00000000000000000000000 an Bradley, of Westminster Abhas resigned. Solners, of Paris, declares that stion breeds insanity. ited States capitalists will build 00,000 hotel in Winnipeg. d Dundonald is the guest of and Lady Minto at Quebec. new Lord-Lieutenant of Ire-Earl Dudley, has been sworn last session of the K. of P. ntion in San Francisco has been lds' grain elevator and 2,000 is of grain were burned at cholera prevails in Middlesex. rank Chantler, near Loudon, eventeen hogs. as suddenly been decided to ie German manocuvres in Prusstead of Poland.

U. S. and the Porte are again to have difficulty over delays mised settlements. George Mahrgany, of South-n, was killed by the explogas in a tank.

is much excitement in the da of Yucatan, where petroas been discovered.

Parliament of Cape Colony eet to-morrow for the first nee Oct. 13th, 1900. rs, plaintiff in the N. P.

suit, has returned to New nd been placed in jail. al large herds of cattle sing into Alberta and Assincom the United States.

ew Bishop of Keewatin, Rev. tus, D. D., was consecrated Trinity Church, Winnipeg. ritish Columbia Fruit-grow. pelation is sending five tons to the Winnipeg hortical-e driven by Mr. John Smith y near Jones' Falls, throwthe driver, who was iniburst uncovered about 75 a Madison, N. J., cemetery, of them were swept out itish Lifeboat Association ering the establishment of s service around the coust. the lighthouses. he four-year-old son of was run over in the Canahern Yards, Winnipeg, on night and killed. enator J. R. Burton has sucted to visit Hawaii and ito ex-Queen Liluokalan s the crown lands.

etta sleepers are in use on rallways. The increased compensated for by the esistance to decay request of Cardinal Gotti. the propaganda, a list has ding at the Vatican. temy, of the French army obey an order to close a onist school, and will be and court-martialled. away accident at Seeley's Smith, farmer, aged 45.

shed of the most important

His body was badly and he died almost in-adbeater, son of W. E , of Woodstock, is nome. to Martinique. He says e first man to ascend e after the eruption was ordered to-day by the al Brotherhood of Black Helpers in all New York e an advance of 10 per ges is not granted. h from Cleveland states Morgan Wood, formerly will run for Congress T. E. Burton, Rev. Mr. se Mayor Tom L. John-ble, Toronto, has been ith the bronze medal Canadian Humane Asbravery in saving from ad named Fair at Oakhty men employed by Co., Toronto, which has ts hands, sixty-two are be at work, and some are absent are said or private reasons.

Government has acvitation of the United nment to take part in ion at St. Louis in will, it is understood, ibits to education and es has been received of jold Antarette expediessel is imprisoned in preparations had been sed in dog sledges. The members of the party g of the Conductors nen's Association in plutions were adopted embers not to use or moved by non-union pelation, it is claimed, 20,000.

machinists at the omotive Works have e of expulsion from New York. They say ers of their society and their secretary te circumstances beeFarlane, a Toron's left the city somemonths ago, the exuncertain. The young irge of the business retive on this point. e at 1.508 West King Dominion traveling nt, was told by some when they were lantic one of their amed Robert Hewett.

d and was never seen a diligent search Government cabled a Hon. T. Nosse, Jaeneral, that they

. Fisher's offer, and separate building of , for Canada, at the granting all rights ven to other exhibitMomen shouldn't wote on prohibition "
They naturally think Blue Ribbon Jea is good enough for anybody.

Can you blame them.

LOVE'S EXILE. ·本本本本本本本本本本本本本本本本

climbing up a hill together, the col- young lady's preserence?" I asked, unfrequented roads without any A great freekle-faced lout of a boy set my gravity; I came close to the till he brought on partial paralysis printed at London in 1632 by Nich- fully remained, still roaring, howling, and looked the printed at London in 1632 by Nich- fully remained, still roaring, howling, and grashing my companion but the dog; but -I knew him! I remembered, too, edge of the pit and looked down. of that the lungare had belowing and gnashing my of that member, while he fired a last olas Oakes. It gives an account of foaming, bellowing and gnashing my her mother, with the odd inconsist- that the Duncans had joined heartily The little maid was not reading, but shot into his less erratic opponent, the writer's travels in foreign counters the property of the several was not reading, but shot into his less erratic opponent. of us, could fear no danger to the sounds of which had reached my trunk among the stones, with the dog girl from coarse peasant or steep cars, at the enormity of my bring- asleep on the edge of her frock, liveareful of her footing on rugged ing angrily at the rhododendrons in but rather rapturous state; the next Craigendarroch, the nearest, the the drive for a little while, time I saw my goddess, though, she prettiest, the most dangerous of I happily remembered that the a star not to mount so high in the Then as evening fell and I began, like any old woman, to grow anxious I would hear Ta-ta's tired step in the hall outside my study, and a scratching at my door which gave place to a piteous sniffling and whining if I did not immedately rise to let her in. Then with a gentle wag of the tail she would early than late-for me, at any rate. down, giving a sideways glance at day, and every day for a week after; To-to, who would hop down from log can leave the door open." liked to sit in a draught while March was not satisfied until I had made winds were about; but the stern the circuit of the hill, pushed my cal eleverness of the mother, had had spring had encumbered the hill-side a corner of his flinty heart pulverized on the north, and going on in that

And so the cold spring passed into most precipitous slope which forms cool summer, and I began to notice, the southern wall of the Pass of little as I saw of her, a change in Ballater. the pretty maiden. As the season On my eighth visit, I heard a advanced, her vivacity seemed to faint bark from the ridge of hill to subside a little, her dancing walk to the northwest of the pass; congive place to a more sedate step, sidering this as a clue, I made my while her rambles were often now way down Craigendarroch, across limited to a climb up Craigendar- the meadows round Mona House, a roch, which formerly would have been white building of simplest architeca mere incident in the day's proceed- ture; flanked by a garden where lags. I remarked upon this to Mrs. Ellmer; for she and I had now, in our loneliness, become great chums. Oh, don't you know?" said she, with her grating little laugh, "Ba-

"In love!" said I, slowly, "A child

"Oh, it's not a first attachment by any means," said she, making merry over my surprise, as she swung her uttle watering-pot with one hand, and put her head on one side to admire a row of handsome gladioluses which she had reared with some care. "Her first, what you may call serious passion, was at seven rars old, two whole years later tuan my earliest love. By-the-by,Mr. Maude, I really must beg you to let make some cuttings from your rose-trees; I have two excellent briars here, and I flatter myself I can graft as well as any gardener."

You can do everything. Mrs. Ellmer." said I gravely, with honest gratitude and admiration. "You can garden, if you please, and they will all hold their heads the higher for it." The poor lady liked a little bit of simple flattery, and indeed it by no means now seemed out of place. The Highland air had brought the pink color back to her wan face, and brightened her eyes, so that one now noticed with admiration the extreme delicacy of her features; while the rest and the relief from worry had softened both her care-worn expression and the haggard outline of her face. She now, with coquettish sprightilness, tapped my shoulder and shook her head to show me that she had no faith in my blandishments. "Don't talk to me, she said, but with a smile which contradicted the prohibition ; "I'm too old for complito the subject suggested by her Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady of herself, Mr. Maule."

Sometimes I would see the two "Who is the happy object of the cliff, while against the wiles of the ing play-acting folk to my Highland ing in a world of her own, and holdwell-dressed she put her strictly on scraglio. With very few more words ing converse with the people there. her guard. As for the child her- I left Mrs. Ellmer, more put out than I crept away as quietly as I could seif, I could only tell her to be I cared to show. However, after look- and went back home in an amused, our higher hills; to tell her not to annual visit of my four oddly assort- bread and jam with prosaic ravenouswander whithersoever her fancyled ed friends was due within a month, ness at the kitchen door. her would have been like warning and that then I should have something more interesting to occupy my mind than the flirtations of a couple of children. "And after that," I said to myself, "I think I shall set off on my wanderings again for a little while, and the Ellmers can remain here until they, too, are tired of it, and so we shall avoid any wrenth over the break up." That the break up must come I knew, and, on the

I never met anyone, and every time his perch and make a grab at her I was alarmed by the steepness of tail to punish her for gadding those rocks to the south, where a about, and, finding that ap- poor young fellow who was out fernpendage out of reach, would hunting fell down the perpendicular sneak quietly back again and cliff one summer's day, and was resume his hunt for the flea who found a shapeless, lifeless heap four would never be caught, to try to days after on the side of the hill. persuade us that his fruitless at- He was a stranger, and might have tempt had been a mere inadvertency. Iain there till his bones whitened on nice plate of gristle and potato at trees, if a couple of Ballater lads attacked me at once with much vienergies, to describe to me the body in their Sunday walk and events of the morning walk! And called out all the village to see the how the sound of a bright childish sight. And these made the most of laugh from the kitchen would stim- the excitement in a similar way, glate her remembrance of that jolly holding a highly decorous and Presrun up-hill! I knew, though I said byter an wake, settling themselves in nothing, that Babiole used to come a businesslike manner like a flock of across to find her mother, busy with crows on the broken ground around my dinner; and I could guess, from the stone on which the dead man, the altercations I often overheard, scarcely more silent and unconthat the hungry girl stole her share, cerned than they, held his mournand laughed at any one who said ful levee. This incident had already her may. The dining room always given a tragic interest to the south grew too hot when that bright side of the pretty hill, and although laughter penetrated to my ears, and Bablole knew the place well, and was I would say, carelessly, to Fergu- as sure-footed and nimble as one of its native squirrels. I felt anxious! every day when there was no answer He knew, you may be sure, why I to my call of "Ta-ta! Ta-ta!" and direction, came to the bare and al-> straight rows of bright flowers looked quaintly picturesque against a dark background of fir and hill. Crossing the road, which ran at the foot of the ridge. I began to climb. A rough, steep path had been worn! among the brackens, and was widened at every ascent by falls of loose

BABY'S OWN TABLETS.

Big (hildren. This medicine is good for all children, from the feeb est infant, whose the sturdy boy whose digestive aply cure, and do it in a natural way, of a lot of rough sportsmen, who, as the medicine is guaranteed to when they were tired of shooting. make cuttings from every tree in the contain no opiate or harmful drug. | would find nothing better to do Experienced mothers everywhere than to worry you and Miss Babiole oming. Ont., says: "I have used when you came here, you insisted on Baby's Own Tablets for both my privacy." children, and consider them indis- "One may have too much even of pensable in any home where there such a good thing as one's society." are young children. One of my chil- she said, with an affected little dren was very fretful, and I al- laugh. "I think I could bear a little ways found the Tablets comforting attention now, with much equanimity. and a splendid regulator of the stom- even from a sportsman who 'could ach and bowels. I think the Tablets find nothing better to do.' Of course. have been the means of promoting I could expect no more than that of many a sound night's rest for both gentlemen of such rank as your wonderfully effective in curing such troubles." myself and children."

readily as candy, and crushed to a might be acceptable." powder, they can be given with ab- Good heavens! The woman would solute safety to the youngest, weak- not understand me. est infant. You can get the Tablets "But Babiole!" I suggested, quietly. ments, a woman with a grown-up from any dealer in medicines, or post- Babiole is only a child; but even patd at 25 cents a box. by writing If she were not, a daughter of mine Now I was quite glad to go back the Dr. Wi liams' Med'cine Company, would be perfectly able to take care soil and stones. I knew what a pretty and take myself off, spending the inthe place where a lovelorn maid schooling myself for the approaching would delight to make a nest. The ordeal. path grew steeper than ever tofrom the miniature chasm at the he was far from well.

knows but once. But it is impossible They informed me that Fabiaa and water poured into their mouths for me to do as you wish. You speak Scott had also travelled up by the till they were almost strangled. This to me of your father; you urge upon night mail, but in another com- repeated at intervals inflicted terme that he would forgive my lowly partment; so I went to meet the rible suifering upon the victims. birth, that he would welcome to his train, which came into Ballater at American ingenuity was given the

I gave a little "hoch!" of disgust. The pathos of the conclusion upwas devouring slice after slice of

> And I concluded that at fourteen, even with a face like a flower and a voice like a bird's, "the love one knows but once" and perfect peace of mind are not incompatible things.

CHAPLER IX. It was Fabian Scott who, being by his profession less of a free agent than any other member of my little circle of friends, fixed | philosophy of the hog." the date of their yearly visit. As soon as he made known to me the first day when he would be free, I summoned the rest, and not one of them had ever yet failed me. Fabian wrote me this year .giving | The Gratifying Result of a Sleuth's the 15th of August as the day on which the closing of the theatreat which he was playing would leave him free.

How hard Ta-ta would try, when a the rocks and ferns among the young about a week before the visit, and wrong with his assistant teller, who plankes of timber, the utmost end plankes of timber end plankes of timber end plankes of timber end plankes of timber end plankes end plankes of timber end plankes end pla doings, were we?'

half a dozen old fogeys on the fif- at once by following my man to a teenth, Mrs. Ellmer, I assure you I cheap restaurant. I supposed that British Archaeological Association, for me to hear with whom he was and as we shall be out on the moors talking, so I went to the proprietor all day, I'm afraid you won't find the of the place and made some inquiries, place much livelier than usual. I and learned that my man telephoned think," I added, coming to the pith every day at that time, and seldom of the matter with some feeling of bought more than a sandwich. awkwardness, "that you had better | "That day he paid the telephone keep Miss Babiole more-more with toll, but bought nothing. As I folyou, while-while the gentlemen are lowed him into the street I made up here. Or-or if you would like a trip my mind that he was in communicato the seaside we might see about | tion with a stock broker, and that | sides of my body receiving the ends | of such intensity that the peasants Scot, however much he might still way through the barriers of uprcoted Stonehaven, and that would give us strange actions. That was nothing a couple of weeks at Muchalls or financial trouble was the cause of his of the cords, from these sixe several hear them at a great distance from an opportunity of-of having the new in my experience.

> tardy inventive genius. friends, and very good fellows, yet him. a pretty face may work such Circeour bachelor loneliness should be, of any woman lovelier than Janet.

suggestion, grew rigid and haughty. "Of course, Mr. Maude," she said. "if you wish now to make use of the cottage my daughter and I for you, we shall be ready to pack up at any time. We can go to-Cure All the Ills of Little Bables and | morrow, if you like. I have no doubt that I shall be able to find an opening for the autumn season with port. This morning that teller got some company." "No. no. no!" interrupted I, emlife seems to hang by a thread, to phatically, and with some impatience, "Pray do not think of such a thing. There is plenty of room paratus occasionally gets out of or- in my own place for all my friends. der. There is no stomach or bowel My sole object in making the suggestrouble that Baby's Own Tablets | tion I did was to prevent your being wil not specially relieve and prompt- pestered with the attentions medicines. Mrs. James A. Wilson, Wy- ended, as a happy thought, "how, guests!" she added, rather venom-Children take these Tablets as ously. "But for a change even that little nook there was at the top, just | terval before my guests' arrival in elected and the second section of the second

The first to arrive on the fifteenth wards the top, and led suddenly to a were Lord Edgar Normanton and Mr. grassy hollow, one wall of which was Richard Fussell, the latter, anxious a perpendicular grey cliff, broken by to make the most of his annual taste narrow and inaccessible ridges on of rank and fashion, having lain in which slender little birch trees con- wait for the former at King's Cross, trived to grow. On the opposite side and insisted on bearing him company the mossy ground sloped gently, and during the entire journey. I met them the wild rabbits scurried about at Ballater station at 2.15 in the afamong the stumps of fallen pines. | ternoon, and was sorry to hear from I had only gone a few steps along Edgar, who never looked otherwise the soft ground when I caught the than the picture of robust health, and sound of a light girlish voice; it came | who was, moreover, getting fat, that | choice, whoever she might be. But Maurice Browne disputing so vio- of torture. The American people should have to the performance of a ayles, from Scotland to the most fliction of body in that dreadful time play written by cripples for cripples. Famous Kingdomes in Europe, Asia I sustained. attract crowds of morbid-minded peo- gow, who dedicates it in the quaint | the singular coincidence that the grading exhibition, antagonistic to King Charles. Lithgow visited Ma- days of the seventeenth century has blest 'virtue victorious and vice van- into prison by the officers of the In- this enlightened twentieth century quished' melodrama would be as day | quisition, as a spy of King James. | on what was until recently Spanish unto night. With minds attuned to whom they declared a "hereticke soil and upon former subjects of low thoughts, you seek for low | King and arch-enemy of the Holy Spain. things, and degrade them still fur- Catholicke Church." He was forced to

(To be Continued.)

SHADOWED A BANK TELLER

Investigation of Queer Doings.

"I have had all sorts of experiences, said a detective, "but last The news of the expected arrivals night I had an entirely new one. quickly reached the ears of Mrs. Two days ago the president of a Ellmer, who came skipping along banking house sent for me and said (for it stood by the wall declining vestigation, obtained from absothe garden towards me one morning that he feared there was something downeward), it is made of three lutely creditable sources and of excitement, and who showed signs of the lower end being narrow, and the "Aha! she began, "and so we were late hours and dissipation. I was three plank joining together are for evidence of irregularities.

"If you allude to the meeting of "It was then noon, and I started middle planke there was a hole, was coming to the cottage to tell he was going for his luncheon, but you about it. But we shall be about he went into a telephone booth and as sportive as a gathering of the closed the door. It was impossible ported thighes from the middle the country have a similar belief cottage whitewashed, you know," I "When he left the bank that aferfinished up, with a sudden gleam of noon he was in a great hurry, and with a device; for he was to charge or that portion of her body. The I followed him toward his home in the on the out side of the plank, with auto-suggestion is so strong at these The fact was, I had begun to tingle | car behind the one he was in ; but by at the thought of the merciless some means he gave me the slip, for "chaff"-as much worse to bear than he didn't get off at the corner nearslander as the stigma of fool is est his home or several blocks afterthan that of rogue-which the im- ward, as far as I saw. & went to portation of my fair tenants would his apartment to wait for him, and, bring down upon me. Besides, though | meeting a little girl just entering the my four visitors were all old street door, I inquired if she knew

"'He is my papa,' she answered, like wonders, even in the best of and will be home in a few minutes. us. that I thought it better that He always stops to see the doctor after he leaves the bank, because as before, untempered by the smiles mamma is very ili, and we are afraid she will die. The doctor comes every But Mrs. Ellmer, at my hesitating | noon and telephones to papa and then he stops there on his way home. If you will come in you won't have have done our best to keep in order comes home, and sits up all night with her.'

"I said that I might call again. but instead I went to the home of the bank president and made my rea letter from the bank granting him two weeks' vacation and telling him that his salary was increased $20 a month. -St. Louis Republic.

WHERE UNCLE SAM GOT HIS WATER CURE.

A Revival of the Old Torture Chambers of Spain,

(Belleville Ontario.) The civilized world was recently crudelity. shocked by the discovery of the horfoot of the cliff. I wondered who "I tell his lordship that he should rid cruelty practised by the Ameri- my teeth asunder with a payre of the child was talking to. But as I take rowing exxercise. Nothing like a can soldiers on Filipino prisoners in iron cadges, detayning them there, came nearer, hearing no voice but good pull every day on the river to order to force them to divulge in- at every several turne, both mainely hers. I supposed she must be reading keep a man in condition," urged Mr. formation concerning their com- and manually, whereat upon my Fussell, who was fifty inches round patriots in the field, by the use of a hungerclunged bellie waxing great, "Oh, no, Roderick," at last I was what had once been his waist, and torture which came to be called the grew Drum-like imbolstered, for it close enough to hear, "I love you who seemed to radiate health and 'water cure.' The unfortunate vic- being a suffocating payne, in retims were strapped to the ground ancestral halls the woman of your 5.50, and found both Fabian and Mr. "credit" of inventing a new method and groaning. do not forget that I, too, have pride, lently that they had forgotten to would probably regard the practice griefe (for presently my heart faythat I, too, have a duty to perform get out. Fabian had indeed taken infinitely more to the discredit of leth and forsaketh me) I will only to my parents." Then came a change advantage of the stopping of the their nation if they knew that their briefly avouch, that between each of tone, and a sort of practical paren- train to stride up and down the con- army officials had been guilty of im- one of these seven circular charges thesis, hurried through quickly like fined area of the railway carriage, itating a method of torture practised I was age re-examined, each exama stage direction: "I don't mean my gesticulating violently with his in the days of the Spanish Inquisi- ination continuing halfe an houre; father, of course, because he was so hat-box, rug, gun and various other tion, the barbarous nature of which each half houre a hell of infernall clever that he had to think of his unconsidered trifles. I guessed that has ever been looked upon as having paine, and betweene each torment, he not more sure-looted than the though indeed I khought Babiole mental again: "But my mo- been no bloodshed. They had been farrow, local manager of the Bell Racke, between foure a clocke afchild. Sometimes as I passed, there much too young and too pretty to having of handker- bestow even the most much believe believe believe bestow even the most much believe beli would be a great waving of handker-bestow even the most make-believe have all the wealth of kings ismin art, of which Maurice Browne very old and unique volume, which, night, having had inflicted upon me ism in art, of which Maurice Browne besides many other strange and in three score seven torments. Neverchief and wagging of tail from some affection on any one north o' Tweed, showered at her feet. She is beautiful, was an ardent disciple. They were besides many other strange and inthree score seven torments. Neverand clever, and good; Mr. Maude - still hard at it in terms unfit for teresting incidents, gives the writer's theless they continued me a large trotting on composedly some hundreds of feet below. I was always rather with the curly fair hair."

"It's one of the young Duncans, at her. No. Roderick, I will not allow my mother to become a mere mother dow. Excitable Fabian, with his by that name. The book, which is being all begored with blood, and curly fair hair." her No Podesick and loves publication when I mounted the experience with this identical "wat- halfe houre (after all my tortures) her. No, Roderick, I will not allow step and put my head in at the win- er cure," although it was not known at the full binding; where my body

> "No, sir," he protested vehement- tries in the early years of the sev- fore the pinnes were undone and my ly, "I deny neither your ability nor enteenth century, in the reign of body loosed. your good faith, nor those of your King James I., under the title of | True it is, it passeth the capacity French master; but I have "The Totall Discourse, of the Rare of man, either sensibly to conceave the same objection to the fictions of . Adventures and painfull peregrina- or I patiently to express the inyour school, as works of art, as I tions of long nineteene Years Trav- tollerable anxiety of mind and af-It would be a curiosity, sir, and might and Affrica, etc., by William Lith- It is interesting to reflect upon ple, besides cripples; but it would be language of the times to the then form of torture inflicted upon their none the less a disgusting and de- reigning sovereign, the martyred foes by Spaniards in the benighted nature and truth, to which the fee- laga, in Spain, where he was thrown | been repeated by the Americans in ther by your treatment. You have a undergo horrible tortures, and the philosophy, I admit, sir, but it is the following is his description of the 'water cure' three hundred years > > was my trembling body laid above, and upon the face of the Racke, with my head downward, inclosed within a circled hole, my belly upmost and my heels upward toward the top of the Racke; my legs and arms being drawn asunder, were fastened occurrences was the orphan asylum with planes and Cords, to both sides of the outward plankes, for now was I to receive my main torments.

> > der; in the downemost end of the wherein my head was laid; in length | makes her believe that she is posit is longer than a man, being inter- sessed by a devid; her sister superlaced with small cords from planke | ior, the other sisters of the asylum. to planke, which divided my sup- and nearly all the ecclesiastics of plack; through the sides of which in her affliction. exterior planks there were three distant holes in every one of them; the lections, is merely a species of hysuse wherefor you will presently, teria; natural predistribution which

> > Now the Alcalde giving commission, the executors layd first a cord over cord over the great of my arme; In her paroxyisms the sufferwhich was severally done, on both er utters percing cries, and outward planks, which were fastened the patient believes herself to be to pinnes, and the pinnes made fast bitter or burnt by the devil in this as many pinnes, as there were holes times that immediately upon the and cords; the cords being first layd disappearance of the paroxysm there meet to my skin. And on every one is found on that portion of the body of these sixe parts of my body, I was where the suffering is most intense, to receive seven several tortures; either a burn of the skin or the imeach torture consisting of three print of teeth. winding throws of every pinne; which amounted to twenty-one of every religious object and the ed the first passage about my body her into an almost rabil fit. The (making fast by a device each torture | most curious circumstance is that as they were multiplied) he went to she reed not see these objects, she an earthen Jarre standing full of feels them, she divines them when water, a little beneath my head; they are brought near her even from whence carrying a pot full of though carefully hidden, and she water, in the bottom whereof there immediately rushes at them to delong to wait, or you can call again, by his thumb till it came to my vines the thought of persons who was an incised hole, which being stopd stroy. Further, she frequently dimouth, hee did powre it in my bellie, speak to her and she responds to the measure being a Spanish sombre, them in their own language whatwhich is an English Potle. The first | ever this language may be. Although and second services I gladly receiv- she is a simple peasant who has ed, such was the scorching drouth of never received the least education, my tormenting payne, and likewise I Sister Saint-Flueret in her paroxhad drunk none for three days before. | yems speaks Greek, Italian, Russian, But afterward, at the third charge. | English and German. She always reperceiving these measures of water sponds fluently in the language to be inflicted upon me as tortures, | whatever it may be in which she O strangling tortures! I closed my is addressed.

lips, gaine-standing that eager gard to my head hanging downeward; and the water reingorging it selfe in my throat with a strugling force; it strangled and swallowed up my breath from yowing

QUEER CASE OF HYSTERIA.

A series of extraordinary events Then by command of the Justice, recently took place at Rodez, France, which have excited widespread interest among all classes The circumstances were thoroughly investigated by a representative of a Paris journal. The scene of the of Grezes, near Laissac, and they concerned a member of this asylum. by name Sister Saint-Fleuret. The Now what a Pottaro or Racke is following is the result of the in-

There has been at the orphan asylum for the past twelve years to be left in ignorance of the gay asked to shadow him, and to look out | made comfortable to a Man's shoul- a sister, originally from the Canton of Bozouls, who is afflicted with a species of madness which

The disease, according to the phybecame acute under the influence of the surrounding atmosphere. But the supernatural features are the the calfe of my thigh, and the third result of true auto-suggestion places through the holes made in the the convent. During these attacks

Sister Saint-Fleuret has a horror throwes in every one of these sixe nearby presence of a figure of Christ, of a book of devotions, or of Then the Tormentor having charg- any eacred image immediately throws praise Baby's Own Tab'ets above all to death. And you remember," I Kidney Disease and Stomach Troubles -- More Evidence of the Efficiency of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Severe Pains in the Back

> found together, and for this reason | right again. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, on "It is my belief that they are the Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turaccount of their direct and continued most effective medicine a person can pentine for the children when they complications.

action on these several organs, are use for kidney disease and stomach | had coughs and colds, and I never

Mrs. Ross, 100 Manitoba street, St. Mr. James Keeley, caretaker of Thomas, Ont., states: "I had a Kidney disease and stomach and backache, but since using Dr. long before the pains entirely left liver disorders are almost always Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills I am all me, and I was quite strong and well again. We have also used Dr. knew it to fail to relieve the trouble

There is no quicker or more certhe Primary School and Presbyterian very weak back, and at times suf- tain way of curing back pains and Church, Newmarket, Ont., states: "I fered very much from severe pains kidney disease than by the use of find that Dr. Chase's Kidney- across the small of my back. Believ- Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pilla Liver Pills are the best medicine I ing these to be caused by derange- Scores of thousands have proved ever used. I was troubled for some ments of the kidneys, I began the this, and many have sent us statetime with kidney disease, pains in use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. | ments similar to the above. One pill the back and stomach disorders. At This treatment seemed to be ex- a dose, 25 cts. a box, at all dealers, After this snub. I could only how times I suffered very severely from actly what I required, for it was not or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.