THE COUNTY COUNCIL.

The little parliament known as the County Council assembled here yesterday, the first session being held at the Court House last evening, commencing at 7 o'clock. The business in hand, however, now done and his fall plowing, &c.

We are wondering what because of the speakers who were to be at Zion on the night of the referendum meeting. Did they melt, get stuck, drunk, lost, part the place, or did they forget the night, as only one put in an appearance.

Edge Hill.

Sorry to hear of Will McCracken being very ill, but under the skillful treatment of Dr. McDonald we hope soon to hear of his speedy recovery.

Mr William M. rison erected a fine monument at his father's grave in St. John's cemetery last Friday.

Mrs D. McPayden and son William attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Alexander McGillivray, of Bruce County.

The Edge Hill Union Sunday school held their annual social last Friday, and was a grand success.

Mr and Mrs A. Henry and Mrs. D. McQuarrie, of Mr. Forst, visited at Mr D. McFadden's one day recently.

Pleased to hear of Miss E Edge able to be around again.

Miss Allie Davis of Zion, was the guest of her sister Mrs J. Firth to a few days lately.

Miss Harbottle, of town, was the guest of Miss Allie Collier over Sunday.

The Referendum meeting held in the Grange Hall last Monday by Rev's Smith and Farquharson was fairly well attended. They are to have their next meeting Friday Nov. 21st, in the School House, No. 9, Glenelg to appoint officers.

Maple Park.

Turnip harvesting is the order of the day now. A few of the farmers have to make some rather long pits on account of the abundant crops.

We have about two weeks threshing in this vicinity yet as farmers find it hard to get threshing outfit when wanted this year. Thresher, Matt Hooper and staff were in our midst last week. They can knock them all out for cleaning the grain.

Mr and Mrs Runciman, of Boothville, visited at the latter's parental home Sunday.

Mr Chas Ferguson accompanied by his brother Arch paid a business trip to Flesherton last Wednesday for the purpose of buying a farm.

Mr Robert Fisher, of Top Cliff, was a visitor in the Park Sunday.

Mr A McMillan visited in the Park one evening lately. A says he don't believe in a cold stove.

Mr and Mrs Sam McDermid were the guests of Mrs Donald Ferguson lately.

A few of the youth and beauty from around here attended a party given by Colin McLean, of Priceville. They report a good time.

Messrs. Neil McKenzie and Willie Wilson, of Swinton Park, visited in the Park one evening lately.

Mr Lewes Frook was the guest of Mr A Ferguson Sunday last. Glad to see L.

A Grey County Pioneer.

The Paisley Advocate of recent date has the following notice of the death of a relative of the McCormick's and McCallum's of Bentinck:

We are again called upon to chronicle the death of a Bruce Township pioneer.

Mrs. Alex. McGillivray of Loyat, passed away on Tuesday, at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Dougald McArthur, 12th con. Deceased had been afflicted with a cancer in her neck for ten years past, and during the last two years was indeed a great sufferer from the pains of this consuming, unrelenting enemy to human flesh.

Mrs. McGillivray was a native of the Island of Mull, Scotland, her maiden name being McPhail. Her father's family came across the sea in 1817 to seek a home in the new world opening up here.

They settled in Glenelg Tp., Grey Co. In 1850 the subject of this sketch was married to Mr. McGillivray and in 1855 came with her husband to their bush farm, lot 34, con. B, Bruce, near Loyat.

They were among the first to settle in the forest on that line, and the industry of their lives was rewarded with a material prosperity that kept pace with growth of the family circle.

Both husband and wife, survived all the vicissitudes of early bush life, bore the trials bravely together, and shared the joys. The constancy with which they adhered to that faith which holds an unmistakable belief in a living God and an over-ruling Providence sustained them in many trying hours of the fifty-two years that have elapsed since they were united in youth.

The end of the physical life was to Mrs. McGillivray a relief from great bodily suffering, yet to her aged and loving life partner the bereavement is heavy and sore, and calls forth the most heartfelt sympathy.

Five sons and two daughters survive her, viz: Colin and Alexander, both living on 12th. Bruce; John, in Yukon; Arch, at Port Arthur; Duncan, on the homestead; Mrs. Dougald McArthur, 12th Bruce; and Mrs. Silver, who has been waiting upon her mother for some time. Mrs. McGillivray was 81 years of age. The funeral took place on Wednesday to Loyat cemetery, Rev. J. Johnston, Knox church, officiating.

HOPEVILLE

Mr Scarlett, Miss Dezell and others visited Toronto recently.

Mrs Sperks, late of Toronto, visited her mother Mrs. Scarlett before she went west.

I. W. McArdle, Bar-at-Law, Markdale, spent a Sunday with his parents here.

Mr. Kenning, late preacher in the evangelist church here, has got a situation in New York, and a stranger has taken his place.

Mr. John Douglas, an employee of the hotel, has moved to Dundalk.

Mrs. Taylor, Dromore, visited friends here, Saturday.

Rev. Mr Broad, Presbyterian minister, held a prayer meeting last Wednesday evening in the house of Mr. J. McArdle.

Still on the sick list, but improving: Mr John Campbell, Mr. Rich. Parslow, Mrs W. W. Hall, Jr.

Mr Geo. Smith has spent the last few days around the old home. He is the same old George as ever and has many friends at Zion, he leaves some of these days for new Ontario, where he intends to take up land.

Mr Samuel Jacques, lately from England, but well known in these parts, is renewing old time acquaintances these days. He is at present helping Mr Taylor, who is very busy these days with his prices are firm at $40 to $60.

Sheep and Lambs—There was an active market for sheep, particularly for ewes, on account of the scarcity of ocean space. Prices were steady. Lambs were offered very freely and there was a good market at the opening. Prices sagged during the morning, however, and the close was 10c lower at $3.50 to $3.75 per ewe.

Calves—Market is steady, but offerings of good veals are light. Prices are unchanged at $3 to $10 each.

Hogs—Heavy run and prices unchanged at $6 per cwt for selects and $5.75 for lights and fats.
