BOOTHVILLE.

A prominent figure of this neighborhood passed over to the greater number on Dec 20 last in the person of Mrs Wm Booth. For several years she has not been in good health but no fatal termination was looked for until within a few days of her death. Mrs Booth was a native of Ireland, and came to this country some 28 years ago, shortly after which she was married to Mr Wm Booth who predeceased her 5 or 6 years, She was a conscientious, Christian woman, a great reader and yery intelliwas a true and tried friend.

She leaves as chief mourner, one daughter, Miss Eva, who has attended faithfully to the duties of postmaster since it was established here and at the same time was an attentive and devoted daughter during her mother's illness. Mrs Reiley, Priceville, is a sister of the deceased. Rev. Mr Matheson conducted the service at the house. Rev Mr Varley at the Methodist church, Proton. There was a large funeral.
