He was so low that no one ever dreamt that he could pull through, amt yet he is anvo and well to-day, This is a statement of the case in Mr.

Harries' own words: "In 1897 I was at the point death with Bright's Disease, and was a complete wreck. I could not even dress myself or turn in my bed, but now I to a well man, and I attribute it all to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I am 75 years old and for a man of my years I feel quite strong and healthy. I consider Dodd's Kidney blood purifier.

"As Pos master I come in contact with a great many people, and I know of my personal knowledge that a great many in this country are using Dodd's Kidney Pills with the best

Such evidence should be most convincing to any who may still doubt that Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure

Bright's Disease. The honest, earnest, straightforward testimony of such reputable people certainly deserves the confidence of everyone.

If Dodd's Kidney Pills can and do cure Bright's Disease, which is the very worst form of Kidney Trouble, they certainly will cure any of the lesser forms.

The Earl of Dudley.

The Earl of Dudiey, the new lord lieutenant of Ireland, is the youngest man who ever represented the British Government at Dublin coatta Hart -- de traces his lineage back to William Ward, a wealthy goldsmith of London and jeweler to the queen of King Charles I. His fuit nme is William Humble Ward, but he is not at all humble. His father was immensely rich, owning 40,000 acres of land and many mines and collieries. His rent roll was returned at $610,000 a year. The very highest education was given the young earl, who has proved himself one of the stanchest nobles in the United Kingdom.
