DURHAM, THURSDAY, APRIL 17, 1902.

CHAS RAMAGE, PRINTER AND PUBLISHER.

If you want a good second hand buggy cheap. Call at the REVIEW office.

An address and presentation to Mrs. McNulty, Holstein, held over unavoidably, other matter also.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at Miss Stewart's on Friday afternoon, 18th inst., at 3 p. m.

Our readers will follow with pleasure the southern trip of Dr. and Mrs. Jamieson, Miss McKechnie and brother Gilbert, kindly furnished us by the latter. See page 8.

We regret to learn that a member of Mr. Donald McMillan's family near Priceville is seriously ill with diphtheria. Following a recent affliction this is particularly trying and we hope to hear of betterness. Dr. Hutton has been called in.

DISLOCATION.—While unitching a highbilled coat a few days ago Mr. R. MacFarlane, Sr., had his shoulder put out of joint. The beast made a dash forward and the wheel struck him on the side with the result above. Some severe bruises otherwise keeps him a prisoner for a few days.

The Big Store is making big changes in the hardware department. The office in the big back room is being removed to make way for an increased stock comprising every hardware need of the community. Mr. Theobald an experienced hardware man, for 10 years in the employ of Scott and Murphy. Mt. Forest, has charge of the department, and farmers and others contemplating building will consult their own interests by calling on us. Watch for our Hardware Ad. in next week's REVIEW.—J. A. Hunter.

IN MOURNING.—Very appropriately the Shallow Lake advertiser placed its first page in mourning last week over the news of the death at the Harts River fight of T. Bertrand Day a citizen of the place. It says "Nothing has ever created in our midst such universal sorrow." The young man was 24 years old, of fine physique and athletic training and had taught school for three years. His father is Principal of Shallow Lake school, and a brother and sister are also teachers. Alas! that one fight has given occasion to eleven such mourning communities in Canada.

MUST WE GET TENTS?—Mr. H. W. Parker has remodelled his old store into a splendid residence, and has also adapted the frame store houses to the north of it into a comfortable small house. These will soon be filled and the cry out for more is already heard. Mr. A. McComb has sold a building lot on the south side of Lambton St. to Mr. Meenagh, who is going to build. Mr. Geo. McDonald has sold his brick house to Mr. Dan McAuliffe, and is preparing to build another. And so it goes, but it would not surprise us should tents be required to house some of Durham's population this summer. Post master Smith informs us there is an immense increase in postal business.

THE LATE DONALD McDONALD.—Last week we mentioned briefly the demise of this gentleman, and we again refer to his removal to add a few particulars of the deceased secured from members of his family who mourn the severance of the last parental tie, and who were loved in return by him who has gone. Mr. McDonald was born in Mill, Scotland, nearly 67 years ago and came to this country with his parents in 1845, and after an interval of a year or so came on to Durham, for, in company with the venerable Rev. Alex. Stewart, it is known he attended the funeral of the first white man ever buried in Durham, in 1817. Education opportunities were scarce in those days, and he made use of them such as they were, but his days of young manhood were spent in the pioneer work of the time. In 1841 he was married to Miss Flora Campbell, daughter of the late John Campbell, O. S., and a native of Treen, Scotland. He was married by the Rev. Alex. Stewart who 38 years later, at his funeral last week, made some appropriate reminiscent remarks, speaking highly of the deceased and of his parents both of whom the venerable clergyman remembered. Mr. and Mrs. C. McDougall were also witnesses of the marriage. Mrs. McDonald died in 1880 and to them were born a family of 6 sons and 2 daughters. Mrs. Wm. Lawson, Jr., near town, Miss Maggie, now in Detroit, Dan in Durham, Neil and John in Owen Sound, Alex. in Ayr, Archie in Normanby, Allan in Scotland, near Brantford. Rev. Mr. Newton, assisted by Rev. Mr. Farquharson conducted appropriate services and his brethren of the Sons of Scotland acted as pall-bearers.

BLACK CAT ART.

Did you see 'em—those great BLACK CATS we exhibited a week ago. All sketched by your boys and girls here in town. Its the most entertaining exhibit of drawings ever made in town. At our store last week together with a special display and sale of these famous Black Cat Stockings, the best made. Prizes were given for 2 first, also 2 seconds which were very exciting owing to the number of excellent drawings sent in. The winners were as follows:—1st Bertha Gadd, Wm. Herd; 2nd Carol Browne, James McClochlin.

Look out for next drawing contests.

CEMENT.—Every day additional men are going on the works and still more are wanted. A gang of 50 engineers will be here at once to place the large and handsome engines now being unloaded at the Power House. This building, stripped of the scaffolding, is now seen in its massiveness and beauty. The steel frame work of the rotary building, clinker storage and others is being erected and every day shows great progress in all departments. President Cowham and Secy., Stanhope are to be up this week.

The way to make a town prosperous, says an exchange, is to have vim, grit, push, snap, good schools, morality, energy, harmony, cordiality, advertising, talk about it, speak well of it, help to improve it, encourage its newspaper, patronize its business, help the public enterprises, faith exhibited by good works. Fire loafers and dead beats. Let your object be the welfare, growth and promotion of your town and its people. Speak well of its public spirited men and be one yourself. Be honest with your fellow-men.

IN GLOOM.—The family of Mr. Matthew Richardson, M. P. Elesherton, has been plunged in gloom by the death of the oldest daughter, Edith. She has long been delicate, but was the light of her home, and was intellectually one of the most brilliant of young women. The writer in an interview with her in her home some years ago, remembers as a treat, her glowing interest in art and art treasures, and she seemed to be an ardent admirer of all that was aesthetic, pure and noble. We sympathize with the family who will find on every side of their mementos of her lost companionship.

ANOTHER HOLIDAY.—A despatch says the 29th of June, Coronation Day, will be observed in Canada as a public holiday. We rather think not, it comes too near Dominion Day. Now King Edward and his managers would have done a wise and a graceful thing if they had selected July 1, for the auspicious event. To Britain and the antipodean colonies, it would have been an evidence of thoughtfulness that would make the empire thrill. As it is there is an appearance of indifference to our day, that arouses a mild resentment, though still well sing, long live the King, nor fail to bring, the loyal thing, our hearts to shrine of royalty.

TEMPERANCE.—The W. C. T. U. meetings closed Wednesday last week. They were fairly well attended and the earnestness and the ability of Miss Wiggins cannot be questioned. She is a fluent speaker and telling in her indictment against the liquor traffic, and will before Dec. 4 next, do great service to the cause of temperance. However at the risk of being considered party bound we think she is making a great mistake in judgment in accusing so freely the party leaders for venality of nearly all kinds. To say that Mr. Whitney for a $10000 check from the liquor men would turn the cold shoulder to the temperance leaders and determine to stick to the present system, is surely a questionable statement. To say that the Hon. G. W. Ross for a $5000 check would refuse the so-called better conditions for referendum is another of the same. There were similar statements and assertions during the course of her lecture on Wednesday evening, which marred by their intemperateness, in our opinion, the character of the building, and the otherwise excellent matter of her address. Rev. Mr. Newton was chairman on Wednesday evening and also made an address of some length, regretting the betrayal, as he seemed to consider it, of the temperance party by the powers that be, and seeing nothing for it at the election, but to turn down lifelong friends, when as he alleges, they have been as faithful as a tramp.

LET US HAVE A BOARD OF TRADE

We have on several occasions pointed out the necessity of such a body in a place of the size and consequence of Durham, and we think that more than ever in the expansion that is taking place such is required now. There is a legitimate sphere for such a body without infringing on the sphere of the council, and we believe that so far from conflicting, the two bodies strengthen each other and be the means of steadying things in the new civic growth we are experiencing. Let us have a Board of Trade without delay.

Mr. Daye Winkler is back as bar tender in the Middaugh house.

Mr. Jno. Urquhart, of Mt. Forest, spent a couple of days in town.

Mr. Lyman Caldwell, left for Toronto with enlistment for Africa in view.

Mr. Cecil Gun left Tuesday to visit his brother in Bright, and will likely go sailing again.

Mr. Bert Holton, electrician, of Mt. Forest, came up to view our cement works last week.

Mr. Marshall Rombough, of Toronto, visited Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Whelan for a few days last week.

Mr. Angus Black and family of Glenelg, moved into town last week and now occupy part of the old Review office.

Adjutant McGilveray of the Salvation Army will conduct service in the Methodist church, on Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

Director G. McKechnie attended a meeting of the Board of the National Portland Cement Co., in Toronto, Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Miss Edith Mordick, of the Review staff is at home this week and part of next assisting in the preparations for a matrimonial event in which her sister is interested: of which more later.

Mr. W. E. Theobald of Mt. Forest, has taken a situation in J. A. Hunter's Hardware department. We understand Mr. Theobald is a good Lacrosse player, and will be much appreciated by our Lacrosse supporters.

Rev. Mr. Farquharson and Miss Farquharson had the pleasure of a visit from their brother Donald from Saturday last till Tuesday. Mr. Farquharson is in charge of the important Custom House in Chatham, Ont., and the occasion of his visit was the illness of his sister, who we are pleased to say, is much better.

HOME FROM THE WARS.—Lieut. Fred Hunter, after an absence of several years in the service of his country in India and China, is expected in Toronto this week and will shortly have and give the pleasure of meeting with relatives and old friends in his native town. We welcome him home, but say, dont tell him they want more Canadians in Africa, or 10 to 1 he'll be off again to face Boers instead of Boxers. His mother and sister Miss Blanche are on a visit to son and brother Harry in Minnesota.
