SUCCESSFUL OPERATION.—On Good Friday, Dr. Groyes, Fergus, associated with Dr. Hutton, performed an operation on Mr. Walter Buchan. Mr. Buchan since has been much better and we hope his convalesence will be rapid.

Teacher Jno. A. Graham. of Hutton Hill School, resumed the work on Monday last while the rest of the fraternity began holidaying. Mr. Graham thought the enforced holiday of the last few weeks was a little more than enough and parents and trustees should appreciate his ardor for there was no compulsion on him to begin holiday week.

MILLINERY MATTERS.

Wednesday and Thursday of last week were the formal "opening" days with the milliners and the weather was delightful. For days before interest had been awakened by the artistic show windows, Mr Morlock's having a pretty panel arrangement and Mr Ireland's a good-luck horseshoe arch. Inside there was the usual urbanity shown to the printer and he languished for a while Mr. Neil McKechnie and his clerks amidst bowers of color, banks of roses, were caught in the act of breaking into and delightful mirror effects, convincing a store on Monday morning last, but no himself gradually that it was no fairy action was taken against them when it land, but a happy hunting ground for was learned that the key was off to fair ladies in search of orthodox and attractive headwear.
