ALEX. RUSSELL
SUCCESSOR TO J. A. HUNTER.

PRICEVILLE.

Scotch Concert will be held on Jan. 2nd 1903, in Watson's Hall. The best of talent engaged for the occasion and a good time is expected.

It is with regret the trustees and ratepayers of Priceville school accepted the resignation of Miss McLeod teacher in the Junior department of our school, and as an appreciation of her faithful services she was presented with some valuable books.

Miss McLeod will be also greatly missed as organist in the Presbyterian church where she faithfully attended from time to time. She is succeeded by Miss Reilly another young lady who is qualified to fill the vacancy of Miss McLeod.

Principal Eastman, is enjoying his holidays at the parental home Meaford.

Lauchlin McMillan son of Mr. John McMillan, South Line, is home after an absence of some years in the West. Also Alex. McLean son of Hector McLean, Town Line, is home. Both intend to spend the winter months at their homes.

Messrs Nell McCannel and Archie McCouig attended the funeral of their cousin Mr Hugh McCannel, son of Mr Archie McCannel, of Burgoyne County Bruce, a couple of weeks ago.

A number from here attended the concert at Ebenezer, on Thursday of last week and report a good time.

Election matters quiet in Artemesia. Probably the old council will be elected by acclamation. Commissioner McArthur is sure to be elected again by a large vote. His late actions in fighting for the House of Refuge deserves special recognition. Consequently it will be no surprise to find John riding on the top of the poll on election day. Glenelg council is very liberal to make a present to their late treasurer Jas. Edge Esq. No doubt the venerable gentleman served his time faithfully and was worthy of a presentation by his superiors in office.

Prohibition talk is getting lower in temperature. No wonder for we are all good temperate people in Priceville although some of us for the sake of being obstinate act in opposition to prohibition, but in reality we don't mean it.

Correspondents should avoid personal insinuation and accusers erroneous accusations and so on.

We wish the compliments of the season to the Review and staff and to all numerous supporters a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. [Many thanks from Ye Editor.]

Died at her residence, South Line, Artemesia, on Thursday the 11th inst Mrs James McDougall, native of the Isle of Islay Argyllshire, Scotland, aged about 72 years. Mrs McDougall was amongst the first settlers on the South Line, Artemesia and was always a good and obliging neighbor and a good wife and mother. She will be greatly missed by the family, more especially by her aged partner, who has to fight the remaining part of life's battles in loneliness. The funeral on Saturday the 15th was largely attended. She was buried in McKinnon's cemetery, South Line, Rev Mr Matheson officiating at the house and grave.

Rev Mr Matheson will preach anniversary sermons to his old congregation at Caledon next Sunday and Rev Mr McKay, pastor of that congregation, will preach for Mr Matheson in this place same day.

John McArthur and Misses Nichol, McDonald and Grier, who were attending school at Owen Sound, are home for their Christmas vacation.

Miss Flora McMillan is engaged in Miss McLeod's place in the Junior department of our public school in this town for the year 1903.

Boothville.

A Beef ring is being organized here. A meeting at Brownville last week was addressed by Chairman, John Findlay and Geo Lothian, the latter having experience in these institutions. The required names have been secured and a butcher will be appointed soon. Mr Witters it is expected will be the man.

Mrs Gordon, of your town, attended the entertainment at the Park, and made many new acquaintances and enjoyed herself.

Not much change to report in Mr Duncan McMillan. Miss K Clark has recovered.

Blacksmith McCabe is kept busy these icy days, and he is working up a good trade as he deserves.

The entertainment gotten up by the schools of Boothville and Swinton last week in St Andrew's Church was a great success. The attendance was very large, and the sum of $32 was realized. Mr Thos Knox was chairman and Rev Mr Matheson gave an address, though the feature of the evening was the contribution by the schools. Iza Campbell, Rhena Richardson and Geo Campbell gave recitations, 3 Choruses were well rendered, hoopdrill by 12 girls and accompanying chorus was a good thing and so was the tableaux "Prayer". Boothville school contributed recitations by Jessie Eccles, Maggie Campbell, and Duncan Clark, a "Winter March" by some boys and girls, 2 duets by Emily and Mary Wilson and Bessie and Willie Weir, Chorus—"The Nest Little Clock," "Christmas" by 9 little tots, "The Absent-Minded Beggar" by 4 little boys, and Gaelic music by John L. McDonald, and Jennie and Kate McFarlane. There was also a good original composition by John McDonald.

It was indeed slippery as well as raining when Jimmy White passed through our little town on Sunday morning going westward. Give us a wedding ding dong by New Year's Jimmy.

If he, she or it, we mean the Bunesan correspondent will call for that small reward they shall certainly have it by answering a few questions in a satisfactory way.

Mr Joe Allan, of the 4th con., was in the employ of the Beaton bro., last week cutting wood. Joe is generally all smiles when in this burg.

Alex Black, Pomona, was in our town one day last week dehorning cattle. Alex is a sturdy youth and its work while you work in a hurry up way, up and down the corners.

Johnnie McMillan was in the employ of Arch McMillan last week bush whacking. Miss Mary Wilson, of Traverston, and Jessie Peters, from Haley's Corners, spent a week with friends in our burg recently.

Angus Black had a successful wood bee last week.

The young man who was presented with the baby bit by mail recently, is ready to receive any such valuable goods at any time and although he is a single man he can pass such goods to his friends. The parcel bore a Markdale stamp and was neatly done up. If the sender will be kind enough to make herself or himself known another reward much larger than the Bunesan one will be paid by the scribe.

Messrs John Welsh and Frank O'Riley inform us that the Captain had a narrow escape from being bitten by a neighbor's dog. We wout say who the neighbor was.

Miss Adeline O'Neil and Thos O'Neil are to be seen at the old homestead at present.

Election talk is very quiet in our own as yet.

Now Mr Editor we will be brief wishing you, and staff and your many readers of the Review the compliments of the season and a prosperous New Year.

Hopeville.

The vote taken on the Temperance Act of 1902 was passed here and resulted as 77 for the act and 17 against. The next excitement is the Municipal council.

George Watson retiring from the County Council and Mr S Bell grain merchant of Dundalk, has announced himself a candidate, also Mr Thos Hanburg, but Mr. S. Bell's chances of being elected is good.

For Proton township council a number of the council is giving up, including George Corbett. George Wright for some years a councillor was talked about for reeve and now we hear of him giving up. Mr Joseph McArdle's name is freely mentioned and on Mr McArdle being asked about it states that he will leave himself in the hands of his friends and it is most likely that he will be in the race with a good chance of being elected.
