TOWN TOPICS

FARMS FOR SALE.—300 acres of good farm land for Sale. Apply at once to HUGH MACKAY, Auctioneer, Durham. (3)

McCabe, Upper Town, announces in his ad. this week some snaps in serviceable goods at a moving sale. Page 4.

COUNTY COUNCIL.—A special meeting is to be held at Markdale on Dec. 10th. to receive and deal with tenders for House of Refuge and kindred matters.

"EAST AND WEST."—This is the title of a new Presbyterian weekly S. S. Paper which certainly gives promise of a bright and useful career, judging by the selections, illustrations, and general appearance of the first copy sent to us.

MARL ARRIVING.—Several cars of marl have arrived this week at the cement works and after a few minor mishaps the dumping into the hopper etc., is being successfully done. Chief engineer Bogardis is here this week to see that every part is in good working order.

A LUCKY EDITOR.—The site for the House of Refuge, near Markdale, is located on a farm once owned by Bro. Rutledge of the "Standard." This choice calls forth his gratitude thusly: "The editor of this paper is delighted that the House of Refuge has been located on his old farm in the suburbs in view of spending the evening of life on the familiar premises."

Full line of Men's, Women's, and Children's Rubbers—first quality—at James Ireland.

The young men's service in the Methodist church on Sunday evening was of more than ordinary interest. It was a pleasing sight to see thirty five young men and hear them in chorus singing some of the old songs of our church. An Octette was rendered in good voice with the parts well balanced. The Quartette "Why stand ye here idle" was especially pleasingly rendered. All enjoyed the service and many have requested a repetition of the same kind of service.

ANOTHER PIONEER GONE.—Saturday last Mr. Abraham Cook, widely known in the Twp. of Glenelg died at his son's residence very suddenly. We have not the particulars, but we hear he had some premonitions of his demise and told his friends before. He was in town about a month ago in spite of his 82 years. He leaves four sons as chief mourners: Jacob in Chicago; Robert, Ceylon; Wm. at home and Thos. near by. Rev. Mr. Smith, his pastor conducted the mortuary services on Monday last.

CEMENT IN MANITOBA.—The Winnipeg Telegram of Nov. 17, has a lengthy article on the establishment of the great cement industry of which Mr. J. S. A. Hunter is Secy. and Gen. Man. The paper gives details of how the property was secured. Mr. Hunter got options and charter rights and turned them over to a company consisting of Henry Cargill, M. P., Cargill, Ont.; J. S. Hobbs, Ex-M. P., London; Wm. Blackwood, manufacturer; Wm. Whyte, assisted to the President, C. P. R.; G. M. Bosworth, Montreal, 4th Vice Pres., C. P. R.; Sampson Walker, manufacturer, (who has the credit of being the discoverer of the cement deposits); T. C. Irving, Toronto; Mr. Justice Chancellor, Chicago, and Mr. James A. Hunter, Durham, who is also now affiliated with the Hunter Land Company of Minneapolis. We wish our old townsman success in his new sphere.

A CLOSE CALL.—Saturday morning about 9 o'clock the cosy residence of conductor E. Milligan on Bedford street north, had a very narrow escape from destruction by fire. It appears that about the hour mentioned, two small children belonging to the household were playing with fire crackers in an up stair room. They amused themselves by lighting the crackers and throwing them out of the window where the explosion took place. In doing this, the curtains in some way took fire and in an instant the interior of the room was completely enveloped in flames. When Mrs. Milligan reached the room the fire had spread to the bed, and it looked for a time as though the building was doomed. She at once gave the alarm and by the assistance of Mr. McLean of the Bank of Commerce who was near by, the fire was extinguished by the application of wet blankets and water. Their coolness and presence of mind saved the property.—Warton Echo.

VOCAL AND INSTRUMENTAL.—Mrs. Newton is now prepared to take a limited number of advanced pupils for Piano, Theory, Harmony and History. In vocal music a full graduate course taught. It will be to the advantage of those wishing to study vocal, to take not less than two terms as the first must necessarily be foundation work, preparatory.

GLASSFORD IN DURHAM.

Thursday, Nov. 27th. at 8 p. m.

TO-NIGHT, 27th inst. in the Town Hall, Rev. J. M. Glassford will address a public meeting in the Town Hall on the "Liquor Act of 1902". The Rev. gentleman is well known here, and his eloquence and ability will draw a crowded house. Every voter in town should crowd into the Hall to hear him on the great issue. November 27th. Voluntary collection at the door.

James Ireland sells Moonsoon Tea. LIQUOR CASES. — Inspector Harris was prosecuting some of the Aytton hotelkeepers on Tuesday for selling liquor to minors.

Dr. Geo. S. Burt, specialist in Eye, Ear, Throat and Nose Cases, will be at the Middaugh House, Durham, for consultation, on Wednesday, Dec. 3, Hours 2—6 p. m.

A NEW RAILWAY.—Of immense national importance is the announcement that the Grand Trunk will push a new transcontinental line across Canada to the Pacific. If now Minister Blair will extend the Intercolonial in the same direction, the question of transportation for the immense products if the west will be solved.

OUR ELECTRIC ROAD.—As will be seen by a clipping from the Walkerton Telescope, interest in the Huron and Ontario electric line through Durham seems to be reviving. A number of Durham shareholders will have no objection, if no revival is made of Pew rents or requests. We still think road would be a boon to the district, and a profit to the builders.

FRUIT GROWERS.—The Annual meeting of the Fruit Growers' Association of Ontario will be held in Walkerton on Dec. 1st, 2nd & 3rd. C. C. James, Dep. Min. Agriculture; Dr. Fletcher Dominion Botanist of Ottawa, Pettit of Grimsby; Dempsey of Trenton; Webster, of Hamilton and several other noted names will address the Convention. As it is so near many will find it profitable to attend.

REFERENDUM MEETINGS.—On Tuesday next a meeting will be held at Hampden in the Prohibition interests. Mr. H. H. Miller and some Durham speakers will be present. During the past week meetings have been held at Dornoch, Rocky Saugeen, Mulock, Knox Church, Normanby, Glenelg Centre Baptist church and other places. The local clergy are doing good service and their efforts are being supplemented by a number of other speakers. Don't forget the Glassford meeting in the Town Hall, Thursday night.

It will pay you to examine James Ireland's stock of worsteds and tweeds for men's suits.

The anniversary services of the Methodist Church will be held on Sunday when sermons will be preached morning and evening by the Rev. J. S. I. Wilson, of Flesherton, in the evening he will speak on good citizenship, in relation to the present temperance campaign. The three Joy sisters, of Flesherton, are to assist in the services of song both morning and evening, this is the first time these talented vocalists have visited Durham and a treat is in store for those who attend the services. A voluntary offering will be taken morning and evening on behalf of the funds of the church.

LEFT FOR HARRISTON.—It is with sincere regret the town has learned that Mr. R. J. S. Dewar, who for three years past has been cashier in the bank here, has been promoted to a new position in the bank at Harriston. Regret of course at losing him, not at his promotion. As usual but a day's notice was given, but hurried as it was steps were taken by his friends to give him a send-off in the Hall, and the Sons of Scotland on the same evening, (Friday 14th) presented him with an address and a handsome shaving outfit as a reminder of pleasant associations. Mr. Dewar, during his stay here, won many friends, and proved himself a public spirited young man. All will rejoice at his success. [By some inadvertence this notice was omitted last week.]

SUDDEN DEATH.—On Wednesday last Mrs. H. FARR, one of the oldest residents of Glenelg passed away at her home very suddenly. She had complained to her son Mr. C. L. Grant, who was visiting her, of a smothering sensation, but the day being close no fatal result was feared. Mr. Grant saw her comfortable before leaving but in 20 minutes after he left she was gone. She had attained the ripe age of 82 yrs. and has lived in Glenelg since the 50's of last century. She leaves as chief mourners besides her aged husband; Mr. Grant and Mrs. Robson, children of her first marriage, and Rev. Thos. Farr, of Wallaceburg, and Miss Maggie Farr at home. Rev. Mr. Ryan, conducted the mortuary services at house and grave.

FACTS ABOUT THE REFERENDUM.

We have had several requests to publish the Act on which the vote takes place next Thursday. This would be impossible but we give a few statements of its main features:

The Act was passed at the last session of the Local House and only needs the support of the people on Dec. 4, to become full law, to come into force May 1904, whether Koss or Whitney be in power.

It is modelled after the Manitoba Act which was declared by the Imperial Privy Council to be within the powers of the province. Hence the jurisdiction is clear.

It prohibits only the selling of liquor as a beverage, the Province having no power to prohibit the manufacture or importation. Its effect will be to break up the bar room features of hotels and saloons.

Licenses will be granted to wholesale druggists who may sell (1) for mechanical or scientific purposes (2) to a physician, (3) to a retail druggist but only in certain limited quantities and record kept of every sale open to inspection by any person, and affidavit must be made to Inspector that no other sales were made than those recorded.

Licenses to retail druggists have similar restrictions. They may supply only (1) prescriptions of physicians, (2) to dentists, (3) to clergymen for sacramental purposes, (4) veterinary surgeons, in no case as a beverage, nor can the liquor be drunk on the premises.

Other than the above "No person shall, within the Province of Ontario by himself, his clerk, servant, or agent, expose or keep for sale directly or indirectly, or upon any pretence, or upon any device, sell or barter, or in consideration of the purchase or transfer of any property or thing, for at the time of the transfer of any property or thing, give to any other person any liquor."

The clauses referring to private houses are very explicit, and no liquor can be kept anywhere except by licensed by licensed druggists or in private houses and if it be found that evasions of the law take place there, the right to keep it is denied the party.

Clubs or Associations of any kind are forbidden to have liquor in any hall or building, and its presence will incur the penalty and can be seized.

The death of an intoxicated person makes the supplier of the liquor responsible.

The penalties range from $50 to $300 or imprisonment for not less than two months for first offence, and from $100 to $500 or not less than 4 mos. for 2nd offence, and if the offence was committed by a licensee, his license is void.

The informant need not disclose himself, it is not necessary that he should taste the liquor (as in Scott Act). Sec. 188 provides that "any house, shop, room or other place in which it is proved that there exist beer pumps, or any other appliances or preparations similar to those usually found in hotels or shops where liquors are accustomed to be sold or trafficked in, other than those of common use in private houses, shall be 'prima facie' evidence that it is a place in which liquor is being disposed of in contravention of this act," and the occupant of the house, shop etc. will be deemed the guilty person.

Section 191 and 193 put the burden of proof on the accused or defendant. Provision is made to control corporations as well as individuals.

The powers and duties of Inspectors and other officers are very fully laid down. They must report all convictions, giving names, dates etc., every 3 months.

Section 223 repeals the present license act, so that the last word has been said as far as the parliament is concerned, and it only remains for the people to say now whether or not they desire to keep the Act on the Statute Book, placed there by their representatives.

The vote necessary to carry (if it is a majority of the vote cast) is one half the total vote polled at the election of 1898, which approximates 213000. Allowing this to be the number, and that the temperance vote reaches it the liquor vote must be at least 213001 for the measure to be defeated.

In 1894 the vote for prohibition was 192000, in 1897, 354000, so that a bigger effort has yet to be made than at any previous fight. The issue fortunately is now clear of politics and the vote will be the best index yet obtained of the true temperance strength of the country. Everyone should vote, for the man who stays at home is saying distinctly that he does not wish the Act passed by the Legislature to remain on the Statute book, though he may not feel that way.

Mark it "YES" on Dec. 4
