PRICEVILLE.

As the Editor was present at our annual show we shall not say anything of what transpired during the day, but will further on give a little of the evening proceedings, which were quite a success in all respects.

Dr. Hutton of Durham ably filled the position of chairman.

The Hall was crowded to the door, and every corner and place an individual could find standing capacity was occupied. We think the directors and all concerned in having such able talent at these gatherings should begin early to set a movement on foot to have a large and accommodating hall built before the next annual show for really it is uncomfortable for people to be packed like herring in a barrack and in some instances sent away for want of room. Inside the doors however we saw and heard Fax for the first time in our life. There is nothing to be admired in his appearance as there were lots of better looking men there. He has a peculiar talent of his own and no doubt the name Fax is always enough to ensure a crowd, but in our estimation personally we would far rather listen to the beautiful strains of Peter McArthur's bagpipes, and the melodious sweet notes of Jean Renwick's charming voice, and behold her pleasant countenance.

Speeches were delivered by president McCormack, John Nichol, secretary Brodie. Last but not least, Dugald McLean, whose oratorical talent is progressing as he is advancing in age and if he is deficient on certain occasions in the ruling language of our country he is all O. K. on the platform. T. A. Patton's Recitation, "Tam O'Shanter" was well rendered, and if it was too lengthy it was none of the reciter's fault.

The young people enjoyed themselves in other amusements till near morning. Proceeds of concert about $80.00.

Mr. and Mrs. Ramage of the Review, were welcome callers at our residence on Show Day, on their way to Priceville.

Miss Mary Nichol is spending a while at her father's home at Mr. J. Nichol's G. R. Glenelg.

The Communion on Sunday last in the Presbyterian church was well attended. About 100 communicants observed the ordinances.

Rev. Mr. Varley preached Thanksgiving services on Friday last and brought forward some excellent points to be thankful for etc.

A large quantity of lambs and sheep were delivered in our town on Friday last. Dave McIntyre and Malcolm McInnis are both good and extensive buyers.

John and Donald McMillan of the South Line, Armesia, were improving their stock by getting pedigreed animals of both cattle and sheep, from noted herdsman near Guelph.

Mr. Donald McMillan has placed a fine monument at the grave of his little daughter who died last spring. It is one of the best in the cemetery here, and we noticed that Mr. Dugald Ferguson of Proton, has a fine monument in memory of his beloved wife who only died a couple of months ago. She was buried at McKechnie's ### cemetery D Road Glenelg.

The teachers convention was well represented from this locality and sure enough they could not escape having a rainy day either to begin or end with.

Teacher Eastman of this town is to have a field meeting on Friday next for the purpose of forming acquaintance with neighboring schools. Top Cliff school and other schools will be represented. Refreshments in the evening. The meeting is to be held on the school grounds in town here.

Mr. Alex. Livingstone is improving and there is hopes now of his recovery.

Mrs. Alex. McPherson arrived home from Manitoba where she was visiting her sister Mrs. Black for the last two months.

Mrs. McArthur of this town left last week to join her husband in North Dakota. Mrs. McArthur was Miss Euphemia McArthur, sister of merchant McArthur of this place. She carried with her the best wishes of her many friends in this part to her new home in the west.

Dornoch.

Will Corlett and Thos. McIntosh left for Duluth on Monday last, where they expect to stay for the winter months.

Harry McCracken visits Williamford on business where he expects to open a stand.

Miss Colina Campbell is home on a visit from the Queen city accompanied by Miss Colina Campbell of Barrie.

John Pollock returned to Toronto on Saturday last after spending a week visiting friends around this vicinity.

Hugh McCree moved to Durham on Wednesday last where he intends to work on cement works.

Lawrence and Corlett are making ship timber around the burs. They expect to be here about three months.

Wm. McCalmon, of Varney, called on friends here on Thanksgiving day.

Miss Clara Lake returned from town on an extended visit. Crist's drives will be short now.

Bob Corlett is busy hauling ship timber which he has the contract of.

Some of our girls are going to take part in the framing business. We wish them much joy.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith, sr., returned from Chatham where they had been visiting their brother Mr. Mills.

We wonder how Will has changed his trail from east to west, we suppose there is better fishing west and if the two Toms found the roads muddy the other night.

ANOTHER MATTER.

We take the following from the Globe: "The Globe has received letters from manufacturers suggesting revision of the tariff, and the revision indicated is generally the reduction of the duty on the raw material."

Just so. When it comes to buying anything for himself the manufacturer forgets all about the necessity of retaining against the United States. He wants the duty taken clean off, and the goods of the hated American admitted free. But when it comes to the raw material of the farmer, that is quite another matter. The very thought of it sets the retaliation fever raging, and it never stops short of the fifty per cent mark.—Farmers' Sun.

THE CHURCH V. THE SALOON.

To be a child of God is to be an enemy of the Saloon.

The Church should see that civil law is brought in harmony with Divine law.

To evangelize the ballot-box is the high commission given Christian citizenship.

"No more license, but suppression," is the battle-cry voiced by every Christian tongue, and heard in every Christian home.

The Church is the divinely commissioned leader in all moral and social reform.

Shall the liquor interests dominate our churches, our schools, our culture, our enterprise, our capital, and subordinate the rights and interests of a patriotic and righteous majority to the insatiable gainings of a selfish minority?

When the pulpit seeks to make men good, and leaves it to law to make them bad, the work of the Church is undone.

Rev. Dr. Rankin writes: "Whiskey must go; and if every preacher in the Province will do his duty, the time of its going is not far off."

A license ballot has no place in the hands of a Christian man.

The temperance reform stands to-day upon the heights of answered prayer.

If God has instituted civil government for moral ends, the Church should see that it is not used for immoral purposes.

Rum not only pulls the Church from men, but pulls men from the Church.

If a man's name has the right to be on a saloon-license petition, it has no right to be on the Church list.

"Forward!" is the word that comes ringing along the lines from the Divine side of the conflict.

Every vote for the saloon is a vote against the Church. Therefore,
VOTE FOR PROHIBITION.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN

"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN" never grows old. There runs through it a vein of pathos peculiarly touching and sweet. It speaks the universal language of the heart. It reflects, like a prism, the innermost phases of human emotion. It is more than a play; it is a moral classic. It argues for two of the greatest themes that can engage the mind—human liberty, and immortality of the soul. It is so pure that its touch alone is chastening. Like the kiss of a child, it conquers by the very innocence of its breath. It is the character of Eva, it is unique. Who does not cherish in memory some sweet, angelic child who seemed to touch this earth only as a transient visitor who passed away with the dew of childhood's morning—too good, too pure, for us? "Was there ever a child like Eva?" Yes, but her name is written on heaven's scroll. This good old play is unique because it is the only one that portrays that character. The scenery is excellent. In the river scene, one sees the floating cakes of ice slowly moving down the stream. One can see, in the splendid perspective of the scene, several miles up the frozen river, and the undulating snow-clad hills on either side. The like drowsy sentinels in the soggy winter scene. The plantation scene represents a typical Southern home, with its mansions, its log cabins and its cotton-field. It is the sunny, sunny scene. It is a warm, mellow, beautiful scene. It is one of the most picturesque dramas

Uncle Tom's Cabin

LIFE AMONG THE LOWLY

MEN, 40 WOMEN and CHILDREN 40

THE LARGEST COMPANY IN THE WORLD

has, perhaps, taxed the skill of the artist and the mechanic more than any other spectacle of which the stage can boast. Indeed, it is not flattery to say that the "Beautiful Gates Ajar," as depicted by this company is one of the most entrancing spectacles ever seen. The scene opens with a mass of clouds, through a rift of which, a passing group of angels bearing Uncle Tom to heaven. A large "gloria" of iridescent clouds disperses, revealing Uncle Tom with angel escorts before the golden gates, on either side of which poised upon magnificent pillars inland with pearl and gold, stand angel sentinels with expanded wings. Change follows change. Numerous angels appear from out the fleecy clouds which now surround the scene like a halo of glory. In the deep center a sudden movement of the clouds is seen, and like a morning star-like the central jewel in a crown of diadems, surrounded by whispering angels, little Eva, with beckoning hands, smiles down upon Uncle Tom, while the beautiful gates slowly open to the great city that lies beyond. It is a splendid sight to see. During the interval of this exquisite spectacle the inflow minors of an invisible choir fall faintly upon the ear, and the curtain descends upon a picture of the imagination that is so loath to call unreal.
