Address and Presentation at Edge Hill

Mr. T. Collinson Honored.

Friday afternoon, Sep. 27, was taken advantage of by the pupils and friends of S. S. No 8, Glenelg, to have an appreciative word with their teacher of the past three years, Mr. Thos. Collinson, who is leaving to take up the study of dentistry.

A program arranged by the pupils took place from 2 to 4. Mr. C. Moffat making an efficient chairman. At an appropriate stage Miss Sarah Edge stepped forward and read the address given below, Miss K. McDonald making the presentation. Mr. Collinson has been very successful here and his place is taken by Miss McCracken of Aberdeen. He warmly thanked the doers for their appreciation and spoke appropriately of his pleasant experiences in S S No. 8 during the past three years.

The address was as follows: To Mr. THOS. COLLINSON, Dear Teacher and Friend, The separation about to take place between us as teacher and pupils moves us to have a parting word of good-bye with you.

For the last three years we have been favored with your abilities as a teacher and your kindness as a friend and while we fear we have not reaped all we might have done from the former, we beg to assure you that both have been highly appreciated and will be long remembered.

We wish you much success in your future career and ask you to accept of these articles as a slight memento of the associations you have had with us, and trust the sight of them may recall to your mind the troubles and triumphs you had with the pupils of School Section No. 8, Glenelg.

Signed on behalf of the School—Katie McDonald, Katie Kenny, Sarah Edge, Ethel Greenwood, Bella Firth, Thomas Collier, Eva Banks, Arthur Greenwood, Allie Collier.

BOOTHVILLE.

This week came in fine. The threshing is nearly a thing of the past once more. The straw is in generally short but the bales fairly well filled.

Mr and Mrs Alex. Weir, of Singhampton, called on their daughter Mrs Noble, and other neighbors and friends. Mr and Mrs Weir stood the drive well and are well and hearty.

Willie and Artie Wilson, visited Walter's Falls, and took in the Owen Sound fair. Miss Ida Kinsman came from the States, and reports a good time at the Pan-Am.

Miss Martha Wilson left for the city the day after the Dundalk Show. Miss Bertha Wilson, of the Durham high school, visited the old homestead Sunday, and stands the work well.

Mr. W. Wilson, visited friends at Dornoch, and got home last Monday.

Miss E. Renton, Dromore, spent a day or so at our burg. Miss Wilson of River Side accompanied her home.

Mr C. Ferguson, of the valley, was at Boothville, last Monday night. We were pleased to see Mr and Mrs David Leith of North East Normandy at service in Swanton Park last Sabbath.

Born, to Mr and Mrs Fred Runciman, on Sept. 30th, a son. What we would like to know? If Neil was dressed up or why he didn't get there if he likes Bachelors? Why Thom's horse would not stand still while attending to his Vine? What did V. and S. do with their switzer's after the show? If four was't too many in one single rig?

GLENELG CENTRAL.

Deah Editah! Ware am yo' oder scribe? Ef 'e turns up wy we'll turn down.

Hopeville.

John McEachnie, who was working at Little Current, Manitoulin Island, came home a few days ago and moved his family there.

Arch. McEachnie, late postmaster and mail carrier, was going but changed his mind.

Mr. David Allen and wife are rejoicing over the birth of a daughter.

W. W. Hall had a good horse kicked in the leg by another and had to be shot. Cattle buyers are around and picking up such cattle as can be bought cheap. Threshing is about over. A good yield of grain for amount of straw.

Henry's Corner.

John Ferguson has recovered his usual health and is about again.

Wm Wilder, Sr., left last week on a trip to Alpena, Michigan, to which place he may move in the near future a number of his family being there. Mr Wilder is the last representative here of the once numerous Wilder family who gave their name to the lake now famous for its marl.

As John Nelson was returning from the Holstein show he was overtaken by some one, who in attempting to pass ran foul of Nelson's buggy, tearing a wheel off and demolishing the top. Fortunately no one was hurt and it should be a lesson to the reckless.

Mr and Mrs Philip Lawrence were guests of Mr and Mrs And. Henry one evening last week.

Mrs A Henry and Mrs J H Martin, of Blaine, Wash., visited friends in Proton, at the beginning of the week.

Mr and Mrs Chas Falconer, of Durham visited Mrs F's mother, Mrs Daley, last Sunday.

Mr and Miss Andrew Hunter and Miss Agnes Hunter visited Glenelg friends the beginning of the week.

Wm J Ector, Glenelg, bought a cow from Walter Ferguson lately. For good stock come to the Corners.

Messrs. Fooks, Phillip and Richardson are making good progress with their big contract on the ' Hemlock Hill.'

Wm Wilson has got home a new plow, and is making preparations for a new house. It wouldn't surprise us should he be improved.

Mr and Mrs Wm Reid, Artemesa, are assisting their relatives the Fergusons, this week.

Great potato crop round here.

Rocky Saugeen.

The threshing in this part is about wound up for this year. The grain turned out very well according to the amount of straw. That pest the pea weevil has put in an appearance this year.

A few took in the Toronto Exhibition, but more the Pan-American, while mostly all took in the sights at Durham last Wednesday.

Mr and Mrs A Middleton took in the Owen Sound Fair last Thursday.

Miss Bessie McDonald, from Duluth, and cousin Jessie from Hamilton, were visiting at Mr A. McLean's and H. McKechnie's last week.

Mr W. Middleton is busy erecting a fine new house for Mr D. Wilkie.

Mr. R. Marshall's sister Mrs. A. M. and daughter Mary are visiting at the former's this week back.

Miss Dow returned missionary from China, occupied the pulpits for Rev. Mr Graham, at Dornoch, and this place last Sabbath.

Mrs Henderson, from Lauriston, was visiting at her daughter's Mrs D. Wilkie, for a few days lately.
