ROCKY SAUGEEN.

Everybody around here took the advantage of the fine weather the last couple of weeks and have got their roots up and are busy ploughing now.

Mrs. Tom Ewen and Mrs. Henry Rectory returned to their homes at Glencairn after spending a couple of weeks with parents and friends around here.

Miss Fanny McNally visited at Mr. Hugh McKechnie's the beginning of the week.

Mr. Peter McCullivray is engaged in Durham working at the cement.

Mrs. John Ewen and Aggie visited at Mr. John Vessie's on Tuesday.

Mr. Duncan McKenzie, of Durham, was delivering and taking orders for fruit trees around here last week.

Hallowe'en night passed off very quietly around here.

Mr. Allan McKinnon built a chimney on his new house last week. Well done Allan.

Mr. N. G. Dunsmore of the Rocky Hotel is making preparations to build a shed.

Mr. Dan Wilkie has his new house nearly completed.

What we would like to know? Who was the young lady that invited two young men to go for a drive with her on Sunday?

What time did the boys that drove north on Sunday morning get home? Where did the punctured wheel go?

HOPEVILLE.

W. W. Hall has returned from Sauli St. Marie.

Mrs. H. Allan has been at Owen Sound to meet friends there.

Mr. Wm. Kenning has gone to Montreal on a missionary tour and Mr. Geo. McLeach has come here to fill his place in his absence.

The new church is now completed. D. Allan did the carpenter work and painting and has given good satisfaction. We are expecting a big time at the opening.

Hallowe'en has passed over and the evil spirits tried to do some small dirty tricks here but did not succeed very well. The only thing of note was on Beer street to the north where a party of young people drove out from Donald's to visit one of our best farmers with one of Donald's best rigs. The time went well till the wee small hours in the morning and then they started home. Then the fun commenced one wheel of the coach and other things were missing but the men turned out to search and kept it up till daylight without any success so they had to borrow a rig to go home in, but however they took the full. All well.

Will those to whom we have sent accounts in the last few weeks, and who have not yet responded please oblige at once. We have to thank those who have attended to this small matter, not small to us by any means.

McCALLUM CONCERT at Dromore.

[We are indebted to an occasional correspondent for the following account of the concert last Wednesday in Amos Church—Ed.]

The concert here on Wednesday evening was quite a success and the audience seemed to enjoy it thoroughly. Miss McCullum, though suffering a little from tonsillitis, was up to expectations and showed a wonderful power of pathos in the Irish dialect piece at the same time showing herself perfectly at home in the Scotch dialect, in the "Mustard Plaister." She was encored freely.

Miss Jean Renwick has honor even in her own country and sang "The Land o' the Leal" and "Sing to me the Auld Scotch Sings" in particularly happy style, which is not depreciating the rest of her pieces by any means.

Rev. Mr. Campbell was in the chair and very happily conducted the proceedings complimenting the Dromore choir and their leader Mr. Wm. Ramage for the excellence of their music as well as the very generous and effective way they assisted at many entertainments, a generosity which merited every encouragement they got. We observed there Mr. Petrie from Holstein, some of the Marshall's from Normanby, the Hardy's and Aldcorn's from Swinton Park way and others.

IRISH LAKE.

It is sometime since we have noticed anything about our little place to we will endeavour to give some of its recent occurrences.

Miss Jennie McArthur spent a few days last week with her cousin Miss Jessie McRae.

The neighborhood has been again reminded of the sadness of death by the removing of one of our young boys in the person of Master Johnnie Conolly. He left for Sudbury about six weeks ago in his usual good health when on Monday his father Mr. Tom Conolly was called to his son's death bed. He died before his father reached him and was buried in Sudbury the following day. The deceased died from some ailment of the throat. To the sorrowing brothers and grieved parents we tender our sympathy.

Mrs. Donald McRae who has been laid up with a sore throat is able to be around again.

Messrs Malcolm Wilson, Donald McInnis and John O'Hearn left for timber making in Oprey Monday last.

North Egremont.

Mr. J. H. Moore, wife and child were visiting Mrs. Moore's parents at Mono Road last week.

Mr. John Legate, though not recovering rapidly was able, we were glad to see, to be at church Sunday last.

After a sojourn in the North West, Mr. James Laughton is home again and family and friends are pleased to see him.

Mr. John McBeth has nearly finished his crossway job and substantially done too.

Some grumbling over the Hemlock Hill job we hear and rate payers are resolved to see township money rightly spent.

Cattle king Brown was through here picking up cattle and pigs at good prices still, though lower than they were.

Mr. James Baxter has recovered some and is able to move about a little though weak.

Mr. Wm. Hunter of the 20th, is home from his old country trip and has many good things to tell. (Excuse this theft, Henry's Corners.)

Talk of a tea meeting at Ebenezer in about a month and they can get up a good one too, if they try.

Pleased to see from last week's Review that old residents of this part Mr. Rudolph Konold and wife (Miss Mary Bone) are prospering in Utah, and very sorry to see from the same source of the loss of Messrs Dan and Angus McKelvey, who mourn the loss of loved ones. Their old neighbors here sympathize with them.

We are enjoying the beautiful days we have had for the last couple of weeks. The woods are bare and barren looking; the buzzing of the wind indicates an approaching winter; roots of all description are securely housed for the winter, and now preparations are being made to meet the necessities required for winter demands.

Mr. Blakestone spent a few days at home at the beginning of the week and returned again to resume his studies at Owen Sound Collegiate.

Colin McLean finished thrashing and now he is again in town with his engine ready for chopping of all kinds. Mr. McLean has his chopper in running order now, so we will be well supplied as far as chopping goes.

We notice that Mrs. Simpson has hand bills out announcing cheap sales of furniture till New Year's, as she is giving up the business of her late husband, Mr. Jno. Simpson.

Mr. and Mrs. McGill, of Hamilton, spent a few days with Mrs. McGill's sister, Mrs. McDougall, south line Glenelg and returned again this week.

School has not commenced yet in S. S. No. 10 Glenelg, since the teacher Miss Leeson was attending her late sister's funeral at Varney.

Tax gatherers McCormack and Arrowsmith, of the adjoining wards are on duty for the last couple of weeks.

Taxes are somewhat lower this year showing that we have good officials ruling the affairs of our municipalities.

Hallowe'en was observed by some playing little tricks that didn't amount to much harm, a few gates were exchanged by the boys and in some instances the ladies had a hand in doing some mischief also in exchanging some of our bachelor's gates. Better if some of them would consent to exchange themselves for Bob than to be interfering with his gate.

Farquhar McKinnon came home after spending a few months down the country.

Mrs. N. McDonald's sale on Wednesday 20th, ult, went fairly well under the hammer of Auctioneer McCormack.

Mr. Sidney Blakestone sold his farm consisting of 150 acres, on the old Durham Road, Artemesia, lately for somewhat like $4500. The farm is a first class one.

Thos. Fisher bought Veterinary McIntyre's park lot of five acres in this village recently.

Miss Dixon, of Walkerton, who spent some time here visiting her brother Dr. Dixon returned home last week.

Balsam Valley.

We have been favored with fine weather the last couple of weeks and everybody has taken advantage of it by getting up their roots.

Mr. Frank Nester, of Desboro, Ont., formerly of Durham, visited at D. McIntyre's last week. He says we are not in it with the Germans of Desboro.

A very enjoyable time was spent at Jos Campbell's one night last week, and in spite of all the rain and darkness a large number gathered and smashed their feet on Joe's new floor and had a good time.

Four of our Review Scribes assembled at Joe's dance the other night and compared notes, and of course Archie was there with his blood and Neil had to take charge of two girls and Pete could not get through the darkness to get his best girl but however he fared alright anyway.

What we would like to know? What happened the stakes? If Archie was pleased the other night? If W. fell in the ditch strolling around McKechnie's.

What is a cigarette? Nothing more than a roll of paper, tobacco and poisonous drugs with a small fire at one end and a large foot at the other. Some of its chief employments are condensed here: Nightmare, fits, cancer of the stomach, spinal meningitis, softening of the brain, funeral processions, families shrouded in gloom. There are plenty of subjects left, however, who are perfectly willing to undergo trials of such a trivial nature for the sake of putting on a certain amount of style.—Ex.

BORN.

WATT—In Bentinck, on the 30th, of Oct. to Mr. and Mrs. James Watt, a daughter.

McDONALD—In Glenelg, on the 31st of Oct. to Mr. and Mrs. Neal McDonald, a daughter.

A DAUGHTER'S READING.

For those mothers who are anxious that their girls should read wisely rather than widely, there is a valuable article in the Nov. number of the "Delineator" describing the "Book Life of a Girl." It shows how, with a little assistance, her book reading can be so manipulated that she will be broadened out by her reading without the necessity of later being obliged to unlearn or forget pernicious books that may only be pernicious by having been read in advance of the time when she could comprehend their deeper and fuller meaning.

EDGE HILL.

Miss Maggie Ryan, Durham, visited at Jas. McCracken's over Sunday.

Miss Flo. Limin, of Durham, was the guest of Miss A. Staples, for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno Moffat, visited friends in the Glen last week.

Mr. Louis Pollock's smiling countenance, was so passing through our burg last week.

Miss Bessie Edge, is at present learning dressmaking, with Mrs. Warner, of Durham. Hallowe'en passed off quietly around here. No harm done, only one or two getting a very severe cold from the effects of damp feet.

Vina Kress, of Durham, was the guest of Miss N. Greenwood, for a week.

Pleased to here that Miss K. Staples, is improving in health.

A number from around here attended the party at Mr. D. McCullough's last Wednesday night and report a good time.

Mrs. Jas. Staples and son George, visited friends at Zion, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Milligan of Hamden visited friends on the avenue last week.

Mrs. H. McRayden and Mrs. J. H. visited friends in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Little of Proton visited the latter's parents over Sunday.

Mr. Jno and Will McFayden visited with friends near Mt. Forest last Sunday.

The members of the Edge Hill beef ring had a meeting at Mr. R. Ector's last Wednesday night and settled matters of the past season and are now ready for the coming year.

What we would like to know. What takes Norman to the Second so often? If the girls with the squash lanterns got home all right? If G. was in town since two weeks ago Saturday night?

PLOUGH SHARES.

All makes of ploughshares, soleplates, etc., from Soho Foundry, for sale at Lot 11, Con. 21, Egremont, (Thistle P. C.) W. RAMAGE.

RIGHTS OF PATHMASTERS.—At the last Division Court held here a case of more than ordinary interest was heard, during the course of which hearing some twenty-one witnesses gave evidence.

Mr. Matthew Scott, of Osprey, sued Mr. Lewis Moore for the price of some trees cut on highway opposite his premises and damages for their removal. Owing to the fact that Mr. Moore is a pathmaster of the township of Osprey, the public were under the impression that by virtue of his office he had power vested in him to remove these trees if he desired to do so, but this opinion has been negatived by the judgement handed out by Judge Morrison on the 16th.

The judge decides that as there was no bylaw or order of Council to remove the trees Mr. Moore had no right to do so, and places the damage in favor of plaintiff for $25 and costs.—Advance.
