Mr. Irwin last Thursday got a telegram that his mother was dying and left that afternoon for Thornbury. Same evening word came that she was dead. We sympathize deeply with our cotem in the loss of the nearest and dearest of earth's relationships.

The Big Store Hardware Department is doing a good business under the new management.

DROMORE FOOT BALL CLUB.—A notice reached us last week when the 25 was out announcing a meeting on May 3 to form a club. Doubtless this meeting was held and the team that won honors last season will enter on another with the backing of a good organization.

Miss Stevenson, of Holstein, addressed the W. F. M. S. of the Presbyterian church last Thursday on "Our Motive and Place in Mission Work" which proved very interesting and instructive and had a conference with the ladies afterwards as to how to improve and interest the members in the W. F. M. S. She was the guest of Mrs. Thos. Allan during her stay.

Fishing Tackle, Rods, Reels, Flies, Lines, Hooks at Parker's Drug Store.

Mr. J. M. Davis is out as an independent for Centre Grey and has an address in the Markdale Standard, claiming that "their interests would be better served by non-partisan consideration of every question on its merits." Davis will have a run anyway, and will, if he does not win, pull down the majority of the present member.

NO SUMMER CAMPS.—Word has gone out that there will be no spring camps this year. What with the fourth African drafts and the men who will go to the coronation, the permanent corps will be sadly depleted of instructors. Moreover, there will be no major-general commanding to do the inspecting. General O'Grady-Haly leaves Canada early in the month, and Lord Dundonald does not take command until the beginning of July. The camps will not therefore be held until September.

When your wife arises one of these fine mornings with a look of determination in her eye, gives you a half breakfast, then wraps a rag around her head, dons one of your cast off coats and opens the windows, it's time for you to make a break for your office and stay there all day. If you should happen to go home at noon, you would find the curtains down, the furniture out on the lawn and a woman whom you promised to cherish, honor and obey sweating about the house with a smirch of dust on her pretty face. It would also be a dinnerless visit. Stay away. You may have to beat the carpets if you go home.

Come and see our stock of American and Canadian Wall Paper. It will speak for itself.—MacFarlane & Co.

DEATH OF MRS. HENRY YOUNG.—Many old friends in Durham will hear with regret of the death of this lady, who for 25 years was a resident of the place, and who, with husband and family were much respected citizens. After an illness of only six weeks, she died at the family residence 449 Lake Ave., Chicago, on Thursday, April 10, 1902, aged 58 yrs. Mrs. Young (nee Ellen Hamilton) was born in Dartons, Co. Tyrone, Ireland, and was a much loved wife and mother, all her children being devotedly attached to her and she to them. Besides her husband, she leaves a large family to mourn her loss and excepting David J. who has been in California for the past 4 years, all were present when she passed away. They were William K., George H., Elizabeth, Thomas, Nellie, Margaret and Earnest Hamilton the youngest, now 14 years old. We join in the sympathy for the survivors.

OBITUARY.—Mrs. Henry W. Jenkins, who died, Monday, April 28, came to Canada with her husband in 1881 from Stallington Grange, Shropshire, Eng., and had the misfortune to lose two of their three children by diphtheria on arrival in Toronto. They moved after a few weeks stay to Bentinck and after 4 years' residence there returned to England where another daughter was born to them. In 1889 they returned to Canada and bought a farm in Glenelg, where they have since resided. Six years ago her husband was killed by the falling of a tree, and now after about two years' suffering his wife has been taken at the age of 54. One son, and one daughter remain in the English Church Cemetery, Rev. Mr. Ryan conducting the services.

ENTERPRISING.—J. H. Jordan, ever pushing, has lately added a magnificent Soda Fountain to his establishment.

which we imagine is soon going to prove too small for him. The thing is a real work of art, standing about 4 feet high on a marble base. The bowl, shaft and curved extensions for electric light etc., are beautifully silver plated and the light bulbs spring from petal like colored glass foliage. Near the top is an oval glass dome about 10 inches in diameter, enclosing a figure in a welcoming attitude and on top of the dome is a shining ball, surmounted in turn by another figure, a tip toe, suggesting the figure on the top of the famous Buffalo electric tower. Sorry it was dry the day we called for surely nothing bad could come 'oot o' yon thing.

The Rev. J. C. Farthing M. A. Rector of New St., Pauls Woodstock, a former Rector of Durham is announced to preach three special sermons in Trinity church next Sunday, May 11th. The services will be at 11 a. m., 3 p. m., and 7 p. m. At the morning service J. A. Hunter will sing 'A Dream of Paradise.' At the afternoon service 4 lodges of Free Masons are expected. The address will be specially for the Masons, but all are invited. Dr. Brown, of Holstein, will sing a solo. At the evening service Mr. J. S. Ireland, of Mt. Forest, is expected to render a solo. The choir is preparing special music and will spare no effort to render the musical portion of the service well.

MR. GEORGE BINNIE, Liberal Candidate in South Grey.

HON. G. W. ROSS, Premier of the Province.

A WORTHY CANDIDATE.

Last week we gave a personal sketch of Mr. Binnie, this week we give a view of his features, and shall enumerate for the benefit of our readers who have not the privilege of hearing him, some of the views he holds on public questions, and which he is this week presenting to the electors.

1. He believes in purity of elections, and in the punishment of all of whatever party who are found conniving at dishonesty in the expression of the people's will.

2. He believes in the independence of members of parliament, and has taken his stand, though relatively a poor man, against the evils of the Railway Pass system. He believes as many do that favors from corporations tie the hands of the recipients.

3. He believes in the careful husbanding of public wealth in the shape of forest and mineral lands, and heartily supports the legislation passed to develop New Ontario by the judicious pulp concessions that have been made.

4. He is an admirer of the honesty that has characterized the spending departments of the government since not even a virulent opposition has discovered the faintest cause for scandal.

5. He is an advocate of liberal encouragement to Agriculture, Arts and Education and commends the government for the liberal grants made to Farmers' Institutes, Agricultural Societies, Teachers' Associations, &c., amounting each year to many thousands of dollars.

6. He believes in making due provision for the Insane, the Blind, the Deaf and Dumb, and other helpless classes, and points with pride to the record of the government of which he is a supporter on this line also.

7. New Ontario he regards as a heritage won for us by the Liberal party, in the face of opposition by their opponents, and he is heartily in accord with the revenue of the Province, especially the important railway legislation they have passed, and the steps they have taken to control rates and freights in the interest of the settlers.

8. He believes in the Legislation of 1899 placing a light tax on Life and Fire Insurance Companies, Banks, Trust Companies, Loan Companies, Steam Railway Companies, Telephone and Telegraph companies, &c., &c., who, having certain privileges, and practical immunity from taxation in the regular way, should contribute in some way to the revenue of the Province, especially since the earnings of nearly all of these are paid by farmers and the producing classes. Mr. Whitney, being an open and avowed friend of the corporation, promises if returned to power to remove this tax, and Mr. Binnie believes that a man who will thus oppose the masses and sneer at New Ontario as "the land of the stunted Poplar" is not a safe man to make Premier.

9. Mr. Binnie believes in the due restriction of the liquor traffic and points with pride to the decrease of intemperance as shown by the decrease of commitments and fines which has taken place as a result of Liberal Legislation. The limited powers possessed by the province for total restriction, as decided by the Privy Council, justifies the government in submitting to the sanction of the people, the highest measure of restrictive legislation in their power, seeing this highest measure is different from anything yet voted on or discussed.

10. Mr. Binnie believes—that the vast enterprises established at Sault Ste Marie, largely by encouragement granted by the Ross government, that the railway enterprises inaugurated by them in the new region, which will not burden, but which will largely benefit old Ontario, are reasons in themselves demanding the return to power of the Ministry whose ability and activity inaugurated them, and therefore he asks with confidence his brother farmers, professional men, business and laboring men to support him as a supporter of the most progressive government and the most able premier Ontario has ever had.

With a worthy candidate, an honored leader of an able, clean and progressive government, South Grey will honor itself by electing Mr. George Binnie to the Legislature.

AN HONORED LEADER.

A very important factor in the present election is the personal enthusiasm aroused by the leadership of the Hon. Geo. W. Ross. The Liberal party in Ontario has been singularly fortunate in its leaders, each having had a combination of qualities which made him the man for the occasion. In the case of Mr. Ross we find that a man may be loyal to his party, unselfish in all party relations, and at the same time broad-minded and able to take the view of the sane, broad and progressive citizen. His receptiveness to new ideas is remarkable, and seems to increase rather than diminish with age. When he became interested in the Imperial idea he was not merely following the fashion. He was following the natural bent of his mind, which is toward expansion, union and development. New ideas, such as frighten some people, attract him. Yet he is not a faddist, but an eminently practical man, seeking always the lines on which work can be done with the greatest efficiency.

Mr. Ross is frankly a party man. He believes thoroughly in party government, and he regards the party system, fairly worked, as a fair and generous rivalry in rendering good service to the country. This is the secret of the immense enthusiasm which he arouses in the Liberal party. That enthusiasm can never be evoked by partisan narrowness or partisan ferocity or willingness to adopt sinister means for carrying out party objects. He wants to see the Liberal party used as an agency for developing Ontario and building up in Canada a strong and prosperous nation. Young men are attracted to him because of his virile, hopeful Canadian spirit.

It has been wittily and truly said that prophecy is the most gratuitous form of human error, but the enthusiasm or coldness of a party in rallying round a leader is a matter not for conjecture but for observation, and in this campaign the Liberals are perhaps more enthusiastic than ever before. They recognize that a strong fight is being made on the other side, and this stimulates their ardor and their vigilance. This is the right spirit, and one which will leave no regrets for election night, no feeling that any duty has been neglected, or any act done that will not bear the light of day. Four weeks of clean, hard work remains to be done. The record of the Government is to be plainly laid before the electors, its policy clearly enunciated, and then the electors left to give the verdict.—Globe.
