CONDOLENCE

On the death of the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McCracken, Gleneig.

We the officers and members of L. O. L. No. 119, Gleneig, take this our earliest opportunity of conveying to Bro. Jas. McCracken and to the members of the family our heartfelt sympathies for your recent sad bereavement. We doubt not but this sad event has come as a heavy blow to your hearts and thrown a dark shadow across the path of life, but amid all that is sad and sorrowful it should be a cause of pride and satisfaction to know that he has gone to that heavenly home where parting will be no more and we earnestly pray that in this dark hour you may receive comfort and consolation from Him who is the source of all help.

They loved him, yes, they loved him, But Jesus loved him more And He has sweetly called him To yonder shining shore.

The golden gates were opened; A gentle voice said come And with farewell unspoken, He calmly entered home.

Signed on behalf of the Lodge, G. A. LAWRENCE, W. M. Wm. FITCHE, Dist. M. Committee.

An editor in a nearby town asked for proposals from the merchants of the town to furnish him a pair of socks, a bushel of potatoes and five yards of calico, contract to be awarded to the lowest bidder. He says this is the way they do business with him when they want $2 worth of job work.

Pan-American Model Dairy Notes.

The superior staying powers of the Holsteins are now becoming manifest, and for the week ending October 1st, they stand first on the list in the butter profit test, beating the Jerseys by ten cents and the Guernseys by 47 cents.

However, Mary Marshall, of the Guernseys, still retains her lead as best cow in the barn, but her companion, Cassiopeia, who has been for a good deal of the time her closest rival, has been off her feed and drops 36 cents behind her for the week. An unusual record has been made during the week by the Polled Jersey Ora. She has been unable to properly digest her feed, presumably the ensilage, and has been sick and feverish. At one milking she gave 8 lbs milk, 2.50 per cent fat; the following milking, 5 lbs. 6.40 per cent fat; the third milking, 1.6 lbs. 16.30 per cent fat. This is by far the highest butter fat test yet made by any of the cows. The standing of the herds for the week is as follows:

Holsteins $7.56 Shorthorns $5.82
Jerseys 7.46 Brown Swis 5.81
Guernseys 7.09 French Canadian 5.44
Ayrshires 6.84 Polled Jerseys 5.24
Res. Polled 5.92 Dutch Belted 4.07

For the week ending October 8 some notable changes have taken place. The Holstein herd made a gain over last week as they are keeping up their flow of milk exceedingly well, but the Jerseys also made a decided spurt and tied blacks and whites for first place.

The Ayrshires are back again to third place, with the Guernseys fourth. Next come the French Canadians and the Shorthorns which are both doing good work and may yet succeed in passing the Guernseys before the close of the test. In such a case, all five of the Canadian herds would be ahead of the five American herds. The Guernseys obtained such a long lead in the early part of the test that they will doubtless be able to win first prize in the butter profit test, but as one cow is now quite out of the race they would probably be overtaken by some of the other breeds if the test were continued for a few weeks longer. The Brown Swiss cow, Hope of Minnesota, has been very sick during the week and it was feared that she would not recover, but she is now much better. Her case is the first in the history of the Dairy that it has been necessary to resort to medicine, which goes to show that the cows have been both carefully and skillfully fed and handled. For this week Beauty of Norval of the Holstein herd is the best cow beating Mary Marshall by five cents. Below is the net profit of each herd for week ending Oct. 8th:

Jerseys $7.58 Shorthorns $5.95
Holsteins 7.58 Brown Swis 5.85
Ayrshires 6.97 Red Polled 5.63
Guernseys 6.66 Polled Jerseys 4.93
Fr Canadians 6.38 Dutch Belted 3.95

The Model Dairy is now going along on the lines that were laid down when the warm weather came to an end. The Jersey and Holsteins are making the best showing, more especially as they are holding well together, while the Guernseys are week after week dropping more and more apart. They are now holding fourth place with the French Canadians in fairly good fifth, and that with one miniature cow that has never earned or eaten nearly as much as the average of the herd.

When they were brought into the Dairy they were a new element in the list and were considered much of a curiosity, but they have very well established their claim to good dairy qualities. They are of course something of northern animal and suffered more from midsummer heat than some others did as did also the Ayrshires which had not all been imported long enough to become fully acclimated. It is probable that the Canadian Shorthorns will make up a total that is larger in proportion to the others than was expected. The standing of the herds for the week ending October 15th is as follows:—Jerseys, $7.69; Holsteins, $7.31; Ayrshires, $7.02; Guernseys, $6.89; French Canadians, $6.01; Red Polls, $5.75; Polled Jerseys, $5.36; Shorthorns, $5.33; Brown Swiss, $5.18; Dutch Belted, $4.01.

Law! Law! has been the order of the day here lately. Two of our neighbors had a heavy suit in the division court at Dundalk, last week, over the covenants in a farm lease not being fulfilled by the tenant, the lease, it is alleged, had been tampered with and the covenants not kept. The tenant got off with paying a small amount of damages and some costs.

Some time ago I mentioned the mischievous tricks indulged in by some young men here and how a strong protest was effectual in putting an end to them. It seems things have got worse in Egremont and some Sunday night disturbances have taken place at the New England church where Mr. Kenning preaches. Complaints were entered before squire McGregor of Dundalk against the boys, two of them from our neighborhood, but the hiring of lawyers and the costs of law were effectual in putting a stop to proceedings, so the costs have been paid and the boys we trust will stand to the good resolutions made. Destroying property and annoying religious services and on Sunday too, is something beneath gentlemanly young men, such as all wish to have here. Mr. Kenning we understand, advised for peace and for trust in the boys.

An editor of one of our exchanges says that he and his wife disagree with each other materially. She sets things to rights and he writes things to set. She reads what others write and he writes what others read. She keeps the devil out of the house to the best of her ability, while he retains him on all occasions and could not go to press without him. She knows more things than she writes and he writes more things than he knows.
