VOL. XXIV. NO. 11

DURHAM, THURSDAY, MARCH 13, 1902.

CHAS RAHAGE,
PRINTER AND PUBLISHER.

New Millinery at Ireland's.
The Big Store ad. this week deals with 6 of the leading departments of the 'Big Store.' On page 8.

The Town Council, as will be seen in another column, pays a graceful tribute to the late Clerk Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex McComb have been under the doctor's care for some time, but we hope the approach of spring will bring them both renewed vigor.

Mr. Hunt, Dornoch, got a call Saturday to go to his old home near Holstein, to visit his brother, supposed to be dying.

A number of young and married people from town and Bunnissan spent a very pleasant evening at Mr. Wm.
Mountains, south of town last Wednesday night.

BARON HUNTER GOES TO INDIANA.— Mr. Jas. Hunter this week sold his Station, Baron Hunter, to F. O. Stannard, Indiana, U. S. A. We understand the price was $800.

Mr. and Mrs. And. McIlroy intend starting next week for the West, near Calgary, there to go into the ranching business. We wish them success in their new home.

Our large stock of New Spring Millinery has just been opened out and this department is now ready for early buyers. Miss Rider, who is in charge of this department is a Milliner of large experience having been for the past seven years with the leading Millinery firm in London.

Our space this week forbids an extended reference to a very entertaining C. E. symposium on Monday night, on various aspects of the temperance agitation. Messrs Jos. Burnet, A. Robertson, C. Ramage and N. W. Campbell spoke in turn. Rev. Mr. Farquharson as chairman aided his quota.

A REMARKABLE CARNIVAL.—Mr.
Wm. Black, (hardware) kindly showed us four New Orleans papers, exhibiting in a wealth of colored illustration the exuberance of the sunny south when it goes a-sporting. We have heard and read of the "Mardi Gras Festival" before, but never imagined such gorgeous representations of things animate and inanimate as meted through the streets of the gay southern city. Call and see them for we can't begin to describe.

MOVING PICTURES.—The Imperial Moving Picture Co. will appear in the Town Hall, on Friday and Saturday of this week. They have a large and varied selection of views: Yacht races, Scenes in the Boer War, Funeral of President McKinley, Duke and Duchess scenes while in Canada, Cinderella, Mrs Carrie Nation wrecking saloons, Spanish Bull Fight, Funeral ceremonies of the late Queen Victoria, The Man in the Moon, Trotting Races, Hockey Match etc. Popular prices, plan at Darling's.

40 YEARS.—Readers of Mr. Parker's advertisement this week will, like us, be struck with the flight of time, when we see announced "40th Annual Import of Seeds." The striking part of course, is the fact that the Annual Import all these years has been made by Mr. Parker. The drug business dates from 1856, and few places of Durham's size and age can show such a long continuous and successful business career.
Some time in this century Durham will have to give him up, till then, many years hence we hope, may he import good seed and impart to a younger generation the lessons of a successful life.

nel's school No. 1, Normanby, to which we must regretfully give up an invita-

The Liberals of Glenelg are asked to meet in Township Convention in the Tp. Hall, on Monday March 17, to complete organization and other business.
Candidate Binnie will be present and one provincial speaker to present the issues of the day. There should be a large attendance.

DIED NEAR DULUTH.—Last Saturday Mr. John Turnbull near Dornoch, received the sad intelligence that his wife's sister Miss Jessie McDougall had died at her brother Archie's home, presumably on that day. Mr. Don. Campbell, Swinton Park, brother-in-law of deceased was in town and got the news just as he was starting for home. The deceased has not been robust for 3 years past and moved west about a year ago in company with her brother (then recently widowed) and a sister Maggie.
The remains will be met at Chatsworth Monday or Tuesday and laid to rest in the family burying ground. We extend sympathy to friends and relatives.

A CLEVER RETORT.—In a letter from a friend in Melrose, Idaho, (Mr. Jos.
Stephenson) occurs a retort which is too good to let go. Travelling in a crowded car one day, the soul of our old friend waxed indignant at the profanity of a conductor, and as he swore by blank blank that he was the "son of a gun," "Josh" quietly accosted him "My dear sir, I am sorry for your birth, but it appears to me you ought to go faster through the world than ordinary human beings." The rebuke in a crowded car brought forth a demonstration that made the sweeper sing dumb. "A word in season."

THE LATE JOHN MOODY.—Word has been received in town that Mr. John Moody died on Feb. 26th last at the age of 92. He left a number of years ago to reside with his son, Alex, in S. Dakota, and had greatly improved health. Mr.
Moody cut a very large figure in the early life of Durham both in a Municipal and Military aspect. He was lieutenant of the local company at the time of the Fenian raids under Capt.
Wm. A. Anderson, lately deceased.
Later he held the position of Captain of the Company, and served the town in the capacity of clerk, following, until frailty prevented his calling of Auctioneer. His son is married to the eldest daughter (Annie) of Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
Johnston, of this town. He had in his day been a great traveler and was a man of intelligence and force of character. "Moody's corner" is still a reminder.

CLOSED THE SCHOOL.—The 3 year old son of Mr. Geo. Hopkins died this Wednesday morning. He had just recovered from an attack of diphtheria and a paralysis occurring as an after effect, he has been taken off. We sincerely sympathize with the parents who have been having a lot of trouble lately. A second death is Miss Cuff, daughter of Mr.
Geo. Cuff, who was around and well a few days ago. Diphtheria is the cause here too, and it seems to have run a rapid course. In view of these deaths, the trustees of Hutton Hill section have closed the school though no pupil has yet been affected. It is certainly time for the Bentinck Board of Health to take action and see that the houses are properly quarantined.

NOW AT REST.—Sunday morning last Miss Mary L. Watt breathed her last at her residence, Lower Town, where for 11 weeks, her mother and sisters and brother Robert have waited assiduously upon her in a period of great tribulation. The trouble was the disease, Sarccoma, a bone affection, which caused her acute pain, and which for the last few weeks made death a certainty.
She bore her illness with wonderful fortitude buoyed up by Christian hope, and the ministrations of loving friends.
Of a tender and loving disposition her death at the threshold of young womanhood is a severe blow to parents, brothers and sisters, and other relatives, and all who knew her, (the writer as her old teacher among others) will cherish fondly her memory. She was buried Tuesday, in Maplewood cemetery, the first of her family (excepting a child in infancy) to pass to the unseen world.
The services were conducted by Rev.
Mr. Newton in the Baptist Church, who drew valuable lessons from the great change. The church was crowded and when most had looked on the wasted but once fair face the journey to the graye began.

Mr. Chas. Colville, of Chesley, attended his brother's funeral, last week.

Miss O. Hamilton, of near Lucknow, is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. G. Holt.

Miss Mary Collett, of Allan Park, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Jas. Redford.

Mrs. Chas. Urquhart and little daughter May, of Beeton, are visiting at Mr.
T. R. Wheilan's.

Mr. and Miss Shaw, of Lion's Head, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Mc-Aulley, for a few weeks.

Mr. Archie Campbell, Swinton Park, has entered into the employment of Mr.
H. Hunt, Merchant, Dornoch.

Rev. Mr. Farquharson preaches for Rev. Mr. Reid, of Mt. Forest, on Friday at his two appointments.

Miss L. Rawn, from South Egremont, is visiting her sister Mrs. Horsburgh, who intends returning home with her for a few days.

Dr. R. B. Culbertson left last week for the Soo, Escanaba, and other points in Michigan. He intends settling in the Canadian North West.

Miss Nellie Elliott, of Chesley, attended the funeral of her uncle, Jas. Colville and was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jno.
Black, for a few days.

Mrs. Robt. Wright and children spent a few days with her cousin Miss Mary Ann Twamley at Mr. Robt.
Twamley's near Crawford.

Rev. Jas. Farquharson, Pilot Mound, brother of the Presbyterian pastor here is visiting friends in and near Chatham and may visit Durham before returning West.

Miss M. Rider, late of the firm of Smallman and Ingram, of London, arrived in town Monday to take charge of the Millinery department of James Ireland.

Mrs. R. B. Irvine, of Grenfell, N. W.
T., spent part of last week with her aunt, Mrs. Orchard. Her husband, well known in these parts, left in January, accompanied by their third son, Robertson, with the third contingent for South Africa.

Mr. Jno. Campbell, who completed his time in the military service, has returned to his home in Swinton Park on Saturday. John, during his stay with us, proved himself a young man of character and ability, and we are sure whatever avenues may open before him, he will give a good account of himself.
