TOWN TOPICS

The Review to January 1 1903, 20 cts. Thanksgiving Day has been fixed for Thursday, October 16.

TWO PAPERS—ONE PRICE.—We are authorized to offer the Weekly Mail and Empire and DURHAM REVIEW to January 1st 1903 for 35 cents. Hand the amount or mail it to either of our offices, and the papers will be sent to any address in America.

PRICEVILLE SHOW.—We beg to acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary ticket to Artemesia Ag. Society's Show on the 14th and 15th inst. Though this is last it is by no means least among the fairs of the year. Jas. Brodie, Vandeleur, is the Secretary, D. McCormack, Priceville, President. Both energetic officers.

Remember our kid Gloves, Colored and Black.—C. L. Grant.

LAMONI.—Our innocent little local last week referring to the receipt of copies of the Deseret News, has brought us copies of "The Saints' Herald," published at Lamoni, Iowa, headquarters of the "Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints". A congregation of this church exists in Proton. The churches of Utah and Lamoni, while both Mormon, have some vital differences into which we will not enter lest a fruitless controversy result.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Our obituary notices to day record the death of Archie McNab, (brother of Duncan McNab.) On Thursday, last while in the fields he was seized with a paralytic stroke. Not coming home a search was instituted and he was found and taken home. Medical aid was summoned but he succumbed Friday morning. Up to his light Archie was faithful to all duties and in health was a regular attendant at services in the Presbyterian church. Rev. Mr. Farquharson conducted the services.

HOW TO BOOM YOUR TOWN.—Talk about it. Write about it. Beautify the streets. Elect good men to all offices. Keep your sidewalks in good repair. Sell all you can and buy all you can. If you are rich invest something, employ somebody. Be courteous to strangers that come among you, so that they will go away with good impressions. Always cheer on the men who go in for improvements. Your portion will be nothing but what is just. Don't kick at any proposed improvement because it is not cut down fifty per cent.

We have some nice fur Ruffs at $1.00 1.40 1.50 and $2.00.—C. L. Grant.

MASONIC PRESENTATION.—On Thursday evening of last week, the brethren of Durham Lodge called an informal meeting to have a parting word with Mr. Jas. A. Hunter before leaving town. W. M. R. J. S. Dewar presided, and at an appropriate time and greatly to Mr. Hunter's surprise Past Master Ireland addressed him in a representative capacity, and presented to him on behalf of his brethren a Past Master's Jewel as a memento of Lappy hours spent together. The address expressed the appreciation of his brethren at the kind and courteous manner in which he had borne himself in office or out of it, and thanked him for the great interest he had taken in the craft. Mr. Hunter replied appropriately and a happy sociable hour followed.

MISS AMY WRIGHT.—For some months past it has been known that this estimable young lady was in poor health and on Friday it was learned with genuine regret that she had passed away. She was a young lady of great promise, and was a thinker and a worker in League circles in the Methodist church in the days of her health, that is not easily replaced. Her pastor Rev. Wray R. Smith testified to in his remarks at the funeral amid much else that showed that in Christian activity she was as faithful as in patience in suffering she was exemplary. Mr. Smith at her funeral on Sunday improved the occasion to a large company of mourners and worshippers by preaching from "There shall be no more Sea," which he interpreted to mean freedom from pain from separation and from mystery when "the new heaven and the new earth" should come. The parents brothers and sisters have the sympathy of the community at the loss in life's prime of their loved one. Attending the funeral from a distance were her brother, Mr. S. C. Wright, Whitby; Mr. and Mrs. Matthews, Markdale, the latter a sister; Mr. McMackon, Acton; Mr. and Mrs. Dean and Miss Cooper, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wright, Hanover.

Town Council meets Monday evening. The Durham Review and Canadian Annual to January 1, 1904, $1.00.

The last of Mr. R. MacFarlane's letters appears in this issue. On our own behalf and on that of our readers, we heartily thank him for the share of his trip he so kindly furnished to his many friends.

CURLING, HOCKEY, SKATING.—All parties interested in the organization of Curling, Skating, or Hockey clubs for the coming winter are invited to attend a meeting at the Forester's Hall on Friday evening the 3rd of October at 8 p. m., sharp. A full attendance requested.

We have not advanced the price of our tobaccos. Amber smoking tobacco, Bobs, Currency and Fair Play chewing tobaccos are the same size and price to the consumer as formerly. We have also extended the time for the redemption of Snowshoe tags to January 1, 1904.

The Empire Tobacco Co., Limited, Aytan Advance: "The trustees of our public school have engaged Miss Nellie Moran to teach the junior department of the school after New Years. Miss MacKenzie, the present teacher intends taking a course in the Ottawa Normal School." From the same source we learn that Mr. W. J. Huston has been re-engaged as principal for 1903. This will make Mr. Huston's 13th year in Aytan, a very rare experience in Ontario schools.

Mens' Plough Boots at Grant's.

CEMENT BALL.—We dont mean one of the rolling kind made of this popular material, but that other kind where youth and pleasure chase the flying feet. On Friday evening last, the cement authorities, (or some of them) invited a number of the young people of town to a dance in the new laboratory building just finished, and before the delicate instruments and apparatus are installed. Those present speak of a very enjoyable time.

LET US SEND IT.—Under the new postal law people have to pay 2 cents on newspapers to friends at a distance. Many we know send the REVIEW to friends after having read it. Now if you will pay you to let us send it, put your friend's name on our list. He will get it promptly, and regularly, you will be saved the trouble of mailing, and it will actually cost you less than postage, for we give a reduction where two or more papers are ordered from one family. We expect to add many subscribers to our lists during the next few months. We are giving the REVIEW to new subscribers to the end of next year for $1.25, and every paid-in-advance subscriber gets a free copy of our elegant Christmas Number.

CONTINUATION CLASSES.—By an act of the Ontario Legislature, passed in 1901, each rural school having a continuation class receives a grant of $5 from the County Council for each pupil in that class. Following is a list of the schools in East and South Grey which have received the grant, with the amount, including both legislative and municipal grant, in each case: South Grey—Durham, $400; Hanover, $200; Markdale, $100; Flesherton, $100; Dundalk, $100; Aytan, $50; S. S. No. 13, Egremont, $30; S. S. No. 1, Normanby, $30; S. S. No. 12, Priceville $30; S. S. No. 9, Osprey, $30—Total $1,020. East Grey—S. S. No. 13, Collingwood, $100; S. S. No. 5, Euphrasia, $30; S. S. No. 5, Collingwood, $30; S. S. No. 7, Collingwood, $30; U. S. S. No. 4, Euphrasia, $30—Total $235. Thornbury (Urban) $15.

The continuation class corresponds to what was formerly known as the public school leaving class. Previous to 1901 there was no county grant and the government made a grant of $5 only when the pupil passed the leaving examination. The object of the grant is to encourage the formation of more of these classes, which give an opportunity to pupils who will not attend the collegiate institute, to receive educational benefits which they otherwise would not enjoy. The grant can be used by the schools in whatever way the trustees consider proper. It is generally used to swell the general fund.—Post.

The Millinery Openings.

Friday and Saturday ast, the three Millinery establishments in town had their formal "opening", for which no little preparation must have been necessary. We took the usual editorial pleasure of calling on the establishments and had every possible courtesy extended. Nowhere we are sure can the public be treated with more civility and courtesy, than in Durham and the millinery establishments are no exception.

MR. S. F. MORLOCK.

This old established millinery parlor is again in charge of Miss Sweet, who has everything arranged most attractively for the convenience of customers and the delight of visitors. The splendid mirrors here lend a charm of their own to the artistic surrounding. Miss Sweet assures us it is the best opening she has had, and is yet particularly well stocked in Ready-to-wear and trimmed hats of all kinds. There is a prevailing feather display in the trimming which shows excellent taste and is very effective. The colors while very pretty are not "loud" and a subdued effect most appropriate for the season is the impression created on the visitor.

A picturesque "Kate Greenaway" hat is made of a large platoon of green fancy braid, with the flat, broad Tam crown formed by the use of a band of green velvet ribbon that is tied at the back in a bow with two loops, and long against the brim, which slightly flares at the left side.

Unusual charm marks this picture hat of black velvet. White liberty satin is arranged in soft folds on the edge of the wide, straight brim and also encircles the broad, low crown, and a blue velvet. A wide band of the velvet encircles the crown, and two wing-shaped arrangements of cock feathers in harmonious shades of blue are adjusted against the brim at the left side toward the back, and ends falling on the hair.

MR. JAS. IRELAND.

A very attractive window has been admired by many for its effective simplicity, and no doubt has allured many inside and upstairs where fuller attractions are displayed by Miss Ryder to good advantage in the fine overhead light. The pretty blue felt and green effects show up at their best, while around are pompons and picture hats showing in pretty colors the milliner's skill. Wings and feathers as trimmings are very common, and some double crown hats make a very pretty head-piece. Miss Ryder is particularly well stocked in baby bonnets and ready-to-wear hats, and had her stock well thinned out by a good season's business. Other shapes and goods are arriving and the most fastidious taste can be suited.

One very handsome and stylish model was of folds of black velvet. The rim was rolled very high at the sides and was faced with black tuckered chiffon. Black moire ribbon was brought around the crown and bowed prettily at the back, while two handsome plumes fell gracefully over the rim at the left side.

A very stylish turban in the popular green and blue combination was of green gophered silk with handsome feather crown in shades of green and gray. The crown was caught up at the left side with a large rosette of blue liberty ribbon and a drap of the same was carried around the crown. Ends of the ribbon with large cream applique roses gave a very swell appearance to the back of the hat.

One of the newest ideas in hats for young girls is the "Dolly Varden"—a large double-trimmed hat with floppy edge. One shown was of white felt stitched with red. Red silk was prettily draped on the rim. On the rim at the left side was arranged a bow of the silk from which fringed ends extended over the rim at the back.

Another hat the girls admired very much was a large soft flop of green camel's hair felt. It was trimmed with rosettes of rose pink liberty ribbon a strap of the same going straight across the front. This hat also had fringed tabs at the back.

MISS DICK.

Amongst Millinery parlors certainly this lady's fine appointed rooms rank very high. Confining herself entirely to millinery she has established a flourishing business, and informs us she has done twice the business she did a year ago. The beauty of color combination is well illustrated. Here we have castor with green and red, gray with red, and a very striking combination of hunter's green, royal blue and dark orange. Touches of orange are common and are very pretty. A leading feature is beautiful lace applique. In furs the chin-chills and the mink are observable, a mink toque being especially noticeable for its combination of turquoise blue velvet and rich lace applique. The cabochons of jet and other material are seen on tailor-made hats to great advantage. On felt ready-to-wear a great deal of stitching is seen.

Pure white ideas in Millinery just now will be very strong, soft white felt hats are both built on frames and without.

One shown was made without a frame and is only raised off the face by catching a brim to the crown. One of the important features of this hat is the soft white plumes, 3 are caught at the front of crown and drop towards front.

the other longer plume is caught at the side and trails to the back over hair.

One of the striking features of the new fall millinery is the great use of birds. One hat after this style was a large emerald green, flop trimmed with seven black birds, and a white felt shape with one large gull put on flat with wings outspread. These birds are so large they nearly cover the top of the hat.

One large Black hat made of black panne velvet and sequin, two long ostrich plumes caught on crown and fall over brim at back. Beavers in all white and black are shown and will be very fashionable. One here shown in white trimmed in green and white Dresden ribbon and white osprey. A pretty ready-to-wear turban in black camel's hair felt, handsome drapery of velvet fastened at intervals with fancy hatters, two quills are closely arranged on top and the graceful shape lifts at the left.

Farm for Sale.

That 200 acre farm in the Township of Glenelg, known as the McRae Farm. There is about 110 acres cleared and suitable for running machinery on, and the balance is principally of hardwood timber. There is supposed to be over 2000 cords of good cordwood ready for cutting. The farm is situated about six miles from Berkeley, and ten miles from Durham. On the farm is a good frame house and cedar post barn. This farm will be sold at a bargain during the next sixty days. For further information or terms of sale apply to W. CALDER, Durham.
