

FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

PLEASANT ORCHARD MEETING.

On Thursday afternoon last, quite a number of the members of the Farmer's Institute, and others, met in Mr. Alex. McLachlan's orchard, which had been kindly furnished for the occasion. The attendance could not be called large yet the meeting must be called a success and the picnic part sufficient and good. The speaker of the day was Alex. McNeil, of Walkerville, and he gave much valuable information, listened to with the usual good interest shown by S. Grey.

The officers are: Jas. Allan, Pres.; Wm. Irvine, Vice Pres.; Geo. Binnie, Secy.; Treas. Directors: Jno. Picken, S. Dickson, T. Gadd, R. Barber, Wm. Ramage, D. Hamilton, Wm. Smith, D. Edge, H. H. Miller, Dr. Mearns, R. MacFarlane, Geo. Hepburn. Regular meetings to be held at Durham and Hanover, Supplementary meetings at Dromore, Holstein Ayton and Elmwood.

Mr. McNeil in his address contrasted grain growing and stock raising, with fruit growing to the advantage of the latter, if modern methods and changed conditions were considered. He claimed it was conclusively proved that a southern slope was inferior to a northern one for an orchard. They should secure their trees from the nursery if possible shunning pedlars unless thoroughly acquainted. Should go cautiously with new varieties, the good old kinds are still the best, only about 1 in 100 of new varieties permanently succeed. Select varieties that are in demand, for long-keeping, prolific and good shipping. Ben Davis, Baldwin and Greening begins to bear in 6 years. A northern Spy takes 12 years, while Russets are only second choice and are late in bearing also.

Avoid grain crops in orchard, and plant to have clean culture the first of the season and cover crops the latter part. Common oats sowed and ploughed in was good but not so necessary here where snow was plentiful. A lower head is preferable and cultivation should be done with extension tools. Important to have air and sunlight, but too much of the latter will cause sun scald. Large limbs should be painted and not too long cut. Holes in trees fill up with cement, whitewash in winter with a handful of salt added and apply Bordeaux mixture in the spring. Trees can be sprayed at a cost of $5 an acre and the difference amounts to $20, to $50, in sprayed trees. Use Bordeaux with proper proportion of Paris Green (4 oz.) with Kerosene emulsion for sap-sucking insects. Graft on an old tree if at all, near the end of limb, and not too large. A meeting of the Women's Institute was held in the Town Hall in the afternoon which was fairly successful.

SOUTH GREY WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.

The Annual meeting was held in the Town Hall, Durham, on Thursday, June 5th. Those who failed to attend this meeting missed a great treat because Miss Agnes Smith, Hamilton, delivered a most interesting and instructive address on the subject of "Cooking" with simple demonstrations. The officers were reappointed for the coming Institute year viz:

President—Mrs. T. McGirr. Vice-President—Miss M. Brown. Secy.—Mrs. K. L. Dixon. Directors—Mrs. Thos. Brown, Mrs. Geo. Binnie, Mrs. W. J. Rodgers, Miss Belle Lothian, Mrs. W. J. Derby, Mrs. David McCrie. Auditors—Miss Jean Brown, Miss Maude McGillivray.

The next meeting will be held the first Thursday in July at the home of Mrs. Wm. Hunter, Egremont.

SHROPSHIRE FOR CANADA.

Messrs Alfred Mansell & Co. Live Stock exporters, Shrewsbury, shipped per s. s. "Lycia" from Avonmouth on the 29th April, 30 Shropshire sheep bred by Mr. E. E. Mansell, and purchased by Mr. Robert Miller. These sheep consisted of 14 rams and 16 ewes which with the exception of one ram were too young to include in the famous Harrington Dispersion Sale so were kept by Mr. Mansell until his final farm sale at Bishton Hall last March.

Mr. Miller is to be congratulated on obtaining these sheep which are the last of Mr. Mansell's breeding which Canada will obtain, and it is therefore to be hoped that they will all arrive safely at their destination.

SHORTHORN BULLS FOR CANADA.

On Tuesday April 29th four short-horn bulls purchased by Mr. J. Lawrence of Manitoba, during his recent visit to England were shipped per s. s. "Lycia" to Quebec by Messrs Alfred Mansell & Co., Live Stock Exporters Shrewsbury. These bulls were really fine animals, two being bred by Mr. W. J. Hoaken, and two by Mr. Roskruge and should they reach Manitoba safely should prove of great service in Mr. Lawrence's herd.

COVERED BUGGY FOR SALE.

A second-hand covered buggy double seated, well-bodied, will be sold at a bargain. Running gear as good as new. Also a light wagon on buggy running gear. Apply at REVIEW Office, Durham.

REV. JAS. FARQUHARSON.

The Westminster of May 31, has the following appreciative sketch of the above gentlemen, (brother of the Presbyterian pastor here,) than whom we see no one more fitted to take up the work of the late Dr. Robertson:

"The congregation at Pilot Mound has the distinction of having retained their minister longer than any other in the West and Rev. James Farquharson, though still only in the prime of manhood, has the honor of being the oldest minister (with possibly one exception) of any denomination in the active work west of the great lakes. Mr. Farquharson is a graduate of Toronto University and Knox College and in both arts and theology took a distinguished position. He graduated in arts in '78 and in theology in '81. He had the true missionary instinct and during the summer vacations had done valued work in breaking new ground. He was among the first to respond to the call for volunteers when settlers began to find their way to the West and amid all the varied experiences of the pioneer missionary's life, has remained true to his first love and Presbyterianism has had no truer or more loyal friend than he. He was assigned to the Turtle Mountain district and was bishop of a far-reaching field. He tells with a good deal of glee of the experiences through which Mrs. Farquharson and himself passed in the early days when travelling from place to place and when accommodation of any kind was at a high premium. As the settlement increased the field gradually subdivided until at present his labours are confined to Pilot Mound and two associated stations. In the early days when frost and drought and hail sorely tried the faith and courage of the people and when the outlook was often the darkest possible, the faithful minister remained loyally with his people and cheerfully shared their experiences and it is no exaggeration to say that their is no couple in the district to-day who are more loved and respected than Mr. Farquharson and his faithful helpmeet. In addition to his ordinary pastoral work he has been the secretary of the Home Mission Committee for thirteen years and Dr. Robertson had no more trusted or trusted lieutenant than he. There is probably no man who has a more accurate knowledge of Home Mission work in the Synod. Since the death of Dr. Robertson a great deal of the responsibility for the work has devolved upon him. As might be expected from a congregation that has enjoyed so long and efficient a pastorate, the church at Pilot Mound is a solid and substantial one and words of loving appreciation are heard on all hands of the kindly and unselfish man who is beginning to grow grey in their service. Such a man may well be ranked among 'The Makers of the West.'"

HYMENEAL.—Dromore.

A most happy event took place at Melbourn Hall, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Isaac on Wednesday, June 4th, when their third daughter, Helen Jane, was wedded to the man of her choice, Mr. Joshua Dixon, of Holstein. The pleasing incident took place at 6.15 p. m. in the parlor under a flower-decked canopy, where over fifty relatives and near friends were gathered together in bright array. To the sweet strains of the wedding march played by her sister Mary, the groom and his supporter Mr. Irvin Dixon, of Southampton took their positions, followed in a few moments by the bride leaning on her brother Robert's arm, afterwards by her bridesmaid, Miss Jane Leith. Rev. Mr. Campbell, of Dromore officiated, and in a few minutes declared the couple man and wife.

The bride was dressed in a beautiful gown of white embroidered swiss trimmed with white silk and valenciennes lace, and carried a lovely bouquet of white geraniums, white asters and asparagus. A cluster of white hydrange and asparagus nestled under the folds of the bridal veil. She was a picture of queenly beauty. The bridesmaid wore white swiss trimmed with valenciennes lace, and carried a lovely bouquet of snowballs and feathery asparagus. A circle of pretty blossoms crowned the fair one. During the half hour of congratulations, Mr. Bert Gibson, of Mt. Forest played sweet strains on the organ which charmed the hearts of all present. The next move was to the dining room, where two tables laden with choice viands awaited them. The sight was a fine one, the glittering silver, the polished glass, the delicious eatables, the bright flowers and the beautiful five storey bridal cake and the gay faces all combined was enough to make a person wish that every day was like a wedding. Music and song floated in from the parlor until about four o'clock when the wedding party left for Mount Forest.

where they took the morning train for Guelph, Acton, Galt and Toronto, where they will visit friends for two weeks. Showers of blessing will follow them as they were held in high esteem in this locality. The guests from a distance were Mr. Phillips and Miss Rutherford, from Galt, Mr. and Miss Neer, from Monkton, Messrs and Miss Isaac from Dundalk, Mr. and Miss Binnie from Bunnessan, Mr. Bert Gibson and Miss Joannie Cooper, Mt. Forest, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Baid and family from Lauriston, Mr. and Mrs. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Cowan, from Holstein, and Mr. Irvin Dixon brother of the groom, from Southampton. The esteem in which the bride is held was clearly shown by the number of useful and handsome presents she received, among them was a teacher's Bible given by the groom, to the bride, and a handsome parlor table given to her by her Sunday School class. We all join in wishing the young couple much happiness and prosperity through life.—Com.

WEDDING BELLS.

A pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Morton, on June 4th, when their daughter, Nellie was united in marriage to Mr. James Harkness, of Teeswater. Rev. Mr. Farquharson tied the knot in the presence of about fifty guests. The bride was dressed in white dimity trimmed with blue veils; ribbon with a travelling suit of dark green cloth trimmed with satin and applique. The bridesmaid, Miss Maggie Morton, from Teeswater, was dressed in white muslin with blue ribbons. Mr. Anthony McDonald, of Teeswater, waited on the groom. Congratulations over, they all sat down to a sumptuous repast, provided by the bride's mother. After supper, the young people enjoyed themselves with dancing and playing games till early morning. The presents were numerous, beautiful and useful. The friends from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Harkness and little daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ross and son Johnny, Miss A. McDonald and Mr. Bert Harkness, all from Teeswater. The happy couple left next morning, mid'nt showers of rice and good wishes.—Com.
