ORGANIZE

of Instruc-

and the causes out ntroversy arose. By st have in advance de by, you will enblish the relations pployers and the nthracite field in a int basis, and as far lo away with any ecurrence of such ose which you have settle. I submit e published stateerators, following ou as the members Mr. Wright being r; also the letter ; I appointed Mr. Neill as assistants (Signed) Theodore ructions were the operators. the commissoin dy. When they left they declined to ir interview. They office of Commisright, to organize their work. went into execu-. Wright's offices e Gray was chosen ecides Against

NOT GIVEN.

mpt on President eatly Exaggerated hing Refuses by est Indies to the -King Osear of has decided the in favor of Geratch from Wash-

known on the re-Minister of Swecom a long visit rip called at the but did not, of decision of his ust be formally busly to the three The controversy joint landing of trines at Apia in decree of the surt and end the ie arbitral decree yet divulged, and it covers the filed by the citiin, the United y and France or several days. were nominally arbitration, are ared with the honor, on which which, if the conted States and een sustained by ould have fallen ed Report.

Police Commise Elysee Palace ished in the Figthe alleged atas anarchist to to assassinate much exaggerthat a man of ite on Monday is the railing in gates of the try box. The away. The man and finally had evolver or poigthe affair says:

d at 7 o'clock nen in disregard ions to the man armes attached nim, but he reki kicking the ng for anarchy. laway by the e act of trying He was speedtaken to the gave the name nen asked what the Elyze he aiting for the plens to strike enemy of all s mind is evionly recently aving attemptat St. Lazar

DEATH.

Well at Noon, 2 p.m.

h: The town on learning of iss Mary Hamof Mr. W. A. aster. The dewas in good otion of a cold. ne went down purchases, Reed of feeling ed with a fib superinduced 2 o'clock she aid could be "The test of selfishness is not to forget ourselves - it is to remember others."

Nould it not be kind to tell your friends about Blue Ribbon Cerylon Tea?

LOVE'S EXILE.

经本本本本本本本本本本本本本本本 velope (preserved in a black satin case embroidered with pink silk) but in spite of all my efforts: flourished before my eyes the preclous letter itself, a mere scrap of honor, are you thinking about that a note, I could see that, and not | man still?"

deep impression on the girl's mind. "well, you will have to be content with your old master's affection for the present, Babiole," I said, when she had put her treasure carefully away.

"Oh, Mr. Maude!" She leant lovingly against my knee. 'And if the worst comes to the worst you will have to marry me." She laughed as if this were a joke in my best manner. "Didn't your mother say anything to you about that?" I asked, as if carrying on the jest. Babiole blushed. "Don't talk about it," she said humbly. "I lost my temper, and spoke disrespecfully to her for the first time. I told her she ought to be ashamed of herself after all you have done for

Evidently she thought the idea originated with her mother, and was pressed upon me against my inclination. Seeing that I should gain nothing by undeceiving her, I laughed the matter off, and we drifted into a talk about the garden, and the croup among Mr. Blair's bare-footed children at the Mill o'

Sterrin a mile away. According to all precedent among itude. love-lorn maidens, Babiole ought to have got over her love malady to the house to see that everything | England is a dishonored corpse, and as a child gets over the measles; was properly packed for me. As I left | the man who dares to call himself or else she ought to have dwindled the cottage with her I looked back, an artist and to talk about his art lato "the mere shadow of her for- and saw the little face, with its with agy more reverence than fined convolation in her beloved hills. ed against the window. of a marked change, which showed preserve the creature we love best in a mummy. itself chiefly in an inordinate thirst the world from dying before our for work of every kind. She began by a 'eyes? renewed and feverish devotion to her studies with me, and assiduous practice on my piano whenever I was out, to get the fullest possible benefit from her music lessons at Aberdeen. This, I thought, was only the outcome of her expressed desire to become an accomplished woman. But shortly afterwards she relieved her mother of the whole care of the given up, with the exception of a to him. short duty-trot each day to Knock | "What would you have sald," he plunging one hand into a suggestive answered restlessly "Oh, I hate walking, it is more tiring than all the work-much more tiring! And one gets quite as much air in the garden as on Craigendarroch without catching cold." She was always perfectly sweet and good with me, but she confessed to me sometimes, with tears in her eyes, that she was growing impatient and trritable with her mother. I had been familiar with the virtues waited as eagerly as the girl her- Dr. Williams' Pink Pilis through the

Scott, but when the hope of receiv- in these columns each week. Many ing one had died away. I did not dare of our readers are also able to vouch say anything about the sore sub- for cures which have come under broke down. It was only a cold, she from one of its readers, Mr. B. Waland even forced her to lay aside all at Bru, in which he gives his own her incessant occupations. But she experience in the hope that it may had worked so much too hard lately benefit some other sufferer. Mr. throw it off quickly, and day after I was suffering so greatly from day, when I went to see her, I found rheumatism in my limbs that I was my dear witch lying back in the high for a long time unable to do any wooden rocking chair in the sitting- work. I tried in many ways to obroom, with a very transparent look- tain a cure, both by patent mediing skin, a poor little pink tipped cines and medicine prescribed by docnose, and large luminous, sad eyes tors, but without obtaining any that had no business at all in such benefit. I saw Dr. Williams' Pink a young face.

her, Mrs. Ellmer having fussed off to determined to give it a trial. I a very sentimental mood indeed, hav- half of them were used I felt a great ing missed my little sunbeam fright- change for the better. This improvefully. Babiole had pushed her rocking ment continued from day to day, and everlasting binghes She was no help chair quickly away from the table, before I had used all the pills I was everlasting biushes. She was no heirwhich was covered with a map and completely cured. Since that time I ess then, certainly." heap of old play bills. By the map have never had an attack of this A bitter little thought of the manlay a pencil, which the girl had laid trouble. After this I used the pills down on my entrance.

tions about her health.

to her face as she answered: ing at those old play-bills with her vame in them."

The occupation seemed to me disselzed upon her like a disease.

As a mark of deep I remained silent for a few minutes, struggling with hard facts, my hands clasped together, my arms resting on my knees. Then I said without moving, in a voice that was husky Sarah Bernhardt, and a much-ad-

"Babiole, tell me, on your word of quick sobs. Then she moved, and her the feminine influence in Fabian I was seized with a great through fingers held out something right Scott's life was strong enough alimpatience, and clave the top coal under my averted eyes. It was the ready, and I felt that any idea of of the small fire viciously. She must one note she had received from Fab- an appeal to a bachelor's sense of get over this. I turned the subject | ian Scott, worn into four little pieces. | loneliness | must straightway be for fear I should wound her feelings "Look here, dear," I said, having given up. There was another point, by some outpurst of anger against signified by a bend of the head that however, on which I felt more san-Mr. Scott, who must indeed have I understood, "do you think a man worked sedulously to leave such a like that would be likely to make a his tastes were evidently expensive, good husband?"

"Oh no," readily and sadly. same?" "Oh, Mr. Maude!" in a low trembling voice, as if Paradise had been

I got up. "Well, well," I said, trying to speak in a jesting tone, "I suppose these things will be explained in a bet-

Mrs. Ellmer came in at that moment, and the leave-taking for the day was easier. "Won't you stay and lunch with us, Mr. Maude? I've just been presaid with disappointment. "Thank you, no, I can't stay this morning. The fact is, I have to start for London this afternoon, and] haven't a minute to lose."

Bablole started, and her eyes, as I turned to her to shake hands, shone and pressing it feverishly. And she looked into my face, witha subdued hope and a boundless grat-

mer self" and to have found a re- weird expression of eagerness, press- grocer feels for his sanded sugar, or But instead of following either of | It was an awful thing I was going | is treated with the derision one these courses, the little maid began to do, certainly. But what sacrifice | would show to a modern Englishman to evince more and more the signs would not the worst of us make to who should fall down and worship

HAPTER XVII.

I arrived at King's Cross at 8.15 on the following morning, and after breakfast at the Midland Hotel, went straight to Fabian Scott's chambers, in a street off the Haymarket. It was then a little after Fabian, who was at breakfast, reof time in helping Janet. Walks were grieved that I had not come direct dainfully; "but even that may be

Castle or the Mill of Sterrin and back asekd, "if I had gone to have break heap of letters and papers on a side Has Ways of Caring for Baby that Our again. When I remonstrated, telling fast at the Invercauld Arms in Bal- table as he passed it. her she would lose her health, she later, instead of coming on to you? "That's not quite the same thing,

HOW RELIEF CAME.

An Interesting Story From an Icelandic Settlement.

(From the Logberg, Winnip g. Man.) The readers of Logberg have long stagy actor on the stage, and the self for another letter from Fabian well authenticated cures published their own observation. This week of life on the dark ages." About the middle of December she "Logberg" has received a letter Pills advertised in the Logberg as in several other cases and no other "What were you doing when I medicine has been so beneficial to came in?" I asked, after a few ques- me. I feel it my duty to publicly hundred a year during my life, and stooping over embroidery, staying ingive testimony to the merits of this of course afterwards --The color came back for a moment | wonderful medicine so others similarly afflicted may be led to try it." If you are weak or ailing; if your wise to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, confess the feverish longing for by writing direct to the Dr. Wil- caimiy than was meet. It is a curit free step from the hip. Most of be taken for granted if the parties confess the feverish longing for liams Medicine Company, Brockville, ous experience to have to be thank- those we see either tramp along are mutually known by sight?

my impetuous young friend. You didn't expect me, for one thing, and Loudon is a place where one must be a little more careful of one's pehavior than in the wilds.

"No, that is true, I did not expect you; though when I heard your name I was so pleased I thought I must have been fiving on the expectation nity on the shoulders of a little wild for the last month."

ing to the simple old saying." 1 was looking about me, examining my friend's surroundings, feeling discouraged by the portraits of beautiful women, photographs on the mantelpiece, paintings on the walls, the invitation cards stuck in the lookingglass, the crested envelopes, freshlytorn, on the table; the room, which seemed effeminately luxurious, after my sombre, threadbare old study, gave no evidence of bachelor desolation. It was just untidy enough hat and a soiled glove lay on the off. chair a, new French picture, which a wife would have tabooed, was propped up against the back of another, and on the mantelpiece was a royal disorder, in which a couple of pink clay statuettes of pierrettes, by Van der Straeten, showed their piquant, high-hatted, little heads, and their beirille i, high-lifted, little skirts above letters, ash trays, cigarette allowance. I would alter my will cases, "parts,' in MS., sketches, a white tie, a woman's long glove, the 'proof' of an article on "The Cathedrals of Spain," and a heap of other things. In the centre stood a handsome Chippendale clock, surmounted by signed photographs of mired Countess. Fresh hot house flowers filled two delicate Venetian of nothing but your money. glass vases on the table, longthe ten-pager of your disconsolate I could hear her breath coming in windows. I began to suspect that > and he had had no engagement since the summer. Having made up my mind "But you would be his wife all the that to marry my little Babiole to this man was the only thing that would restore her to health and hope (about happiness I could but be ingly into the coffers of the bank, it suddenly thrown open to mortal doubtful), I could not afford to shrink will seem difficult to believe that from the means. to Fabian, who never wanted much two years ago, at the end of ten encouragement to talk. He treated me to a long monologue on the low ebb to which art of all kinds had guine. Fabian had no private means, kins" on the walls of picture galleries. paring something nice for you," she "I thought burlesque had gone out," I suggested. He turned upon me fiercely, having finished his breakfast, and being oc- in its place.

cupied in striding up and down the

"Not at all," he said, emphatically. "What is farcical comedy but burlesque of the most vicious kind? Bur-"Good-bye, Mr. Maude," she fal- lesque of domestic life, throwing riditered, taking my hand in both hers, cule on virtuous wives and jealous husbands, making heroes and heroines of men and women of loose morout any inquiry in her gaze, but with als? What is melodrama but burlesque of incidents and of passions, fatiguing to the eye and stupefying Mrs. Elimer insisted on coming over to the intellect? I repeat, art in a violin seller for his sham Cremonas

> All which, being interpreted, meant that Mr. Fabian Scott saw no immediate prospect of an engagement good enough for his deserts. "Well, even if art is in a bad way artists still seem to rub on very comfortably, I said, glancing round the Fabian swept the room with a contemptuous glance from right to left, as if it had been an ill-kept stable. "One finds a corner to lay one's cottage, filling up her rare intervals ceived me very heartily and was head in, of course," he admitted, dis-

gone to morrow, he added, darkly, "Bills?" I asked, cheerfully

He gave me a tragic nod and strode "You should marry," I ventured, boldly, "some girl with seven or eight love of art on her own account to support yours."

every instinct. Her name is Babiole good as Baby's Own Tablets." Ellmer,' I went on composedly.

Fabian started. young face.

On the fifth day I was alone with being a cure for this thoule, and interest at once apparent in his manno opiate. If your druggist does not wedding. An informal note will sufhe knows them or not. As for taking ner; "but, he hesitated and flushed keep Baby's Own Tablets send 25c to fice for the invitation, if the en- off his hat when greeting an acthe kitchen about dinner. I was in bought a dozen boxes and before slightly, "I don't understand. The little girl-dear little thing she was, Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N. I remember her quite well, with her Y., and a full sized box will be mail-> ner in which he would have treated her in that case crossed my mind.

I nodded; he nodded. It was all understood. Fablan had grown suddealy quiet and thoughtful, and I gether, mamma's and mine; and look- nerves are tired or jaded, or your knew that Bablole had gained her blood is out of condition, you will be precious admirer's heart. He liked her, that was my comfort, my exwhich are an unfailing cure for all cuse. His face had lighted up at the blood and nerve troubles. But be remembrance of her; and as she "You were wishing you were trav- sure you get the genuine, with the would bring with her an income large elling again, I suppose," said I, in a full name, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills enough to prevent his being even tone which fear caused to sound for Pale People," on the wrapper burdened with her maintenance, I feminine progenitors? It is quite When a lady receives an introducaround every box. Sold by all medi- felt that I was heaping upon his rare to see a girl with chest well tion to another and subsequently "Oh, no, at least not exactly," cine dealers, or sent post paid at head too much joy for a mortal to forward, shoulders flat, head erect knows the husband of the second Oh, no, at least not exactly, come dealers, or six boxes for $2.50 deserve, and that he accepted it more but chin well in, walking with a light, lady by sight may an introduction most with indifference, a prize for presented and the contract of the contract which one would gladly have given twenty years of life.

"She is a most beautiful and charming girl," he said, after a pause, in a new tone of respect. Eight hundred a year and "expectations" put such a splendid mantle of digdamsel in a serge frock. "Do you "Out of signt, out of mind, accord- know, I thought, Harry, you would end by marrying her yourself!" I only laughed and said, oh no, was a confirmed bachelor. But it was in my mind to tell him how much obliged I felt for his contribution toward my domestic felicity. I presently said that I had some business to transact, that I had to pay a visit to my lawyer. This yourg man's complacent beatitude since he had discovered a not unpleasant way out of his difficulties was beginning to jar upon me furto prove that "when a man's single | iously. So we made an appointment he lives at his ease," for an opera for the evening and I took myself

When I made my excuse to Fabian I really had some idea in my in the United States have demonmind of calling upon a solicitor and having a deed drawn up, settling £800 a year on Babiole. But I reflected, as soon as I was alone, that I should make a better guardian than the law, and that I should do as well to keep control over her on her wedding day, just as I must have done if it had been my own. A trace of cowardice strengthened this resolution, for I look upon a visit to a lawyer much as I do upon a visit to a dentist, with this difference, that the latter really does sometimes relieve you of your

(To be Continued.)

OF GAMBLING. §

To those who imagine that a Monte Carlo the gambling always goes systematically against the players, and that their gold flows unceas sometimes the bank's accounts show I had been listening with one ear a deficit for months together. Only months of the financial year, the bank's books showed a loss of over $1,000,000, an average deficit of $100,000 a month, which fortunate sunk in England, to the prevailing gamblers had put into their pockets. taste for burlesque in literature, on This, of course, was exceptional, and the stage, and for "Little Toddlethis spell of bad luck was followed by two succeeding months of the year changing hands at Monte Carlo at ties, too, believe that the Bordeaux ed three times as much as 52 bushthis appalling rate for every tick of mixture itself exerts a favorable in- els more per acre of merchantable the clock night and day. This only fluence upon potato foliage not due happens during the height of the season, when the tables are crowded by These reasons combine in favor of bushels more to the acre than in the rich and fashionaile gambiers, whose using it on potatoes; and in the ex- unsprayed. play is as reckless as it is unscientific. This is the bank's harvest time, and during the remainder of the year, when the system player has his innings, the flow of gold into the bank's exchequer is comparatively trivial and often ceases altogether. Of the bank's profits roughly 40 per cent. goes to the maintenance of the Casino and of the Prince and Principality of Monaco. The Prince takes $250,000 a year for himself and $100,-000 for his army, police, law courts and expenses of government; $45,000 goes in grants to tishop, clergy, conities, and $55,000 in prizes for carnivals, regattas, pigeon shooting, etc. The salaries of the directors, inspectors, croupiers and staff of the Casino absorb $400,000 a year; terraces and gardens, $45,000; subvento private agents and pensioners, $50,000. But after these and other deductions there is a comfortable balance of over $2,500,000 a year

available for dividends. THE MODERY MOTHER

hundred a year, for instance, with a in the house blessed by baby's pres- cort the guests to the bride and of ascertaining her address. Fabian stopped in front of me with clock announces the proper time. The quite correct for you to kiss her. It his arms folded. He was the most un- doctor approves of this and baby is is not necessary to shake hands ex- act as best man at a wedding? stagiest off, I ever met. He gave a hours for feeding, nearly all the dis- goodby at a reception, and it would nounced at a reception, is it proper short laugh, tossing back his head. orders of infants are caused by de- be out of place to do so at a dinner. for the man to wear a Prince Albert "A girl with seven hundred a year | rangements of the stomach and bowmarry me, and an artist! My dear cls. Mothers' greatest problem is a fellow, you have been in Sleepy Hol- treatment for these ills that will be farewell party be given by the young low too long. You form your opinions gentle but effective, and, above all, lady to her girl friends? It will be man at a wedding. A Prince Albert "No, I don't," I said, very quietly. Lake, Ont., writes from the fullness served? Should a bride take a trunk afternoon reception. "I know a girl with eight hundred a of experience when she says: "I have on a ten days' honeymoon? After said, that kept her in the cottage terson, a prosperous farmer living year, who likes you well enough to used Baby's Own Tablets for my six giving the farewell dinner, should anmarry you if you were to ask her." months' old baby who was troubled "These rapid modern railway jour- with indigestion. The results were how soon after the wed lag? In what hat? If a gentleman meets a party neys-a heavy breakfast-with per- beyond my expectations. Words can- form should the invitation be. and of ladies in the street or in an elethat she was not strong enough to Walterson says: "Some years ago haps a glass of cognac on an empty not convey to those who have not how worded? stomach"-murmured Fabian, softly, tried them the worth of these Tabgazing at me with kindly compassion. lets. I will never again use any | wedding is a good time to choose "She is seventeen, the daughter of other preparation for the baby, as Is for a farewell entertainment. Sandan artist, an artist herself by am convinced there is nothing so

These Tablets are a gentle laxative and comforting medicine for infants trunk should be taken for a ten "Babiole Ellmer! Pretty little Ba and children. They are pleasant to days' trip. Announcement cards blole!" he cried, with affectionate take and are guaranteed to contain should be sent out the day after the the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., tertainment is to be merely for a girls walk better than they do? They "I've adopted her. I allow her eight have left off all the old vices of excessive sewing. They play outdoor games and inhale at least a hundred per cent. more fresh air than did their mothers and grandmothers when they were girls. So why do they not walk better? Is it for lack of drill? Or do you set it down to the old account-viz., generations of tight-laced, tight-shoed in any conversation that may ensue?

How Girls Walk. And tell me, Amy. Why do not

vented, they would use Bordeaux mix- poticeable. ture more freely than they do. It is quite true that the late tlight is not an annual visitor, nevertheless no one can prophesy when it will put in an unwelcome appearance. After it makes its presence visible by the it is too late to save the crop, for good to apply them after the disease done before it can be known whether or not an outbreak will occur. Thus it is that if the blight does not appears to have been thrown away. strated that

Spraying is Profitable not. The early blight is almost cer- | water, and the mixture is ready for tain to appear, unless prevented, use. and its damage, not so noticeable in any one season, as that of the marked by concentric rings, and cans supplied with fine noses. which sometimes affect so much of the leaf surface that the nutrition of the plant is seriously checked. For this disease, as for the late blight, Bordeaux mixture is an al- | tical remedy for the Colorado pomost perfect preventive. Its pro- tato beetle, can be applied at the tective power would probably be same time. To do this Dr. James complete could each leaf be entire- Fletcher, the Dominion Entomololy coated with a thin layer of the gist, advises mixing from a quarter deposited lime and copper sulphate, to half a pound of Paris green with because the spores of the disease which renders the poison of exactcould then not find any vulner- ly the same strength as when used able point. The nearer this com- with plain waters. plete coating is obtained the more perfect will be the protection, and it can only be secured by spraying carefully with a fine nozzle. The Mixture Used.

While Bordeaux mixture is not poisonous to insects it is very distasteful to them, and Paris Green combined with it can be more evenly distributed by the sprayer than in there, the object being to keep the any other way. The lime in the Bordeaux mixture will cause the prison to adhere to the leaves so that its protective influence is thus strengthened and the period of its Quebec generally appears at the end efficacy prolonged. Flea beetles as well as the ordinary potato beetles can then scarcely attack the leaves parts of Canada seldom shows itself such a tide of prosperity that in the without being poisoned; and app'ied with the Bordeaux mixture the deficit was completely wiped out | Paris Green will not burn the foliage and a profit of $5,000,000 was made as it sometimes does when applied as a dry powder, or when gimply But, of course, money is not always | mixed with water. Many authorito its effect upon diseases or insects. and in those sprayed five times, 62 periments made, the application of Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

If potato growers could only be led | Bordeaux mixture and Paris Green to realize that late potato blight or | were profitable, even in a season rot cannot be cured, but can be pre- when fungous diseases were scarcely

How to Compound it. The Bordeaux mixture for use in potatoes should be made as follows: Take six pounds of copper suiphate (blue vitriol) and tie it up in a piece leaves turning brown and drying up of thin cloth-an ordinar, sait bag will answer well-then suspend it fungicides are only preventives, and from a stick iaid across the top of not remedies. It does little if any a coal on or other barrel half filled with clean water, so that the bag appears, and the spraying must be may be just beneath the surface of the water, when the copper suiphate will dissolve in an hour or two. In another vessel slake four pounds of pear the money spent in spraying ap- fresh lime in sufficient water to make a thin whitewash. Strain this Experiments not only in Canada but | through a fine sieve or sack to remove all lumps. When the copper sulphate has all dissolved, pour the lime wash into a barrel slowly, stirring the mixture all the time. Now whether the late blight prevail or fill up the barrel to the top with

To apply this mixture to the foliage the best and cheapest way is late blight, yet fully as great in to use a proper spraying pump and the aggregate, may be almost nozzle; but if these be not on hand wholly avoided by spraying. This good results which will well repay disease causes the brown dead the trouble may be obtained by apspots on the leaves, which are plying the mixture with watering

Use Paris Green With it.

A great advantage of this mixture is that Paris Green, the only prac-

These mixtures must be kept constantly stirred while being used, as both the lime in the Bordeaux mixture and the Paris green quickly sink to the bottom of any mixture if left undisturbed. The Bordeaux mixture is a preventive remedy, and the time to apply it in any locality is just before the blights treated of usually appear plants during the whole of the time they are liable to injury, covered with the fungicidal preparation. The early blight in Ontario and of June or the beginning of July. The late blight or potato rot in most until August. Spraying should, therefore, be begun early in July, and be repeated every two weeks at least until the second week in September. Three applications of Bordeaux mixture and Paris green may suffice. experiments showing in plots spraypotatoes than in the unsprayed plots:

An industry and the second sec

QUESTIONS OF ETIQUETTE.

and the second s Will you please help me with regard | A first call must be returned withto a house wedding? My husband and in a week's time. There is no rule I are invited to attend the wedding as to how often calls should be paid vents and schools; $30,000 to char- of a friend; it is to be at the house, in return for calls paid or after and there is a reception and wedding | the receipt of an invitation is sufbreakfast after? Must I leave cards | ficient. It is more courteous to inwith the butler, and how many? The clude the gentleman in the converlady has both mother and father, and sation. An introduction to the husshe is quite a friend of mine. Do the band may be taken for granted, so ushers, if there are any, lead one up far as general conversation is contions to the press, $120,000; theatre to the bride? Would it be bad form cerned, or a bow may be given in and orchestra; $250,000, and grants to kiss her among a number of passing. guests? In leaving the house is it necessary to shake hands while say- Is it proper for a young girl who ing goodby, supposing there are many has met a young man during the mutual friends, or can I just bow to summer to ask him to call, or is it them and just shake hands with the his place to ask first? If a young hostess? The same at a dinner party man asks a young girl for her card, of about ten people; surely it is not | does that always indicate his intennecessary to shake hands with every- tion of calling?

a tray or plate for cards in the hall. although it is correct for the young the nursery have been cast aside by Two of your own and two of your man to ask permission to call. His the up-to-date mother. Even the once husband's cards are sufficient to asking for the young lady's card essential cradle is now seldom found leave. The ushers are expected to es- would certainly be for the purpose ence. The modern baby is not fed | bridegroom at the reception. If the every time he cries, but when the | bride is an intimate friend it will be better for it, but despite regular cepting with the hostess when saying

How long before a wedding should a safe. Mrs. J. W. Bailey, of Head very informal. Also, what should be suit is the correct attire for an nouncement cards be sent out, and Anabel.

> A fortnight or a week before a wiches, bouillon, salads, ice cream ladies go away or until some one of and cake, with punch and lemonade, the party asks him to put his hat on are sufficient to serve. Certainly a again? few intimate friends: "My dear Louise: Will you kindly give me the to do. There is an exaggerated form pleasure of your company Thursday of politeness in his standing with his evening for a farewell entertain- hat off for any length of time in the ment I am giving to a few of my street. It is an easy matter for girl friends, before my wedding next him to say: "I beg your pardon; week? Hoping you have no engage- may I put on my hat?" if the lady ment for that evening, and that I has not tact enough to ask him to so may count upon your being present, of her own accord. affectionately, Anabel," is quite formal enough for such a note.

What is the proper interval between a first call and its return? How frequently should calls be

When a lady meets another accompanied by a gentleman unknown to her does she recognize him at all

Young Wife. | The young lady should ask the Grandmothers Never Knew.

Cards should be left at the reception young man to call upon her if she tion, where there will undoubtedly be wishes to continue the account of the cards should be left at the reception of the cards should be left at the reception.

Is it proper for a married man to When an engagement is publicly ansuit? Your answers will be greatly appreciated. A married man may act as best

Will you kindly inform me as to the etiquette as to a man removing his vator of a hotel, and he already knows the ladies and they bow to him and he takes off his hat, how. long should he keep it off, until the

It is always more polite for a gentleman to remove his hat when he meets ladies in an elevator, whether quaintance in the street, it is certainly the only thing possible for him

Mr. Goodman-I understand you were at that prize fight last night. I'm surprised to hear of you attending such a disgraceful affair. Sportiboy-It was disgraceful, sure enough. Why, neither of those big dubs could .it hard enough to dent butter.

"I have one fad of the elite set," remarked the scraggy goat, as he removed the root beer advertisement from the wall.

"What is that?" asked the tramp Enquirer, I "Poster collecting."