Sept. 8 - The of Saturday at Pelce paralayed St. Pierre, ion of destrucd from Mont ical with that rea embraced abltants were Lorrain and ass of Mont tastrophe, but the Govern-art nique of-.050 persons 880 were insteamers are is from the the people re also gath-no (the Souln simultanewere heard Islands to is, 40 miles remors were were heard. ere distinct-

Charges

S .- The Rev. ptist clergylade applicavorce from and of deserled in chanency. Wheadenying all figsband's ill applying d of extreme secuses the shingly long end of the to her par-lims, who is to Vaneland health from he was pas-Church at on county. everal years at Sloansmost sensahe remarkyoung bride absolute di-ry charges n her cross nents: intered the McWilliams anner and complete E Kind and g and overiad remorordered me which cont cream of

m of wheat hour becomad wedding new of state

m the cow,

as to be my

int I lived his house. y of cream f. He posifor meat. i became of food and ath had I uch longer. o nome to me bodily lod him he overed my with some ndered me vered conin the floor.

my serious took me which my to lift me ned to my eral weeks atment at

ke appleainsel fees

mid to nosoken.

poid Fillae, a coalpainful acp. m. He get onte then the rward, and under the oaded with ne of the over his re broken. "The test of selfishness is not to forget ourselves - it is to remember others."
Nould it not be kind to tell your friends about Blue Ribbon Cerylon Tea?

LOVE'S EXILE.

'And what have I done that you! should be so sorry to see me?" saw that I was not displeased.

Well, what have you got to say

After a few moments' silence she raised her head, and staring before carefully after me. Evidently, as in frivolous occupations of the stronger my books together, the supreme bless. Giant, Early Arcadian, and Oregon. her with the fixed and desperate ear- the case of Don Quixote, she had been sex. After this she thanked me ing of sitting every evening in the Fifty-seven varieties were sprouted nestness of a sensitive young creature who thinks the slightest blame a terrible thing to bear.

wrong," she said at last. "I was so to be alarmed at the extent of her alone. very careful; I took off my boots reading. that I had been out on the hills in, "Yes; I like some of them-pretty seemed to have le't in the musty through; whether in Paris, as a class, however, were sprouted Michigan Amber, 50, and Turkey Red and put on clean shoes, not to hurt | well." the carpet; and I just put down the notes so lightly I could not have hurt | Ivanhoe better ?" the plano, and I washed my hands before touching the books. "The books. What books have you shelves.

been touching?" "Oh, I took down several; but I couldn't read all, because they were

This was satisfactory so far as it went; but then the best English authors are considered scarcely more ment. "One night I couldn't sleep, However, she reappeared next day, but that was as far as they could sultable rending for the young because I thought of it so much." people than the worst French ones. "And which do you like best of the it as about Ivanhoe?" "I like one I found yesterday, all about Ivanhoe because I wanted warmth:

letters from different people, with to, and I thought about Armadale I poked the fire into a blaze, and "Now, show me which one you

She hesitated and looked at me. at first suspecting some trap. As I waited quietly she at last timidly quite simply: touched a volume of The Tatttler. I! with a picture cover, and popular of the shelves.

"Have you read that?" "Yes," indifferently. "Didn't you like that better than

The Tattler?" "Oh, no!" indignantly. "Why not? It is all about an ac-

"An actress!" contemptuously. "It isn't like any of the actresses I've ever met. It's a silly book."

A GRATEFUL TRIBUTE

From a Man Who Looked Upon too. I could scarcely help laughing, days, which had been than midsummer. His Case as Hopeless

Doctors Diagnosed His Case as Catarrh of the Stomach, but Walled to Help Him-Many Remedies Were Tried Before a Cure Was Found.

(From the Bulletin, Bridgewater,

We suppose there is not a corner in this wide Dominion in which will not be found people who have been restored to health and strength; through the use of Dr. Williams' | ter when they don't work?" Pink Pills. There are many such cases here in Bridgewater and its, ed that I was not offended. vicinity, and we are this week! given permission to record one for been working very hard -not now. the benefit of similar saferers. The you know, but it used to be like that case is well known in this vicinity | -she used to say things that hurt me. and the tenacity of the order was and made me want to cry. And then remarkable. For six years Alired I used to look at her poor tired face velnot, a surveyor of lumber for and say to myself, it's the hard work the great lumber firm of Davison & and not mamma that says those Sons, was a victim of a serious dis- things'; and then, of course, I did order of the stomach. His sufferings not mind. And when you have once me were exeruciating, and he had had to work too hard, you never get wasted to a shadow. Doctors pre- over it as you do over other things." not take her pretty apology quietly. scribed for him, yet the agonizing palms remained. Many remedies were tried but to no avail. The case was | that.' diagnosed as catarrh of the stomach, food became distasteful. life a borden. The trouble went on for nearly six years, then a good Samarktan advised the use of Dr. Wil- sense' Mams' Pink Pills. The pills were given a fair, patient tria', Mr. Veinot using about a dozen boxes, and before they were all gone a permanent cure was effected. Mr. Velnot is now able to attend to his business when it looked as if he was doomed to die. He is grateful to this great medicine for his cure and was no hesitation in saying so.

Because of their thorough and prompt action on the blood and acryes these pills speedily cure anaemia, rheumatism. sciatica, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, scrofula and eruptions of the skin, ery-Apelas, kidney and liver troubles a sigh, "I wish I knew someand the functional allments which thing, and could play and sing and makes the lives of so many women source of constant misery. Get the genuine with the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale ach box. Sold by medicine dealers hands with delight, but remembered lief to the monotony of our studies. reople" on the wrapper around ach box. Sold by medicine dealers in time the impropriety of such a proor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the impropriety of such a proor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the impropriety of such a proor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the impropriety of such a proor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the impropriety of such a proor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the impropriety of such a proor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the impropriety of such a proor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the impropriety of such a proor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the impropriety of such a proor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the impropriety of such a proor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the impropriety of such a proor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the impropriety of such a proor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the impropriety of such a proor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the impropriety of such a proor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the impropriety of such a proor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the impropriety of such a proor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the impropriety of such a proor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the impropriety of such a proor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the impropriety of such a proor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the impropriety of such a proor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the impropriety of such a proor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the impropriety of such a proor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the impropriety of such a proor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the improor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the improor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the improor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the improor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the improor sent post part at 50 cents a box in time the or sent post part at 50 cents a box in the first 1 used a great of the sufferer was losing hope of reor sent post part at 50 cents a box in the first 1 used a great of the sufferer was losing hope of reor sent post part at 50 cents a box in the first 1 used a great of the first 1 used a great of the sufferer was losing hope of reor sent post part at 50 cents a box in the first 1 used a great of the first 1 used a uncertain how to pronounce the title. very gravely and prettily for my same arm-chair. I was surprised by more than the Dawson's Golden Chaff. Turkey Red... to some modern novels. "Don't you ed away, evidently in the innocent very loneliness of my life was bound sprouted as badly as those with "I don't believe it was so very like any of these?" Already I began belief that I must be anxious to be to bring middle age upon me early. beards, and the hard wheats were

Brockville, Oat.

"Why do you like Don Quixote and at the remembrance of her preternat- at a cafe on the boulevards, or blue eyes fixed thoughtfully on the tail for sympathy. I thought it day began to wane, I grew rest-madale, didn't you feel as if that had or two, and I should be left waiting | My four friends, when they joined "Oh, yes," with a flash of excite. dictionaries on my hands.

because I couldn't help it." I went on asking her what she led the girl back to the book shelves. had read, and I own that I dare not give the list. But her frank, young mind had absorbed no evil. and when I asked how she liked one famous peccant hero, she answered

"I liked him very much-part of pointed to a modern popular novel, the book. And when he did wrong things, I was always wanting to go title, which was among the lumber to him, and tell him not to be so wicked and silly; and then, oh! I was so glad when he reformed and married Sophia."

"Ah, but then he was a man Her tone implied "only a man." "Then you think women are better than men?" "I think they ought to be."

"Why '9' "Well, men have to work, and women have only to be good."

I was surprised at this answer. "That is not true always. Your mother is a very good woman, and has had to work very hard, indeeed." "But mamma's an exception; she says so. And she says it's very hard to work as she does, and be good, though it was pretty to see how innocently the young girl had taken the querulous speech. "Well, and then I'm a man, and don't have to work.'

"Perhans that's why you're I was so utterly astonished at this naive speech that I had nothing to Bablole?' I asked gently. But this was taxing her penetration too much.

"Why do you think people are bet-

She looked at me and was reassur-"Well, sometimes when mamma has

"What other things?"

"Oh-fancies, and- things like sideways glance that was full of the

She looked up at me with a shy most perfect unconscious witchery. "Yes, mamma says they're non-"She liked nonsense, too, once."

Babiole looked up at me with the delight of a common perception. "Yes, I've often thought that. And brightened this old room." then all men are not like--" She stopped short.

She shook her head. One mustn't it any the less kind of you to teach say that. One must make allowance for clever people, mamma says.' "You will be clever, too, some day. if you go on reading and thinking about what you read. "No. I don't want to be clever: makes people so selfish. But,' with read all those books that are English. "Shall I teach you French?" "Will you? Oh, Mr. Mande!" I think she was going to clap her ate conversation as a welcome reing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., fixed as the hour for the first lesson! while I'm away."

journey to Aberdeen to provide myself with a whole library of French gram- the summer. mars and other elimentary works. At 4 o'clock Babiole made her apand washed, and wearing the air of intense seriousness befitting such a matter as the beginning of one's education. This almost broke down, however, under the glowing excitement of taking a phrase-book into one's hand, and repeating after me, "God-day, bon-jour. How do you do ? Comment vous portez-vons?' and a couple of pages of the same kind. Then she wrote out the verb "To have" in French and English; and her appetite for knowledge not being yet quenched, she then learnt and wrote down the names of different objects round us, some of which, I afraid to take such long walks alone varieties were badly lodged, and, owregret to say, her master had to with Ta-ta when you're not here!" find out in the dictionary, not being prepared to give off-hand the French

she gave a little sigh of completed | broke the spell as unwittingly as she bliss, and, looking up at me, said simply that she thought that "Oh, Mr. Maude," she cried, with ing the greatest yield of grain per results of these tests it is found that was as much as she could learn per- fervent disappointment; "then your acre, starting with the highest, were the heaviest weight of grain per fectly by to-morrow. I thought it friends-Mr. Scott-and the rest- as follows: Extra Early Windsor, measured bushel and the largest was a great deal more but did, not they won't come here this year?" Dawson's Golden Chaff, Imperial Am- yield of both grain and straw were like to discourage her by saying so. "No," said I poolly, but with no sign ber, Pedigree Genesee Giant, Prize produced from seed taken from the I had much doubt about my teaching, of the sudden chill her words had taker, Economy New Columbia, White crop which had become very ripe by having been plunged into it suddenly given me, "I shall invite them to Golden Cross, Early Ontario, and remaining uncut for the longest without having had time to formu- Norway this year." "Is there any other book you like?" late a method; but then I was con-"Ot, yes. I like these." She passed vinced that by the time I felt more stalled Mrs. Ellmer as care-"Oh no, I didn't mean that. I'm not her hand lovingly over a row- not sure of my powers my pupil's zeal taker at Larkhall, and, with Fergusorry to see you. I'm always glad an unbroken row, of course -of solid would have melted away, and I guson at my heels, had set out on Dawson's Golden Chaff, Extra Early ties of winter wheat were distributo, only we never do now, you know, looking, calf-bound volumes, full of should have no one to experiment- my wanderings again. and I thought perhaps you would be old-fashioned line engravings of Bri- alise upon. As soon as I had assured angry at my coming into your study," tish scenery, the text containing a her that she had done quite enough said she, recovering confidence as she discursive account of the places il- for the first lesson, Babiole rose, col- restlessness which had attacked me sprouting of wheat greatly injures it ments are as follows: w that I was not displeased.

"Oh, so your took advantage of my cal information, apocryphal anecdote her exercise-book, and the pen I had the secret of happiness for me lay production. All of the varieties at the being away to do what you thought I and old-world scandal. "And Jane consecrated to her use, and asked me in never remaining long in the same College this season were more or less Eyre, and this." "This" was an il- where she should keep them. We de- place, I succeeded badly. I spoke playfully, but Babiole hung | lustrated translation of Don Quixote. | cided upon a corner of the piano as | It was not until I was three hun- ves.ed. Those varieties which sprout-"Oh, and I like Clarissa Harlowe, being a place where they would not dred miles away from them that I be- ed the least were the Red Cross, Mcand that book with the red cover." be in my way, Babiole having a gan fully to appreciate the joys of do- Pherson, Wisconsin Triumph, and Recharmingly feminine reverence for mestic life with To-to and Ta-ta, liable, and those which sprouted the > ural gravity, and Ta-Ta put her fore- in Norway, watching the sunset on "She considered for a long time, her paws on my knees and wagged her some picturesque fiord, when the very probable that Mrs. Ellmer would less, and, referring aimlessly to my ent varieties of winter wheat, re- sent free to any Ontario farmer ap-"I think I feel more as if they'd interfere to prevent the girl's coming | watch again and again, could settle again, or that Babiole's enthusiasm down to nothing till the last rays "But when you were reading Ar for learning would die out in a day of daylight had faded away. for my pupil with my grammars and me for our yearly holiday, all de-absolutely perfect in the verb avoir, agree. For while both Fabian and "Then you thought as much about the months, the seasons and the Edgar had said it was "liver," the pages out of the phrase-book. When former recommended camel-exercise "Ye-es, but-" A pause, "I thought I praised her, she said, with much in the Soudan, the latter would purases if I'd known how to pronounce | fat Mr. Fussell and the lean Mr.

in fact, beginning to learn at an what I should teach her, and to pre- | self," and, if I didn't know how, I | and treated with hot water, 1. paring myself for her lessons. As win- | was to take him.

have been before, and as I saw spring | quality that makes womanhood sweet | long now, Babiole," I said to her one laughter, but I must hear her voice els per acre, respectively, were obafternoon in the first days of April. | again. "I have been making you work too hard lately, and you must go and get back your roses on the hills." I saw the light come over the girl's face as she looked out of the window. say. The blood rushed to the girl's and, with a pang of self-reproach, I face: she was afraid she had been felt that, in spite of herself, the earnest little student had been wait-"How do you know that I am good, ing eagerly for some such words as these. "O-h-h," she whispered, in a longdrawn breath of pleasure, "it must cellent violin music.

exercise sae had written, as if ab- | and a party of thirty botanists."sorbed in that occupation. But the little one's perceptions were too keen for me. She was down on her knees on the floor beside my chair in a moment, with a most downcast face, her eyes full of tears. "Oh Mr. Maude, what an ungrateful little wretch you must think I was so much moved that I could

I burst out into a shout or laughter. "Why, Babiole, you must think me an ogre! You don't really imagine Flend."-Printer and Publisher. I wanted to keep you chained to the desk all the summer!" She took my hand in both of hers and stroked it gently. "I would rather never go on the hills again than seem ungrateful to oa, Mr. Mande. "Ungrateful, child! You don't know how your little sunbeam face has

"Has it, really?" She seemed pleased, but rather puzzled. "Well, I'm very glad, but that doesn't make

"There has been no kindness at all on my side, I assure you." She shook her head, and her curly hair touched my shoulder. "Yes, there has, and I like to think that there has. Nobody knows how good you are but Ta-ta and me; we often talk about you when we're out together, don't we, Ta-ta?" The collie wagged her tail violently, taking this little bit of affection-

the best to be a comment of the second secon

I could not tell exactly when I made up my mind to this, but I know pearance, very scrupulously combed that I had had no intention of the kind when Babiole came into my study that afternoon. She remained quite silent for a few minutes. Then she asked softly-"When will you come back, Mr.

> "Oh, about -September, I think." "The place won't seem the same without you." "Why, child, when you are about on the hills I never see you.' and the seasons of the year, after lessly as I bould, that I had not quite in 1902. which, serfeited with information, made up my mind yet, when she had woven it.

Before April was over I had in-

CHAPTER XI.

"Oh, yes, Ivanhoe," she repeated, the importance of even the most the comfort of being able to keep most were the Pedigree Genesee "And these ?" I pointed, one by one, kindness in teaching her, and hasten- this at first, till I reflected that the The varieties without beards were There was a period of each day which What a light the bright child I found it very hard to get room! I began to smile to myself enjoying coffee and cigarette much worse than the red varieties. 47.

cided that something was wrong, hear of nothing but porridge and 'I could have learnt twice as many Strathpeffer. And though both the Browne leaned to the sentimental view that love and Mrs. Ellmer age when she was able to understand, were at the root of my maiady, the and impelled by a strong sense of latter suggested that to shut Mr. her own deficiencies, she learnt Ellmer up with a hogshead of new that she would tire had worn away, an indescribable smile, told me to I gave whole hours to considering go back to Paris and "enjoy my- with copper sulphate (Bluestone), 2;

ter drew on, the darkening days gave | I did none of these things, however, treatment consisted in soaking the the study, reading, writing, translat- short again, the home hunger grew and then immersing the seed for five perimental material is exhausted. ing. When I found her wiling I had irresistibly strong, and I went back | minutes in lime water made by added Latin to her studies, and we to the Highlands as a gambler goes | slacking one pound of lime in 10 galdiligently plodded through a course back to the cards. Of course I knew lons of water. The hot water treatof reading arbitrarily marked out by what took me there, just when the ment consisted in imme ong the me, and followed by my pupil with hills were growing bleak, and the deer had gone to their winter re-All thoughts of leaving Ballater for | treat in the forests. I wanted to the winter had now disappeared from | see that girl's face in my study again, my mind. I was happier in my new to hear the young voice that rang occupation than I remembered to with youth and happiness and every "I mustn't keep you indoors so had done sometimes with ringing bushels, 43.3 bushels, and 43.9 bush-

(To be Continued.)

Typographical Errors.

From a Maritime paper our eagleeyed "capper" snips out the following and wants to know if the long word in the second line is spelt correctly. 'There were five large dancing stages, and on these the herpechorean art was indulged in by young and old to the strains of ex-

Victoria, B. C., Colonist.

The other day a Mr. Avery was married to Miss Small.A sub-editor headed the report of the ceremony. "Avery-Small Wedding." but the compositor knew better, and set it up as "A Very Small Wedding." "I wish to say to the congregation," said the minister, "that the pulpit is not responsible for the er-

RESULTS OF WINTER WHEAT EXPERIMENTS.

Winter wheat experiments occu- cent. more wheat per acre than on pied one hundred and eighty-eight land prepared from timothy stubble. plots at the College, and six hundred In a two years' test with commerand three plots throughout Ontario cial fertilizers, an application of 160 in 1902. On the whose, the wheat "No, but-but I always have a feel- came through the winter well, and ing that the good genius is about, the yield of both grain and straw and-do you know, I think I shall be was satisfactory. The weak strawed ing to the wet weather, some of the My heart went out to the child. grain was sprouted before it was With a passionate joy in the inno- harvested. The damage done by the for "hearthrug," 'letter-weight" and cent trust one little human creature Hessian fly was very slight, the in the autumn, and cut at five dif-'wainscoting," We then went felt towards me, the outcast, I was plots at the College being practically ferent dates in the following sum winter wheat were grown at the Col- sown and the crop thereform was lege this year. The ten varieties giv- harvested when ripe. In the average Johnson, The Extra Early Windsor period of time. very closely resembles the Dawson's Golden Chaif variety. Those varieties possessing the stiffest straw were the | American Bronze. If I went away to appease the Experiments have shown that the per acre of the co-operative experisprouted before they could be harsprouted slightly more than the softer varieties. The white wheats, A deputation of ten persons from the Dominion Millers' Association visted the Coffege during the past summer, and, after examining the differ- experiments here mentioned will be commended that the following vari- plying for it, if he will conduct an eties be grown extensively in Ontario: experiment with great care and re-Red wheat, Michigan Amber and Tur- | port the results after harvest next key Red, and white wheat, Early Gen- year. The seed will be sent out in esee Giant and Bulgarian.

sults of six years' experiments show lasts. acre more than the shrunken seed; crops-three plots. and six bushels thirty-three pounds | 2. Testing three varieties of red more than the small, plump seed. | winter wheat-three plots. great a yield of toth grain and straw | winter wheat-six plots. as seed which had been broken in the 4. Testing autumn and spring approcess of threshing.

Treatment for Stinking Smat-In common salt with winter wheat-five the average of four years' tests, seed | plots. wheat infested with smut spores pro-The Copper Sulphate (Bluestone) wheat for fifteen minutes in water at 132 degrees fahr. After each treatment, the grain was spread out and stirred occasionally until dry enough to sow.

approaching. I regretted the short and loveworthy in a man's mind. She one, one and one-half, and two bush- ing magazines.' me her young girl love affairs, as she of six years, average yields of 40.2 cigar a day," was the reply. tained. As two varieties of wheat were used each year, these averages represent twelve distinct tests.

Methods of Sowing-Winter wheat which was sown broadcast by hand gave practically the same results as that which was drilled in by a machmade in each of eight years. The land | day?" was in a good state of cultivation Yes. I recall the conversation, but in every instance. Dates of Sowing-Winter wheat tion, surely, having announced that September yielded better than that I said nothing, and she turned round | "Prof. McMillan and a party of sown at a later date in the aver- books you see. to me with a mistrustful inquiring thirsty botanists" had gone on an age results of tests made in each face. I went on looking over an exeursion included of 'Prof. McMillan of the past eight years. In 1902 the highest average yield was obtained from sowing on September 2.

> Preparation of the Land-In an experiment conducted for four years. winter wheat grown on land on which a crop of field peas was used nual average of 22.1 per cent. more wheat per acre than on land where for of the printer on the tickets a crop of buckwheat was plowed un- I did, you would by this time have for the concert in the Sunday school | der. In another experiment, which | saved many more dollars than I room. The concert is for the benefit was carried on for one year, winter have, and would have been better of the Arch Fund, not the Arch | wheat grown on land prepared from off in health and self-respect beclover stubble, produced 20.7 per liles."-Success.

pounds of nitrate of soda per acro increased the yield of wheat 18.8 per

Value of seed from wheat cut at different stages of maturity-For seven years in succession, five plots of each of two varieties of winter through the names of the months on the point of telling her, as care- free from the ravages of this insect mer, a week being allowed between each two dates of cutting. Seed from Varieties-Ninety-five varieties of each of the seventy cuttings was

Results of Co-operative Experiment In the autumn of 1901 five varie-Windsor, Clawson Longberry, and ted throughout Ontario for co-operative experiments. The average yields Varieties.

Dawson's Golden Chafi... 8.2 Early Genesee Giant ...3.1 The popularity of the varieties with the experimentors is represented by the following figures: Dawson's Golden Chaft, 100; Imperial Am-

Distribution of Seed. Material for any one of the four the order in which the applications Selection of Seed-The average re- are received as long as the supply that large, plump seed yielded seven 1. Testing Hairy Vetches, Crimbushels ffty-one pounds of wheat per | son Clover and Winter Rye as fodder

Sound wheat produced five times as 3. Testing five fertilizers with plications of nitrate of soda and

The proper size of each plot is one so fast and so well that her whiskey and then to marry his duced grain containing the follow- rod wide by two rods long. The maeducation soon became the strongest widow would quench my passion ef- ing number of smut balls per pound terial for either of the first two interest of my life, and when my fear | feetually, while Mr. Fussell, with | of wheat: Untreated, 456; treated experiments will be forwarded by with potassium sulphide, 11; treated mail, and for each of the other two by express. Each person wishing to conduct one of these experiments should apply as soon as possible, mentioning which test he desires, and the material, with instructions us both the excuse we wanted for but after my friends had returned to seed for twelve hours in a solution for testing and the blank form co longer working hours. From three to | England, I wandered about until late | made by dissolving one pound of cop- | which to report, will be furnished half-past six we now sat together in October. But when the days grew per sulphate in 24 gallons of water, free of cost until the supply of ex-

C. A. Zavitz, Guelph, Ont. Agricultural College,

One Cigar a Day. How can you afford all these books?" asked a young man, calling upon a friend; "I can't seem to Quantities of Seed-From sowing | find spare change for even the lead-

days, which had been brighter to me might conjugate Latin verbs or tell els of winter wheat per acre for each "Oh, that library is only my one 'What do you mean?' inquired

"Mean? Just this: When you advised me to indulge in an occasiona! cigar several years ago I had been reading about a young fellow who bought books with the money that others would have burned in cigars, and I thought I would do the same You may remember that I said I ine in the average results of tests should allow myself one cigar a

I can't quite see the connection." "Well, I never smoked, but I put sown at the College during the last by the price of a five-cent cigar "I don't know," she answered be lovely up among the pine-woods The Colonist is in for a libel ac- week in August or the first week in every day; and as the money accumulated I bought books-the very "You don't mean to say that > your books cost no more than that? Why, there are dollars' worth of "Yes, I know there are. I had sax a year, or $109.50 to six years. I years more of my apprent ceship to serve when you advised me to be a man.' I put by the money, which, at 5 cents a day amounted to $18.25 as a green manure, produced an an- keep those books by themselves as the result of my apprenticeship cigar money; and if you had done as

Remarkable Recovery From Nervous Collapse.

A Methodist Minister Tells How He Was Rescued From a Helpless Condition by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

in valo, and it is little wonder that | with nervoumess,

That Dr. Chase's Nerve Food pos- | ter, of Omemee, and late of Bethany, | when I heard of Dr. Chase's Nerve sesses unusual control over the Ont., writes: "A year ago last No- Food, and began to use it. As my nerves and rekindles nervous en- vember I was overtaken with ner- system became stronger I began to ergy when all other means fall is vous exhaustion. For six months I do a little work, and have gradualwell illustrated in the case described did no work, and during that time ly increased in nerve force and vigbelow. Mr. Brown was forced to I had to be waited on, not being or, until now I am about in my give up his ministerial work, and able to help myself. Nervous col- normal condition again. I consider to far exhausted that for a time he lapse was complete, and though I Dr. Chase's Nerve Food the best was positively helpless. Doctors was in the physician's hands for medicine I ever used. Not only has were consulted and many remedies months, I did not seem to improve. it proven its wonderful restorative were resorted to, in vain. Every of- At any little exertion my strength powers in my own case, but also in fort to build up the system seemed would leave me, and I would tremble several others where I have recommended it."

and in the meantime I made another "Away! Are you going away?" Rev. T. Brown, M thodist minis- had almost lost hope of recovery, Co., Toronto.