In company with his father-in-law, Mr. Jno. Leask and ye editor they took a look over the cement situation, and were favorably impressed with the activity and the progress being made.

PRICEVILLE

The weather took a slight change on Sunday and Monday to a little snow storm, but did not last long. No sodding done yet in this locality, although there is a lot of ploughing done already. The roads are in a bad condition at present on account of the late rain and snow.

Rev Mr Clarke, of Hillsburgh, Township of Erin, is visiting with his nephew Mr Angus McKechnie, Durham Road, for the last week. The venerable gentlemen attended gaelic service in the Presbyterian Church on Sabbath last and relieved Pastor Matheson by teaching the Bible Class for him in the Sabbath School.

Neil McLean and sister Margaret visited friends at Dornoch for a few days last week.

A boy of Mr Dan McLean, Blacksmith, had his leg broken one evening lately, while kicking at a football another boy struck him accidentally. This kind of a game is rather rough and dangerous as we hear of broken bones being the result therefrom often.

Arch Campbell, formerly of Bunessan, visited friends in this place lately.

Postmaster McKinnon was in Toronto lately on business.

A number from here attended Angus Black's sale on Thursday last. Mac holds out good yet for an auctioneer.

Mr McLeod is getting his mill yard cleaned out fast as he is turning out lumber in good shape and making first class work.

We are sorry to hear of the illness of Wm Gillis, South Line. We hope to see this young man around again soon.

We are pleased to notice that the gaelic service in the Presbyterian Church is getting more appreciated as the attendance is better of late. We hope to see a well filled church when summer comes so as not to have the good man in the pulpit talking to empty pews, for that kind of work is rather discouraging.

Died on Sunday the 23rd March Peter McArthur, son of Duncan McArthur, North Line, at the age of 23 years. This young man was in failing health for the last year or so. The funeral on Tuesday the 25th was largely attended. Rev Mr Matheson preached the funeral sermon and took for his text "Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth". He said this was a fitting text as the subject that brought so many together was a young person just entering in the prime of life. He made a strong appeal to the youth to remember their Creator while young, for youth is the time to lay the foundation stone for old age. He was glad that in a conversation with the departed the evening before he died that he was trusting in a forgiving Saviour. All extend their sympathetic feeling to Mr McArthur in his sore affliction as this is the second death in his family in two years.

Another funeral on Sunday, the 30th March, James M McMillan, the ten year old daughter of Mr and Mrs Donald McMillan, of the south line. Artemesia died on Friday night the 28th after a couple of days illness, from bronchitis followed by pneumonia. This dear little girl attended school on Monday 24th and came home cheerful and little did the parents and family dream that in a few days such a large gathering of sympathizers would be assembled around their home to convey her to her last resting place in Priceville cemetery, but such is life, we know not who shall be next. Rev Mr Matheson, as he always does on an occasion of this kind, spoke words of comfort to the bereaved family, by showing that although their loving little daughter and sister were taken from them they had the full assurance that she is happy with the redeemed in Heaven. About 100 vehicles formed the procession showing the respect Mr McMillan and family are held by the community at large. Rev Mr Cook, of the Baptist Church officiated at the grave. It is not many years since Mr McMillan buried his eldest son aged 15 years.

The captain had poor luck of late. The first trip he learned at the Post Office that there was company there he did not wish to meet. The next night the attractions were up to Artemesia. A good time going, capt.

Mr Jas White has returned to our town and now sings there's no place like home.

We tender our congratulations and wish Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre a large measure of happiness and prosperity.

Rourke—Williams.

On Wednesday evening of last week a happy company of relatives and immediate friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Williams, to celebrate the wedding of their daughter, Miss May E., to Mr. Erastus S. Rourke, of Allenford.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wray R. Smith, the bride being given away by her father. The ceremony over, the bride and bridegroom were made the recipients of many congratulations, valuable presents, and best wishes for their future welfare. A sumptuous wedding repast was served, the tables being literally crowded with the variety of good, appetizing viands including, of course, the elegant wedding cake. The remainder of the evening was spent in pleasant games. A number of the guests were from a distance.

The bride and bridegroom expect to make their future home in the growing west and in a week or ten days will leave for Winnipeg. Congratulations.
