Miss Belle McKinnon, near Chesley, is the guest of her sister Mrs. Jno. A. Black at present.

Rev. Mr. Farquharson preached at the Varney Harvest Home Services on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Laidlaw, Sr and Mrs. Mighon, Sr went by the excursion to Detroit, to visit their children.

Mr. Robt. Reid, now of Flint, Michigan, was married lately to a lady of that city. Congratulations.

Mrs. Barber and Mrs. McNeil, from Halton, visited at their cousin's, Mrs. Alex. McLean, Proton.

Miss Alla Patterson, Flint, Michigan, is visiting friends and relatives in town and country at present.

Mrs. Sudden, Chatsworth, is visiting her daughter Mrs. F. McClocklin, who has been ill for some time.

Miss O'Donnell is at present recovering from an attack of typhoid fever, and is being nursed by her sister.

Mrs. (Rev.) Farquharson and Miss A. C. McKeenzie attended a meeting of the Dornoch W. F. M. S. on Monday.

Mr. C. Layton left Monday, for Georgia where he will be in charge of the construction of the new Cement Works.

Miss Margaret Gun we are pleased to see is able to be about again. Mrs. Laidlaw also, we are glad to learn is doing well.

Rev. Mr. Newton assisted in the platform work at the Harvest Home services at Rev. Mr. Pomeroy's Ebenezer appointment on Tuesday night.

Mrs. Wm. Matthews returned Saturday from Stratford hospital, leaving her mother Mrs. C. Gray progressing favorably. Mr. Herb Gray goes down to see her today.

Rev. Mr. Graham's pulpit at Dornoch and Rocky Saugren was taken in his absence at his brother's funeral by Mr. Wm. Young, whose services, we learn, were much appreciated.

Rev. Mr. Graham, Dornoch, was in town last week, looking well after his five weeks western trip. He left his daughter much improved in health with her grandparents in Rat Portage.

Mr. Wm. McMurdo, Proton, accompanied by his son James, of Sault Ste Marie, who is home on a brief visit called on ye editor last week, and proffered a warm invitation of hospitality whenever we visit that city. Thanks gentlemen.

Miss Jean Renwick, of Dromore, who was visiting her aunt, Mrs. Geo. Cushnie, last week, sang a solo in the Presbyterian Church at the morning service. Miss Renwick is a pleasing vocalist and is always listened to with appreciation in Mount Forest.—Rep.

Miss Annie Gregson writes to us this week acknowledging the receipt of the photographs of the river, memorial stone etc., and again warmly thanks all for these later evidences of interest in her dead. As one of her 1901 letters estimated she is to married early in November and Durham friends will vult a wish of joy to her in her happiness as readily as they took a share in her grief.

Additional Locals.

A good supply of Blankets just in at Grant's.

Men's Waterproof Jackets—just the thing for fall wear—at Ireland's.

Mr. H. H. Miller, in his ad offers two new farms for Sale. Lock it up and look him up. "Always prompt, never negligent."

20 CENTS.—We will send the Review to any address on the continent till Jan. 1, 1903 for this sum. Our friends will oblige us by making this offer known.

TEACHERS' CONVENTION.—The annual Meeting of the teaching fraternity of South Grey will be held in Flesherton on Friday and Saturday, October 17 and 18. Note it down.

INDUCTION IN HANOVER.—To-day, Thursday, we believe, Rev. Mr. Budget is to be inducted to the charges of Hanover and Hampden, vacant since the retirement of Rev. Mr. Craigie.

Ladies' Raincoats—all sizes—at Ireland's.

For ploughs, pulpers, etc., you should call on A. B. McArthur at the bridge, Garafraza St. If you are getting a cutter this winter call on us before purchasing. See our ad.

VANCOUVER.—We beg to thank Mr. Jas. A. Beaton for a delightful folder displaying the charms of the "Sunset doorway of the Dominion." It is issued by the tourist's Association.

Ladies' Felt Slippers the largest assortment in Durham.

N. G. & J. McKechnie.

A WELL BEARING CROP.—Mr. C. C. McFayden early in the spring gave to Mr. And. Lindsay two Carman No. 3 potatoes. Last week they dug up the fruits of them which was a bushel.

DEANERY OF GREY.—A meeting of the Women's Auxiliary is being held in Trinity church, to-day, Wednesday, delegates being present from O. Sound, Chatsworth, Markdale, Hanover and other places. Mrs. Parker is president.

ARE YOU GOING?—Only two classes of people just now, those who have been to the shows and those who have not. The first class should go to Priceville next Wednesday, for purposes of comparison, the other class should go because it is the last chance this year. You won't be sorry.

FREE.—We give the REVIEW free for the balance of this year to new Subscribers for 1903. Along with this we give the Christmas Annual a 38-page magazine with attractive illustrations and reading matter suitable for the parlor table. Our readers will oblige us by making this remarkable offer known.

Ladies' Fur Coats and Capelines—newest styles—at Jas. Ireland's.

WHAT THEY ARE DOING.—We intend to show what the Women's Institutes are doing by publishing a paper read by Mrs. Wm. Derby at a recent meeting on "Economy in the Home." It is a good one and should awaken a warmer interest in their meetings. Too crowded this week. Their next meeting is at Mrs. Sam Patterson's near Durham, first Thursday afternoon in November.

We regret to announce the sad death of Miss Laura A. Philp, youngest daughter of the late J. B. Philp, which occurred near Dromore, Wednesday, Sept. 23. Deceased was taken with appendicitis and died after a brief illness despite the care of a professional nurse and the best of doctoring. An operation, which had been contemplated had to be abandoned as the disease was too far advanced. The sorrowing friends have the sympathy of all.—Rep.
