Hymeneal

The South Dakota Independent of recent date has a notice of the marriage of Mr. John A. Cameron, (Marion's son, formerly of Bentinck) from which we extract. The bride was Miss Victoria Kippen, "well and favorably known for a number of years and has a large circle of friends. The bridegroom is one of Botineau County's most substantial farmers and well liked by all who know him." The paper continues: "The room was decorated with beautiful flowers, roses and lilies. The bride was dressed in white silk organdy, the bridegroom wearing the conventional black.

After the ceremony, the guests present sat down to an elaborate dinner. The tables were prettily decorated with cut flowers and loaded with everything that the most fastidious epicure could desire.

A long list of presentgivers and presents, follows, which were certainly of a high class as to usefulness and value. The groom's present was an astrachan fur coat. Congratulations from the Review.

HOUSE WARMING.

On Tuesday evening of last week Mr. Geo Turnbull, S. Line, Bentinck, marked the entry into his new house by a special gathering of friends and neighbors. About 70 or 80 of these responded. The evening was opened by a prayer meeting conducted by Rev. Messrs. Farquharson, Durham, and Budge, of Hanover, assisted by Messrs. W. J. Young, and And Derby.

In the corner stone of Mr. Turnbull's fine brick residence are deposited copies of the Toronto Globe, Durham Review, Durham Chronicle, and South Reading among other documents. They were placed there by Miss Mary Ellen Turnbull a niece of the genial host, two sons, Jas. and Geo. and a daughter Mrs. McDonald joined in the festivities, which everyone enjoyed.

Prayer Meeting over, supper was served. That the viands were abundant and excellent need not be said. Mr. Charter Smith was called to the chair for a general meeting and an impromptu program gone through with. Rev. Mr. Budge gave an address and had to leave early. Mr. Young and Mr. B. Webber also gave addresses and that of the charman excelled. From the way he extolled the virtues of a Scotch plaid and what it did for him on the matrimonial line, there can be no surprise if a number of the young men take to wearing this article. The speech of the host was very entertaining. 45 years ago he had put up the old log house near by, and he could scarcely expect to have as much happiness in the fine new brick as he had in the humble log, where his family had been born and reared. Rev. Mr. Farquharson was the last speaker and ably closed that part.

Music was supplied by Miss Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. Milligan, and Mr. Jas. Mather. Only nature's instrument was used too, for Mr. Turnbull thinks nae "kist o' whistles" equal to that.

The contractors were: for mason work and plastering, Henry Enke, Elmwood, Carpenter work: Walter Burgess, Lamash, Painting: Colin McDougall, Durham. Ravestrouging: C. Parrott, Durham.

To Mr. and Mrs. Turnbull and their household we wish many happy days in the new home, until the time comes when they shall go to occupy one of the mansions in the "Father's house".

Presentation.

At the closing exercise of Latona public school on the 18th inst., Miss Grant was honored as below:

Dear Teacher, The pleasant duty has been assigned me by my school mates of presenting you with this token as an evidence of our lasting esteem, friendship and love. We could not content to part with you without leaving in your hands some memorial, however trifling of our deep and abiding gratitude for your unceasing efforts to benefit us. When in future days you look on this memento let it be a pleasant token of the school pupils. Signed in behalf of the school, Helen Coffield, Jessie Stewart, Della McAllen, Bertie Simpson, Lillian McAllen.

The articles presented were a double flower vase and two fancy cups and saucers.
