A meeting of the "Independents" of Centre Bruce was held at Glamis recently. There were 30 present and they passed resolutions which the Chesley Enterprise says are wholly intended to assist Mr. Hugh Clark, the opposition candidate.

It pays to buy only the best in rubber footwear. "Granby Rubbers" are acknowledged to be the best made in Canada. We have a full new stock of these celebrated rubbers in all lines. If you have never worn them, try them this year and be convinced that they are the best. J. H. BROWN, Holstein.

As we come toward the Christmas holidays, larger space in the magazines is given to fiction. The COSMOPOLITAN includes a tragic story of the Mexican foot-hills by THOMAS A. JANVIER, a very clever society story by CAROLYN WELLS one of the Old French Romances by RICHARD LE GALIENNE, an unusually interesting Indian narrative by H. T. GEORGE, and a weird story by S. R. CROCKETT.

PIES AND PRESENTATION.—A pie social at Latona school on Friday evening last was used as an occasion to present to Ferguson Grant, the teacher, (who is leaving to take up the practice of dentistry,) an appreciative address which we give below. The concert part was ably contributed to by Messrs Ed McClocklin, F. Ryan, Jas. A. Hunter and W. S. Davidson, the latter acting also as auctioneer at the disposing of the pies. A pleasant evening was spent. Here is the address: "Dear Teacher, we your pupils of S. S. No. 3 Bentinck and Glenelg, on the eve of your departure from among us, take the opportunity of showing our appreciation of your worth both as a citizen and a teacher. During the three years that you have been our teacher, you have ever governed us firmly and kindly, and have used your utmost endeavors to advance us both intellectually and morally. Every one can see the result of your work in the marked improvement in the school-room and its surroundings, but to us alone, is known the full amount of your earnest labor, therefore we wish you to accept this watch-chain as a slight testimonial of our regard, knowing that, while we have now the sorrow of losing a true friend and a faithful teacher, we will have the joy in future of learning of you as an honored and esteemed member of the profession to which you are now turning your efforts."

Signed in behalf of school by Hazel Dargavel, Willie Bell, Vera Graham.

These rules should be observed in dressing poultry for English markets: Chickens must be plump and fat, starved 36 hours before killing; must be bled in mouth; plucked perfectly clean and dry; leave only two inches of feathers on neck from head down; leave lead and feet on, and do not draw them. Take great care not to tear them while plucking, for torn birds are unsaleable for Old Country markets. Ducks, geese and turkeys dressed and treated same as the chickens. Fowls must be perfectly cool before packing. By following the above instructions you will have a prime bird for the English market and realize a good price for young or spring birds.

A REPORTER'S EXPERIENCE.—One of Dakota's modest young newspaper men went to report a party the other evening where the home had recently been blessed with a baby says the Park River News. Accompanied by his best girl he met the hostess at the door, and after the usual salutations he asked after the new baby's health. The lady, who was quite deaf, and suffering with la grippe, thought he was asking about her cold, and told him that though she usually had one every winter this was the worst one she ever had; it kept her awake nights and confined her to her bed. Then noticing that the scribe was getting pale and nervous, she said she could tell by his looks that he was going to go in and sit down. The paper was out as usual the next week, but the local editor has stopped enquiring about babies.

MOVING UP.—Mr. Rudolph Konold, son of the well-known genial Professor, has lately been placed in a responsible position as manager of the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Co., of Utah. A circular to their policy holders announcing the change has the following notice of him:—"Mr. Konold has been a long time resident of this city and a former employee of the Company and is therefore familiar with its plans and its general policy. He will be found an earnest worker, prompt and courteous in his attention to the interest of the policy holders of the Company, and we solicit for him the confidence and support of our patrons until he shall have earned both for himself. Make all remittances for premiums payable to the order of Rudolph Konold, Manager." We congratulate Mr. Konold and hope he and his wife (nee Miss Mary Bone) may long profit by the confidence reposed in him.

SHOOTING THE FALLS.—Reader, did you ever see Niagara Falls? You did. Well unless you were there last Thursday afternoon you merely saw water tumbling down. On that day, Mrs. Taylor, a school teacher, a widow, aged 43, went through the rapids for a mile above the falls, and went over the falls—in a barrel!—and was fished out of the water and whisked out the barrel, and, unfortunately, she was alive. She did it to make money she says, will probably make matrimony out of it, and her deed will likely induce other fools to follow her example.

A Unique Presbyterian Meeting.

A recent issue of the Cranbrook Herald, B.C., contains an account of the meeting of the Kootenay Presbyterian under most interesting circumstances. They met by special invitation in the home of Mr and Mrs. M. McInnes, (well known in Pricerville and near it) and enjoyed overflowing hospitality. The paper says: "Their beautiful home was thrown open and the arrangement of the tables in the spacious dining room, the decorations and the different courses provided, showed careful preparation and refined taste. Every member of the Presbytery in attendance at the convention was present, also Mrs. Forgie, of Pembroke, Ont., the elders of Knox church of Cranbrook, with their wives, and the wives of Messrs. Gordon and Fortune."

The repeat over, adjournment was made to the church for business, and a similar gathering in the evening witnessed the baptism of the child of Mr. and Mrs. McInnes. An incident, "unique in the experience of all present" says the paper, four of the clergymen taking part in the service. After partaking of refreshments and an hour or two spent in social intercourse, the Presbytery, by two of its members, warmly thanked the hosts for their hospitality and in reply Mr. McInnes "expressing his pleasure in being privileged to entertain the visiting ministers, and hoped that the Presbytery would meet in the near future when he would be pleased to entertain all present again. In the meantime any who were passing through Cranbrook and remaining for a time would please make his house their home."

The same paper tells of a narrow escape from serious consequences of their son Hugh McInnes who was knocked senseless while firing an old gun. He received a serious wound below the right eye, but will recover.

BRUTALIZING.

"Saturday Night" is to be congratulated on having a most disgraceful exhibition suppressed in Toronto. At a recent lynching in Texas, a diabolically enterprising man caught with a phonograph the dying yells and curses of a negro burning at the stake with all the horrible surrounding. The fellow made a tour of the States and had it going in Toronto when a representative of the paper referred to notified the police and Crown Attorney Curry caused the performance to be at once stopped and seized the cylinders. Here is an extract from last week's account of it: "There is no question that the record is authentic. For pure horror the thing was beyond words. The yells and curses of the mob, the screams and pleas for mercy of the slowly-roasted negro, combined in a babel so blood-curdling as to be comparable to nothing short of a glimpse into hell itself. It is inconceivable how law-abiding Canadians retaining the least vestige of self-respect could listen to so hideous a thing without having their gorge rise and being betrayed into an attack on the machine and its operator. That such an attraction could play to big business in the heart of a city that boasts of its schools and churches, and that is regarded as being a center of culture in the Dominion, suggests some very unpleasant reflections. To what extent are the people of this country serious in denouncing the deeds of Southern mobs, seeing that in an enlightened Canadian city, hundreds can find pleasure in flocking to see and hear what purports to be a true-to-life reproduction of one of the most awful excesses of mob trial on record?"

BELORE—WILLAUGHAN.

A very quiet and pretty wedding took place at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening the 23rd of October, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Willaughan, when their daughter Martha was united in marriage to Mr. Fred Belore, of Owen Sound, in the midst of a few guests. The bride tastefully attired, was supported by Miss Tillie McMeeken, of Egmont, while the groom was ably supported by Mr. Wm. Bell. The usual ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. L. Mortimer, of Arthur, who tied the nuptial knot and the happy couple were pronounced man and wife. The bride and groom received some beautiful gifts along with warm congratulations and best wishes for their future prosperity. We note a few of the presents:

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Willaughan, bed room suite, set dinner dishes and 1/2 doz. chairs; Mrs. James Wilson, handsome china cup and saucer, also fancy cake plate; Mrs. T. Morton, pepper and salt cruet and mustard pot; Mrs. Jas. McNally, china cheese dish; Mrs. Adam Watson, box toilet soap, butter knife and two pair towels; Miss Maggie McFadden, pepper and salt cruet and a picture; Messrs. Sharp and Lindsay, gilt crystal set; Mrs. Jas. McMeeken, china fruit dish; Mr. Wm. Bell, crystal set; Mrs. T. Ritchie, pair of towels; Mrs. T. McGill, 1/2 doz. silver spoons and pair pillows; Miss Tillie McMeeken, table cloth; Miss Lizzie Ritchie, glass fruit dish; Mr. Able Willaughan, clock; Mrs. Whitmore, pair of towels; Mr. Harry Willaughan, china match safe; Mrs. W. J. Peery, glass fruit dish and servers; Mrs. Shultz, fancy plate and doilie; Mrs. Peter Patterson, china butter dish; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ritchie, 1/2 doz. goblets. China cups and saucers, silver spoons, pillow shams, &c.

The happy couple left Friday morning for their home in Owen Sound.

A RASH OFFER.—Local lady teachers should take warning by the following and not make rash promises that they might find trouble in fulfilling:—"The Moosomin World tells of a pretty school marm, who teaches the young idea in a rural district not more than a hundred miles from Moosomin recently made the offer to kiss the first pupil who arrived at the school next morning—as an incentive to punctuality. On going to the school the following morning she found six young men sitting on the fence where they roosted all night, three school trustees standing in the porch, and a couple of elderly farmers behind a desk in the school, they having crawled through a window. And each one declared he was the first and wanted the teacher to fulfill her promise. But the World omits saying who got the kiss.

Live Stock Market Toronto.

The Toronto Live Stock Market to-day was characterized by the same dull, listless trading as has prevailed throughout the last two weeks. As usual, there was but little demand for export cattle and the quality of the offerings was no better than it has been all week. Lambs continued at about yesterday's prices, being unable to recover the decline. Sheep were steady. There is only a prospect for a steady market at best for sheep and lambs next week. Hogs remained unchanged. Receipts were 71 loads including 1,052 cattle, 1,129 sheep, 2,000 hogs and 39 calves.

Export Cattle—Were dull and drab, sales being scarce and at low figures. There were but few sales of choice animals and they seldom brought more than $4.30 per cwt.

Butchers' Cattle—Were slow in selling and declined about 25c per cwt. Pickled lots would not bring more than $6.25 per cwt. There were very few good cattle offering.

Feeders—Were steady, selling firmly at unchanged prices. Short-keepers bring $2.75 to $4 per cwt and medium grades $3.25 to $3.75 per cwt.

Stockers—Were in poor demand and the offering were of inferior quality. Prices were unchanged.

Milk Cow.—There were only a few offering and as the demand was strong they sold well, around $48 and $47. There were no first-class milchers.

Sheep—Were steady and everything was cleaned up at $3 to $3.25 per cwt for export ewes, $2 to $2.50 per cwt for bucks and $2 to $3 each for culls.

Lambs—Were unchanged at yesterday's decline. Trials was fair and everything was sold at $3 to $3.40 per cwt. Prospects are about steady.

Hogs—Were unchanged at $5.75 per cwt for light and $6 per cwt for choice. There was a heavy run 2,000 being received.
