Excelsior Condition Powder puts on a glossy coat—25c. a pkg. at MacFarlane's. A few lots window shades, 25c. each. Remnants of wall paper at MacFarlane's.

We notice by our exchanges that Ploughing Matches are "on." What is the matter with South Grey Institute that it couldn't "speed the plough" in this way as of old?

The Quarterly Sacramental Service and Love Feast will be held in the Methodist church Durham, on Sunday, a. m. Time of service 10.15. The pastor will preside.

Owen Sound Fair Directors have picked on Sep. 16th, 17th and 18th of next year for their Fall Show. Several weeks earlier than usual. They hope thus to get better weather and have engaged the 48th Highlander's band again.

Anniversary Services have been arranged for in the Presbyterian church on Sunday, Dec. 15th, and the Monday following, when the Rev. Mr. Dickie of Orangeville will preach. Further announcements will be made as to the Monday meeting.

AN EXCELLENT PHOTO.—The Toronto Star has our thanks for two very pretty things received lately: the souvenir number of the Royal visit, which for attractiveness of letterpress and illustration surpasses anything we have yet seen and is a very creditable production. The other nice thing is a large photo of the late Walter Massey whose premature death is so sincerely mourned in Toronto and elsewhere. The Toronto Star always does things well.

Peas, Try our Peas, at PARKER'S Drugstore.

Whose boy did it? Morning after Halloween—Father—"I wish I knew who was round here last night ringing bells, moving gates and disturbing the whole neighborhood." Mother—"Why dear, what difference would it make if you did know?" Father—"All the difference in the world—if it was those ragamuffins from down town they should be at once hauled up before the Mayor and fined as a lesson for all time—but if it was our own boys—Well it was just an innocent practical joke."

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.—Last week Mr. Campbell McIntyre, Mr. Diver and others were out shooting and as the former was enjoying a lunch entirely unseen by Mr. Diver the latter fired at a passing rabbit and some shot got into Campbell's leg. The incident illustrates a not uncommon danger even with the most careful hunters. Some of the shot have been removed and we are glad it was no worse and that no evil effects seem to be following.

CEMENT PROGRESS.—The splendid weather of late has allowed of great progress at the Cement Works. The vast filling in necessary for the rock-like foundations of the rotaries is completed and the octagonal foundations for the great tanks are also ready. Work is well advanced on the foundations of the chinker storage and dry grinding buildings also, and the track laying has been progressing favorably. To-day, Wednesday, it is expected the Grand Trunk authorities will have the frog in place and connection with the works at once established. A car load of machinery for the rotaries is at the station and more of it is on the way. The grading of the track to the lake is about completed and the ironing of it will proceed as long as the weather holds good. The office work is becoming thoroughly systematized and before long we expect to have still more extensive progress to report.

SAFELY HOME.—Mr. Will Harris, who was lately so alarmingly ill at Pilot Mound Man., as to have his life despaired of, arrived home Friday last, looking very well considering the terrible experience he passed through. His father returned with him, and needless to say the family reunion after an anxious week or two, was a very enjoyable one, and to Will's many friends in town his return in gaining health has been most gratifying. Mr. Harris on the way out had an excruciating experience being detained 22 hours in Winnipeg and never a ray of light as to what was taking place at his son's sick bed. However he found everything hopeful; Will, in the residence and under the immediate care of Dr. Ferguson and his wife, who was a skilled nurse, was recovering. The Dr. and his wife, in the face of pessimists who declared the patient could not live half an hour, had stuck to him with heroic remedies, and their efforts were rewarded with Will's life and the gratitude of his friends.

Coal Oil Lamps and Lanterns at PARKER'S Drugstore.

5c. a pound in trade or 4c. cash for live chickens at J. H. Brown's on Sunday. Also highest prices for dressed poultry of all kinds.

A clipping from the 'Ohan Times' regarding the death of a brother of Mrs. Neil McDougall, Crawford will appear next week.

Mr. H. W. Leeson, Varney, advertises his farm for sale in this issue. A clear title and many fine advantages makes this a desirable place.

The Post Office will be closed on Saturday, King's birthday, except for one hour after arrival of train. The bank will, we suppose also observe the day, while business will go on as usual.

LITERARY EVENING.—The Young People's Society of the Presbyterian Church will hold a literary evening on Monday next, the feature of which will be a debate on "Resolved that arbitration as a means of settling national disputes is feasible." There will also be music, instrumental and vocal, and an essay by one of the members.

Gentlemen Who Are Bald Or have thin hair, should call on Prof. Dorenwend at the Middaugh House, Durham, on Thursday, Nov. 21, and see his wonderful devices in Toupees and wigs worn on over 65,000 heads. Explanation and demonstration free. Private apartments at Hotel. Don't fail to see his new invention, patented all over the world.

KING AND QUEEN.—Loyal subjects everywhere will want a good portrait of King Edward VII and his beautiful Consort and one way to get them is to subscribe for the Montreal Star with the REVIEW. They are excellent portraits. They give also a fine reproduction of the famous Gainsboro picture. Call and see them at Review office.

A Thank Offering Meeting of the W. F. M. S. of the Pres. Church will be held on Thursday, Nov. 14, at 3 o'clock, and will be addressed by Mrs. Rev. Morrison, and Mrs. (Rev.) Broad, the latter a returned Missionary from India. A cordial invitation is extended not only to the ladies of the Presbyterian Church but to all interested in the work of foreign missions.

CLOSED IN DEBT.—The great Pan-American Show at Buffalo was closed on Saturday night at 12 o'clock by President Milburn, who touched a button and extinguished at once all the dazzling lights that had given such pleasure to thousands during the past summer. There is a deficit of over $4,000,000, and this experience will cool the ardor of several places who have been ambitious to have World's Fairs. The total attendance was only about six million people while 16 million and even higher were expected. The closing day was marked by riotous scenes and jublations and as the insurance had expired there was no check. The shows nearly all lost money, but the "Johnstown Flood" people made over $100,000. Those who love ruins will see them this week in Buffalo for the process of demolition has begun, the grounds having to be left in the park shape they were in previously.

THE FIRE BY-LAW.—The decision in the case of the Town V. McKinnon, non-compliance of the latter with the provisions of the Fire By-Law was given on Saturday night by Mayor Calder and the startling results demanded by the decision in 15 days fairly takes one's breath away. The decision summed up the legal aspects of the question and the evidence, and the verdict was pronounced that the building either had to be taken down or removed within the time specified above. Of course Mr. McKinnon will appeal and the vexed question of the validity of the by-law will be once for all settled. The sooner the better, if it be true that the town is likely to suffer in insurance rating unless the Fire by-law is enforced, and this we have been assured is the case. Other cases hang on this test case, and should the by-law be proved valid their will be a shaking in several quarters. If not valid it is well that we know it at once, for this town needs such a by-law, and it needs perhaps more a total divesting of personal animosity when public men deal with public questions. We want to get on a higher plane gentlemen. We want to pass by-laws and interpret by-laws in the light of public duty with every clause made as far as possible in such a way as to commend itself to all men, and satisfied of this, there should be a ready acquiescence in their requirements. The merits or demerits of this by-law will be shown in the appeal, unless, indeed, a committee of the council and Mr. McKinnon can arrive at some solution of the difficulty and thus save the costs and annoyance of litigation.

Mr. John Harvey and wife have moved to town from Toronto.

Mr. and Miss Gilmour, Hampden, visited at Mr. J. L. Brown's on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Idle, of Clarksburg, visited their daughter Mrs. Blackwell, this week.

Mrs. Blackwell, mother of Mr. Blackwell, miller, arrived from England last week. She went there from Clarksburg, 12 years ago, and will be a welcome guest with her son till Christmas.

Mr. Ehrhardt, book-keeper for the National Portland Cement Co., with his family, have moved into T. Black's new residence in Upper Town. We welcome our new neighbors heartily and trust they may find in their first Canadian home, health, happiness and prosperity.

Rev. Mr. Little and family have now become settled in the new manse. The building, which is a thing of beauty and a valuable acquisition to the town and the Presbyterian congregation, is also evidence of the ability and excellent workmanship of the several tradesmen who have had to do with its construction and furnishing.—Banner.

Oils, Paints, and painting material at PARKER'S Drugstore.

Halloween passed off with no very bad lapse on the part of the boys, though the ringing of door bells is a reprehensible practice. Amongst those moving gates on a wheelbarrow, we noticed pastor Farquharson, but we hasten to say this was next morning and he was very kindly placing it where it belonged—on Mrs. McIntosh's premises.

NEW INDUSTRY.—Mr. Neil McKeechnie is making enquiries into the possibilities of having an industry established here to make sewer pipes, etc., out of a certain waste material incident to Cement Works. Moderate capital is required. We hope to be able to report more of this.

A GREAT DOLLAR'S WORTH.—We have decided to give all paid in advance subscribers to the REVIEW for 1902 a copy of "The Canadian Annual" a finely illustrated Magazine of 32 pages, written up by such writers as Don and Mack of the Toronto Saturday Night. An advance copy of this Magazine can be seen at our office. We cannot give such a present every year, but we intend to mark the first Christmas of the Century in this way. The Magazine is an ornament to any parlor table.

TOWN COUNCIL. Met on Monday night. All present. A number of accounts were passed. Objection was raised to one presented by hotel keeper Hahn for board, etc., supplied to the unfortunate young woman from Egremont a few weeks ago. Mr. Hahn's claim is a perfectly just one but the council hold themselves not responsible as the girl was not brought or placed there by their authority or any of their officers.

We regret to learn only this week that by an accident in the mail the bundle of Edge Hill REVIEWS was several days late last week.

THE HONOR OF GREY COUNTY.

We have received the following letter from a valued subscriber in British Columbia, who, with other Co. Grey boys, are upholding the honor of their native county. We have no recollection of Grey ever having been beaten much less of any contestant being killed, but we would be pleased if any reader could throw light on the questions asked.

New Westminster, B. C. Oct. 17, 1901.

Editor Durham Review.

Dear Sir: Will you please inform me through your valued columns, if in tug-of-war matches, teams representing the counties of Bruce and Grey ever contested for supremacy; whether Bruce ever defeated Grey, and, who at present, hold the honors. Also, if in any match members of either team were killed, or died from the effect of the match. Who holds the championship of this continent at present. Yours Very Truly, A "B. C." Grey Boy.
