The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church held their monthly tea on Friday evening, at Mrs. Ed. Burnet's.
LAST NOTICE.—All notes and accounts due me must be settled by Dec. 29, next. After that date, costs will be added.

Buy your heavy rubbers for winter wear at J. H. BROWN'S, Holstein. Only first quality goods sold and every pair guaranteed to give satisfaction.

Our pattern hats have reached the time-limit and now they're all going. Some people are going to get bargains at IRELAND'S. Why didn't you?

LAST CALL.—Parties indebted to W. Calder by Note or Book account must settle finally on or before Nov. 30. This is the last call.

Dec. 27th, is the date fixed by the Methodist S. S. for their annual entertainment. Yule tide in Song and Story is the title, and preparations are going on.

Its not too soon to select Xmas presents. See MACFARLANE'S Stock.

The Toronto Mail and Empire says:—"Mr. Rochab Tandy sang with power and feeling, his interpretation and enunciation being especially good." On Dec. 16, he appears at the Pres. Church Concert in the church.

20 lbs. Granulated Sugar, $1.00, 6 lb. Figs, 25cts. 4lb. Currants, 25cts.—At PARKER'S.

The pupils of S. S. No. 1, Glenelg, (Business School) will give an entertainment in the school on the evening of Dec. 20th. Program begins about 7:30, P.M. All are invited.

Prof. Alexander of Toronto University, will give the first of a series of lectures under the auspices of the Public Library on Friday evening, Dec. 20. His lecture is on "The Novel, its History and Uses", and the subject under his brilliant treatment is most highly spoken of. We hope an intelligent Durham public will support heartily this move of the Library Board.

HOUSE OF REFUGE.—The County Council, Friday last, unanimously appointed a committee to secure all information as to cost of building, equipping and running a House of Refuge, they to report to January session. From this unanimity and the Report of Grand Juries of late, the indications are that we are within measurable distance of having this benevolent institution established in our county.

Toilet Soaps, All the best makes. Toilet Soap from 20cts. doz. At PARKER'S.

CEMENT NOTES.—A new feature at the works this week is the arrival of 7 carloads of pine timber for use in the warehouse and clay storage buildings. It comes from Victoria Harbor and is part of a $20000 order for similar material. The slating of the Machine shop is now completed and the finishing touches are being put on doors and windows. Another carload of rotary machinery is to hand.

A pair of Gold Rimmed Glasses makes a nice Xmas present. Festing free, at MACFARLANE'S Drug Store.

A SOCIAL EVENING.—On Thanksgiving eve the members of Dromore choir and a large number of young people from there to Henry's corners, accepted an invitation from Miss Mary Gordon, teacher at No. 12, Egremont, to spend an evening at her home in Durham. The party numbered about 30 and included the Renwick's, the Lothians, the Isaacs, the Adams, the Henrys, the Hunters, Miss Mary Scott, Messrs Jno. Wilson, H. Sterne, Jas. Coleridge and Mr. and Mrs. William Ramage. Needless to say they were most hospitably entertained by Mr and Mrs. Gordon, and until the wee sma' hours the spacious rooms rang with music and merriment. At the close on behalf of the choir and party Mr. Wm. Ramage moved a vote of thanks to the hosts of the evening which was heartily endorsed, after which Auld Lang Syne was rendered in regulation style by the whole company. Wraps and rigs were then in demand for the pleasant home drive.

Baby Cutters and Hand Sleighs, at MACFARLANE'S.

You can save big money by buying a watch now at MACFARLANE'S Jewellery Store. A guarantee with every watch. All must be sold by Jan. 1st.

EARLY RISING.—The Furniture Factory on Monday last began using a hoarse steamboat whistle which at a quarter to six in the morning wakes all but the soundest sleepers to life's activity.

Our confere of the Chronicle has reduced his paper to the 6-column quarto size and will now print both sides thus giving a much larger space for local control.

It pays to buy the best to be had in rubbers. When you buy "Granby" you get the best. We have a full stock, including the famous "Snag Proof." No second quality, heavy rubbers sold. J. H. BROWN, Holstein.

The Lacrosse Club's concert, Tuesday evening was fairly well attended. Mr. Carnahan was quite a success in stage manner, voice and selections and rendering was good, Miss Whelpley proving an able accompanist. Mr. Smedly did not impress us so favorably though his manipulation of his instruments was decidedly clever.

Coal Oil, One Car, American and Canadian at PARKER'S.

SAYING GOOD BYE.—On Sunday evening last the seating in the Baptist church was quite inadequate to accommodate the large number who met to hear the farewell sermon of Rev. W. McGregor who is shortly to take charge of a congregation in Grayhurst. The Rev. gentleman took his text from 1 Cor. 1:23 "We preach Christ crucified," and showed that the practice of the great apostle must be followed by modern preachers if similar results to his were to be attained. He drew a distinction between "preaching Christ" and "preaching about Christ," which latter may be merely an intellectual effort without feeling or responsibility. He made no special reference to his leaving except what was incidentally included in the exhortation he gave, that a warm welcome should be given to his successor, Rev. Mr. Newton and his wife, that Rev. Mr. McGregor has been a faithful preacher of Christ crucified during the 9 years of his stay in Durham is admitted by all, and very sincere regret is felt, even outside of his own congregation at his removal. He has ever in the midst of his sacred duties been a genial and public spirited citizen and hearty good wishes will follow him to his new field. On Monday evening the Young People's Union had their goodbye when the address, given below, and a purse of money was presented. This meeting was held at Rev. Mr. Stewart's residence, and a very pleasant evening, social and musical was spent. He made a very appropriate and feeling reply to the kindly worded address. On Thursday evening a congregational good-bye will take place in the church to which brother clergymen and others are invited.

Rev. Mr. McGregor, Dear Pastor and friend,— At the close of your ministry here before taking your departure from this church, we the young people of the Baptist Union here desire to show in a tangible manner our deep and sincere appreciation of your helpful services among us. We trust that the great truths of God's Word which you have so often and faithfully endeavored to impress upon our minds will not be forgotten, but may be like the good seed cast upon good ground, which will bear fruit abundantly in the years to come.

We now take much pleasure in presenting you with this purse and contents, as a token of our esteem and good-will trusting that wherever your lot may be cast that God's blessing may attend your labors and rest upon you and yours. Signed in behalf of the B. Y. P. U. Augusta H. E. Stewart, J. L. Browne, Alex. MacArthur, Maude Caldwell, Nettie M. Browne.

Rev. Mr. Farquharson is in Toronto this week attending the conference of the Knox College Alumni. The meetings begin on Monday afternoon and end on Friday. Besides a number of questions of a practical character, there will be discussed in a series of papers, the Mission of the prophets in the Old Testament and in another series of meetings, will be discussed the Teaching of Jesus regarding God, Man and Himself. Mr. Farquharson is down on the programme for a contribution on 'The Teaching of Jesus concerning God.'

THE DEATH ROLL

JAS. BAXTER. On Sunday last, after several months of illness, the above gentleman passed off away at the ripe age of about 80 years, and was laid to rest on Tuesday in Ames Church graveyard beside his two sons James and Donald. The deceased was one of the pioneer settlers of North Egremont and before that worked at his trade of shoemaker in Durham away back in the 50's of last century. He was a man of more than average intelligence, and of stern unbending integrity. He was one of the first elders in the Presbyterian church of Durham, and for many years walked the 8 1/2 miles to attend Rev. Mr. Park's services. Later, of course, he cast in his lot with Ames Church and was an elder there for years also. As kind neighbor and hearty genial friend he will be long remembered, as well as in the more tender relationships of the home. Besides his widow he leaves as chief mourners 5 sons and 6 daughters. Robt. on the homestead, John, Colin, Arch, Richard, at various points. The daughters are Mrs. Renton, Durham, Mrs. Walker, (Mary), Jane, Helen and Charlotte, Toronto, Maggie in Buffalo. Misses Jane and Lottie came home Saturday, and Maggie and Richard were expected on Monday evening.

MRS. THOS. GADD. On Sunday evening after several years prostration by a lingering disease, the above lady was called home, and husband and family mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother. She was a daughter of the late Arch Thompson, Normanby, and a sister to Messrs John, Arch, and William Thompson still of the Township and to Mrs Wm. Gadd and Miss L. Thompson, of Durham. Besides her husband there remains to mourn a kind mother 5 sons and 4 daughters. Thos in the West, Ernest at Hepworth, James, Arthur and Harry, at home, Lizzie, Mary (Mrs. Jas. Petty,) Louisa, Lydia. She is to be buried at Maplewood cemetery on Wednesday, Rev. Mr. Campbell conducting the services.

MR. ROBERT MARSHALL. Once more we learn to-day, Tuesday, that the grim reaper gathered in another useful life, which will, without doubt, be the greatest loss of the three. Mr. Marshall was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Marshall, L. O. I., on the 3rd Con. of Normanby, and was married to a daughter of Mr. Geo. Adlam, Bentinck. For the past few years he has resided on his farm north of the Rocky and about two weeks ago was attacked by appendicitis, which, after a heroic struggle, has carried him off. To the widow and 5 young children in the now clouded home we extend deepest sympathy in their sudden bereavement. His parents, his only brother Albert, his sisters Barbara and Mrs. And. Marshall, and Miss Mary Marshall, will feel his loss acutely and with them also we bow the head.

WOOD.—Our Subscribers who pay, or who have promised to pay in wood, would oblige us by delivering as soon as possible.

MODEL SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS.—The Teachers intending to write for renewals of certificate will note that the written work of the above examination will be taken on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

Will be at Middaugh House, Durham on Thursday Dec. 19.

Ladies and Gentlemen, see Prof. Dorenwend's beautiful Wigs, Toupees, Bangs, Wavy and Plain Fronts, Switches in every length and shade, etc. Read Ad. on page 8.

NOT IN IT.—Mr. Neil McCannel assures us he has no intention of standing for Co. Commissioner, as he contends Bentinck has the right to the uncompleted term. Mr. Staples, we believe, has his eye on Glenelg reeveship. Mr. Dan McDougall we are credibly informed is not aspiring, so the field is clear for Duncan McLean. All satisfied?

Rev. Mr. Farquharson is in Toronto this week attending the conference of the Knox College Alumni. The meetings begin on Monday afternoon and end on Friday. Besides a number of questions of a practical character, there will be discussed in a series of papers, the Mission of the prophets in the Old Testament and in another series of meetings, will be discussed the Teaching of Jesus regarding God, Man and Himself. Mr. Farquharson is down on the programme for a contribution on 'The Teaching of Jesus concerning God.'

PERSONAL MENTION

Rev. T. Farr, Attwood, was home for thanksgiving.

Mr. E. T. McClocklin spent a few days in Flesherton.

Mr. Wm. McMurdo was in town on Tuesday and gave the Review a call.

Miss Winnie Wallace, spent thanksgiving with Miss Beaton, near Rob Roy.

Miss Lena Wolf, spent Sunday at Welbeck, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander.

Mrs. Ernest Rowe left Tuesday morning on an extended visit to her home in Guelph.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Rombough, spent thanksgiving at the latter's home, Mr. John Barker's.

Mr. Sheppard of Appleby, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with his daughter Mrs. Sadie Torry.

Miss Sadie McLellan, of Guelph, was the guest of Miss Darcey, during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mrs. Bert Cooper, of Fordwich, spent Thanksgiving and following days with her sister Mrs. Bean, returning home Monday evening.

Mr. T. Whelan, ate his thanksgiving turkey with his son John in Hepworth, and Mrs. Whelan, with Mrs. Urquhart, in Beeton.

Mr. W. Cameron, of Lauder, Man., arrived at his father-in-law's Mr. Carson's last Friday night where he will visit for some weeks, when Mrs. Cameron and baby who have been here for two or three months will return home with him.

F. W. Gokey, formerly a veterinarian in this town, is setting up business at Port Elgin. He was in Durham last week and gives an intelligent talk of South African experiences. He has volunteered to go with the contingent now forming.

Rev. Mr. Irvine, of Listowel, filled the Methodist pulpit very acceptably last Sunday, in the absence of the pastor, who took "Young People's Day" at Listowel. Mr. and Mrs. Smith spent Thanksgiving at the latter's old home, near Niagara.

Mr. Alex. Marshall, who lately sold holus-holus all his real and personal property to Mr. H. Burnet, has sailed for Scotland. A brief letter to his brother John merely tells this fact and expresses the hope that, if they never meet on earth, they may in Heaven. We hope "Sandy" may have a pleasant voyage and a safe return.

Mrs. Rev. Campbell, of Mulock, attended the W. C. T. U. meeting at Mrs. Ed. Burnet's on Monday.

Mr. Arch Cole, Flint Mich., came over last week for a brief visit to old scenes, and left on Monday, but not alone. On Saturday last he led Miss Minnie McIntyre to Hymen's altar, and they twain have united their fortunes in wedlock. We wish them much joy and lifelong happiness.
