Everybody is buying Gold Soap at The Big Store. Several customers have discovered money already. See the South Window.

Watch for next week's announcements of the moving pictures in the Town Hall, on Friday and Saturday, March 14 and 15.

We learn with regret that Mr. Jas. Hastic, Dromore, died on Sunday last. Also Mr. Nelson Msin, brother-in-law of Mr. Thos. Allan. Further notice next week.

The Conservative Convention on Wednesday was well attended. The promised speakers were present and two others and no doubt the "other fellows" caught it. Wilson, of Louise, is again President. A. H. Jackson, Secy.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.—This body will meet to complete organization and discuss suitable topics in the Town Hall, Durham, at 1:30 p. m. on the day of the Seed Show, Tuesday, March 11. Farmers' wives and daughters should come into force.

On Page 5 will be found the advertisement of the Second Annual Seed Fair, conducted by energetic Farmers' Institute. It takes place on March 11. Prizes are given as usual and the opportunity is thus presented for exchange of seed. If the roads are good there will be a large attendance for a keen interest was taken in it last year. Tuesday, March 11. G. Binnie, Secy.

The Town council met Monday evening. They granted the necessary permission to the Durham Natural Gas and Oil Co., to lay piping. Mr. W. B. Vollett was appointed Town Clerk. Mr. C. Elvidge was the Assessorship. The mayor announced that a Bobbin manufacturing Co. were making enquiries with a view to settling in Durham. No doubt much other business was transacted.

The Y. P. S. of the Presbyterian church will have a discussion on the Prohibition Question, Monday evening next, in the basement of the church when the following topics will be discussed: "The Compensation Question" introduced by Mr. N. W. Campbell; "Total Prohibition"; Mr. Archibald Robertson; Government Control, Mr. C. Ramage; Provincial Prohibition, Mr. Jos. Burnet. A collection will be taken up. All are invited.

We call attention to the new marble firm of Robinson and Corbett whose advertisement appears on this page. Specimens of their goods can be seen at Barclay and Noble's show room. The firm has been in business for years in Mt. Forest, where they have acquired a good reputation for straight and honest dealing and we trust their business relations with Durham and neighborhood may be mutually satisfactory.

SEED FAIR.—The Second Annual Seed Fair under the Auspices of the S. Grey Farmers' Institute will take place on Tuesday, March 11, 1902 in the Town Hall, Durham. Prizes will be given as last year for Spring Wheat, Barley, Oats, Peas, and Potatoes, and of course a splendid opportunity is presented for exchange of seed. Members having seed grain to dispose of should notify Secretary Binnie, Buinessan P. O., on or before day of Show.

A SHORT CUT.—Mr. Gilbert McKechnie has a scheme in view to improve one of the leading roads to town. This is to secure from Messrs. Wm. Smith and Thos. McGirr, sufficient land for a roadway alongside of the new railway track where it crosses their farms. This would save the hill both ways and to recoup the proprietors for the loss of land, he proposes that the roadway over the hill could be returned to the farms from which it was originally taken. A large number living to the east and south would be pleased to see Mr. McKechnie's scheme accomplished, for the road, at present more direct than Lambton Street, would be still further improved.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.—Are due (1) to Dr. Edward Lauder Cleveland, for a copy of "Vol. I, No. 1" of The Cleveland Medical Journal, which is an amalgamation of two older Journals under a new name. Dr. Lauder is Associate Editor of this high class Journal and we congratulate "Ed." on the recognition his talents are receiving (2) to Miss Bessie Hall, Rochester, for current issues of daily papers showing us the enthusiasm with which a republic can welcome a brother of a European monarch. (3) To many friends for words of appreciation of the REVIEW and the Canadian Annual, far too many to personally acknowledge as we would like. (4) Last but not least, to the large number who have kept the date on the "little yellow label" marching ahead of them.

A SHOCKING DEATH

MR. JAS. COLVILLE KILLED

BY BURSTING MACHINERY.

Monday morning last was not unlike other Monday mornings around McGowen's mill, but this one brought to Mr. Jas. Colville, death, to his family, the deepest and sincerest grief over the loss of husband and father and to his townsmen, gloom at the cruel snap to citizenship and reflection on the uncertainties of life, for how true it is "Man also knoweth not his time."

Mr. Colville was running the chopper and in some way, which will likely never be known, a plate burst and a fragment struck him in the abdomen, knocking him down and tearing away skin and flesh exposing the bowels. He rose to his feet, but collapsed again and in a few minutes, the life of the strong man ebbed away.

The body was removed to McGowen's house close by, and the mournful news was through the town in a few minutes but who, except those similarly situated can tell the agony which must have borne in on the soul of wife and children?

A desire for an inquest sprang up and the coroner to the former summoned a jury. We have not at this writing learned the verdict, but it can only be "accidental death." If such is the finding there is a measure of comfort in it, for no one can make provision against the unforeseen.

Mr. Colville was in his 55th year, had and vigorous. Genial and kind-hearted to a degree, he leaves not an enemy behind him. His loss to the domestic circle is very great, and to friends and acquaintances his kindly smile or word on his recourse will be sadly remembered.

An insurance in the L. O. F. was provided by him for his family, who little thought so soon to lose their bread, winner?

Having worked in several of the mills round here he is very widely known, and no doubt his funeral which takes place, Wednesday, to Hanover will be largely attended. He leaves as chief mourner, his wife, 3 sons and 3 daughters, to whom we extend deepest sympathy.

LATER.

After receiving evidence from experts and others regarding the condition of the machine the verdict of the Coroner's jury of which Mr. Jno. McKechnie was chairman was that it was a case of acci-
