LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

EDITOR REVIEW. Dear Sir,—I beg respectfully to ask for a short space in your valuable paper to make a few remarks on the controversy going on between Mr. Calder and

In the "Review" of March 27th Mr. Calder delivered himself of an article the correctness of which we feel dispossays "This is one of his (meaning our) many mistatements, as in eight years I have only had two judgments quashed in which I disposed of the case myself." Regarding this denial we alluded to a case between the late T. O. Stewart and a Mr. McArthur, and stated also that convictions made against Jas. Staples and Chas. McKinnon, growing out of an infraction of the Liquor License Act. at the time of the election in 1898, had also been set aside. Mr. Calder is silent with regard to the Stewart—McArthur case and in disposing of the cases against Staples and McKinnon has been good."

Calder also says: "the above conviction was quashed on a mere technical objection......in other respects the judgment has apparently been good as no costs were granted in the case to the defendant." The question of the legality of the by-law has not been taken into consideration and Calder has no ground whatever for supposing that in "other respects the judgment has been good." He is very much gratified that "no costs were given to the defendant." but when he says "the defendant has all court costs to pay "he is misleading again, as this is not so.

Calder's seal for the interests of the town reads very well for the unitiated, but when your readers know that he has a frame building 10 feet or more. and a brick building 2 or 3 feet on the streets of this town, it clearly shows how zealous he is.

In conclusion I wish to state that I never entered trates consisting of James Edge. H. W. | call it, "misrepresenting. Mockler and myself disposed of a number of cases as above stated and the convictions signed by the three magis-trates and yet Mr. Irwin will tell his

McKinnon did not appear at the court, but had the matter settled otherwise, one of the parties going to him and asking him to put in a plea of guilty and paying his fine, and in the other case the inspector was asked to put in a plea of guiltv and pay his fine, which was done. This is the substance of Mr. Calder's explanation of matters, which | tell. led to the conviction referred to above. and we are not going to question its correctness. Now that we have had so much of an admission we would just like to ask Mr. Calder if the "one party" came to him after court was opened, and, furthermore, is it regular to make a conviction, by a plea of guilty coming to a Magistrate through a third party. But apart from all this, and notwithstanding Mr. Calder's statement over his own signature that the conviction was signed by the three Magistrates we have good reason for doubt as will be shown by the sworn statements of Mr. shown by the sworn statements of Mr Edge and Mr. Mockler given below, and if it would not be too much trouble we would like to hear Mr. Calder explain away the seeming incongruity

readers that the then Mayor Calder

made the convictions.'

these gentlemen. The following are the affidavits of Mr. Edge and Mr. Mockler in relation to Mr. McKinnon and similar affidavits were made, we are told, regarding the

> The Queen against Chas. McKinnon. I, James Edge, of the Township of Glenelg, in the County of Grey, one Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace in and for the said County of Grey,

> (1) That I have learned that a conviction of the above named Charles McKinnon alleged to have been made in the month of April last past or an infraction of the Liquor License Act has been returned to the Clerk of the Peace in and for the said County of Grey, and that the printed Schedule of returned convictions dated at Owen Sound, 22nd day of June 1898, is to the effect that the said above named Charles McKinnon was convicted as aforesaid of an infraction of the said Liquor License Act before William Calder, Herbert W. Mockler and myself as Justices for the said

(2) That the said above named Charles McKin-non did not appear before me in the said month of April or at any time within the last two years for any offence in breach of the said Liquor License Act or on any other charge whatever, and the said Chas. McKinnon was never convicted before me, and the above mentioned return of conviction is incorrect and so far as my connection therewith is knowledge or consent, and the insertion of the name of the said Charles McKinnon in said printed ale as having been so convicted as aforesaid appear before myself and my associates on the bench Herbert W. Mockler and William Calder, Mayor of Durham, on the occasion of our sitting as a bench of Magistrates, in the Town of Durham, in the said month of April, as I distinctly remember that several persons charged before us at said preferred against them, and there was no convic tion made before us on that occasion and I sat on the Bench with the Justices aforesaid on one day only to hear complaints under the said "The Liquor

(4) That on the occasion of my hearing charges inder the said Act as aforesaid or shortly thereafter and before I left the bench I remember some one saying that several persons whose names don't remember had been charged and had previously acknowledged their guilt and been fined for infractions under the said Act, but I do not remember hearing the name of Charles McKinnon

(Signed) JAMES EDGE, J. P. Sworn before me at Durham in the County of Grey this 14th day of November A. D. 1898. JOHN MCARTHUR,

We shall not weary your readers Mr. Editor by giving in full the affidavit of Mr. Mockler more than to say that it is corroborative of the affidavit made by Mr. Edge, and it states, moreover, that he sat with Mayor Calder as Associate Justice on two occasions to hear complaints under the said "The Liquor License Act," but on neither of the said occasions did the said above named Chas. McKinnon appear before him, nor was he ever convicted by him either alone or in association with any other Justice of the Peace. He also says he did not authorize nor had he any knowledge of any return country.

of said alleged conviction. The affidavits both bear the same date Nov. 14, 1898 and may be seen if doubted. Mr. Calder's last article was wholly irrelevant, and his efforts were used evidently to show that my previous articles were actuated by mere spleen. Such, however, is not the case, Mr. Editor, and whether Mr. Calder believes it or not is a matter of

Thanking you for the privilege of placing my ide of the case before your many readers,

I am yours, etc. W. IRWIN Publisher "Chronicle"

To the Editor of REVIEW, Dear Sir,—In your issues of March 27th and April 10th last there appeared letters from Wm. Calder which so far perverted the truth and misrepresented the facts in the matter of Rex v. McKinnon under discussion by him and Mr. Irwin of the Chronicle, that I ask for the privilege of a small space to present your readers with a few "truths" which I challenge Mr. Calder to deny and which may tend to show the color of his actions. At the meeting of Durham council, October 7th, 1901, wheh Calder was Mayor, it was moved by Jno Livingston sec. by Wm. Guthrie "That the Mayor look into By-Law 336 and see that all parties comply with conditions mentioned therein and allow reasonable time for each party to make arrangements to carry out the said By-law." Neither Calder nor anyone representing him ever called on me with reference to the said by-law.

versy going on between Mr. Calder and myself.

As most of your readers know the discussion originated over a conviction made by Mr. Calder for an alleged infraction of the Fire By-law, on the part of Chas. McKinnon, the said conviction being recently quashed at with reference to the said by-law.

On Saturday, October 12th, about 4 p. m., I received a letter from the town solicitor, requesting that I meet with him and Calder on the Monday following, at 1 p. m. in the Town Hall. As it was impossible for me to cancel on such short notice engagements previously made for that time, I could not and did not meet with them and the following Friday Calder got Mr. Carson to lay the information making me the defendant in the suit of, The Town, v. McKinnon.

part of Chas. McKinnon, the said conviction being recently quashed at Osgoode Hall, Toronto. In commenting on the decision after it was announced in the Toronto Dailies, we as much as advised Mr. Calder not to sit on any more cases as four of his convictions had been quashed when appeals were made to the Higher Courts.

In the "Review" of March 27th Mr.

In the "Review" of March 27th Mr.

But a careful search of the minutes of the proceedings of 1901 fails to reveal any such instructhe correctness of which we feel disposed to question in some points. He says in that issue "The Courts have now decided that our By-law is good, etc." and again, referring to our charge that "four" convictions were quashed, he says "This is one of his (meaning our) many mistatements are in eight years. It is a large that the converted to the case and the case are called the case and the case are called the case and the case and the case are called the case are called the case and the case are called the case are
