REV. W. G. HANNA.—We are glad to learn that the Saugeen Presbytery has nominated Rev. Mr. Hanna for the chair of Apologetics and Pastoral Theology in Knox College. In our opinion there has been of late too much running to the old country for professional timber, and while we have nothing but respect for the men who have been appointed, it is none the less our firm conviction that there are as competent men in our own church as the best importation that has yet been made. We shall be surprised if Mr. Hanna if elected, as we trust he may be, proves himself one whit less than the chiefest of the Professors. The REVIEW gives him its congratulations and best wishes.

Ireland's have a complete assortment of raincoats, both men's and women's.

The death of Mrs. Adam Thompson occurred on Friday morning last at four o'clock. Mrs. Thompson was Miss Hannah Camp before her marriage, and was born on the farm where John Dymont now lives, 74 years ago, her whole life long being spent right in this neighborhood. For the past two years she has been a sufferer but it was only two weeks ago that the doctors were able to speak with certainty of her trouble, which proved to be cancer of the stomach. Mrs. Thompson was a most estimable lady and leaves a large circle of friends, besides many loving relatives, who will miss her kindly face. She leaves four sons and one daughter, all married but Joseph. Her husband is 76, they having been married fifty years. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon to West Flamboro cemetery, the Rev. S. W. Fisher officiating. The pall bearers were William Dymont, Drake Kitchen, Wesley Horning, David McKillop, Chas. Dymont and Abram Betzner.—Dundas Banner, Aug. '02 [Deceased was a sister of Mr. Joseph Camp, Bentinck, near Dornoch.]

Men's cashmere and woollen hose, at Grant's.

FARM FOR SALE.—Containing 100 acres Lots 45&46, 1st Con., N. D. R. Gleneig, one mile west of Prieville. The farm is well watered, 75 acres under cultivation, with good buildings. For particulars, apply to Peter McKechnie, Newville, N. Dakota, U. S.

"AUGUSTINE".—On Monday evening Rev. Mr. Farquharson gave an address on the above subject to the Young People's Society. The life and times of this most robust Christian "father" were most interestingly portrayed, and we hope will yet have a larger audience.

A large stock of Stanfield's unsinkable underwear just to hand, at Grant's.

A GUSHING WELL.—With a view to the better protection of the Furniture Factory and neighborhood the Council determined to sink a well in the flat west of the Factory. Drilling has been going on and on Tuesday reached a depth of 72 feet when water was reached. So strong is the supply tapped that it rose to the surface and stands in the pipe 4 feet above ground. This is very gratifying and we hope it may be permanent.

SAUGEEN PRESBYTERY.

The Presbytery of Saugeen met on Tuesday at the Hotel, M. C. Cameron, Mr. Nelles, who has been stationed to the summer at Midway and Drayton, reported concerning his work and was certified to the Senate of Knox College.

The Rev. W. G. Hanna, B. A., was unanimously nominated to the chair of Apologetics and Pastoral Theology in Knox College, for which position the Presbytery considers him to be eminently fitted.

Presbytery adjourned to meet at Palmerston the second Tuesday in Dec.

On the same day and at the same place the Synodical of the W.F.M.S. held their annual meeting. The rainy day and the cheap excursions to Toronto tended to lessen the attendance, yet the gathering was in every way a success. Through the rain from Mt Forest, Palmerston, Clifford, Holstein, Arthur and other places the ladies drove, and whatever the discomforts of the way there was no lack of mirth and good cheer on their arrival. The preparations for entertainment were perfect and the heartiness of the welcome could not have been surpassed.

Mrs. McMurchy in her first experience as Presbyterial president won golden opinions from all parties. The program was excellent, the special attractions of the day being addresses by Mrs. Jeffries, of Toronto and Rev. Murdoch McKenzie from Homan.

The financial report showed an advance of contributions for the year, the figures being in round numbers $100.00 as compared with $80.00 last year.

The next annual meeting of the Presbyterial will be held in Palmerston.

Durham as a Pleasure Resort.

By Mr. Gilbert McKechnie

Last year with the advent of the new century, a good deal of attention was devoted to the planting of shade trees on the public highways of the town, and are now doing well, but a number died, part of which were replaced this spring and the balance have not yet been replaced. Several of our townsmen who have proved themselves to be successful tree planters, contend that the fall is the best and most successful time to plant maple trees, that they have already done so with very marked success, that in each case they removed all branches and left nothing but the trunk. The fall is now getting to be near at hand and if planting can be more successfully done in the fall than in the spring, it might now be quite in order to spy out the lay of the land and decide where a few additional trees planted would have a material effect in beautifying the town as a town that is more attractive in its population than one that is lacking in this special distinction. To those who are associated with the workings of the local horticultural society, it is plainly evident from the routine of business coming under their notice that, as a people the citizens of Durham manifest the highest appreciation of the beauty of the town and rely on the good judgment of the town fathers in keeping the cow by-law in force to the letter and to this end are now tearing down their fences one after another, the various green lawns now becoming visible with their rainbow tinted circular flower beds, their mantling vines shrubbery and ornamental trees.

The stream of tourist travel both from Canadian and American cities and towns is now becoming greater each year, and as time rolls on will in all probability continue to increase. As cities become more populous and congested, the number of people possessed of wealth and leisure will likely become more numerous and will naturally be looking up spots in more northern sections where comfortable quarters can be secured to spend their summer holidays. Our hotels and boarding houses in a better position to cater to this branch of trade. Last year the G. T. R. carried into the Muskoka District nearly 300,000 tourists, and this year the number has been so materially increased that it is expected to round off at the half million, a large proportion of the increase this year coming from the neighboring Republic. It is evident from this that that district has now become a famous Canadian summer resort and while at the present time the rush of tourists to the Muskoka lakes has become a popular move, yet even this can be overdone, as the furnishing of accommodation for such large numbers, with a still further probable increase, has become quite an important task.

Muskoka has been brought to the front as a summer resort by the action of its citizens, in conjunction with that of the G. T. R., the latter having shown great enterprise in procuring and distributing literature of a very attractive kind, besides furnishing specially adequate train service accommodation. Yet even with this there must have been a starting point somewhere, the same as is now afforded to other outlying districts and Orillia, Collingwood and Owen Sound are now advocating along these lines. Let us gradually move up and get matters in as good shape as possible so that we may yet advertise Durham to the world and cater to this class of trade.

Among such a large army of pleasure and recreation seekers there may be many who would prefer to spend their vacation at some much less fashionable, therefore less expensive place of resort than what Muskoka has now become and where they could spend their time in a quieter and more free and easy manner. To such a class and they may be numerous, Durham could be made an ideal spot. There is no more beautifully situated town in the province. In elevation it comes second to the highest town in old Ontario, being 1450 feet above sea-level, a pure atmosphere, a healthy district, and abundance of sparkling spring water. Here the summer tourists could enjoy themselves at a very moderate outlay. Then plant trees on the sides of the streets where required, and make the town as beautiful and attractive as possible. This can be done at very little expense, and no one incurring such a trifling outlay would ever feel sorry for having done so.

In the more southern portions of the province electric railways are now becoming quite common in rural districts and the time is probably not far distant when the people of this section may enjoy a similar luxury. Let us be putting our house in order before that time arrives. One local line of railway has already been established to Wilders Lake, a beautiful and attrac-
