SONG SERVICE AT AMOS CHURCH.

On Sunday evening Dec. 1st, a song service was held by the C. E. Society of this church which is still in a flourishing condition. Atter the usual opening service and responsive reading, a quartette, "His Child" by the Misses Isaac and Messrs Isaac and Coleridge, Solo, by Miss Jean Renwick, also quar. by Misses Jean Renwick and Sarah Isaac, and Messrs J. Wilson and W. Isaac sang "Drifting with the tide" An essay by Geo. Lothian on "Giving Thanks " who introduced his subject by citing the trials of early pioneers, the puritans of early days and their manner of thanksgiving. Drew comparison be-tween theirs and ours, not sufficient gratitude : had we a famine it would wake us up to a more thankful spirit in future years. Spoke on the wonderful gifts of God, in the rain and the sunshine, the sprouting of the grain, and the warmth of summer to the proper ripening. Each day should be one of Thanksgiving.

In the six references to the miracle of the loaves and fishes, the thanks given were always mentioned. Paul in his shipwreck in the midst of excitement took time to give thanks. Day of Thanksgiving should be more aniversally observed. Ingratitude was one of the basest sins. The fruit of our lips should be praise to God It was a very good paper, and well handled. A male quartette, " Thou shalt rest at eye" Messrs Coleridge, Ramage, Isaac and Wilson, and "When the mists have cleared away " by Misses Scott and E. and S. Isaac and Messrs Isaac and Coleridge were then rendered.

books that we should read. A pressing subject in this locality in view of the large public library recently established here. Books of Geology commended, as tracing the footsteps of the Creator in the formation of the earth and His wonderful love in laying up a a store for future use of mankind in the shape of coal and other minerals. Some works of fiction concemmed some so called religious ones even some of them imparts no vigor to the mind, has on the other hand a debilitating your interest or calling. A great many in their printing in their binding and even in their title, are made to sell: such works as the Pilgrim's Progress develop a substantial religion, while Sheldon and some others are superficial. Aimless, desultory rambling from book to book was a loss of time. Study biography of great men nothing has so much tended to greatness and to moulding of after life as a famous author, " an ounce of love is ed this little matter. worth a pound of knowledge, giving your attention and love to the best of books the Bible wherein is contained the story of Christ's redeeming love.

The meeting closed with a doxology and benediction by Mr Jas. Snell, who in company with Miss Ida Lester led the meeting.

A large audience turned out, many being there from a distance.

A merry Xmas. time is promised for the Sunday School : preparations are now in progress. Many bid good bye and wished safe journey to Danny Ferguson who with his wite leaves today for New Mexico, to benefit her

-A contingent of Canadian Statesmen would not be a bad thing to send to South Africa to guide the counsels of those conducting the war. We would hate to spare him, but could Sir Wilfrid Laurier and a few of his cabinet, with Sir Chas. MOTHER Fell asleep in Jesus Dec. 11th, 1900 "Though dead, she yet speaketh,"

[The subject of the following poem was a sister of Mrs Arch, McLean and of Mr. Wm, Irvine, both of Bentinck, The poem reached us some time ago, but we regret owing to a mistake in filing its publication has been delayed.—Ed.]

The thoughts that cluster round A Godly mother's memory? Oh where shall words be found To utter all to God we owe, Because in love, He blessed us so.

How can we adequately tell The value of her prayers, To him who hears, her hopes were breathed,

Life's burdens and its cares. With patience, meekness, faith un-She pleaded oft for those she loved

Her confidence was firmly placed In Christ's atoning death, Exalted, magnified His name,

Until her latest breath. A legacy this of worth untold, Tis more to me than worlds of gold. God's will is best and he saw fit

To try her with the rod, But trial only seemed to bring Her soul more near to God. She suffered, struggled, yearned for

Till Jesus gently whispered "Come" She passed to that fair world above, Where all is peace and joy, Where songs of praise, eternally,

Ten thousand tongues employ. And when, some day, I'll join her

I'll praise God for a mother's prayer

Greenock, Scotland. Live Stock Market Toronto.

The holiday and the bad weather have served to depress the trade for the week of the Toronto Cattle Market. There was only a poor trade of a very draggy and lifeless character to-day. Export cattle, though in fair demand, did not offer at all. Butchers' cattle also were in rather better demand, but the offerings bought at fair figures. Stockers have not changed much of late, and are selling about steady. Sheep are of the dullest animals on the market for a couple of weeks. Lambs are firmer, with prospects of still better market next week. Hogs showed no change to-day. Market receipts were 55 loads, which included 727 cattle, 725 sheep, 1,285 hogs and 20

Export Cattle-There was no offerings to-day, although the demand is still good. They would sell at about $4.50 to $4.75 per cwt. and perhaps a little more for particular choice cattle. Butchers' Cattle-Were in good demand to-day, but the quality of the offerings was yery poor. Prices are about steady at $4 to $4.40 for picked lots, $3.65 to $3.90 for choice and $3 to $3.65 for common to fair animals.

Feeders-The demand has fallen off greatly and offerings are less plentiful, Steers sell at $3.50 per cwt and bulls at $2.50 to $3.
