GIVEN

the Militia at nandoah

TO TROUBLE.

artridge and Orders e-throwers-Priest e Mine Workers' n Severe Terms.

Aug. 11.-The enent was called to night as a result made by a band who threw stones v in camp on the e town.

re becoming so g. Gen. Gobin has stern measures to at a double guard, cartridges, surand the sentries ted that if last w ng is repeated, kill and investine of the attackarrest. The first o Col. Theodore made at 10.45 Private Payne, entry duty, saw the Mahanoy arates the camp ment from the nanded the men the corporal of of stones and at the sentry. n on the chest, He jumped up its into the air. n ran down the one, a Lithuanised the whole giment was put santes B, E and thrown out in ald find no one. then called to minutes later les was thrown

the latter could ne guard turnwere seen runn the opposite ne outpost was not pursued. Brush. ock this mornattack was such a nature ent was called brown at the the sentries f the unders the soldiers ders. However. a dozen shots one was hit. ent whistling teping soldiers across the ir Priest. Rev. H. F. athing terms nization. The ciation was and of man." that every ht to earn d his family, a right to manhood to this organnited Mine ained organdood stained was formed rotect crimppy and conand Fahey orking men. and I would the opinion draw big best in the the paltry eluded men, families are peace why capture the man who efore their not to sign

ally wanted

hdrawal of troops are aken away. v lives will trikes, my ou, even il t. It's the go hungry. and bloodou should er William g of the ner Kaiser dean ship-12th. The gand, the line, will till be the o be the length is m 7.1 1-2 and her to be a 500 tons accommoknowledg.

ORLD. Launched

ns of the and Corn "matter Blue Ribbon Jea is welcome morning moon and night.

Are you drinking it!

LOVE'S EXILE.

I had no sort of carriage more saucer, drew her thin lips together convenient than a Norfolk cart, so very sourly. the ladies were already dressed for their journey, and we started at too good. We require no waiting on, once. Mrs. Ellmer hastening to inform I assure you," broke in Mrs. Ellmer, had left too weatherbeaten, while me that she had sent most of her largage to some friends in London. to account, I fancy, poor lady, for having only one shabby trunk and that they would be comfortable, I to myself that some sort of vague "Oh, yes," said I, wondering vaguetwo stage baskets. Babiole sat very retreated, Babiole giving my fingers wish to live once more the life of ly why mothers always showed up packed. quietly during the railway journey, a warm-hearted squeeze when it looking out of the window, at the came to her turn to shake hands. I spoke so little that any one might me out when her mother interposed been alone. But, indeed, I was only self.

know." I said solemnly, after be- sive little clutches at my fingers to with her to the cottage lag bantered in a sprightly manner emphasize her speech, until both and, perhaps, overheard someby Mrs. Ellmer upon my artfulness she and I began to shiver. She did thing to my disadvantage, for Babiole in building myself a fortress up in | not let me go until Babiole appeared | looked frightened and shy, and Mrs. the hills where, like the knights of behind her, flushed and smiling in Ellmer's manner was almost apolo- the quickness of the girl's perception. old I could indulge in what lawless the little passage. Then Mrs. Ell- getically humble. There was con- "You ought to grow into an pranks I pleased. "And I assure mer's fingers sprang up from mine straint enough upon us all for me you that nothing could possibly be like an open latch and, dismissed I to make my visit very short, but as one was in the academy this year, more simple than my mode of life raised my hat and hurried off. there. Whatever of the bold bad I had not gone half a dozen yards with me on the following evening. it was a wonderful portrait, less eccentricity long ago."

"Why the very name Larkhall be- would like some books. trays you."

the Highland pronunciation of heard Babiole's clear childish voice. larch," a tree which grew abundever, she only smiled archly, here! Mr. Maude is a good man, I and seeing that the imaginary am sure of it!" iniquities she seemed bent on im- "As good as the rest of them, exuberant happiness in my society, I | tones of pure vinegar. "Understand, left my character in her hands, with if you ever meet him when I'm not glad of it.

shed of a station was crowded by had heard enough, and afraid lest rough villagers, all eagerly enjoying | Beauty should catch him eavesdropthe splendid excitement of the arrival ping, slunk away from the doormat of the train. A dense, wet Scotch mist and made his way home with his rily, getting back into the hall. eaveloped us as we stepped on to the tail between his legs. platform, chilled by our cold journey; still, they both smiled with persistent veil of fine rain, a most depressing misanthropical melancholy. drove "magnificent"; and, finally after a hushed and revereattal slience as we went through modest dwelling. Mrs. Elimer even went so far as to admire the "fine rugged face" of Ferguson, who was standing at the hall door scowling his worst scowl. I did not risk an encounter with him, but led the ladies straight into the cottage, where a peat fire was glowing in each of the lower rooms. We went first into the sitting-room; a lighted tamp was in the middle of the table, the tea-things were at one end. I glassed from mother to daughter, trying to read their first impression of their new home. Mrs. Ellmer's Tos, sharpened by sordid experi nce to hungry keenness, took in every letall at once with critical satisfaction, while her lips poured forth commonplaces of vague delight. The almax of her pleasure was the discovery of the cup and saucer on the mantelpiece. By the way in which her thin face lighted up I saw she was a connoisseur. In looking at it me forgot me and for a moment paused in her enraptured monologue. Babiole took it all differently. She seemed to hold her breath, as she looked slowly round, as if determined to gaze on everything long enough. to be sure that it was real; then, tude, fell on me. You must have been for years an object of horror and loathing to your ther then, nor later that evening when I was alone, recall any sensame at the door of the Aberdeen lodg- You can get the Tablets at any oval frames, occupied a prominent ing. I suppose I must have stood drug store or by mail post paid at position at the end of the room from contemplation of the cup and Ont., or Schenectady, N. Y.

江本本本本本本本本本本本本本本

on my way to Aberdeen I ordered a "And now I will leave you to your ny to be at Ballater Station on my tea," said I hastily. "I told Janet return with my new tenants. Both to put everything ready for you." "Thank you, Mr. Maude, you are > with rather tart civility. "Oh, no, I only told her to put the kettle on in the kitchen," I protested, ever. I changed back quickly to my she has had a thorough art educahumbly. And, with ceremonious hopes usual coat, scarcely acknowledging tion from her father, Mr. Maude."

afraid, from the happy excitement | She took my hand and held it while ; which glowed in the faces of both she assured me that she was so much ! talkative mother and silent daugh- overpowered by my distinguished should be disappointed by the sim- excuse her if in the effort to express they persisted in regarding as a pal- herself without words. I'm sure I on the mantelpiece. It occurred to her would like that," she said, inwished she would, for she went on me that old Janet might have let dicating each with the glance of "It's a very homely place, you in the same strain, making convul- out the fact that I turned back her eyes.

bandit there may have been in my when I met Janet on her way to With what shamefaced nonchalance and I commissioned a man to buy it composition ten years back has the cottage; she curtseyed and told I told Ferguson that day to have the for me. The other is an enlargement, grade, provided that designation is been melted down into mere harm- me, in answer to my question that drawing-room opened and cleaned on by an unknown artist, from half a she was taking some tea to the the following morning. With what dozen old photographs and sketches, "Ah! you are not going to make ladies. After a moment's hesita- stolld, lowering resignation he ex- of the same lady five years ago." me believe that," said Mrs. Ellmer, tion I turned and followed her, pro- tracted my reason for this unparal- "And it is exactly like her-like with a giddy shake of the head. posing to ask them whether they leled order. However, he made no pro- what she was, I mean?

Janet opened the door quietly with- at breakfast, he entered the room I believe the dear lady really did out knocking, and went into the in his usual clockwork manner, but think the name had been given in kitchen on the left, while I stood with a glow of pleasurable feeling she had used it, though it is not for sale, unless such package is commemoration of "high jinks" I on the rough fibre mat outside the in his cold eyes. had held there; but I hastened to sitting-room, having grown sudassure her that "lark" was simply dealy shy about intruding again. I "Oh, mamma, if only papa doesn't antly in the neighborhood. How- find us out, how happy we shall be puting to me in no way lessened her | dare sav," answered her mother in only a glance at Bablole, who seem- with you, you are not to speak to ed with her eyes fixed on the moving him. It makes me ill to look at his landscape, to be deaf to what went | hideous, wicked face. There's someog inside the carriage. I was rather one in the kitchen, run and see who

When we got to Ballater the little | And the poor Beast thinking he happiness, which grew rapturous; Those unlucky few words that I They were charmed with the and, moreover, brought on in the ready, sir?" village, which looked, through the would-be philosopher a fit of But he had gone too far; he had collection of stiff stone and slate could not get over the poor little "Come in here," I said, in a tone dwellings to my blase eyes. They woman's cynical hypocrisy for some which subdued his happiness; and he were delighted with the cold and days, during which I never went followed me back into the room. dreary drive. They pronounced the near the cottage; and if I met "Now t-t-take the tongs," I condark fir forest through which we either mother or daughter in my tinued, as haughtily as coughing walks or rides, I contented myself would permit, "and r-ram it up the with raising my hat ceremoniously, chimney. and giving them as brief a glimpse Cowed, but exceedingly rejuctant, the plantation both were transfixed of my "wicked, hideous face" as pos- he obeyed, and I would not let him with admiration at the sight of my sible. Ha! ha! I would show them relax his efforts until, smothered whether or not I was dependent on with soot, and dust, dry twigs and their society, and how much of sel- blackened snow, he pulled down upon fish libertinism there had been in himself a sack, a couple of birds' my wish to house them comfortably nests and other obstacles, which, for the winter; a pair of idiots.

CHAPTER VII.

HOT WEATHER AILMENTS.

More Little Ones Die Puring the Rot Weather Months Than at Any Other Season.

· It is a lamentable fact that thousands of little ones die from hot weather aliments, whose lives might be spared if mothers had at hand the proper remedy to administer promptprecious little life may be lost in a few hours. Baby's Own Tablets promptly check and care diarhoea, troubles, and prevent the ailments that come at this period. Every prudent mother should keep a box of Baby's Own Tablets in the house at and bright with unspeakable grati- promptly and so surely, and the Tablets are guaranteed to contain no opiate or harmful drug. They always do good and cannot possibly do harm, and crushed to a powder you out in a fortnight, at the end of the little affected laugh which gave which time I began to think it less the idea of pleasure than that it want I who was the ideot, to nour- of a wish to please. "If she dared ish resentment against a pair of she would ask who those ladies are." helpless creatures who, too poor to "They are both the same, mother," refuse an offer which saved them said Babiole, so shyly, that one seen enough of the dark side of hu- some story about the portraits. disinterested motives, and had no weapon but their own wits where-"Would it be indiscreet to ask her with to fight their natural enemy -man. Besides, my solitude had "Her name was Helen." grown ten times more solitary now that, sitting alone in my study at night, with To-to languidly stretch-" No, I believe she is alive." ing himself on the kennel in front of me, paying no attention to me whatever, and Ta-ta, who really had capacities for sympathy, lying asleep on the rug at my feet, I knew that, not a hundred yards away, there the subject of the original portrait were slender women's forms flitting had long ceased to be keen; but I about, and girlish prattle going on, think the little one, being very young, by a little modest fireside that was a liked to make as much as possible out found their new home to their lik- portraits hung. five years, to make the best of a bad pictures do you like best?" business, so far as my person was tweed Norfolk suit I usually wore for a black coat and grey trousers I used to wear in town, which, though doubtless a little old-fashioned in cut, might reasonably be supposed to pass muster in the wilds, and even to give me a rather dashing appearance. But, alas! It did not. It showed me on the contrary, how far I had slipped away from civilization. My hair was too long, what complexion I

other men was disappointed. now dreary and bleak landscape; and The child was following me to let ter in their outdoor dress; they had "I didn't know how clever you were, been driven in by a snow shower, Miss Babiole. Supposing I had two have thought I would rather have and came with me to the door her- one of the first of the season. The sitting room looked now cosy and habitable, if a little untidy, the habits of the touring actress being still; manifest in a collection of unframed | best?" ter, lest their bright expectations kindness and courtesy that I must cabinet photographs-not all uncalculated to bring a blush to the Presplicity and desolation of the place her feelings adequately, she found byterian cheek-which stood in a row this one, and the one who had loved

I left I formally invited them to dine painted by a famous artist. I heard obliged if you would step into the more, for she was still look-test. But next morning, while I was the party this evening. Party ! I could have broken his neck. But I only followed him in an easy manner into the hall. It was full of blinding smoke, which was pouring forth from the open door of the drawing room. I dashed heroically into the apartment, only to be with a denser cloud. which rushed into my mouth made my eyes and burn. Some winged thing, wither a bird or a bat flapped against the

"What is all this?" I choked an-"Nothing, sir," answered Fergu son with grim delight. "Nothing but that Janet lit the fire to air the room in obedience to your orders, and danger of being smothered.

I roused the lion.

some from above and some from be-

But this noble pride wore itself low, had been deposited in the unused chimney. "Now, said I, purple in the face, but content, "you can re-light the

> And, satisfied with this moral victory and the prestige it gave me in the eyes of the whole household-for him. At one end of the room was an Tim and the out-door genius who gardened twelve acres and looket after four horses, had both enjoyed this domestic scandal from the doorway -I marched back to my cold coffee and congenled bacen. There were no more difficulties, ly. Hot weather ailments come sud- though, at least, none worth mendealy and unless promptly treated, a tioning. It is true that on returning from my morning's ride. I found the hall so stuffed up with furniture that I had to enter my residence through stomach troubles, cholcra infantum one of the study windows, five feet and other hot weather ailments. from the ground; and that I had to They also give relief to teething picnic on a sandwich in the study instead of lunching decorously in the dining room; but these discomto a thorough cleaning, and quickly, and her innocent eyes, soft all times. No other medicine acts so could be borne with fortitude. At having left their cloaks in a spareroom opened for the occasion, they were led to shiver in the drawingroom. which still smelt of smoke going straight from soul to soul with can give them to the smallest, sickli- and soap and water. Mrs. Ellmer, est infant. Mrs. Geo. Foote, St. with chattering teeth, admired the lly envelope, was to me. Perhaps it Thomas, Ont., says: "My baby was painted ceiling, the white satin was because my life had so long been troubled with diarrhoen and was very chairs bright with embossed roses, cross and restless, and got so little the pale screen, and all the fanciful my fellow creatures that I could nel- sleep I hardly knew what to do with glories of the room, the magnifiher. I got a box of Baby's Own Tab- cence of which evidently impressed lets, and after giving her some her and delighted her. Babiole seemed bowels became regular and she could unable to take her eyes off two vividness except the glow I had felt sleep well. I think the Tablets a paintings, both portraits of the from brutality and starvation, had could think she guessed there was man nature to put small faith in Mrs. Ellmer's eyes began to beam with a less artless curiosity.

"Ah, poor lady! She is dead,

Babiole glanced quickly from the pictures to my face and pressed her mother's hand, as that lady was to burst forth into more questions. I don't know that my countenance expressed much, for my feelings on of any suggestion of a romance. I

Babiole instantly assumed the enorconcerned, I exchanged the coarse mous seriousness of a child who is honored with a genuine appeal to its taste. After a few moments' grave comparison of the pictures, she turned to me with the face of a fairy judge, and asked, solemnly:

"Do you mean which should I love best, or which do I admire most as a work of art?" This altogether unexpected question, which came so faintly from the childish lips, made me laugh. Babiole turned from me to the pictures, rather disconcerted, and Mrs. Elimer broke in with her sharp, the seamed and scarred right side of high voice:

my face looked more hideous than so badly beside their daughters. friends, one who had known this lady and loved her, and the other who was a great art collector. Which portrait would each like

> Babiole decided without hesitation. "The art collector would like "But the art-collector's is the > prettier face of the two," I objected. "Yes: but it isn't so good." I was astonished and fascinated by artist," I said, smiling. "The pretty

"No: she was prettier, but not so -good."

"If you please, sir, Janet would be I wanted her to say something preceding section. (To be Continued.)

Didn't Know His Own Reflection.

(Philadelph a Evening Telegraph.) are twin brothers engaged in business perly packed. walls and ceiling in the gloom. Janet | together, who so closely resemble of the brothers for an article which such package. unfortunately could not be found on waiting on that customer, James," he remarked, "or I certainly would not have climbed all the way up those stairs." There was no reply, even though ed directly at him. The twin could or berry boxes even, with veneer makers. to think that his brother was walking around in his sleep, and with a require marking. Cranberries and all lodging house where he is employed. lighted lamp, too.

"James!" he said again. to investigate the truth dawned upon the truit they offer for sale for immense mirror. The twin had simply seen his own reflection and accused found, will in every case be pro-It of being his brother.

when most womanly.-Gladstone.

THE FRUIT MARKS ACT.

What the Act Means and how it is Operated.

After the Parliament of Canada five cents and not more than one passed the Fruit Marks Act in 1901, dollar per package; . for removing an the Minister of Agriculture direct- inspector's brand, forty dollars; for ed that every opportunity should be obstructing an inspector $25 to afforded the fruit growers and pack- $500. The fines are divided equally ers of the Dominion to meet its re- between the informant and the quirements and to fulfil their obli- Crown. trading need fear any of its clauses. subject to a heavy penalty. The Act is being enforced, and the requirements have been instructed be summed up as follows: to do their duty. They are the ser- 1. The face of all fruit packages vants of the crown ; Parliament has must fairly remesent the fruit definitely pronounced its judgment throughout. upon the false and fraudulent pack- 2. Closed boxes and barrels must ing and marking of fruit consign- be marked with the name and adments; and these have been select- dress of the packer, the variety of ed to carry out the regulations the fruit and its grade. placed in the statute book for the | 3. It is an offence within the purpose of protecting honest traders meaning of the act to sell, to offrom unprincipled dealers, and of pre- fer for sale, or to have in possession serving inviolate the fair commer- for sale, fraudulently packed or cial fame of Canada from unscrupul- marked fruit, even when the buyer ous packers. In other words, the Act and seller are ignorant of the fact, will insure to the public of the Dom- as well as when one or both have mion and the commission agents, knowledge of the fact and the public generally in Great | 4. The act does not prevent the Britain and elsewhere, that the fruit packing or selling of any grade of is correctly marked and honestly fruit that is properly packed and

What it Provides.

The principal sections of the act Section 4. Every person who, by seller. himself or through the agency of another person, packs fruit in a shall cause the package to be marked in a plain and indelible manner, before it is taken from the premises where it is packed. (a) With the initials of his Christian names, and his full surname and address; (b) With the name of the variety or varieties; and (c) With a designation of the grade of fruit, which shall include one of the following six marks: For fruit of the first quality, No. 1, or XXX; for fruit of the second quality, No. 2, or XX; and for fruit of the third quality, No. 3, or X; but the said mark may be accompanied by any other designation of not inconsistent with, or marked more conspicuously than, the one of the said six marks, which is used on the said package. Section 5. No person shall sell, or offer, expose or have in his possession for sale, any fruit packed I used the word "good" because in a closed package and intended the word I should have chosen. marked, as required, by the next Section 6. No person shall sell, or drawing room and see if you would ing at the pictures in a very thought- offer, expose or have in his possesstill wish to have it prepared for ful way; but at that moment Mrs. sion for sale any fruit packed in a go from the wholesale centres. Ellmer, skipping lightly along the pol- closed package, upon which package ished floor in a way that made me is marked any designation which reptremble for her balance, thrust her resents such fruit as of No. 1 or head between us and laid her point- XXX, finest, best or extra good ed chin on her daughter's shoulder. quality, unless such fruit consist of Employed in Lodging Houses, a well-grown specimens of one variety, sound, of nearly uniform size, of good color for the variety, of normal shape, and not less than 90 per cent. free from scab, worm holes, bunch of men who follow bedmak-In a town not far from this city bruises and other defects, and pro-

Section 7. No person shall sell, or offer, expose or have in his posses- men, established in this city. was choking at the fireplace, in great each other that those who meet sion for sale, any fruit packed in any them every day are not able to tell package in which the faced or shown ers in these places of many beds which one they have conversed with. surface gives a false representation were men. Within the last six or Each has a family, and on more than of the contents of such package, and eight years there have come to be one occasion their own children have it shall be considered a faise repre- employed at this work in many of addressed them as "uncle" when they sentation when more than 15 per the downtown lodging houses Italian should have said "papa," and "papa" cent. of such fruit is substantially women; but in most, if not all, of when they should have said "uncle." smaller in size than, or inferior in the great lodging houses uptown when we all got into a roomy fly had overheard created a great that the chimney smokes a little. One night not long ago a cystomer grade to, or different in variety men bedmakers are still employed which Mrs. Elimer called "your car- breach between me and my tenants, Would you wish to have the room got went into the store and asked one from, the faced or show surface of In a big lodging house, with from

Some Explanations. the first floor. The second floor was | Explanations of its application may | perhaps ninety beds to make daily in darkness, so, taking a lamp in be taken thus: On packages packed Incidentally he sweeps this floor hand, he wearily climbed the stairs. or marked contrary to the provisions and keeps it clean and in order. Hardly had he reached the top, how- of the act, inspectors may, after The bedmaker goes on duty at 6 "I didn't know that you were gally removing the inspector's brand, as to call for little labor. It will be noticed that only "closed | Some men bedmakers make a packages' need be marked. A closed slouchy bed, and some are not only package is defined to be a box or quick but careful, and with an eye barrel, the contents of which can- to appearance withal, making a bed rot be seen or inspected when that looks inviting and is comfortthe figure ahead glanced up and look- such is closed. Baskets, berry crates able to sleep in; in short, good bednot understand the silence, and began covers, are not considered "closed packages," and therefore do not wild fruit are not subject to the provisions of the act. Sill no reply, and as he advanced Merchants are held responsible for fruit in their possession for sale), but the original wrong doer, if secuted. The penalty for a violation of the Remember woman is most perfect law with reference to packing and gations to the public; and for a Inspectors are given large powyear the work of the department in era under the act to enter premises this respect was informational and for the purpose of making an exameducational. This year some amend- ination and to detain shipments of ments were made to the Act as or- fruits for the same purpose. The iginally passed, and to-day the Act packer, however, is amply protectin all its provisions is "as plain as ed by the stipulation that :mmediate a pike staff," and every clause of notice must be given by the inspector So I suddenly remembered that I took the girl by the arm and led her it so simple that "he who runs may to the packer when fruit, which at ought to call and ask them if they to the end of the room, where the read." No farmer, or fruit grower, or all times is at the risk of the ownpacker who is honest in his endea- er, is branded or detained, and the ining. Anxious, for the first time for "Now," said I, "which of these two vors and straightforward in his spector who exceeds his authority is

The Summary of the Act. inspectors appointed to execute its | The main points of this act may

5. The act does not provide for the inspection of particular lots of fruit at the request of the buyer or the

6. Commission merchants who, after notice, handle fruit put up conclosed package, intended for sale, trary to the provisions of the act, will be proceeded against. 7. There is no definition of grades marked "No. 2," "XX," 'No. 3," or Already the beneficial effect of this Act is being felt; and when it is fully known that dishonesty in packing and describing Canadian fruit does not exist, an enormous impetus will be given to our fruit industry in all the markets of the world. At present inquiries are being made concerning the trans-Atlantic shipments of early Canadian apples. The Department of Agriculture will not take any responsibility, but through the Commissioner of Agriculture and Dairying will assist in securing cool or cold storage space on ocean steamers if early information be given as to the probable quantity, the date of shipment, and the destination desired. It will pay to send only selected apples of choice individual quality, and packed in boxes rather than in barrels. It will be necessary to have the apples picked and packed on the green or firm side, so that they may be delivered in the United Kingdom in such a state that they may be handled with a very small percentage of bruised or decayed ones by the retail dealers into whose hands they will

MEN BEDMAKERS.

Trade of Their Own

Making beds is commonly considered a woman's work; but there is, nevertheless, in New York, quite a ing as a calling, finding regular, steady employment at this work in the many great lodging houses for

For many years all the bedmak-400 to 500 beds, there would be a bedmaker to every floor, having ever, before he saw what he supposed notifying the packer by letter or a. m. and works till 6 p. m. The to be his brother, also walking telegram, place the words "falsely bulk of his work, however, is over around the room with a lighted lamp packed" or "falsely marked"; and a by 3 p. m. The scattering beds to be fine of $40 may be imposed for ille- made after that are so few in num-

The pay of the man bedmaker to small. Commonly he sleeps in the The man who follows bedmaking for a living has, if he is capable, a good worker, and sober, a chance to rise in the house. His next step up in a lodging house would be to the post of watchman. From that he might get to be the day clerk. and then, if he kept on advancing, night clerk. The night clerk holds the most responsible post and gets the most wages of any man emmarking is not less than twenty- | the lodging house.

WAS TORTURED BY ECZEMA 30 YEARS

A Dreadful Case Itching Almost Unbearable-The Flesh Raw and Flaming.

CHASE'S OINTMENT

Mr. G. H. McConnell, engineer in Fleury's Foundry. Anrora, Ont., states: "I believe that Dr. Chase's Ointment is worth its weight in gold. For about thirty years I was troubled with eczema and could not obtain any bure. I was so unfortunate as to have blood poison, and this developed to eczema, the most dread-

"I was so bad that I would get up at night and scratch myself until the flesh was raw and flaming. The torture I endured is almost beyond description, and now I cannot say anything too good for Dr. Chase's Ointment. It has cured me, and I recommend it because I know there is nothing so good for itching skin." Especially during the summer months children are tortured by itching skin disease, chafing, sunbara, and a score of ailments that are relieved and cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment. Mr. J. Goar, mail carrier and stage driver between Port Elgin and Kincardine, Ont., states: "I can testify to the worth of Dr. Chase's Ointment as a cure for eczema. My sister, Mrs. J. Dobson, of Underwood, Ont., has a boy who was a great sufferer from this dreadful skin disease. He was then only four years old, and though she took him to several doctors and tried a great many remedies, all efforts to effect

This little fellow was covered with itching sores, and his hands and face were especially bad. The way he suffered was something dreadful, and my sister had been disappointed with so many preparations that smiling at the child with grotesque 25 cents a box by writing to the Dr. happiness, for Mrs. Elimer, turning Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Mr. Maude, said her mother with she did not have much faith in Dr. Chase's Ointment. I can now testify that Dr. Chase's Ointment made Mr. Maude," said her mother, with - Dr. Chase's Ointment, 60 cents a box at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.