600D BYE TO A PASTOR. Kind Words To Rev. Mr. McGregor

The Baptist Church on Thursday evening last was well filled with an audience of various denominations and | cation, Mr. Watson; Printing, Mr. Schenk; with representatives from town and Communications and Memorials, Mr. M. country, all met to honor the pastor and public man who for about 8 yrs. has ably filled the Baptist pulpit here and won great esteem as a citizen.

Dr. Jamieson, M. P. P., who, by proximity and public station was chosen as a fitting chairman, filled the position admirably and voiced the sentiment uppermost in all minds and echoed in various strains by each succeeding speaker.

sent apologies) and Rev. Mr. Pomeroy the chairman called on Rev. Mr. Stewart, the veteran Baptist clergyman, who from the yerge of 90 years is still good fer platform effort, being, as the medical chairman said, a physical and mental wonder. He opened with a facetious reference to the great men of Aberdeenshire (of which he and Mr. McGregor were natives). He had recommended Mr. McGregor 8 yrs, ago and had seen no reason to change his mind. He had frequently, however, told him that he was not in his place, for when one can preach to 1000 as well as 100 " thats his place." There were calls and calls. Some men call themselves, some the church called, some are called by God himself and other the devil calls, this last being a kind of partnership with the first, Mr. Stewart made the speech of the evening, and the chairman's remark was justified that he would like to have heard him in his prime if what he had given was a specimen of "couldn't make his tongue go" as Mr. Stewart had complained of.

Messrs Irwin and Ramage followed and as the latter was speaking Rev. Mr. Farquharson arrived, having come from Toronto a train earlier to be pres- Congwatulations. ent. He remembered the kind words Mr. McGregor had extended to him on on Dec. 20, Owah school am No. 1 coming to Durham, and could testify to the genuineness and warmth of the sentiment entertained towards this brother minister. Though not on the program the chairman called on Messrs John Brown and C. McArthur both members of the weeks ago. New-McGregor's personal walk and the ability ton and Christian character of his gospel ministrations. They were pleased to see the town appreciated their pastor as well as his own congregations.

Mr. McGregor followed, saying he neyer knew before he was such a preacher, and hoped the many kind things he had heard would inspire him in his future work. A true ministry belonged to the people, he believed in an Allan. educated ministry and all educational gifts and graces should be used to lift humanity. He saw good in all churches, and learned to esteem all workers by whatever name. If he had given to them he assured them they had also given to him. He liked quality in churches as well as quantity, every soul was a Kingdom, the solidifying of men was the true test of success. He thanked all once more for their kindness, however expressed and assured them he would never forget them.

COUNTY COUNCIL.

SATURDAY MORNING. By-laws, 608 and 609, the first for the appointment of a special committee to deal with the Crispin bridge queston, and the latter to adopt the arms of Earl Grey as the county seal, and repeal by-law 76 were introduced. The latter by-law was left over till January session, and will be the first county document to be stamped with the new seal.

The warden referred to the resignation of Mr. Reis, with whom he declared he was sorry to part. Mr. Reis replied briefly stating that his resignation was made on account of the business in which he was embarking. Mr. Gordon followed and presented Mr. Reis with $5 as a gift from No. 1 division. The recipient accepted the gift with thanks, remarking that No. 1 division was well off, and he only wished the others could do the same.

Mr. Shute moved that the third day of January session be appointed to consider the question of equalization of assessment.

Mr. Allen moved in amendment that a committee of eight members, one from each division be appointed to meet on the Monday afternoon preceding the January session for the purpose of revising the county valuation and report thereon. The amend ment was lost on a division of 7 yeas and 9 nays. Mr. Shute's motion was carried on a division of 11 yeas and 5 nays.

On motion Mr. McDonald took the chair, and Massrs. Gordon and Doyle moved the thanks of council to the warden, Mr Geo. A. Brown, for the able, courteous and impartial manner in which he had conducted the business through the year, and also voted him $100 to defray expenses. The motion was carried by standing vote, only McArthur keeping his seat. Mr. MeArthur then rose to say that he a greed with the sentiment of the motion. but was opposed to granting money without knowing what it was for. He humorously referred to the rapidity of action of the mover of the resolution which prevented him entering a protest in time. Mr. McArthur was called to order by the chair man, who then presented Warden Brown with the resolution just past. The Warden, after resuming the chair. expressed his thanks and gave an account of reception given him at Meaford after his ; passing through our burg one day recently, election as Warden in January last. He then acknowledged having received great assistance from county clerk, in discharg- contingent is to be "The Second Mount- A. Messrs. Ries and Doyle moved that $10 each be voted the chairman of Finance, Mr. Preston; County Property, Mr. Gordon Roads and Bridges, Mr. McKinnon: Edu-Colman: and $5 to the chairman of Judiaial Audit, Mr. Allan.

Mr. Harness opposed on legal and economical grounds. He believed the commisioners got good enough pay, when they got what they could send in accounts for. This vote involved an expenditure of $65, Durham. and he would oppose it even if alone in

Mr. Ries said if this vote was wrong then the Warden should get nothing either Principal Allan spoke first and He had heard that the county was free branched out on the importance of from debt; besides it had been customary

Mr. Doyle also supported the grant. Messrs.
