroom of 25 years ago, yet show a comparatively youthful appearance, which was freely commented upon by those present, despite the fact that a large family of 8 children have been born to them, and all bearing the impress of robust good health.

The eldest daughter, Mrs. Robert Wright, who lives in the village near her parents and has two olive branches of her own to bless her, was a prime factor and assisted materially in the celebration. Mrs. Wright, together with her elder brothers, Robert and James, presented their mother with a beautiful silver tea service, while Robert, who is at present in employment in Owen Sound, presented his father with a Meerschmum pipe. Other presents which we may remark in passing were all silver, consisted of a butter dish, 3 pickle cruets and tongs, napkin ring, fruit spoon, 3 butter knives, cake plate, 2 sugar bowls and spoons, berry spoons, tea-pot, &c.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Mossup, Orangeville; Mrs. Wm. Leggett and Miss Leggett, O. Sound; Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Twamley and Miss Mary Twamley, Crawford; Mrs. J. W. Van Wyck, Annan; Miss S. A. Coleridge Teeswater; Mr. and Mrs. Ryder, Proton Station; Mr. and Mrs. J. Coleridge, Holland Centre; Mr. Jas. and Mrs. D. Coleridge sr. mother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. D. Coleridge jr. Mr. Robert Legate Father of the bridegroom and Misses Bessie and Annie Legate, Dronore; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ramage, Thistle; Mr. Peter Ramage, Durham; Mr. and Mrs. T. Chislett, Caylon; The evening was spent in vocal and instrumental music on piano and violin, interspersed with games, plays, charades, etc. Speeches were made by several present in reply to toasts. All wishing continued good health and expressing thankfulness at their having been spared and having met with such good success in their undertakings, and hoping to be present at their golden wedding 25 years hence.

Hopeville.

James T. Smith, a 11 year old son of Mr. John Smith, 8 con. Proton, died last week, after a few days illness, caused by blood poison. The remains were buried in the Esplin cemetery. The Rev. Mr. Morrison of Cedarville officiating.

The Rev. Mr. Broad has been going around with a sprained ankle, but is getting better.

Peter McArthur is all smiles now. Good report: another son on the 12th.

The Harvest Home of the Esplin church of which we mentioned some time ago was to take place, came off on Friday evening, the 27th, and came out as usual with the Esplin people a success. A fowl supper was announced and by the way the waters cut up the fowl and served the people, the supper was good in every way. The church was very tastefully fitted for the occasion. The flower garden, vegetables, grain fields and fruit departments, got credit for being good, while willing hands placed them very properly in arches and around the organ and pulpit.

The Rev. Mr. Broad was chairman who with the Rev. Mr. Kennel of Conn, delivered addresses very fitting for the occasion. The string band of Cedarville and the Esplin choir rendered good selections. Several other selections were rendered in good style and it appeared that everybody was well pleased. Proceeds of the evening amounted to $55.00 which goes to help swell the manse fund. Lovers of the Christian religion can now understand that this Esplin Presbyterian congregation has a good church.

Winter Reading.

The Cosmopolitan for October is full of entertaining fiction. Thomas A Janvier, for some time not seen in the magazine, reappears in the Cosmopolitan with a Mexican story of love and adventure, "Forfeit to the Gods." Bret Harte whose "condensed novels" won him so much fame, contributes a side-splitting parody of Hall, Caine's "The Christian." Irving Bachelier writes a short sketch of a little New York inn, "The Shadow of Happiness." E. W. Kemble tells a short humorous story of "How the Buzzards Worked a Spell," while Clara Morris's love story reveals her as an accomplished writer, capable of analyzing and sympathizing with man's deepest emotions.
