MacFarlane's Laxative Grip Tablets prevents the Grip—use them—25c a box. Use Dr. Chesney's Cough Powder for your Horse, at Darling's Drug Store.

HOUSE LOT and STABLE for Sale. A snap for $500. J. A. HUNTER. A load of Fpworth Leaguers went with Revd. and Mrs. Smith to Zion last Sunday to take part in the annual missionary service.

SERVE HIM RIGHT.—The engineer of the Harriston Pork Factory has been convicted and given a long sentence for inciting and instructing three boys to commit a burglary.

Miss Sophia Burnet is being initiated into the mysteries of the Post Office here, the serious illness of Mrs. Smith necessitating the presence of her daughter at home. We welcome Miss Burnet to town again.

THE WEATHER.—The cold and the blizzard of Monday last came as a disagreeable break to the fine winter we so far had had. "The best winter I ever saw" was a common remark, and now with the days lengthening we can stand the cold strengthening, and look over little February's head to spring-like weather in March.

Fax for Phun! Then hear Phax on Jan. 30. Plan at MacFarlane's drug store.

THE CARNIVAL.—This the first of the season, was quite a success, though the big race did not come off, the timidity of several preventing them from facing our own Nat Swallow. The masqueraders helped to brighten up the rink and in their own way furnished amusement. We hope the band boys may have a successful season.

Poultry, Crystal Grit, Oyster Shell and Red Albumen—At Parker's. Horse and Cattle Salts, 10 lbs. for 25c At Parker's.

THE LATE MRS. JOHN LAWRENCE.

The removal by death of a centenarian is an event so rare that it may well be taken notice of. Three score and ten years is a standard old age limit for some thousands of years, and though advancing years too often bring labor and sorrow, the subject of our sketch was wonderfully fortunate in having her physical and mental faculties so well preserved that she was able to walk abroad and look out upon life, among loving friends, long after many of her generation, her husband included, had gone the way of all flesh.

Mrs. Lawrence was born in County Wicklow, Ireland, away back in March 1801, at least, though some members of her family think it was 1800, and if so, she touched the 18th, saw the whole of the 19th and over a year of the 20th century. In 1826 she was married, and reared the most of her family on the old sod. In 1849 they emigrated to this country and after living 2 years in Ferris, they moved to the wilds of County Grey, to South Glenelg, where, or near where, her lot has since been cast. Her husband died in 1868, so that she spent nearly as long in widowhood as she did a wife. To this pair were born 7 sons and 2 daughters and their name and virility is reproduced in the abundant offspring of the 3rd and 4th generations, who met on Friday to lay their venerated ancestor in the grave.

The sons are Thos. (now deceased) Samuel, John, William, Henry, James, George, all well known and living near here except James who is in Dakota. The daughters: Mrs. Hopkins, who died about 18 years ago, and Mrs. Wm. McFadden of Egremont.

Figures give a poor idea of the lapse of time. She was a wife and mother before Queen Victoria began to reign, yes, before Wm. IV. Such things as Reform Bill, Corn Laws, Penny postage came years after her early widowhood. When the Queen was born she was a sprightly Irish maiden of 19. When Waterloo was fought and won she was old enough to rejoice, and before the name of Napoleon had spread terror over Europe, her voice was heard in childish prattle, but

"Time rolls his ceaseless course. The race of yore, Who danced our infancy upon their knee, And told our marvelling boyhood legends' store, How are they blotted from the things that be."

The funeral on Friday was largely attended, and the Methodist church was crowded at the mortuary service. This was conducted by her pastor, Rev. Wray Smith who gave some interesting personal experiences and preached very appropriately. The remains were interred in Trinity church cemetery beside that of her husband.

Harness Oil, the best, 25c a quart—At Parker's. Carr's Cough Cure is fully guaranteed to cure colds—at MacFarlane's Drug Store.

ENGINEER WANTED at once. Good wages to the right man. Apply at this office.

NOTICE.—All parties indebted to the undersigned are requested to call a once and settle their accounts by cash or note.—C. MCARTHUR.

Sulphur, 11 lbs. for 25c—At Parker's. The Board of License Commissioners for S. Grey are the same as last year: P. Phelan, Dundalk; Thos. Poehman, Hanover; Wm. Caldwell, Durham.

The revival meetings in the Methodist church are in progress this week. Rev. Mr. Farquharson and Rev. Mr. Newton are to assist for a night each. The attendance and interest have been very good.

We are in receipt of a copy of the Times-Democrat, Pawnee, O. T. U. S., with a marked article about threatened trouble among the Pawnee Indians. We are unable to establish any local connection.

CURLING.—Two rinks of enthusiastic Owen Sound curlers came to Durham, last Wednesday, and played a friendly game with two Durham rinks. The "locals" came out ahead by 3 points, and they intend to equal or better this in O. Sound shortly.

The Harriston Tribune of recent date referring to the Anniversary services of Clifford Knox Church has the following kindly reference to the Presbyterian pastor here:

"Last Sunday Rev. Mr. Farquharson preached and on Monday evening he delivered an excellent lecture on the "Old Flag," telling in an interesting way the origin and gradual growth of the design on the Union Jack, and setting forth its spiritual relation. Those persons who head the lecture say that it was one of the most interesting talks they ever listened to. He illustrated it throughout with small flags in the hands of the lecturer.

NOTICE.—If the party who on Saturday night last Jan. 18th., took robe by mistake from cutter in shed at the rear of Presbyterian church will kindly leave the same without delay, at REVIEW Office, they will oblige and save themselves further trouble.

A most edifying sight was beheld in St. Mary's R. C. church on Sunday last, when 200 men, both young and old went forward in a body, and took the pledge at the hands of Very Rev. Dean O'Connell. This most commendable act, on the part of those neophytes of temperance, called forth the heartfelt praise and gratitude of the Rev. Dean. We are certain that he will ask of God to bless the good resolutions of those men who set such a strong example to the rest of the congregation.—Mt. Forest Confed.

PROPERTY CHANGE.—Mr. Robt. Aljoe has sold his residence property in Upper Town to Mr. Angus Cameron for a good sum. Mr. Cameron gets possession on March 1st. Mr. Aljoe retains 28 feet on the corner, and gives a roadway to Mr. Cameron at the rear of the lot. Mr. Aljoe, as was announced some time ago, has bought a shop property just in front of Knapp's stable on Lambton St. and has let the contract to Mr. Hugh McDonald.

Saltpetre, 3 lbs for 25c—At Parker's. NEW JEWELRY STORE. R. B. Keefer & Son, practical watch-makers and opticians, have opened up a large and varied assortment of clocks, watches, jewelry, spectacles &c. in the factory occupied by the late W. A. MacFarlane. Mr. Keefer, Sr. has a large business in Hespeler and the Durham establishment was formerly in Preston. Next week they will have an ad in the Review, meanwhile a visit to their store will gratify lovers of good things in their line and every tick of the dozens of clocks all going seems to say business, business. We welcome the new firm, and hope they may have a creditable share in building up our good town and find fair remuneration in doing so.

TENDERS WANTED

For 10 cords of 3 ft. hard wood, and 10 cords 2 1/2 inch Hardwood, all green. Delivered at the Presbyterian church. Apply before Feb. 5, 1902, to R. MACFARLANE JR. or W. CALDER.

FOR SALE.—A good 2-yr. old colt, or will exchange for wood. Apply to Wm. LAIDLAW, Durham.

PAY UP.—All parties indebted to the undersigned are requested to make settlement by cash or note, on or before Feb. 8th. next. T. MORAN, Blacksmith, Jan. 27 '02.

A COMPLIMENT TO MR. COWHAM.

Doubling The Plant.

The "Jackson Patriot" of Jan. 22, contains a full account of the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Peninsular Portland Cement Company, which we reproduce. It is certainly gratifying to find that the demand for this cement as is turned out by the process in vogue in Michigan and to be duplicated in Durham, continues to increase and it is still further gratifying to find our worthy President Cowham so well appreciated where he is best known.

Progress is being made here in spite of the weather. The steel structure of this Power House is completed and is visible from the hill. The staking out of the clay storage and wet grinding buildings is being done and the 5th and 6th rotaries are on the way. Blockmaking continues to go on in the machine shop. Mr. Gibson is around and estimating the iron requirements for the track and will superintend preparations for the building of the scow. Following is the article referred to above:

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Peninsular Portland Cement Company of Jackson was held at the common council chamber here yesterday. Considerable time was taken up in hearing reports of officers, but those reports, while matter of fact, showed such a happy condition of affairs from an investor's standpoint that the stockholders were convinced of what the directors had previously observed, that the Peninsular Portland Cement plant is without a peer in the whole country.

The stockholders were elated with knowing that they own a cement plant in which is installed the very latest improvements for the process of making cement. The excellent physical condition of the plant has permitted the factory to run during the coldest weather without shortening the output, while most factories throughout the country had to close down during the winter. Not since the plant was first started has there been a shut-down for a minute, while the marl by this latest system of cement-making has, day and night, been dipped from its natural resting place and carried through the mill. The cement, as it falls into bins in the form of comminced cement, all without the agency of human hands.

W. F. Cowham, general manager of the plant, gave some interesting points of the business to the stockholders. The whole output of the plant for last year was sold before August and the travelling salesmen were then called in. More than half of the output for the coming year is already contracted. The reputation of the cement, though on the market for scarcely a year, is firmly established. Not a sack of cement, to say nothing of a carload, has ever been rejected or returned, and not a cement bill, now due the company, remains unpaid. The cement is much desired, because of the greater proportion of sand which can safely be mixed with it, in its ordinary use.

The good feeling of the stockholders on account of their gilt-edged investment and because of the wise business administration of General Manager W. F. Cowham and the directors, was indeed, a remarkable feature of the meeting. The stockholders were not inclined to make changes, being more than satisfied with Mr. Cowham's management of affairs, and re-elected the board of directors entire.

Another important step was taken, in view of doubling the capacity of the plant. There is marl enough at the site of the plant to keep two factories, notwithstanding its present mammoth size, busy making cement for 20 years. The company by reason of its improved process of making a superior quality of cement finds a ready market for more cement than it could make at the rate of 500 barrels a day. With these favorable trade conditions and the superb showing of the plant under the present management during the past year, on behalf of the stockholders, they readily voted in favor of directing the board of directors to mature a plan for doubling the capacity of the present extensive cement works at Cement City, and report the plan to the stockholders. A large portion of the stockholders expressed a willingness to double their amount of stock.

The fondest business hopes of the stockholders have been realized, and the entire satisfaction of the 125 stockholders present, who with their proxies represented the stock of the company, found expression in a vote of thanks given with real heartiness to Secretary and General Manager W. F. Cowham and the board of directors.

At a meeting of the board of directors the former officers were elected. The Peninsular Portland Cement company is not only an industry of which the country justly feels proud, but it is becoming one of the principal business industries of the state. The plant at Cement City is a model, and visitors from all over the world are attracted there through its rapidly growing reputation.

THE LITTLE YELLOW LABEL Tells, or ought to tell correctly the date to which you are paid. Changes and additions have again been made and we ask our friends to examine closely.

McKinnon For Warden.

ON FIRST BALLOT.

The County Council on Tuesday last elected our townsman Mr. C. McKinnon, one of the Commissioners for Division No 3 to the honorable position of Warden of the County. We congratulate Mr. McKinnon and the district he represents on this distinction, the first time we believe, it has ever been held by a representative from Durham. Mr. McKinnon's work on the Road and Bridge committee of recent years has brought him into prominence and he received the very decisive vote of 10 to 6 his opponent being Mr. Geo. Watson of Diy. No. 5.

Miss Susie Brigham, of Allan Park, Sundayed with Miss Jessie Burnet. Mrs. Jackson and her sister, Miss Armstrong, of Durham, were in town this week.—Mt. Forest Confed.

The Misses Blyth of the Chatsworth News were in town for a couple of days last week and gave the REVIEW a fraternal call.

Miss Paterson, of Fordwich, returned home last Friday, after spending a couple of weeks with her sister Mrs. W. Bean.

Mr. Godfrey McTaggart gave us his Annual call on Friday last, of course remembering the Review. Old Father Time is not stealing much of a march on him.

Mr. and Mrs. Cameron and baby, Mrs. W. Hopkins and two children, who have been visiting at Mr. James Carson's for a few months, left last week for their home in Manitoba. They went by way of Indianapolis, to spend a few weeks with their brother, Dr. J. H. Carson, of that city.

Mr. Jas. Castell, for several years with Mr. S. F. Morlock is in town this week for a few days renewing old acquaintances. He is in business for himself in a Manitoba town, and is succeeding well as his many friends here anticipated. He returns to Fordwich where his parents are now and goes West again about Feb. 15.
