Dromore.
Winter is now surely upon us and the chime of sleigh bells are to be heard as they fly along the road.

Quite a number from our town spent a very pleasant evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown last week.

Mr. P. Sterne is now settled in his new house. He says it is a better one than the old one.

We are sorry this week to report the illness of Mr. J. Laughon, who has been laid up for the past few days with bronchitis, but under the skillful treatment of Dr. Sneath we hope he will soon be around again.

Mr. W. J. Hay, who has been working all summer in the vicinity of Galt returned home Saturday looking well. The home of Mr. Wm. Long last Wednesday, 20th inst., was the scene of a large gathering, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Bella Brodie, niece of Mr. Long's, to Mr. Ben McKenzie, of this line. At a few minutes after 6 o'clock these two were brought face to face with the Rev. Mr. Campbell, who very soon made them man and wife. After all had wished them joy and happiness they all sat down to a bountiful table. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and costly presents.

A step in the right direction:—Dromore is to have a Public Library, the most of the books are here and the committee is losing no time in getting them in shape for giving out. In a few days it will be ready for all members to receive books and all who are not already members should not lose any time until they are. Just think for $1 per family, you can have all the reading you can do, of the very best books, for one year. The library will be kept in the store, J. M. Findlay Librarian. Open every day.

Mrs. Taylor, who has been visiting friends in Hepworth and Grandville returned home on Saturday.

EDGE HILL.

Mr. Will Dunsmore and his sister Clara returned to their home in Hamilton, after spending a month's visit with relatives and friends around Edge Hill.

Mr. Thos. Greenwood purchased a thoroughbred sow from Mr. H. Brigham last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ritchie visited friends in Arthur and while there Mr. R. purchased a valuable horse from Joseph Brown at Riverston. He is negotiating with Mr. H. Brigham for a thoroughbred cow and calf.

J. W. Firth, Edge Hill lost a valuable mare last week. Cause unknown.

Mrs. Garbett of Boamville, was visiting her uncle Mr. Jos. Firth, Sr. Edge Hill, accompanied by her sister-in-law Mrs. John Firth of town.

This community regret to hear of the death of Mrs. Geo. Anderson so long a respected resident in our neighborhood. She leaves to mourn her demise, husband, son and three daughters, as well as her brothers, John and Adam Weir and a sister Mrs. Robinson, of Kansas.

Miss Grace Greenwood who has been quite ill, we are pleased to notice is recovering.

Mr. Jas. Staples is out again for the Reeveship and meeting with encouragement.

VARNLEY.

Miss Vina Gadd left on Thursday last for Hamilton, accompanied by Miss Ester Wilkinson who has been visiting the parental home for the past few weeks.

Mrs. John Petty we are sorry to say is very poorly. Hope she may soon recover from her recent illness.

The Varnley Sunday School is preparing for a Xmas. entertainment, so you may look forward to a good time. Varnley can do it.

Mrs. D. Allan had a wood bee on Tuesday last cutting wood.

Miss Nellie Gadd intends leaving on Thursday for Toronto where she has secured a situation.

Mr and Mrs. C. Gadd were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Eden on Sunday last.

Mrs. T. Allan called on Mrs. John Carson lately.

Mr and Mrs. W. McCalmion were visiting James Eden's a week ago.

BROWNIES AT BROWN'S

The Dromore choir together with their friends and others had a very pleasant outing at the hospitable home of Mr and Mrs. Wm. Brown's one night last week, when a company of about forty young people gathered together and spent a night in mirth and songs and friendly chat. The time passed all too quickly on wings of such pleasure, as it is to be had here. The company after partaking of a sumptuous supper and having passed a vote of thanks for hospitality shown and embodying a desire for their future prosperity and happiness dispersed to their homes highly satisfied with their annual outing to this Mecca of music, at the hour of 8 in the morning.

The meeting was partly a farewell to Mrs. Marie and her daughter Maud who are shortly leaving for their home in B. C. Mr. W. Ramsay and Miss Agnes Renwick, organist, for Dromore choir were unavoidably absent. And Lang Syne brought to a close a meeting far more enjoyable and not attended with that weariness and probable injury to morals, attendant upon the old time dances. Long may the participants hie and long live the King.

DIED.

McINNIS—In Glenelg, on Monday, Nov. 25th, only son of Mr. and Mrs. P. McInnis, aged, 5 mos.

ANDERSON—In Glenelg, on Sunday, Nov. 24, Mrs. Geo. Anderson.

MARRIED.

MIGHTON—MILLIGAN.—At the Rectory, Durham, by the Rev. Rural Dean Ryan on Wed. 20th. inst. Mr. Thomas Mighton and Miss Mary Milligan, both of Bentinck.

—Col. Lynch, who personally fought with the Boers was last week elected M. P. for Galway by a vote of 1247 to his opponent's 473. If he attempts to take his seat he will be arrested as a traitor. Truly British complacency to disloyal utterances and actions by its own people is going to be severely tested. Here we have Mr. John Redmond M. P. in Canada, giving utterance to sentiments which would not be tolerated in any other civilized country. Fancy some of his conferees publicly thanking God for British reversals!

—Dr. Barr has been again selected by the Conservatives of Dufferin as their Candidate at the coming election.

HOTEL RULES.—A Toronto hostelry has cards tacked up for the information and convenience of its guests and visitors which are by no means common. The perusal of them is bound to produce sound sleep and a good appetite: "Board 50c. per square foot, meals extra. Breakfast at 5, dinner at 6, supper at 7. Guests are requested not to speak to the dumb waiter. Guests wishing to get up without being called can have self-raising flour for supper. Guests are requested not to play any games more exciting than Old Maid after 7 p.m., so as not to disturb the night clerk's slumbers. Guests wishing to do a little driving can find a hammer on the stand. Not responsible for diamonds, bicycles, or other valuables kept under pillows. They should be deposited in the safe. If the room gets too warm open the window and see the fire escape. If you're fond of athletics and like good jumping, lift the mattress and see the bed spring. Baseballists desiring a little practice can find a pitcher on the stand. If the lamp goes out, take a feather out of the pillow, that's light enough for any room. If you're troubled with nightmare you'll find a halter on the bed-post. Married men without baggage are requested to leave their wives with the proprietor for security. In case of fire you can find the fire escape half a mile from the house. Don't worry about paying your bill; the house is supported by its foundations."

The Christmas number of the Delineator is about the first of the special Christmas issues. It is a beauty. The cover is a most artistic production showing a beautifully gowned woman standing gracefully in a brilliantly lighted salon. Two charming love stories, one by Cyrus Townsend Brady, plenty of advice regarding Christmas Gifts, timely pointers on Cookery. Winter-time care of Plants, all the fashions of the day interpreted into simple language, can be found in the Christmas number of the Delineator. It is a splendid magazine, satisfactory inside and out. There is no magazine for women at present published that is more practical in all its pages. As a Xmas gift itself, it bears its own recommendation.

PORTRAIT OF THE KING.
The most readable paper in Toronto these days is The Star. It is enterprising in its news departments, and independent and entertaining editorially. In its business management it is always keeping things moving. Just now it is offering free to new subscribers a magnificent portrait of the King printed in nine colors in the finest style of lithography. The offer is the most liberal of any paper. The Daily Star is sent to new subscribers until January 1st, 1901, and also a copy of the magnificent picture of the King for $1.50, the price of the paper alone for a year. A copy of the picture was sent to His Majesty the King, and an acknowledgment from the Lord Chamberlain expresses his appreciation of its cleverness, and says the portrait was seen by His Majesty—later an unusual honor.—The Star with portrait of the King, the Review, and Canadian Annual to January 1, 1903, all for $2.50.
