CASH and ONE PRICE

A good story comes from Missouri, proving that sometimes the fortune tellers who work for money tell the truth. A young man read in one of the papers the following advertisement: Young man—some woman dearly loves you. Would you know who she is? She would like to be your only sweetheart. Send ten cents in stamps to Occult Diviner, address as below and learn who she is." He sent the stamps and got his answer—"Mother."

PERSONAL MENTION

Buy your Drugs at Darling's Drug Store. Prices right.

Mrs. Robt. Cuff, one of the earliest pioneers of Bentinck Township along the Durham Road is reported dead. We have no particulars at present.

AN OPERATION NECESSARY.—Mr. W. B. Vollett, we regret to learn is quite ill at present and intends going to Toronto to secure expert medical advice as to some kidney trouble.

One of our exchanges copied our article of two weeks ago on Graveyard Exposure. Can't have too much of a good thing, but "worth copying, worth crediting" should be the rule.

Mr. J. S. Black, the veteran and efficient clerk of Glenelg Township gives an account elsewhere in this issue of the good good work done by Glenelg's four collectors and challenges comparison.

SORE FINGERS.—Mr. Robt. Wright who had the misfortune to get the points taken off a few of his fingers in the factory, is suffering a good deal with them in addition to the annoyance of enforced idleness.

The Annual banquet of the Canadian Order of Foresters will be held in the Middaugh House on Friday, February 11. Bro. Thos. White, High Secy, and Bro. R. Elliott H. C. Ranger will be present. Admission 50 cts.

WHAT DO YOU SAY?—At the meeting of Council on Monday evening Messrs A. S. Hunter, A. McLachlan and the Mayor were appointed a committee to bring in a report as to the cost of repairing the Town Hall or of building a new one. The present hall will do well enough (1) if it can be made comfortable. (2) if it can be made about twice the capacity. (3) if it can be made a thing of beauty. (4) if it can be made other than a fire trap. (5) if it comports with the dignity of the town. (6) if it shows corporate enterprise equal to private enterprise. (7) if the town is dead broke. (8) if we have no faith in the future.

COUNTY COUNCIL.

The County Council of the County of Grey met in accordance with the provisions of the Municipal Act on Tuesday, 28th inst. The members were all present at 2 o'clock, the statutory hour for meeting. The only change in the personnel of the council is Mr. Duncan McLean, who was elected by acclamation in December last to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Ries, one of the representatives of Division No. 2.

The clerk took the chair and informed the Council of Mr. McLean's election; and then called for nominations for the wardenship. There were only two nominations—Chas. McKinnon, Esq., of Durham and Geo. Watson, Esq., of Proton township.

On the first vote the election was decided, Mr. McKinnon having received ten votes, and Mr. Watson six votes. Messrs. Gordon and McCollman, the mover and seconder of Mr. McKinnon, escorted the Warden elect to the chair of the council, and formally introduced him to the council.

Mr. McKinnon addressed the council at some length, after which he subscribed his declaration of office and commenced the duties of Warden by calling upon the clerk to read the minutes of last day of November session.

A special committee, comprised of Messrs. Allan, Pringle, McDonald, Gordon, McDonald and Doyle, was appointed to strike the standing committees for the year 1902, after which the council adjourned till 7 o'clock in the evening.

At 7 o'clock council resumed when quite a number of documents were presented and read by the clerk, and were by the warden referred to the various standing committees: Copy of the award of the arbitrators in the matter of Owen Sound to the township of Sydenham; application of J. Ross Robertson for a grant to Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto; a petition from a number of the inhabitants of the village of Clarkburg to be erected into a police village; a account from the township of St. Vincent for a refund of an amount incurred in caring for a lunatic, $39.20; a similar account from the township of Collingwood for expenses in connection with a case of lunacy; annual statement of Electoral District Agricultural Society of East Grey; a letter from Jas. Gillespie in reference to his account for services as deputy returning officer in division No. 8; a petition from a number of rate payers of Durham asking for a free-pedlars license for Hugh Mackay for 1902; application of Lt.-Col. Campbell of the 81st Regiment for a grant of $300 to purchase a stand of colors for the regiment, also for a grant of $500 to supplement the pay of the non-commissioned officers and men of the 81st Regiment while on duty; an account of W. A. Anderson, nominating officer for division No. 3 $13.50; an account of Mackay & Sampson for $19.50 for services in connection with the arbitration between Owen Sound and Sydenham; an account from Ephraim for $30.10, for refund of expenses in the case of a lunatic; a draft of a memorial from the county council of Waterloo re railway crossing; a draft of memorial from County of Kent, asking for an extension of the time for importation of sugar machinery; draft of a by-law to confirm a deviation on townline of Proton & Melancton; several accounts for printing, repairs to county buildings, etc.

Judge Cressor was present, and gave a personal invitation to the council to attend a meeting to be held in the council chamber for the formation of a Historical Society, and on motion the Judge's invitation was accepted.

The special committee to strike standing committees presented their report, which was adopted and engrossed in the minutes.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.
The members were all present; the minutes of Tuesday were read and confirmed. The report of Andrew Grier, school inspector for East Grey, was presented, a draft of a memorial to Dominion parliament for the appointment of a railway commission was referred to the Memorials committee; statement from Collegiate Institute, Owen Sound, for extra maintenance referred to the Education committee.
