Mr. Thomas Boyle after a severe illness, is able to be around again.

Allan McKinnon shipped a load of hogs to Hamilton last week.

Wonder if Bob McCastlin commenced holding his meetings yet. Any berries in Ireland Bob?

Tom Hattie has erected a new weighing scale. Tom is a hustler.

The framers have completed the frame work of Mr. Monto's barn and are now working at McIntosh's.

Mr. Nelson Supernault, who has been ill with consumption for the past 4 months died on Friday last. He was 48 years of age, and came to Bentinck with his parents 24 years ago. He leaves as chief mourners his father, a sister, two brothers and two nieces who have made their home with them. Mrs. Thos Swallow, of Durham, is also a niece of the deceased. He was buried at Dornoch on Monday, many friends and neighbors paying the last tribute of respect. Rev. Father Buckley conducted the services.

VARNEY

The picnic on Friday last proved to be quite a success in spite of the threatening weather of the morning. The programme was varied and entertaining consisting of selections from the gramophone by Herbert Gray, flag drill by a number of whiterobed girls, solo by Mr. James Watson, two solos by Miss Brown, of Durham, and recitation by several of the pupils.

The church has been quite brightened by a fresh coat of varnish.

We are pleased to note that Conference has returned to our very much respected pastor Mr. Pomeroy.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennet of Egremont visited at Mrs. Leeson's one day last week.

Mrs. George Moore, of Teeswater is watching by the bed-side of her mother, Mrs. Morice, who is very low at present.

We were pleased to see Mr. John Dunn was able to be out Sunday, and hope he may still continue to improve.

Mrs. Churchward sr., is visiting Mrs. Walter Dunn this week.

Varneyites were pleasantly surprised to see their former pastor's wife Mrs. Flagg, who has been visiting Mrs. John Aldred for the past week.

Messrs John and Robert Henry were the guests of their sister, Mrs. Wm Clark on Sunday last.

Mr. Thomas Derby and brother Joe, were visiting at Mr. Chas Gadd's last week.

Mr. John Grey called on Mr. James Hoy, one day recently.

Mr. James Hoy has started a grocery store in our burg, which we think will be a good thing for our little village.

Quite a number from around here attended the Normanby picnic, and report a good time. The foot-ball match between the Durham and Varney boys resulted in a tie.

Messrs D Leith and J Moore visited the Sunday School on Sunday last.

Quite a number intend taking in the Excursion to the Model Farm on the 25.

Mr and Mrs R J Eden were visiting Egremont friends lately.

LORDS OF THE NORTH.—One of the greatest Canadian works of fiction, "Lords of the North", has recently appeared from the pen of a new writer, Miss A. C. Lant. The Montreal Daily Herald has been fortunate in securing the rights of this new story for serial reproduction, and is just beginning its publication. In order to interest the reading public in the story, The Herald announces that it will send its daily Edition free for two weeks, beginning with the first issue of the story, to any one sending in their name and address to the Daily Herald, Montreal.

Strayed Cattle.

Strayed from the premises of the undersigned Lot 5, Con. 15, Egremont, about May 23rd last, 6 head of yearling cattle, 4 red steers, with a few small white spots, one black heifer, the other heifer mostly red and largest of the group. Information that will lead to their recovery will be suitably rewarded.

VALENTINE ALLES, Prop.

BOOTHVILLE.

Making good roads is the order of the day.

Our councillor D McIntyre let $75 worth of gravel on Friday night.

The new road grader is giving good satisfaction every where it has been tried.

Eceles has finished building the stone wall for Wm J Wilson's barn and it is a good job and will bear inspection.

Mrs Jas Marshall and Miss Mary McKechnie spent last Thursday with Mrs John Marshall at Spring Bank farm.

Mr and Mrs Dave Marshall, of Normanby, spent Sunday at Jas Marshall's.

Mr and Mrs Hugh Wilson, of River-side, visited at Nobla Wilson's lately.

Mrs Willie Marshall and little girl spent last week at her father's Mr Vint Hill's.

Miss Eva Booth accompanied by Mr Mr J McCabe visited at N Wilson's and Vint Hill's lately. Eva's many friends are always pleased to see her at Boothville.

Arthur and Willie Wilson and Willie Kinsman wheeled to Singhampton on Friday, went to see the sights of the town of Collingwood on Saturday and came home Sunday well pleased with their trip.

J Calder, Miss McDonald, B Noble and Miss M Calder attended the services at Fairbairn Church on Sunday last.

Jas R Wilson returned on Saturday from a trip to Muskoka in search of ship timber.

The farmers in this part of township have come to the conclusion that a road grader is a labor saving and a money saving machine and the right thing to make good roads. Mr James Smith works the machine and gets $1.75 a day and earns it. He gives good satisfaction. On Herman Haw's beat they graded 240 rods in two days. Browns-ville got 115 rods done in 1½ days. Boothville 120 rds in 1 day. Thos Knox 180 rds in 1 day, a saving of over $100 on the old method of grading.

Oh! say did you see a child driving another child on Sunday night? Did her mother know she was out?
