Miss E. Pauline Johnson of the Mohawk Tribe of Canada, has taken Boston by storm with recitals of her poems. She is perhaps the most unique figure in the literary world of this country.—New York Sun.—Will appear in Town Hall, on Wednesday, Feb. 19th.

SUDDEN DEATH.—On Monday morning last, Mr. Neil McKechnie, near Priceville went out and performed his customary duties amongst his cattle and came to the house again not feeling well. Before noon he was dead. He leaves a wife and several children. We have not learned further particulars but extend our sympathy to the bereaved.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—Last week Mrs. Thos. Davis, Glenelg, slipped near her doorway and in the fall had the misfortune to break or fracture her thigh bone. Dr. Jamieson was called and set the injured limb but it will be 8 or 9 weary weeks before she is able to be around. She is progressing nicely and we hope for her continued improvement.

WE WON'T DO IT AGAIN.—Writing the last week in January of our beautiful winter we remarked that we were so well advanced we could look over the head of little February and see spring in March. Little February has resented this and for the first nine days has given us snow and blocked roads to an almost unparalleled extent. Business has been largely paralyzed, the state of the roads forbidding entirely heavy traffic, even light traffic having great difficulty. Our streets in several places have piles 6 or 7 feet high, those in front of Morlock's and McLaughlan's being picturesque objects for several days. Estimates of the snow fall on Friday place it from 1 1/2 to 2 feet, but the mildness of Saturday with a slight rain at night helped to pack the snow. Churches on Sunday were thinly attended. Monday morning gave us about 20 deg. below zero. This Tuesday morning we have another snowfall of 3 or 4 inches dry and powdery and ready to drift should a wind develop. All right little February, you can do it, but give us a thaw soon.

THE WARDEN'S SPEECH.—The O-Sound Advertiser thus reports the address of Warden McKinnon at his election: Warden McKinnon expressed his thanks for the honor conferred upon him and made brief reference to the important matters which had been dealt with during the past year and to be dealt with in the sessions of 1902. He asked the assistance and co-operation of the council in performing the duties of his office. He referred to the loss of rulers in Britain and the United States in the death of Queen Victoria and assassination of President McKinley, and to the council's membership in the death of the late Thos. Willcroft. The country was however in the midst of progression. Amongst the important business before the council at this session was the House of Refuge question, the equalization of assessment, and the good roads question, all of which it had been agreed on should be dealt with at this time. He promised to devote his best energies to the interests of the county, and hoped, with the co-operation of the council, to preside over their deliberations in a manner becoming the dignity of his office and to reflect credit on himself and his division.

FOR AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS.

Of all branches of photography landscape is the most popular with amateurs, not that it is the easiest, but because an ever varying field is open to picture makers. A few simple rules for success are indicated in the March Delineator in the first of the series on "Pictorial Photography," by Juan C. Abel, former editor of the Photographic Times. A number of remarkable examples of landscape photography are reproduced and emphasize the points made in the text.

Pt. Arthur Herald.—Mr. McRaye's comedy work forces rounds of laughter. But while he is great as a humorist. He is better still as a dialect story teller.—He appears with Miss Pauline Johnson, in Town Hall, next Wednesday, 19th inst.—Plea at MacFarlane's.

Mr. T. J. Jordan, late of R. P. Dalgleish & Co., has bought out Mr. J. C. Healy, of Durham, formerly of Mt. Forest. It is Mr. Jordan's intention to carry on a fruit, confectionery and restaurant business and his many friends in Mt. Forest will wish him success. "Tommy" will be missed in Mt. Forest where he was deservedly popular, and by his removal the Lorne lacrosse club loses a good player and warm supporter. Mr. Healy, we understand, intends becoming a commercial traveller.—Rep.

See our Smoker's supplies, all kinds. Darling's Drug Store.

Miss Pauline Johnston, who was in Durham once before, left a good impression. She appears again next Wednesday evening. She is a full Indian with poetical talent.

MRS. JAS. McCLOCKLIN.—On Saturday last, the remains of Mrs. Jas. McClocklin (nee Mary A. Bell) were taken from her father's residence, Glenelg, to Durham cemetery. Under most difficult weather conditions. They had been brought from Flesherton the day previous. Deceased was well known in Durham where she was a willing and devoted worker in Presbyterian circles. She died a week ago, Monday, after a lingering illness. Husband and other relatives have the sincere sympathy of the community.

YEovil.—A striking personality has been removed by death in the person of Mr. Jos. Bunston, the well known postmaster at Yeovil. He was a native of Somersetshire, England, and when the P. Office was established the name was chosen from his early home. He was a man of considerable intelligence, shrewd and genial and will be greatly missed and mourned.

JOHNSON—McRAYE.

Miss E. Pauline Johnston, Canada's Indian Elocutionist, appeared in the Orme Hall last night under Vice-Regal patronage and in company with Mr. Walter McRaye, the Californian humorist. Miss Johnston has adopted a different style of work from that presented on her appearance, and her anecdotes of travel and adventures were very amusing in her rendering of Indian Poems and no less in her skits on modern society. She is a very successful mimic and caught the spirit of the poems. Her best number was the "Success of the Season" a comedietta in which occurred clever character sketches.

She also appeared with Mr. McRaye in a bright little sketch "At The Ball." In this sketch Mr. McRaye got in his work. He is a clever humorist and his work is all marked by insight talent and sympathy. His acting as Captain Fielding was certainly very fine. The audience was very appreciative and enthusiastic applause greeted the different members. Sir Wilfred and Lady Laurier, Hon. Clifford Sifton and Mrs. Sifton and Hon. Wm. Patterson were present.—Ottawa Citizen.

Miss Johnston and Mr. McRaye will appear in the same program in Durham Town Hall, on Wednesday, 19th Feb. Admission 25 and 35 cts. Plan at MacFarlane's.

CANADIAN POETS.—Insp. Campbell on Monday evening gave a valuable lecture on "Canadian Poets and their work." He illustrated the difficulties in a new country of developing a national poetry owing to the stern battle of life with material things and showed that Canada was only beginning to lay the foundations for a national poetry that some day would produce her Shakespeare. With Shakespeare as an example he pointed out how the poet reflects the age he lives in. His, Mr. C.'s research had revealed to him the surprising fact that over 200 Canadian authors had issued volumes of poetry. He read interesting selections from a few to illustrate characteristics. We hope he may be able to continue the subject and we trust our Public Library readers will cultivate an acquaintance with our own poets.

SUDDEN DEATH OF WM. A. ANDERSON.

Thursday evening of last week Town Clerk Anderson locked his office door as usual and proceeded homeward. During the night he was taken ill and in the morning medical aid was summoned and it was found he was suffering from appendicitis or some similar trouble. At intervals Friday and Saturday he suffered acute pain. On Sunday he was easier, but it was the lightning before death for on Monday morning about 9.30 he breathed his last. Misses Harriet and Lexie were the only ones at home and they rendered all the tender and loving service possible. In response to a message to Hamilton their sister Kate, who is a professional nurse, came home Saturday evening, but in spite of careful nursing and medical skill death won the day. Monday evening his youngest son Fred and daughter Lizzie came home and the circle of chief mourners in Canada was complete. Mrs. Rutledge (Jane) and Surtees are in Mexico, and Davis another son, is in California. To this band of mourners widely separated we tender saddest sympathy in the sudden loss of a loving parent who has been to them for about 18 years the embodiment of home.

Mr. Anderson, who was 67 years of age at the time of his death, came to Canada from the north of England over 40 years ago. For a time he worked at his trade of blacksmith with Thos. Gray and later for many years was in business for himself. Some years after his retirement he was appointed caretaker of the Town Hall and later Town Clerk, to the duties of which office he gave faithful attention and rendered efficient service. In the few rambling moments he passed through, his mind was among his papers, looking for a document or getting up a report. His death is the severing of another link connecting the present and the past.

Mr. Anderson was a member of the church of England. He was prominent in the Orange Order and for many years has been County Treasurer. In politics he was strongly Conservative. As a private citizen and in our business dealings with him we found him kind, upright and obliging and while his family mourn a loved and loving father the community feels that it has lost a worthy citizen.

His wife, who predeceased him 18 yrs. was a Miss Davis, a member of a well known Glenelg family, and to-morrow, Wednesday, he will be laid beside her in Trinity Church Cemetery.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Ethel Limin spent Sunday, in Mt. Forest.

Miss Mary Bosley, of Mt. Forest, visited at Mr. Carson's last week.

Miss Allie Grant is teaching in Miss Anderson's room this week.

Mrs. J. J. Noonan, of Steele, North Dakota, is visiting at the home of her father Mr. Thos. O'Donnell after an absence of fourteen years.

Miss Mary Watt, we regret to say, is still a great sufferer, and showing few or no signs of recovery. We sympathize with the anxious relatives.

We had a fraternal call from Mr. J. A. Campbell of the Durham REVIEW staff on Saturday last. J. A. has been visiting his old home at Swinton Park.—Dundalk Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burgess, West Bentinck, went to Holstein to attend the funeral of an old friend, Andrew Swanston. On the way home the storm held them in Durham, and they spent three days with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Horsburgh, who also were old acquaintances.

Rev. P. Nichol occupied the Presidential pulpit on Sunday and exhibited on Tuesday evening lime light views of Tissot's pictures of the life of Christ to a good audience. The following reference to his work is from the Allenford correspondence of the Tara Leader: "Rev. P. Nichol completed a series of evangelistic meetings of three weeks. The very plain, simple and earnest way in which Mr. Nichol presented the Gospel to his hearers in the Presbyterian church, caused many to hear the old, old story as they never heard it before and as a consequence many manifested a desire to lead a Christian life and many luke warm professors were drawn to the strait and narrow path."

HO FOR PRICEVILLE.—The concert advertised for this week is postponed till the 20th inst., when it is hoped good roads will prevail. Rev. Mr. Farquharson, Durham, Rev. Mr. Bell, of Laurel and others will speak, while Misses Emma McLean and Annie James will contribute of their gift of Song. And then, Dromore choir is to be present. See posters, note the date, and go.
